

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

Hot wiener sandwiches sold by the Woman's club. Look for their stands Halloween. The Brooks-Doll Post of the American Legion will hold a three day bazaar in the armory on November 9th, 10th and 11th. The new moon last Friday brought cooler weather, but there is promise of warmer weather before winter sets in. The Woman's Guild of St. John's Episcopal church will hold their annual X-mas sale at the parish house December 5th, at 2 p. m. A hard rain storm, accompanied by thunder and lightning, passed over Bellefonte and portions of Centre county on Wednesday night. The Susanna Wesley society of the Milesburg Methodist church will hold a bazaar on Friday and Saturday, November 24th and 25th. The Bellefonte Academy football team defeated the Carnegie Tech freshmen, on their own field in Pittsburgh last Saturday, by the score of 13 to 0. A fleet of big motor trucks belonging to Harry C. Hambridge, contractor, of Philadelphia, passed through Bellefonte on Tuesday evening on their way east. The Faith Reformed church, at State College, with a student membership of about two hundred, has extended a pastoral call to Rev. Dr. E. H. Romig, of Reading. Home-made doughnuts, sandwiches and coffee sold at the Woman's club stands on Halloween at Hazel & Co's dry goods store, W. S. Katz's residence and Y. M. C. A. Paul Wrigley, of Fairbrook, engineered a surprise party for his wife last Saturday evening on the occasion of her birthday anniversary. In the neighborhood of one hundred guests were present and it proved a most delightful event. Notice to members of the Needlework Guild: All members are requested to send to their director their annual donation before November 1st. An exhibition will be held in the W. C. T. U. room November 7th, to which the public is invited. James DiSalvo, an Italian of Clarion county, was electrocuted at the Rockview penitentiary on Monday morning for killing a fellow countryman in a free-for-all fight at Catfish about a year ago. His body was buried in the penitentiary cemetery. A large crowd of alumni saw the Penn State team defeat Middlebury College, on Beaver field last Saturday afternoon, by the score of 33 to 0. Tomorrow the State team will have its first real test when it goes up against Syracuse University in New York. The students of the Bellefonte Academy will hold their Halloween dance at the Academy this (Friday) evening. It will be a costume affair and prizes will be awarded both the young man and young woman wearing the handsomest costume, the most comic and the most novel. A little son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wakefield, at Mrs. Wakefield's home in Beaver, Pa., last Friday. It has been named Henry Hice Wakefield. The Wakefields have been residents of Bellefonte about a year, making their home with Mrs. J. E. Ward, on east Curtin street. Enthusiastic coin hunters go where they have every reason to believe coins are most plentiful, and enthusiastic picture fans naturally gather where they know they can see the best motion pictures, and that place in Bellefonte is the Scenic. Patrons never miss their guess in going there as every evening's program is up-to-the-minute and worth seeing. Be a regular and see all the good ones. Henry M. Meyers, proprietor of the bus line between State College and Tyrone, has been awarded a contract to carry first and second class mail between the above two points, leaving Tyrone at six o'clock a. m., and arriving at State College at 7:15. The bus will carry both the eastern and western mail including the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh morning papers. Returning the bus will leave State College at 7:15 p. m. and reach Tyrone in time for connection with the 8:45 train in the evening. When Byron G. Harlan, the well known phonograph artist, and his own company, appears at the Garman opera house on the evening of November 3rd, he should be greeted by a large audience. Mr. Harlan is a musical artist and the additional fact that his entertainment will be given under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion gives it a strong local appeal. Local vocalists will be given an opportunity to sing for a record, the same to be reproduced during the entertainment. About 7:30 o'clock on Tuesday evening "Beany" Bathurst, of Curtin, driving Major H. Laird Curtin's Ford coupe, drove in Allegheny street and in front of Dr. John Sebring's office ran across the street into the rear of the doctor's car. A crowd quickly gathered and it was plainly evident that the driver was intoxicated. He was placed under arrest and taken before "Squire John M. Keichline who imposed a fine of fifteen dollars and costs. Neither of the cars were badly damaged.

