Aemocratic Watchman. Bellefonte, Pa., September 15, 1922.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-The extreme heat wave which prevailed all of last week and over general over most of Centre county.

coal shipments to Bellefonte were hotel pump to get a drink while Dorvery small.

every program.

lege. After these demonstrations, the and evade hitting him. dental hygienist, Miss Grace Kelsey, Mr. Dorman was picked up and open to any one interested.

-A big field meet for Knights Templar of Central Pennsylvania will be held at State College next Thursday, September 21st, which will undoubtedly prove a gala gathering. The field meet will include the commanderies in the 10th Pennsylvania district, namely: Lewistown, Huntingdon, Philipsburg and Bellefonte. The program will include a short drill the grand commandery officers are expected to be present at the meet.

FARMER KILLED BY AUTO. Irvin Dorman Met Death on Way Home from Granger's Picnic.

Irvin Dorman, a well known Nitta-

home from the Granger's picnic, by a they ever put out. noon with a hard rain storm that was car driven by Merrill Nolan, of Hus-

And this, considering the fact that Weaver and Wolfe stopped at the old man walked on, crossing the street to -The weather last week was the right side of the road. After getabout as hot as any we have had this ting a drink Weaver and Wolfe walkyear but the movie fans were comfor- ed on, the former stopping at his table at the Scenic. The big fans home and the latter walking on to the keep the temperature down and the front of his home where he saw a Blanchard from three to five o'clock circulation up. Good pictures attract man's hat lying in the grass. A little large crowds and that is the kind further on he saw a man lying alongshown at the Scenic. Every film is as side of the road, and he called to Weanear up to the minute as it is possible ver to come to his assistance. By the to get and best releases are found on time Weaver got there a car came up the road and stopped. It proved to be The traveling dental clinic of the car driven by young Nolan and he

the State Health Department will be- told the two men that he had hit the High school building next Monday along Dorman stepped from the side will spend two months in the schools placed in the car and Nolan drove him of each of the three places. The hy- to the home of a physician who progienist is provided by the Tuberculo- nounced him dead. A close examous. Nolan then took the body home. Miss Rebecca Valentine.

An inquest was held the next day and the verdict of the jury was that Dorman had met his death as the result The Police Are Protecting School In addition to the parents a baby of an unavoidable accident. Nolan, who is a student at State College, was on his way home from the College and was driving a Buick car. From all indications Dorman had been hit on the back by the right-hand lamp and falling backwards his head hit the radiator with force enough to break his little ones while going to and from the afternoon and a big dance in the neck. Nolan ran several hundred feet armory in the evening. A number of before he got his car stopped, then turned around and went back to the scene.

The unfortunate victim of the acci--The venerable Hezekiah K. dent was a son of John and Ellen Dor-Hoy is in a serious condition at the man and was born near Snydertown home of his daughter, Mrs. Clayton on August 21st, 1875, hence was 47 Royer, on south Water street, as the years and 16 days old. He was a farresult of a fall he sustained last Fri- mer by occupation and all his life had day afternoon. Mr. Hoy was eighty- been spent within two and a half miles seven years old last February and of the place of his birth. He married naturally is quite frail. He has fallen Miss Kate Fisher and she survives, several times recently as the result with no children. He leaves, however, of weakness but always escaped in- his aged mother, who made her home jury until his fall last Friday, when with him, and the following brothers needing an officer during the night ft arm was broken in two places, and sisters: Mrs. William Vonada, of will find one at either one of the enat the shoulder and elbow. He was Zion; Mrs. Holloway Hoy, of Hublers-

Milesburg's Soldier's Monument Erect. Little Girl Falls into Cistern and Drowns. ed on Tuesday.

The statue of the soldiers monument erected by the citizens of Miles- Mr. and Mrs. George Norris, who live burg and Boggs township arrived on above Roopsburg on the Buffalo Run ny valley farmer, was run down and Monday and was placed upon the ped- road, fell into the cistern at the home killed on the state highway just below estal and draped on Tuesday. The of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hublersburg, shortly after ten o'clock firm which furnished the statue aver Lewis Marshall, last Saturday mornlast Thursday night, while on his way that it is as fine a piece of work as ing, and was dead when discovered.

