JACKSONVILLE.

The rain on Saturday and Sunday filled many farmer's hearts with joy and their cisterns with water.

The repairs to the Reformed church are almost completed and services will be resumed in the near future.

The box social held by the school here last week was a decided success, over thirty dollars being realized.

Harry Hoy still has a quantity of Keifer pears for sale at $1.00 a bushel for first grade and 50 cents for second.

Nutting parties are now the chief diversion in this section and many nuts are being gathered for winter use.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher and daughter Virginia, of West Brownsville, are visiting friends and relatives in this section.

James Mackey has returned from a trip to Rochester, N. Y., and the southern part of Canada, and is now content to stay here for the time being.

The Bartley family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bartley, in upper Marion township, last week, and drew together quite a large crowd. A delicious dinner was served by the ladies present.

Archibald Allison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allison, who was badly hurt several weeks ago by a vicious bull which killed his brother Reed, is recovering nicely. He is able to be around and his permanent recovery is only a question of time.

The death angel visited the William Dixon home on Tuesday of last week and called for her reward Mrs. Margaret Bechdel Craft, the aged mother of Mrs. Dixon. She was 83 years, 7 months and 23 days old and her death was the result of a fractured hip sustained in a recent fall. Burial was made at Giltentown last Friday.

LEMONT.

The new bridge is coming along slowly.

Belle Lytle is quite ill at her home, with Bright's disease.

The new piece of road between Lemont and State College will soon be ready for travel.

All the schools of College township are open and everything seems to be moving smoothly.

G. W. Williams and family spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Albon Baney, at Warriorsmark.

Christina Knepp, one of Ferguson township's hustling school teachers, spent Sunday at the home of her parents, near town.

The young people's district Sunday school meeting was held in the United Evangelical church in town and was well attended; it proved quite interesting and instructive.

Rev. A. D. Thompson and family moved from East Salem to the United Evangelical parsonage, at Houserville, the first of last week and are beginning to feel at home. It is hoped that their sojourn among us may prove very pleasant.

BOALSBURG.

Mrs. Sarah Hazel is visiting at the home of her son, A. J. Hazel.

Mrs. William J. Wagner is entertaining her mother, Mrs. H. K. Hoy, of Bellefonte, and her sister, Mrs. Shuey, of Prospect, Ohio.

Harold V. Coxey, of Altoona, and Harriet Coxey, of Pine Grove Mills, were visitors at the Coxey-Ishler home over Sunday.

There will be Communion services in the Lutheran church Sunday, at 10:30 a. m. Preparatory services Friday evening at 7:30.

Rev. Dotterer, of State College, conducted services in the Reformed church on Sunday while Rev. Stover filled the Centre Hall appointments.

Mrs. Henry Reitz and Jerry Dunkleberger left, Monday morning, for Michigan, where they will visit relatives for several weeks. Mrs. Robert Reitz, of Charter Oak, is in charge of the Reitz home during their absence.

Scrofula Most Progressive Now.

Sudden changes of weather are especially trying, and probably to none more so than to the scrofulous and consumptive.

The progress of scrofula during a normal autumn is commonly great.

It is probable that few people ever think of scrofula--its bunches, eruptions, and wasting of the body--without thinking of the benefit many sufferers from it have derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla, whose success in the treatment of this one disease alone would be enough to make it what it is, one of the most famous medicines in the world.

There is probably not a city or town where Hood's Sarsaparilla has not proved its merit in more homes than one, in arresting and completely eradicating scrofula, which is almost as serious and as much to be feared as its near relative, consumption.

Hood's Pills, the cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla, in cases where one is necessary, are gentle in action and thorough in effect.

Store Some Pumpkins.

The season for pumpkin and squash is at hand and a dozen or more should be laid away for winter use. Too many go to waste each fall. In storing the family's winter supply, any place that is dry and rather warm, such as the furnace cellar, is excellent.

Centre County Poultry Raisers Aid Penn State.

The educated hens in Centre county cannot be outdone by the fowl in the southern counties of the State. Acting through their owners, the poultry raisers of the county, they have agreed to help build a dormitory for Penn State.

According to an announcement among men of their industry, the poultrymen of Centre county have agreed to take part in the State-wide movement among men of their industry to raise a fund of $100,000 to build a new dormitory at the college.

Professor H. C. Kandel, head of the department of poultry husbandry of the college, announced that many contributions have already been received from poultrymen of this county.

A. F. Hockman, of Bellefonte, who maintains the largest hatchery in the State, has pledged $500, and Balser Weber, of Howard, another prominent poultryman, also has taken an active interest in the campaign.

The poultrymen have selected "A Nickle a Hen for Penn State" as their slogan, and they will try to raise the quota equivalent to such a sum. The fund of $100,000 to be raised by the poultrymen is to be used to build a dormitory at the college in appreciation of what the institution has done for this industry through its research and extension staff. It will become a part of the $2,000,000 fund being raised for health and welfare buildings for the institution.

