CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY.

Christian Science Society, First building, High street, Sunday service 11 a. m. Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. To these meetings all are welcome. A free reading room is open to the public every Thursday afternoon, from 2 to 4. Here the Bible and Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased.

—One of the last deer shot during the season was killed by Hugh Quigley, son of Judge and Mrs. H. C. Quigley, in the woods near McElhattan, Clinton county, about four o'clock last Friday afternoon. He and several friends had been in camp there last week and were joined on Thursday by Judge Quigley and Ellis Keller. They saw very little game up until their last drive on Friday afternoon when a three pronged buck ran out within range of Hugh's gun and he was successful in bringing it down. It weighed one hundred pounds.

—Most of the borough councilmen must have been housed up on Monday evening owing to the cold weather, as only three reported for the regular meeting of council. As that number did not constitute a quorum there was no meeting. But the secretary has the authority to pay all borough employees, so they got their money in time for Christmas.

—Owing to a big freight wreck at Duncannon last Thursday, which blocked all the tracks, passenger traffic was diverted over the P. and E. and Bald Eagle divisions until the Middle division was opened some eight hours later.

—According to a compilation made in the Auditor General's office, at Harrisburg, Centre counties paid in taxes for the support of the State government during 1922 just $38,903.57.

ADDITIONAL PINE GROVE MENTION.

Tommy Glenn flitted to his new home on Gill street, State College, on Tuesday.

Al Henninger has our thanks for a generous donation of savory venison from one of the last bucks bagged on the final day of the hunting season.

State highway superintendent W. E. Hurley came up on Tuesday to see how the roads were being cleared of snow, when his Tin Lizzie got stuck in a snow bank near town and he had to be pulled out.

The yuletide season will not be a very happy one for the W. C. Frank family. Mrs. Frank is in the Bellefonte hospital, slowly recovering from an operation and little Lebo Frank is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Decker, have returned from a week's visit with his home folks in Philadelphia. His brother, Homer Decker, was the unfortunate victim of an automobile accident and is now laid up for repairs in the Jefferson hospital.

The annual shooting match will be held in this place tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon beginning at one o'clock. The prizes will be turkeys, geese and ducks and "dead shots" from State College and all the neighborhood will be here to test their skill.

The curbstone orators report that Samuel Everhart will quit the old homestead farm in the spring and Ralph Walker will take charge as tenant. The farm has been in possession of the Everhart family for over a hundred years and is one of the best in the valley.

Mrs. M. A. Goss made a misstep on the stairway at her home on Tuesday evening and fell to the bottom of the flight, sustaining several fractured ribs and ugly bruises on her face and head. She had just completed arrangements to go to Braddock to spend the Christmas season and now will be unable to take the trip.

The Value of a Smile.

"The thing that goes the farthest towards making life worth while, that costs the least and does the most, is just a pleasant smile.

"It's full of worth and goodness too, with hearty kindness bent, it's worth a million dollars and doesn't cost a cent."

Proper fitting glasses will remove the frown and make it easy to smile.

Two Weeks Ahead Program.

Matinees at Scenic every day X-Mas week.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 23:

JACK HOLT and BEBE DANIELS in "NORTH OF THE RIO GRANDE." A story of son's search for father's murderer and eventually gets his man only to learn he is father of girl he loves. Also, Pathe News, Harold Lloyd Comedy and Topics.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY, DECEMBER 25 AND 26:

ALL STAR CAST in "OLD HOMESTEAD," consisting of Theo. Roberts, Harrison Ford, Geo. Fawcett, Fritz Ridgway and others. A strong attraction. Some effective, thrilling scenes. A 100% production of this play made famous by Denman Thompson. The windstorm scene equals the ice scene of "Way Down East." Don't miss this great X-Mas show. Eight reels. Also, Comedy and Pathe News.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 27 (with Matinee):

FRISCILLA DEAN in "UNDER TWO FLAGS," one of the startling plays of the year. Lauded to the skies by the critics. A play all should see. Founded on this famous story by Ouida. Also, 2 reel Sunshine Comedy. Repeated at opera house Thursday night, December 28.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 28:

CONSTANCE TALMADGE in "THE PRIMITIVE LOVER." Six reels of this dainty actress with her vampish ways, which proves she had to be treated rough by her husband to show herself how much she loved him. Real caveman stuff. Also, 2 reel Sunshine Comedy.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 29:

HOOT GIBSON in "THE GALLOPING KID," a good entertainment with action and well sustained interest, with Edna Murphy. Adventures of drifter who saves rancher's daughter and marries her. Also, 14th episode of that dandy historical serial, "IN THE DAYS OF BUFFALO BILL."

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 30:

ALL STAR CAST in "PAYING THE PIPER," a six reel drama of gay life in New York. Girl marries a rich young man who loses all. They find happiness between. Also, Snub Pollard Comedy.

MONDAY, JANUARY 1, 1923:

MARION DAVIS in "THE BRIDE'S PLAY," a six reel romance of modern Ireland which uses an ancient legend as its background when the colleen passes among the men guests and asks each one if he is one she loves best. Also, Pathe News and Harold Lloyd Comedy.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 2:

KATHERYN McDONALD in "THE INFIDEL," a six reel dramatic romance of the South Sea Islands. An actress out of a job, hating all mankind, goes to island to get revenge on missionaries and falls in love with one. Also, Movie Chats and Comedy.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 3:

HOUSE PETERS in "HUMAN HEARTS." A home drama in seven reels that has a universal appeal. The hero marries a crook who finally leaves him; he gets in jail for murder, she repents, confesses to who the real murderer is and they become reconciled. Also, 2 reel Sunshine Comedy.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 4:

BESSIE LOVE in "THE FORGET-ME-NOT." A destitute mother puts child in orphanage and later adopts boy. A human interest story with intense appeal. Seven reels. One you will like. Irene Hunt and Gareth Hughes in cast with Otto Lederer and his famous dog "Queenie." Also, Pathe News and Review.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 5:

FRANK MAYO in "WOLF LAW." A tale of an aristocratic southerner runs away believing he has killed a man. Returns later to find it false and proves he did not steal some money. Also, the fifteenth episode of "IN THE DAYS OF BUFFALO BILL," a story in itself.

OPERA HOUSE PROGRAM.

For two weeks ahead. Look it over.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 23:

ALICE LAKE in "MORE TO BE PITIED THAN SCORNED," a finely photographed 7 reel picture. Also, 2 reel Semon Comedy.

X-MAS NIGHT, DECEMBER 25:

GLORIA SWANSON in "THE GREAT MOMENT," an interesting six reel love entanglement by this excellent actress. Beautiful gowns worn by this superb woman. Also, 2 reel Ben Turpin Comedy.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 28:

FRISCILLA DEAN in "UNDER TWO FLAGS," a fine play. Also at Scenic Wednesday, December 27, matinee and night.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, DECEMBER 29 AND 30.

THOMAS INCE produces "SKIN DEEP," with Milton Sells, Florence Vidor and other stars. A pathetic melodrama. The favorite American Legion play. Matinee at Scenic.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY, JANUARY 1 AND 2, 1923.

WESLEY BARRY in "RAGS TO RICHES," a well played, well handled seven reel story that will surely please. Very amusing. Matinee at Scenic.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, JANUARY 5 AND 6:

ALL STAR CAST in "THE KENTUCKY DERBY." The greatest racing play ever made. Worth coming miles to see. Exciting, thrilling, amusing, entertaining.
