PINE GROVE MENTION.

Ed Livingstone, of Houtzdale, spent Sunday at the St. Elmo. Mrs. Margaret Krebs is visiting relatives at Winburn this week. G. W. Louck is having a pipeless heater installed in his garage in town. Mrs. James Gross spent the early part of the week with her son at Huntingdon. J. M. Moore has accepted a good job with the Standard Oil people, in Philadelphia. Mrs. J. G. Miller departed for Cleveland, Ohio, where her mother is seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Dale were callers with friends in town, Sunday afternoon. Only a two-thirds vote was cast on Tuesday. The stay at home was about 50-50. A. C. Kepler, James A. Gummo, Charles and J. B. Goss each brought down a fat turkey. Miss Mary Swabb, of State College, spent Saturday at the home of her father, in this place. Allen Burwell, of Tyrone, is spending a few days in quest of small game and visiting his friends. Prof. Breneman and wife, of State College, spent the Sabbath at the parsonage, with Rev. J. R. English and family. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Johnson spent the early part of the week at the home of their son, A. C. Johnson, in Brushvalley. Among the sick are Miss Berenice Fleming and Mrs. Robert Reed, of the Glades, and Mrs. Paul Wrigley, of Fairbrook. Mr. and Mrs. William Johnstonbaugh, of Lemont, were Sunday visitors of the W. A. Collins home, on east Main street. Miss Lillie Dale, of Harrisburg, is spending a few weeks visiting her many friends hereabouts before the snow flakes fly. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Everhart spent Sunday at the John E. Reed home, where the aged couple are both under the doctor's care. Our townsman, W. J. Thompson, has been appointed mail clerk in the campus building at State College, and began work Wednesday morning. After a leave of absence of two months among relatives at Howard, Miss Irene Fletcher returned to the C. M. Dale home, on the Branch, Monday. Mrs. Ruth Swabb took her baby girl to the Baltimore hospital for treatment several weeks ago, but as yet there has been but little improvement. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Johnson, of Madisonburg, spent election day at the home of Mr. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Johnson, on east Main street. Cal Johnstonbaugh came over to Dr. G. H. Woods, on Monday for medical aid, and while here had a new set of grinders installed by Dr. R. M. Krebs, of our town. The many friends of Leonard Griffin will be glad to learn of his recovery in the Bellefonte hospital; he hopes to be discharged the latter part of this week. Mrs. Rachel Wilson was discharged from the Methodist hospital, Philadelphia, last week. She has lost one eye but the sight has been restored to the remaining eye. A ladies' black handbag was lost last Friday, on the Branch road, near the school house. The finder will be liberally rewarded by sending it to D. W. Thomas, State College, R. D. Mrs. Amanda Fisher, of Boalsburg, last week, while visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Stuart, at State College, took violently ill and for several days her life was despaired of; she is now slightly improved. Robert E. Reed is having a pipeless heater installed in his home at Rock Springs. G. W. Rossman has the job. Wallace Musser is also having the same kind of plant installed in his home on the Branch. Mrs. Florence Kepler Meade came over from Washington, D. C., to spend a week with her mother and sister Sara. As she is a crack shot she expects to bag her share of small game.

and woe be to the American bird if she gets a bead on it; she is sure of her meat.

Miss Emma Johnson, who recently returned from Ohio, entertained a number of the younger set at her home on east Main street, at a masquerade party, last Friday evening. The time was spent in games and music and Miss Johnson was the star actor, and the costumes unique. Refreshments were served lavishly and all present had a joyous time.

Mr. Russell Port, wife and daughter, of South Dakota, motored across country, landing here Monday. Mr. Port took Greely's advice twenty years ago and has had varied experiences as a merchant, and pushing a pencil as editor and proprietor of several newsy sheets. But climatic conditions did not suit the family and they have returned to their childhood home to spend the sunset days of their lives in old Centre county.