The citizens of Milesburg will hold week at the Granger's pichic at Centon. Dorman was one of a par- a meeting this (Friday) evening to tre Hall and during their absence Mr. ty of six men who went from select the date and make preliminary and Mrs. Norris (Mrs. Norris being a A record in freight business at Hublersburg to Centre Hall for the arrangements for the unveiling of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall) the Bellefonte freight station of the picnic. Returning home they arrived monument. U. S. Senator David Reed lived at the Marshall home and looked Pennsylvania railroad was established in Hublersburg a few minutes after has given assurance that he will be after the stock. during the month of August. A total ten o'clock and the men all separated present at the dedication and a big of two thousand cars of outgoing and to walk to their homes. Dorman lived military display is to be a feature. In Friday but the Norris' remained as incoming freight were checked up dur- on the farm right below Hublersburg fact the committee has been assured ing the twenty-seven days, the largest and in company with Frank Weaver by military officers that five troops of to do. Saturday morning the men number ever recorded in one month. and Anthony Wolfe, started for home. cavalry will be there for the big day.

The Second of the Series of Musicales.

The second of the series of musicales given for the joint benefit of the. Bellefonte hospital and the music club will be at the home of Mrs. John Thursday afternoon, September twenty-first. Every one is cordially invited, whether the card of invitation has been received or not.

The program for the second afteralmost two hours in an effort to renoon will be especially attractive. In addition to vocal solos by Miss Mildred Locke and Mrs. Robert Walker gin a week of demonstrations in the man. That just as he was driving there will be a violin solo by Mrs. Louis Schad, piano solos by Miss Sara morning. From here, the car will go of the road directly in front of his car Smith, Miss Louise Barnhart and Miss to Philipsburg and then to State Col- and he had no time to turn to the side Rebecca Pugh Lyon. There will be a men's quartette and a double trio of women's voices, accompanied by two violins. Mrs. Louis Schad and Miss Magdalene Sunday will accompany Mrs. George P. Bible, Mrs. Ambrose sis committee from the sale of Christ- ination disclosed the fact that his neck Schmidt, Mrs. Alberta Krader, Mrs. mas seals. The demonstrations are was broken and death was instantane- Robert Walker, Mrs. Russell Blair and Children.

The Fire and Police committee of council have made a new regulation that should bring considerable relief to parents of school children, who may be concerned for the safety of their school.

An extra police officer has been engaged to patrol Bishop street between the hours of 8 and 9 a.m., from 12 to 1:30 p. m. and from 4 to 5 p. m. A electrocuted while testing electric moregular officer will be on duty on Allegheny street during the same hours. It will be the duty of these officers to keep children on the side-walks and check up on motorists who drive recklessly or exceed the speed limit. It might also be noted here that the police headquarters for night service has been changed to the Undine and accident occurred. Logan engine houses. Any person

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL. -Miss Anne Valentine is spending the month of September at Nantucket, Mass. Little Betty Norris, eldest child of -Miss Isabella Hill returned Tuesday from Norwich, Conn., to resume her work at the Bellefonte Academy. -Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galbraith were visitors in Philadelphia over Sunday, having gone down last Friday and returned home on Monday. -Miss Mary H. Linn is home from her Mr. and Mrs. Marshall spent last six week's trip across the Canadian Pacific and to Alaska, having arrived in Bellefonte Monday night.

-Miss Helen E. Overton returned a week ago from Atlantic City, to resume her work at the Academy. Miss Overton spent July and August at the Seaside Home for crip-The Marshalls returned home on pled children.

-Mrs. T. Wilson Romick and her niece, the women folks had a lot of canning Miss Miriam Smith, are spending ten days at Atlantic City, from where Miss Smith will go to Baltimore and Washington bewent out into the orchard near the house to pick some peaches leaving fore returning home.