Keep in mind the fact that there are only a few days more in which to complete your costumes for the big Mummer's parade. This feature will not be confined to Bellefonte alone, but all the surrounding towns and country are invited to join in the merry-making. The contest for the Harvest Queen is growing in interest and enthusiasm, but inasmuch as it will close at ten o'clock tomorrow evening all the friends of the various contestants should put forth their best efforts in the two days yet intervening. The standing of the various contestants up to noon yesterday was as follows: Mildred Gansallus - 2260 Anna Eckel - 1950 Helen Smith - 1925 Mary Pickle - 1635 Henrietta Nolan - 1505 The final feature of the carnival will be the costume ball to be held in the armory after the parade. This ball will be open to everybody in costume and a good orchestra has been secured to furnish the music.

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, the 3rd annual Elks Halloween parade will take place in Bellefonte, Pa., on Tuesday evening, October 31st, 1922; and, Whereas, it is the desire of all participating to properly care for the safety of the public and to make this year's carnival and parade a greater success than that of a year ago; and,

Whereas, to insure absolute safety not only to participants but to spectators, it is necessary to limit for a short time the traffic and parking privileges upon and over certain portions of our streets;

Now therefore, by virtue of and in conformity with a certain ordinance of our borough approved May 6th, 1914, I do hereby proclaim and direct that the following portions of streets be and they are hereby closed to traffic and parking privileges October 31st, 1922, between the hours of 6 o'clock and 10 o'clock p. m., viz.:

Bishop street from Ridge to Spring, Spring street from High to Howard, Howard street from Allegheny to Spring, Allegheny from Linn to Logan, High street from Diamond to P. R. R. crossing.

Certain practices indulged in previous years in the defacement of property and destruction of same will be considered disorderly conduct and the police will be directed to arrest any person whom they detect thus engaged.

The celebration of Halloween is intended to occur at the time and on the date above stated. Marking of buildings with chalk, smearing of windows with soap, and removal of property from porches will not be tolerated, and guilty parties will be arrested if discovered by the police.

It is therefore respectfully suggested that all parties cheerfully conform to the requests herein made and to the provisions of this proclamation.

By your actions make it unnecessary for any one to complain of any infractions in any way relating to traffic and parking privileges or to the commission of acts which will be regarded as disorderly.

Given under my hand at Bellefonte, Pa., this 24th day of October A. D. 1922.

W. HARRISON WALKER, Burgess, Bellefonte, Pa.

On his way home from school at noon on Wednesday James Saxion, eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Saxion, was knocked down and painfully injured on the head by a delivery truck driven by Herman Hazel. Officer Glenn witnessed the accident and completely exonerates the driver from all blame as the boy ran from the pavement directly in front of the truck. In this connection parents should warn their children of the necessity of observing greater caution on their way to and from school, as it is impossible for drivers of cars to stop dead within a few feet.

Somewhere!

Somewhere within the travel distance of the "Watchman" is a lonely, middle-aged woman looking for a home where services will be appreciated and amply rewarded. This is not a servant girl proposition. A suitable companion and helper in the home is what we want and will pay for. We are Pennsylvanians and the woman acceptable to us will consider this home her home and conform accordingly. The Central Refractories Co. Merger Has Gone Through.

The merger of the plants of the Centre Brick and Clay Co., at Orviston, the Snow Shoe Fire Brick Co., at Snow Shoe and the plants at Moxahallow, New Lexington and Newark, Ohio, has been effected to operate under the name of The Central Refractories Co. In effecting this combination all of the common stock issued on the Centre county plants has been wiped out and holders of their preferred are to be given one share of preferred 8% stock and one-half share of common in the new company for each share of preferred turned in. About 90% of the stock of the Centre county companies has already been deposited with the Bellefonte Trust Co., in this place.

The general offices of the new company will be located in the Forest building, Columbus, Ohio, and the new officers are: C. B. Young, Columbus, president; O. J. Harm, Snow Shoe, vice president; Ives L. Harvey, Bellefonte, secretary; W. W. Connell, Newark, Ohio, treasurer.

Y. M. C. A. Membership Campaign.

The membership campaign of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. launched last Friday has so far resulted in enrolling quite a number of new members but not the maximum desired. Every man in Bellefonte who has the interests of the Association at heart should join now.

The Y. M. C. A. last week demonstrated that it is a worthwhile institution. Following the men's banquet on Thursday night, which was attended by over one hundred and fifty people, the Y girls gave a playlet on Friday evening that was largely attended and which netted the association almost fifty dollars.