It is fifty-two years since Norman Dannley went west, locating in the Buckeye State, near Seville, where he is one of the substantial citizens. Mr. Dannley is visiting at the home of the well known Dannley sisters on west Main street, having arrived on Monday and is mixing business with pleasure while here, looking up old friends and relatives. While his locks are silvered he is sprightly as most men at fifty. He is a regular reader of the "Watchman."

CENTRE HALL.

The hunters are all busy—either hunting or getting ready to hunt. Next week, teacher's county institute,—a week of fun for the kiddies! Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick held services in the Presbyterian church during the week. Mr. E. M. Huyet, who was slightly indisposed for a few days, is again "feeling like himself."

Mrs. Ellen Miller and Miss Caroline McCloskey spent several days with friends in Centre Hall. A number of our townspeople spent Monday evening at the Millheim hotel, where they enjoyed a fine supper of chicken and waffles. Mrs. William B. Garis returned to her home in this place on Sunday, after a very pleasant visit of two weeks with her family, near Greensburg.

Rev. Emerson Karns, of the Methodist Home, at Tyrone, spent a few hours in our town on Saturday, on his way to Reedsville, where he preached on Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Rishel, of Liverpool, spent Monday night with friends in Centre Hall. They were enroute from Clearfield to their home. At Centre Hall they were joined by Mrs. Rebecca Romig, whom they kindly took to her home in Liverpool.

Miss Byrd Stover, of Rebersburg, held her annual recital, given by her music pupils, on Friday evening. The Evangelical church, in which it was held, was too small to accommodate all who were desirous of attending. Many of her pupils show very marked progress, both in piano and violin.

Received too late for last week. Roy Puff moved his family to Tyrone during the week. Dr. G. I. Yearick moved to Johnstown during the week. A number of our people were either in Bellefonte or Millheim on Tuesday evening. John Luse and Fred K. Carter moved their families to Williamsport this week. Miss Ruth Smith entertained a number of young people at a Halloween party on Tuesday evening. Dr. H. H. Longwell, wife and son returned home on Tuesday evening, after a pleasant trip through the New England States. Mrs. William Bradford, Elizabeth Royer, Harvey Flink and Frederic Moore attended the State Sunday school conference at Tyrone on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Rishel, of Liverpool, Pa., stopped in Centre Hall on their way to Clearfield county. They brought Mrs. Rebecca Romig with them. She will spend a week or more at the Bartholomew home.

JACKSONVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Daily, of Altoona, spent the week-end at the George Ertley home. Miss Margaret Neff, of Howard, spent the week-end with her friend, Miss Nellie Bennison. Mrs. Tillie Peck and son Ralph, of Nittany, were Sunday visitors at the R. H. Bennison home. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Rockey, of Boalsburg, and M. Vernon Garbrick, of Centre Hall, were Sunday visitors at the Joseph Neff home.

The condition of Mrs. Z. W. Hoy, of Howard, continues quite serious. Mr. Hoy is also ill, but his condition at this time is not alarming. A singing class is being organized by the people of Marion township with Irvin Fletcher, of Howard, as instructor. The course will include fifteen lessons and the tuition will be $1.25 per person, each one to pay for his or her own book. The grange hall has been secured as the place for holding the class meetings. E. E. Vonada has the affair in charge and any one wishing to join should communicate with him. This will be a good opportunity for our young people to study music and everybody who can do so should take advantage thereof.

Marriage Licenses.

William H. Stoner and Emma R. Ilgen, Centre Hall. Nerr D. Weaver and Edna M. McDowell, Axe Mann. George S. Kellerman and Mary C. Thal, Bellefonte. John R. Facer and Edna R. Parker, State College. Clarence E. Phillips, Nittany, and Zeld B. Day, Millheim.

AARONSBURG.

Robert Stover returned home from the Geisinger hospital, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Henry and a party of friends, of Milroy, spent Sunday with Mrs. Henry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. King.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey E. Crouse and Catherine Krape spent Sunday in Sunbury, where they were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hain.