-Miss Margaret Brockerhoff returned to Mrs. Norris and the little girl at the Philadelphia early in the week to resume Monahan's sisters, the Misses Curry, and house. The mother finally missed her her work of vocational therapeutics, a Mrs. Jacob Gross, having stopped in daughter and called to the men in the commendable work which is being carried Bellefonte on their way home from a visorchard to know if she was with them. on principally among the disabled soldiers. On learning that she was not she ran -Mrs. Charles Shaffner, of Summit, N. to the cistern and looked down and J., and her daughter, Miss Anne, are in saw her child lying face down on Bellefonte for an early fall visit, house the bottom of the cistern. Her agoguests of Mrs. Shaffner's sister and niece, nized screams brought help and it was Mrs. James B. Lane, and Mrs. John Porter only a few minutes until the child was Lyon. removed from the cistern and a phy-

-J. Miles Kephart is a guest at the Garsician summoned. The latter worked man house, having arrived in Bellefonte had been since leaving here two years ago. The cistern into which the child fell Mr. Kephart will be in Centre county inis nine feet deep and contained four definitely.

-P. M. Bennison, of Pittsburgh, was a feet of water. The top on it was in brief caller at the "Watchman" office on bad repair but it was covered over Wednesday afternoon on his way home with heavy boards, leaving only a from Howard, where he attended the funsmall space between them and how eral of his mother, the late Mrs. S. H. Betty fell through is a mystery. Bennison. The accident happened between eleven

-Mrs. W. A. Kirby and her son, William Armstrong Kirby Jr., who have been with League. was in the water not over twenty min-Mrs. Kirby's mother and sister, Mrs. Hammon Sechler and Miss Anna for the sum-Her full name was Betty Marie mer, returned to their home in Baltimore, Norris and she was a daughter of Wednesday. George and Etta Marshall Norris, be-

-Miss Mary McKee, who has been Mrs. leave tomorrow to return to Pittsburgh. Miss McKee is a daughter of Mrs. Frederick McKee, of Shady avenue, E. E., and has been at Hecla for a week.

Bellefonte hospital, expects to leave today gan, of Snow Shoe, all with the Beatty Mofor her home below Lock Haven, where she has planned to spend her vacation. Miss Alice Tate will accompany Miss Eckert, to be her guest for the week-end.

Tyrone Young Man Electrocuted -Miss Elsie Altenderfer returned to Philadelphia, Sunday, to resume her field, including Mrs. H. C. McCormick, Mrs. studies at the Philadelphia school of Osteopathy. Miss Altenderfer had been home Frank K. Lukenbach, of Tyrone, was tors at the Westinghouse plant, in street.

Pittsburgh, about three o'clock last -Daniel M. Clemson, of Pittsburgh, with Friday morning. Three thousand volts his wife, Mrs. Christine Miller Clemson, passed through his body and death spent two days in Bellefonte the early was instantaneous. Mr. Lukenbach part of the week as guests at the Brockerhoff house. They motored to Bellefonte was night foreman in the testing defrom Pittsburgh and returned home on partment and it was while in the discharge of his regular duties that the Wednesday.

-Miss Tace Kreamer, one of Johnstown's business women, spent Saturday Richard Kreamer Lukenbach was a son of Frank K. and Katherine Bul- here visiting with Mrs. Miller, both being lock Lukenbach and was born in Phil- guests of Mrs. Miller's brother, D. Wagner

-Mrs. Frank Compani is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Rachel Ammerman, of Philadelphia.

--Miss Mary McSuley is a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. John McSuley and her family, in Philadelphia.

-Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Ebe, of Pittsburgh, and their small son, were guests within the week of Mrs. Ebe's mother, Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker.

-Mrs. Grant Pifer arrived here from Wilkinsburg, Wednesday evening, called to Bellefonte by the critical illness of her father, H. K. Hoy.

-Mr. and Mrs. Stanley B. Valentine, of Syracuse, N. Y., are guests of Mr. Valentine's mother and aunt, Mrs. H. C. Valentine and Miss Mary Valentine, at their home on Curtin street.

-Mrs. Elsie Rankin Helliwell and her cousin, Miss Anna Cook, are spending three weeks at the Shore. Mrs. Helliwell and Miss Cook went east on a recent excursion to Atlantic City.