Saturday afternoon a large group of boys and girls enjoyed a free movie show in the gymnasium which included "A Trip to the Moon," Bobby Bumps cartoon and Harold Lloyd in "The Fortune Teller" and "The Isle of Cuba."

The members of the Senior class are getting ready for the basket ball season and are whipping a team into shape to play senior teams from other Associations and schools. Join the Y and get in on the many good things it will offer during the winter season.

Early Sunday Morning Fire at Centre Hall.

Centre Hall had a costly fire on Sunday morning when flames devoured the warehouse in the rear of the Charles M. Smith store, located in the building owned by the Centre Hall Lodge of Odd Fellows, and badly damaged the main building and all its contents. The building in question was formerly the Harper & Kreamer property, located on Main street, and was occupied by the Smith general store and John Coldren's pool room, while the residence in connection with the building was occupied by Mr. Smith and family. On the second floor was a hall occupied jointly by the Odd Fellows, the Rebekahs and the Order of the Eastern Star. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were in Chicago at the time and their two children were at the homes of friends in Centre Hall. The store was in charge of John Webber and Thomas Moore while the Smiths were away.

The fire started about two o'clock in the morning and was discovered by Will Smith and Mrs. Flora Bairfoot, when they were on top of the mountain on their way home from Bellefonte. They drove rapidly down the mountain and as they entered Centre Hall yelled "fire." Miss Helen Bartholomew was awakened by their cries and hastily donning some clothing ran down stairs, got into her car and drove through the town awakening the firemen.

The fire threatened the destruction of the entire building and an appeal was made to Bellefonte for help. The Undines responded with their pumper and hose truck, and about a dozen men. When they arrived on the scene they found the Centre Hall firemen hard at work with one stream of water who had succeeded in keeping the flames in check though they had eaten into the walls of the building and the Undines were compelled to chop holes in the building to get at the flames. They put two streams on the building and materially assisted the Centre Hall firemen in extinguishing the flames.

Paul Haag, one of the Undine firemen, was injured by a burning rafter falling on his head and was brought to the Bellefonte hospital, but his condition was not serious. A watch dog owned by Mr. Smith and chained to a counter in the store, smothered to death with the dense smoke.

The loss on the building is estimated at $5,000, mostly covered with insurance. Mr. Smith's loss is estimated at $20,000, partially covered. Mr. Coldren had insurance to cover his loss, as did the Odd Fellows and Order of the Eastern Star but the Lodge of Rebekahs had no insurance.

How the fire originated is of course unknown. It started in the basement of the warehouse and the fact that there had been no fire near there leads some people to suspect incendiarism, but this is only a theory.

An Excellent Educational Program Offered to the General Public by the Woman's Club.

The Woman's club will offer a series of lectures as the program for this winter. These lectures have been made possible through the courtesy of Dean Chambers, of State College, and are as follows:

- October 30—"The Mohammedan in the Modern World."—Professor Dunaway. November 27—"The United States in the Far East."—Dr. Martin. January—"Government by Political Parties."—Dr. Tanyer. February—"What is Good Architecture."—Professor Kircher. March—Dr. Dye (English). Subject to be announced later. April—Dr. De Camp (Psychology). Subject to be announced later.

Next Monday night, October 30th, there will be an added attraction as Dr. C. J. Hollister, chief of the Dental Division, State Department of Health, will talk from 7:30 to 8 o'clock, when Professor Dunaway is scheduled.

These lectures will be given in the High school auditorium and are open to the public. The business meetings of the Club will be held at another time that they may not interfere with the educational program and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance throughout the course.

Win State Scholarships.

Winners of the McAllister scholarships at The Pennsylvania State College have been announced by Dean A. R. Warnock, dean of men at that institution. This honor is given each year to one Freshman student from each of the five Pennsylvania counties that send the largest number of students to Penn State in ratio to the county's population. The winners this year are: Oscar R. Fleck, of Altoona, for Blair county; D. P. Donovan, Emporium, for Cameron county; Paul E. Coxey, of Boalsburg, for Centre county; Lloyd S. Bowman, of Halifax, for Dauphin county, and Dorothy Price, of Meshoppen, for Wyoming county.

Child Killed at Philipsburg.