Mrs. Harry Johnson, who has been an invalid for many months, is in a very serious condition, gangrene having developed. There is little hope held out for her recovery.

Friday, November 10th, will be community day here and everybody is urged to come to the public school building, to see and hear what is being done. This should be a delight to the public. Last year a goodly number of people were present but it should be a larger number this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Lohr, of Clarence, motored to town Saturday. They were accompanied by Mr. Lohr's sister, Mrs. Henry Mowery, who had been visiting the Lohr family; also her daughter, Mrs. William Nevel, of the same place. Mrs. Mowery spent two weeks among relatives, the first week of her visits being with her younger daughter, Mrs. Charles McVey, of Altoona.

Mrs. A. S. King returned home on Friday from Kermoor, where she was called by the death of her youngest brother, Robert Tubbs. Mrs. King has the heartfelt sympathy of her friends in this sad hour. To have our friends die a natural death we know, has been ordered by a hand Divine, but to be sent out of this world by a fellowman is a shock which is hard to overcome.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Finley Bell, of Englewood, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. French, of East Quoque, L. I., and Mrs. William Chambers, of Bellefonte, spent Monday with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hull. On Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Patton, also a nephew and niece, and Mrs. C. C. Bell, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Hull, motored to the village, bringing with them Miss Jennie Hull, who had been visiting among relatives in their town, Huntingdon.

The "Watchman" gives all the news while it is news.

BOALSBURG.

Leonidas Mothersbaugh returned, Tuesday, from a week's visit in Crafton.

Mr. Long and family, of State College, moved into the Bricker house, on Main street.

Miss Nelle Holter, of Howard, spent the past week at the home of Charles Mothersbaugh.

Miss Blanche Rowe came up from Harrisburg on Saturday for a short visit with her parents.

Prof. Kauffman attended a special meeting of the P. O. S. of A., at State College on Friday evening.

Mrs. Kellerman and sons, of State College, were callers at the home of William Meyers, on Sunday.

Mrs. Kauffman, of Trenton, N. J., recently visited her husband, Prof. Kauffman, at the Jacob Meyer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Tennis, of Sinking Valley, were guests at the home of their son, William Tennis, last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Gearhart and children, of Linden Hall, spent Wednesday at the home of Charles Segner.

Theodore Segner and sisters, Misses Mary and Rachel, drove to Bellefonte Saturday and Sunday, Miss Mary being under the care of an eye specialist.

The new house on the William Stuart farm is under roof and contractor William Stover and assistants are working busily to complete the house as soon as possible.

Mrs. Newton Yarnell, of Beaver-town, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. Rowe. Mr. and Mrs. Rowe and Mrs.

Yarnell spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Andrew Gregg, in Altoona.

Keep the Kidneys Well

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Bellefonte People Know How to Save It.

Many Bellefonte people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Weak kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health—the slightest delay is dangerous. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has helped thousands of kidney sufferers. Here is a Bellefonte citizen's recommendation: Mrs. H. W. Raymond, Reynolds Ave., says: "About a year ago my kidneys began to weaken and I had a dull aching and soreness across my kidneys. I could hardly sweep the floor. I tired easily and had nervous headaches. My kidneys acted too often and annoyed me a great deal. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and got them at Runkle's drug store. They were the right remedy and after I had used two boxes I was relieved of the backaches and my kidneys were in good order." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Raymond had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. 67-44

Advertisement for Atlas Portland Cement. Includes logo and text: PORTLAND cement requires expensive manufacturing machinery, delicate and accurate analysis, proportioning and supervision—it is probably the most costly of all building materials to manufacture. In use on the job it is one of the most economical. To the building world it is what sugar is to the grocer—a small profit item that must depend on volume for any profit at all. Your building material dealer is actually doing your community a favor when he stocks cement—it is an essential, and as such he carries it. But because it is an essential you can enable him to continue to stock it. There are a dozen small jobs, and perhaps some big ones, where you can most economically and profitably use concrete right now. You'll be surprised how cheaply it can be used.