-Mr. and Mrs. James Monahan, of Cleveland, were over Sunday guests of Mrs. it to Atlantic City.

-Mrs. James A. Beaver is making her summer visit with her sister, Mrs. Thomas R. Hayes, at Atlantic City. Mrs. Atwood, who had been with Mrs. Beaver for the greater part of the summer, returned to her home in Huntingdon, Saturday.

-Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Seixas, with their two daughters and grand-child, drove Tuesday, from New York city, where he here a week ago from Germantown, for a ten day's visit with Mrs. Seixas' mother and aunt, Mrs. Charles Smith and Mrs. Wooden, at their home on east Bishop street.

> -Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Hunter and their two daughters, Mary and Henrietta, will leave today to motor to Philadelphia, where Mary will enter the Art Institute, where she will study during the winter, living the while, at the Art Student's

-Mrs. Thomas Ritter, who had been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Badger for a part of the past week, returned to her home in Lewisburg Wednesday. Miss Ruth Badger will spend next week with Mrs. T. K. Morris' "cabin" guest, at Hecla, will Ritter, expecting to motor to Lewisburg tomorrow.

-Charles R. Beatty, J. Y. Seig, Harrison Kline, Boyd Noll, Samuel Saxion. Thomas C. Shoemaker, of Bellefonte; J. A. -Miss Eckert, superintendent at the Fitzpatrick, of Milesburg, and O. P. Mortor company, drove to Pittsburgh Wednesday, in Mr. Beatty's Lincoln car, to attend the Fordson Tractor Industrial exposition being held there this week.

-A party from Williamsport and Clearman, Mrs. T. L. Painter, Mrs. S. C. Stewfor the summer, spending her vacation with art and Miss Patterson, will drive to Bellethe family at their home on east Bishop fonte today to be luncheon guests of Mrs. E. B. Callaway, at her mother's apartments in the Bush Arcade. Mrs. Painter is from Pittsburgh, but at present is visiting at her former home in Williamsport. Mrs. Callaway and her daughter, Mrs. George B. Thompson, of Alto, will entertain again tomorrow, as hostesses at the first meeting for the year, of the Bellefonte Chapter of the D. A. R.

> -Edmund P. Hayes has been in Bellefonte since Saturday visiting his mother, Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes. Edmund is assistant to the assistant manager of the Atlantic Refining Co's Pittsburgh office and it will be news to many to know that his chief is an old Bellefonte boy, C. L. Beck, a son of the late Henry Beck who was once clerk to the County Commissioners and lived in Bush's Addition. Another Centre countian in the same office is A. A. Lee, a nephew of former sheriff A. B. Lee, of Spring Mills. Mr. Hayes motored in last week with a party of American Legion men who attended the Legion convention in Williamsport where he acted as chairman of the resolutions committee. On their return trip he dropped off here to stay until next Wednesday with his mother and his wife, who has been here most of the sum-promptly carried to the home of his burg; Lewis Dorman, of Howard; John daughter where his two grand-daugh- and Edward, of Snydertown; Mrs. ters, both professional nurses, are Harry Boyer, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Adtaking care of him. Owing to his ad- am Fraley, of Nittany; Arthur, of Alvanced age and frail condition no at- toona, and Miss Sancta Dorman, sutempt has been made to reduce the perintendent of the hospital at Renofracture of his arm.

-Bellefonte Chapter No. 241, of Uniontown, grand king; Thomas

McConnell, Philadelphia, grand treasurer; Edward W. Rushton, of Wayne, grand chaplain; Robert D. Cole, of the Masonic Temple at six o'clock.