Frederick T. Long, eighteen months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Long, of Philipsburg, was run down by an automobile driven by Mrs. Jack Walin, last Friday afternoon, and injured so badly that he died at the Cottage State hospital without regaining consciousness. The child had gone out onto the street while its mother had gone to feed her chickens and ran in front of the automobile just as it rounded a street corner. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

—W. A. Collins, of Pine Grove Mills, transacted business in Bellefonte on Wednesday.

—Mrs. M. I. Gardner came over from Johnstown Friday, remaining here until Sunday, for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Strickland.

—Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bradley are entertaining Mrs. Bradley's mother, who possibly will be with them the greater part of the winter.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nolan returned home Saturday from Buffalo, where Mr. Nolan had been to consult specialists regarding his health.

—Mrs. A. J. Cook and her daughter, Miss Margaret, will go to Atlantic City Monday, intending to spend a part of the month of November at the Shore.

—Mrs. Alice W. Greist, of Unionville, drove to Bellefonte with friends Tuesday afternoon, spending several hours here in the shops and looking after some business.

—Marion Morrison, only daughter of Mrs. Galer Morrison, left Saturday for Philadelphia, to enter the training school for nurses, of the University of Pennsylvania.

—Mrs. Wierback, who had been in Bellefonte since August, with her niece, Mrs. Nelson A. Robb, left Tuesday to return to Pittsburgh, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Fisher.

—Mrs. Barry came up from Philadelphia last week to join the gold star mothers at the unveiling of the monument at Milesburg last Friday. Mrs. Barry then remained for a visit with friends in Bellefonte.

—Landlords M. A. Landis, of the Brockhoff house, and Lewis Daggett, of the Bush house, attended the annual meeting of the State Hotel Men's association held in Altoona the latter part of last week.

—Mrs. Susan Wooden returned to Bellefonte Saturday, from a visit with Mr. Wooden's two sisters, and other relatives, in Elmira and Sayre, having spent two weeks in northern Pennsylvania and New York.

—Mrs. Robert Morris is expected in Bellefonte this week to join Mr. Morris, at the home of his father, A. G. Morris. Mrs. Morris, who had planned to come to Bellefonte in September, was unavoidably detained in Kennebunk Port.

—Dr. J. L. Selbert, medical inspector for Centre county, attended a meeting of the District Board of Health association No. 5, composed of the counties of Bedford, Blair, Centre, Clearfield, Fulton and Huntingdon, in Altoona, on Wednesday and made an address on "The Organization and Its Purpose."

—George Waite came up from Williamsport, on Saturday, to spend Sunday with his father in this place. George Sr., has not been well for some time but had recovered so much that he ventured out on Tuesday with the result that he took a relapse and is again confined to his home on Phoenix avenue.

—L. A. Olsen and Miss Dorothy Coxey motored to York last Friday where Mrs. Olsen and daughter Helen had been visiting for two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Howard Tarbet. They were joined there on Saturday by Eugene Coxey, of Clearfield, making a little family gathering. All the visitors returned home on Sunday.

—Charles J. Girvin, G. M. Norman and Joseph H. Shaw, all of Wilmington, Del., constituted a motor party that spent last Friday night at the Bush house in this place. They were on their way to State College for the annual "Home-coming." Mr. Girvin was a '93 man and Norman was in the class of '08. The gentlemen are connected with the Iron Industries of Wilmington.

—Mrs. Morgan Reynolds returned to Bellefonte from State College, early in the week, and will occupy a part of her own house on east Bishop street. Mrs. Reynolds had been with her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Dale, since the middle of June, the attraction for the prolonged visit being Eleanor Louise, Mrs. Dale's eight week old daughter. Mrs. Dale is well known in Bellefonte as Miss Claire Reynolds.

—Mrs. Clayton Clarence Johnson, who will be better remembered by her Bellefonte friends as Miss Jennie Crittenden, prior to her marriage a few years ago, has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Curtin, at Curtin, the past week and spent a portion of her time calling on old Bellefonte friends. It has been six years since she visited Bellefonte and naturally she was impressed with the changes that have taken place in that length of time.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Williams, of Westfield, N. J., spent from Thursday until Sunday in Bellefonte visiting Mrs. Williams' mother, Mrs. George Williams, and other friends. Mr. Williams, who is purchasing agent for the Central Railroad of New Jersey, has a month's leave of absence and he and his wife are spending the time motoring, their ultimate destination being Staunton, Va., where their son Frederick is a student in the Staunton military academy.