Penn State Co-Eds Shine Shoes for Campaign.

"No work is too humble for me to do for my college," quote The Pennsylvania State College co-eds as they shine shoes, bob hair, shampoo and manicure, in an effort to help raise their quota in the $2,000,000 building fund campaign which is now under way.

The girls at Penn State have set themselves the task of raising $15,000 to help equip a woman's activities building, which will be provided through the campaign; and they are determined to earn as much of their quota as possible.

One brave co-ed has a novel way of earning part of her money. She is charging her dormitory mates five cents each per week for service rendered in closing windows on these frosty mornings, so permitting them the comforts of arising in warm rooms. Others are making and selling novelties of every conceivable appeal to the feminine student body from hairpins and trinkets to gowns and wraps. They are cutting down on music for their dances, and giving the proceeds to the fund; and giving innumerable "pay parties" to the 3000 or more members of the opposite sex on the campus.

PRE-HISTORIC TOWN LOCATED.

Duluth, Minn.--Working from vague descriptions of a supposedly ancient town near old copper mine workings, on Isle Royale, off the north shore of Lake Superior, William F. Ferguson, of Franklin, Pa., an archaeologist, found a series of underground dwellings which he said were the remains of a city inhabited 1,000 to 2,000 years ago.

Mr. Ferguson came out of the north country last week from his third trip with a party of six aides and departed for the east, after making known his discovery, in the hope of equipping a party to make more extensive examination of the district.

"Every one knows," Mr. Ferguson said, "that copper was mined on Isle Royale many years ago on land now covered with pine trees. The island is covered with traces of these mines and yet almost nothing has been done to explore the workings."

"No one has found any of the remains of the old mines, although there are many stories of finding tempered copper weapons. I have found several stone hammers, each supplied with thongs, and have been interested for the last three years in establishing reports that a town existed on the south side of the island."

"A writer named Gilman was authority for the report fifty years ago but his description and location were so vague that it was impossible for any one to make anything out of them."

Mr. Ferguson made his first trip in the region at the outlet of Siskiwit lake, which he said he thought tallied with Gilman's data, but there was no trace of a town. Last year he found a waterfall which he thought was the one mentioned in Gilman's report. Because of the lateness of the season, however, the explorer was unable to finish his work. On his third trip he

MEDICAL.

So Deceptive

Many Bellefonte People Fail to Realize the Seriousness.

Backache is so deceptive. It comes and goes--keeps you guessing.

Learn the cause--then cure it. Possibly it's weak kidneys. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills are so effective.

They're especially for weak or disordered kidneys.

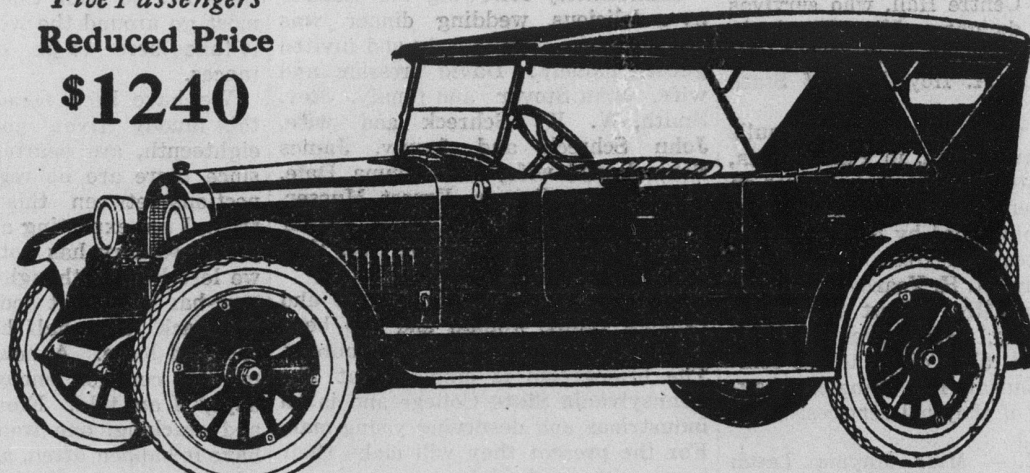

Here's a Bellefonte case. Mrs. Hahala Kreps, Phoenix Ave., says: "A few years ago my kidneys were in a wretched condition and I suffered a lot with dull, sagging backaches. At night the pains were so severe I couldn't rest. My kidneys felt too often and I had frequent spells of dizziness and headaches. I used Doan's Kidney Pills as directed and they helped me from the first. Four boxes of Doan's cured me of all signs of the trouble and I have had no return of it."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy--get Doan's Kidney Pills--the same that Mrs. Kreps had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