-The home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Clark, at Waddle, was the scene of a very pleasant social gathering, to be held in Bellefonte will depend last Friday evening, the guests pres- entirely on the interest taken by fartheir younger son, David Barr, of Pitin the valley; Mr. and Mrs. Carl limited to stock and implements. Bloom with their sons Gray, Glenn Household furniture, fruit and vegeand Mrs. Harvey Baisor with their two children, Nellie Eleanor and William; charge of the sale. John Clark, wife and family, all residents of the valley, and Miss Ray Bidwere served during the evening and all present had a delightful time. Mr. Clark, by the way, is spending a few days this week with friends in Altoona.

acting as a guard at the Rockview pen- something you would like to buy come understood the signal and started his itentiary for some time past, proved to the sale and you may be fortunate a bad actor on Saturday morning and enough to get it. will now have to stand trial at the next term of court for aggravated assault and battery. Bickel and family live on the corner of Lamb and Ridge streets and Saturday morning residents in that locality sent in a call for killed at the Rutland, Vt., fair last the police, claiming that Bickel was Thursday, where he was doing stunts killing his wife. The police could not as a member of a "flying circus." be located and sheriff Dukeman re- The lieutenant's mechanician and one sponded. When he arrived at the passenger, who were with him in his house the turmoil was over but he areoplane, were also killed. The lieufound Mrs. Bickel with a badly cut and tenant attempted a tail spin at a low bruised face as the result of her hus- altitude and was not able to right his band's beating. The woman was sent machine which fell to earth close to to a doctor and Mr. Bickel placed un- the fair grounds fence. Lieut. Mayder arrest and taken to jail. It was nard visited Bellefonte several years were broken. After having his in- in point of numbers, and there are so rumored that he had a still in the cel- ago, spending a night in town. Dur- juries properly dressed he sat on a many huskies among the bunch that lar for the manufacture of moonshine ing the past year or two he had been chair at the depot until the arrival of the Academy coach ought to have litwhiskey but a search by the officers engaged exclusively in commercial the Lehigh-Pennsylvania train when the difficulty in picking out a good over in two cars, as Mrs. Hagyard always failed to reveal anything of the kind. and exhibition flying.

Mr. Dorman was a member of the Royal Arch Masons, had an exemplifi- Lutheran church for twenty-five years cation of degree work on Tuesday and his pastor, Rev. Dingman, had afternoon which was witnessed by a number of officers of the Grand Chap-ton inclusion leaded to be a service which were held at his late home at 10 ter including Joseph Quimby, of Me- o'clock on Monday morning, burial be-

That Big Community Sale.

Only twelve more days until the Philadelphia, head of the school of in- date of the big community sale to be struction, and A. Crisswell Smith, of held in Bellefonte, which will be on Media, past grand high priest. The Wednesday, September 27th. While ter teams from Troy, Pa., Lock Ha- Centre county it is not an experiment. ven, Williamsport and Bellefonte, the It has been tried out in a number of visitors coming to Bellefonte in auto- towns throughout the State and in mobiles. A big banquet was held in every case proved a profitable undertaking. A similar sale held at Belleville, Mifflin county, two weeks ago

was largely attended. The success of the community sale ent being Mr. and Mrs. William Barr, mers and others. The committee in their son Eugene and his wife, and charge is already assured of a number of head of blooded stock and farm cairn, who have been visiting friends implements, but the sale will not be and Harold; Mrs. Davis Gummo, their tables, or anything you have to offer son Ray and daughter Ruth; Mrs. will be put up for sale that day. Ex-Gilbert Rice, Mrs. John Carney, Mr. perienced auctioneers have been secured while competent men will be in

As an extra inducement to come to Bellefonte that day the merchants of escape last Saturday morning. His dle, of State College. Refreshments the town will put on special sales of train was westbound on Saturday and various articles. It will not be a dol- stopped at the water tank in the Bellelar day sale but some of the bargains fonte yard for water. Ammerman offered will be more advantageous. Therefore, if you have anything you from the water tank to the tender of

Flying Parson Killed.

known as the "flying parson," was gine houses on the even hour.

Dry's Restaurant Damaged by Fire.

damaged by fire last Saturday evening, but fortunately the flames were confined to the kitchen. The fire occurred shortly before six o'clock. Mr. Dry uses a gasoline coffee percolator. ed States entered the world war he When he attempted to light the burner the flame shot up unusually high and in jerking his arm away he broke dia, grand high priest; John M. Core, ing made in the Snydertown cemetery. the gasoline feed pipe. The result was the flames communicated to the gasoline and quickly spread to the woodwork. Mr. Dry was badly burned on the face and right hand but with the employees in the restaurant quickly made his escape and sent in an alarm of fire. Both companies degree work was exemplified by chap- this sale will be an innovation for responded promptly and the Undincs to Bellefonte by motor hearse on Sunused their chemical hose through a plug and the flames were quickly extinguished.