—Mrs. L. J. James, who came north from Florida in August, for a visit with the home-folk, left early in the week for New Cumberland, expecting to return south from there, to her home in Lake Helen, where through her northern energy and efficiency she is a factor in all public movements of the town. Mrs. James' time north was spent at her former home at Unionville, with her sister, Mrs. John Rumberger, at DuBois, and with her brother, John Brugger, at Johnstown.

—Miss Anna McCoy was hostess on a drive to Lewistown Saturday, her guests being Miss Lyon, Miss Hill, Miss Blanchard and Miss Linn. The party went over to attend the first meeting of the season, of the Lewistown Music club. The president of the State federation, and representatives from a number of the Clubs throughout central Pennsylvania, were guests of the Lewistown women at a luncheon given at the Carlisle tea room and later at a musical in their studio in the Y. M. C. A. building.

—Among the old timers who spent a few days last week visiting Bellefonte friends was Hayes Schreyer, of Wilmington, Del. Owing to the fact that he left here thirty-seven years ago and his last trip back was fifteen years ago he found only a comparatively few who knew him intimately when he used to be in charge of the Adams express office in this place. Prior to his retirement a short time ago he was chief of the claim department of the American Railway Express company, with headquarters in Philadelphia, but he now lives at Wilmington with his son George and family and is taking life easy.

—John Love, of Altoona, was an over Sunday guest of his brother and other relatives in Bellefonte.

—Edward Doll, of Altoona, and his small son, were in Bellefonte Saturday and Sunday, on a short visit with Mr. Doll's mother, Mrs. Louis Doll.

—Miss Ruth Waite and her brother Gilbert were in Johnstown within the past week, having gone over to attend the wedding of their brother John.

—Miss Helene Williams, Miss Katherine Allison and Cecil Walker will be among those from Bellefonte who will go to Williamsport Monday night for the Schuman Heink concert, to be given there in the Majestic theatre. The party will drive down in Miss Williams' new Nash car.

—Mrs. Dorsey Hunter, Mrs. David R. Evans, Mrs. Sutherland, Miss Hoy, Miss Linn, Miss Mitchell, Miss McCoy and Miss Anna Cook represented the Presbyterian church of Bellefonte at the missionary meeting of the Huntingdon district, held at Centre Hall, Thursday of last week.

—J. T. Merryman, for a number of years section boss on the P. R. R. of the upper Bald Eagle valley, and one of its best known citizens, moved with his family, Tuesday, to his new home near Milesburg. Mr. Merryman bought the Bierly place of six acres, a mile or more north of Milesburg, and will now make that his home.

—Miss Hibbs and Mrs. Morrow, both cousins of Mrs. E. H. Richard, and who have been Mr. and Mrs. Richard's guests, will leave Wednesday to return to their homes in Norristown and Philadelphia. Mrs. Richard will entertain for her cousins this afternoon at a tea, from three to five o'clock, at her home on Allegheny street.

—Wilbur Gray Housel came over from Altoona a week ago to spend the day at Milesburg and for a visit with his aunt, Mrs. Richard Lutz, who accompanied him to the unveiling exercises Friday. Mr. Housel spent several years as a member of his aunt's family, but is now employed in Altoona, where he is reading law in addition to his work.

—Mrs. M. B. Garman and her mother, Mrs. Lukenbach, went to Tyrone yesterday afternoon, where Mrs. Lukenbach will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Jenkins. Mrs. Garman, as has been her custom for a number of years, will visit in Tyrone for several weeks, intending to leave from there to spend the winter with her brother Charles Lukenbach, in Detroit, Michigan.

—James B. Krape has up to date sold two hundred tickets for the Bellefonte hospital card party, which cost fifty cents each, netting a profit to the hospital of $100.00. The money has been turned in to Mrs. Brouse, and Mr. Krape wishes to thank all who so generously responded. He still has some tickets out that have not been turned in, and with what have been promised will make close to another hundred tickets. This is a worthy cause, and is deserving of the attention of the public. Mr. Krape is seeing how much he can raise for the hospital.

Bellefonte Tax Payers.

Remember that October 31st is the last day to pay county and borough taxes, in order to save five per cent. I expect a better response from the tenant and single list tax payers, as the school duplicates show that they forgot the payment of their school tax. Remember all taxes will be collected within the time limit.