The kitchen part of the restaurant was badly damaged by fire while the entire room was damaged by the smoke and heat the latter being intense enough to break the glass in the front door. Mr. Dry carried no insurance on his equipment but the building, which is owned by the Bush estate, is insured.

Locomotive Fireman Had Narrow Escape

E. T. Ammerman, of Tyrone, fireman on local freight on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad, had a miraculous manipulated the big pipe running want to dispose of, send or bring it to the engine and when the latter was -Arthur Bickel, who has been the community sale; or if there is filled the engineer in some way misengine before Ammerman had the pipe pulled up out of the way. The result was he was swept from the tender, falling down between it and the first car. Fortunately he did not Lieut. Belvin W. Maynard, better fall on the rails but was caught un- places of those who left and by the

some distance before the train could probably be full-handed again. be stopped.

Members of the train crew were horrified at what had happened and ed on Wednesday but it will probably expected to find Ammerman's body be several days before the final roll badly mangled but instead he was able is made up and the exact number of to crawl out from under the train. He students known. Judging from the sustained a bad cut on the head, on number of strange young men seen on the right arm and his back, while his the streets it would seem as if the atface was badly bruised, but no bones tendance will be up to that of last year he left for his home in Tyrone.

ipsburg on August 7th, 1898, hence was 24 years and one month old.

store life but without avail.

utes.

and twelve o'clock and the little girl

ing 2 years, 2 months and 2 days old.

brother, Russell Lewis, survives. Rev.

David R. Evans had charge of the funeral services which were held at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon at the Marshall home, after which burial

While Testing Motors.

Richard K. Lukenbach, only son of

was made in the Meyers cemetery.

When five years old his parents moved to Tyrone and it was there he grew The restaurant of Howard Dry, in to manhood and received his prelimitered State College for a course in studies at Syracuse University. electrical engineering. When the Unitwent to Lehigh and trained for the U. S. navy and when peace was declared he returned to State College and completed his course. After his graduation he accepted a position with the Westinghouse company and had already risen to the position of foreman in the testing department.

one sister, Miss Katherine, both of Miss Gray will resume her work in the Tyrone. The remains were brought schools of Altoona, while her mother will day afternoon and funeral services rear window with good success. Wa- held in St. John's Episcopal church at ter was also thrown in from a fire four o'clock. Rev. M. DePui Maynard officiated and burial was made in the Bellefonte Union cemetery.

Many Foreigners Leave Bellefonte.

A delegation of thirty or more foreigners, mostly Italians, with their wives and babies, left Bellefonte in a bunch on the 9:17 train yesterday morning for Tarrs, Westmoreland county, to work in the coal mines. All most of them with the American Lime | daughter.

and Stone company, and have had work regularly all last winter and during the summer. But they could not withstand the call from the coal fields now that the strike has been settled. They failed to take into consideration that their work here was mines they are lucky if they average through the month of September. four and five days a week. Most of the men who left were of the younger element and they shipped their household goods on Wednesday.

But their going will not cripple the limestone industries in this section to any extent, or for any length of time. Five men came here on Wednesday and fifteen more yeserday to take the der the car and rolled along the track end of the week the quarries will

-The Bellefonte Academy openparents in their work. The party carae

Geiss and his wife. Miss Kreamer ha been with her father, Henry Kreamer, at Centre Hall, for picnic week.

-John McKelvey, son of Rev. and Mrs. E. E. McKelvey, left early in the week for Carlisle where he has registered as a stuthe McClain block, was considerably nary education in the Tyrone schools. dent in Dickinson College. Miss Helen Later he took a course at St. Albans McKelvey will also leave this week and her College, Washington, D. C., then en- brother Blake next Monday to resume their

> -John Holt, of Fleming, left Tuesday to join a party of men from Ashland and Hazleton, to go to West Port, Ontario, Canada, for three weeks fishing. Mr. Holt has just completed his month's engagement at the Masons lodge at the Intersection, and expects to return there in November for another month.

-Mr. and Mrs. G. Oscar Gray drove to Altoona Sunday, taking with them Mr. Gray's mother and sister, Mrs. John F. He is survived by his father and Gray and Miss Frances, of State College. remain with her, it being the second winter spent there together.

-Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Harper with their two sons and Irene Freidman, left Sunday night to return to New York. Mr. and Mrs. Harper had been here for the former's two week's vacation, while Irene Freidman had spent the greater part of the summer in Bellefonte with her grandmother, Mrs. Holz, and her son Harry.

-Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fenlon went to Lansford, Pa., the latter part of last week for a visit of several days with Mrs. Fenlon's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brew. Mr. and Mrs. Fenlon and Mr. and Mrs. Brew will go together from from duty on Friday afternoon. All there to Hackensack, N. J., to attend the the men had been employed at the wedding, Tuesday evening, of their niece, various stone quarries hereabouts, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Brew's eldest

-Mr. and Mrs. Kellbaugh, of St. Louis, and their child, were in Bellefonte for Labor day, guests of Mrs. Kellbaugh's sister, Mrs. Hornbaker, who with Mr. Hornbaker are occupying an apartment in the Meese home on Logan street. After a visit of four days Mr. Kellbaugh returned home, leaving his wife and child to conregular every day, while in the coal tinue their visit with Mrs. Hornbaker

-A family party which Mrs. John Meese recently entertained at her home on Logan street, included Mr. Meese's only brother, his two sisters and a sister-in-law; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Meese, of Pittsburgh; Mrs.

Pletcher, of Howard; Mrs. Martin, of Williamsport, and Mrs. Hiram Lucas, of Howard, the latter being eighty-eight years of 22nd, at 1:30 p. m., public sale of furage. It was during Mr. and Mrs. Meese's visit to Bellefonte that their hostess celebrated her seventy-eighth birthday, her three sisters-in-law being the guests of honor on that occasion.

-Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hagyard, of Philipsburg, with their son and his family; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hagyard and their two children, and Mrs. Harry Hagyard's sister, Mrs. Minnie Clink, of Flint, Mich., stopped in Bellefonte for a short time tember 23rd. Thursday, on their way home from the Granger's picnic. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hagyard have a large dairy farm just outside of Philipsburg and are enthusiastic Grangers. Their son and his family only recently came from Michigan to join his

Bellefonte Soldiers Return from the Coal Fields.

mer.

Bellefonte's two units of the National Guard, the headquarters troop and Troop B, of the 52nd machine gun battalion, as well as Troop A, of Boalsburg, returned home last Thursday night after being on guard duty in the coal fields of western Pennsylvania since July 21st. The soldiers were scheduled to reach Bellefonte by seven o'clock in the evening but the troop train was held up by a slight freight wreck and it was after eleven o'clock when they reached Bellefonte. The soldier boys were met at the depot by the Odd Fellows band and escorted to the armory. They were discharged of the men were considerably sunbrowned but in good health; nevertheless they were glad to get home.

-Miss Virgie Bundy, one of the waitresses in Dry's restaurant, lost some clothing in the fire which damaged that place on Saturday evening. She also had twenty-five dollars-two $10 bills, four ones and a dollar in change-which went through the fire. The ten dollar bills were only partially burned but the small bills were charred into an unrecognizable mass. She took all the money to the First National bank for redemption.

At the Mary McQuistion home, west High street, Friday, September niture, tables, mirrors, carpets, oldfashioned settle and four chairs to match, three chest of drawers, two drop leaf tables, four stoves, etc.

-Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Claude G. Aikens, of State College ,and Miss Ruth Elizabeth Townsend, of Harrisburg, the wedding to take place Saturday, Sep-

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co. New Wheat Rye, per bushel, Corn - - - - -191 .35 Oats Barley, per bushel