

Circulating Library Opening.

The committee of the Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., who have charge of cataloguing the library books, will have them ready for distribution by Saturday, January 20th.

The committee are much indebted to Miss Alice Wilson and Mr. Isaac Mitchell for the interest and assistance they have taken in making it possible to adjust the book club interests so that the library may be placed at the disposal of the public.

A Penn State Man—

Built the railroad up Pike's Peak. Had charge of the construction of the Union station in Washington, D. C.

Invented a special bullet for use in the world war.

Directed the production of half the T. N. T. used in the war.

Is in charge of all the electrical work in the Panama Canal zone.

Constructed the approaches to the Pennsylvania station in New York city.

Built and directed the largest emergency chemical warfare plant the world has ever known.

Planned, constructed and operates the automatic subway signal system in New York city.

Designed the electrolytic cell used in the largest chlorine plant in the world.

Is at the head of the largest engineering corporation of its kind in the world.

Directed the manufacture of nearly half of the picric acid produced during the war.

With such a record behind it the college authorities are appealing for help in their two million dollar building campaign so as to be in a position the better to carry on its good work.

"He-Men" as Character Builders.

A very nice compliment was paid in the Pittsburgh Times of Sunday, January 8th, to the splendid work that is being done by the Bellefonte Academy and other such preparatory schools in directing boys aright during the impressionable age—the fortunate character building period in their lives.

Among other things that Mr. Chester L. Smith had in his "Sport Shafts" column was the following:

"It is such he-men as Peck, athletic coach at Culver military academy, and "Sunny Jim" Marks, of Kiski, and Jimmy Hughes, of Bellefonte, who are responsible for the correct physical and mental training of our youth. And it is to their everlasting credit that the American college man is the high type of sportsman that he is."

—On Sunday night something went wrong with the furnace in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry Taylor, on Spring street, with the unfortunate result that the house became polluted with an accumulation of coal gas.

Fortunately Mr. Taylor awakened before becoming overpowered by the fumes and was able to get to the windows and open them to clear the house of the poisonous gas, but at that every one in the house had inhaled a sufficient quantity of the gas to make them quite ill. In fact, it was a very narrow escape from asphyxiation.

—The "Watchman" has received from Major William H. Hastings a menu of the meals served at the Pennsylvania soldiers' and sailors' home at Erie on Christmas day—breakfast, dinner and supper—and we'll venture the assertion that the average old soldier outside the home did not have anything better than was served at the Erie institution that day. And we sincerely hope that every man there was in shape physically to do justice to the spread.

—William Jodon, living just north of Bellefonte, is sure that the meanest man in all creation is living in this section somewhere, and he would give a good cigar to learn his identity. The individual in question stole his entire supply of meat, the pork from two nice hogs, from his smoke house one evening last week.

Church Services Next Sunday.

UNITED BRETHREN IN CHRIST.

The United Brethren church extends Sincere greeting to her friends.

The revival meetings now are on, And we invite you all to come;

Not just to hear the Miss Monroe, Who is here from Buffalo;

But to sing and praise His name Who is always just the same.

Every night at half past seven We begin our praise to heaven.

Back to God they're coming now, Humbly at His feet they bow.

Will you be among the number To be awakened from your slumber?

Or don't you feel your need of Him, But rather love to go in sin.

If you think you are a christian, We would ask, what is your mission,

Do you pray and read the bible; Love our Christ and hate all evil?

Yes, yes, to Him we will be true, And for our God we'll dare and do.

George E. Smith, Pastor.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

"We aim to serve."

Lord's day services: 9:45 Bible school; 10:45 Communion service. Reception of members on confession of faith and by letter; also baptismal service for children. 7:30 p. m. sermon theme, "The Kingly Fool."

Plans are under way for the organization of a senior Christian Endeavor society, to meet every Sunday evening at 6:30, and a junior Christian Endeavor society to meet at 3 o'clock every Sunday afternoon.

The missionary exhibit room will be ready for service in about two weeks. Miss Hoy will be in charge of this room and will teach the classes. Each class of the Bible school will have one session of study in this room during the regular period, once in nine or ten weeks.

David R. Evans, M. A., Minister.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Dr. E. A. Pyles will bring the message at the worship hour, 10:45; the pastor will speak at 7:30 on "God's Pay Day." The revival meetings will continue every night except Saturday, at 7:30. Fine interest and good attendance marked the first week.

The Bible school for all ages at 9:30. Mrs. R. S. Brouse will speak in the Epworth League service at 6:30, on her trip to the Orient.

The fourth quarterly conference will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30. E. E. McKelvey, Pastor.

—Sherman Lutz has gone to Detroit, Mich., to take a course in an automobile school in that city.

CENTRE HALL.

Mrs. James Alexander, who was quite ill, is again down stairs.

Winter is with us and the children have been enjoying the coasting and snow-balling.

On Wednesday two immense vans from Johnstown came to Centre Hall to move the Brady household goods to that city. They left here about 4 p. m.

Word came to Centre Hall on Tuesday that Jeannette Odenkirk, of Burnham, youngest daughter of R. P. Odenkirk, is quite ill with scarlet fever.

A number of the teachers in and about Centre Hall attended local institute at Spring Mills, on Friday afternoon. The kiddies enjoyed their half day off.

Rev. Alexander Scott, Methodist minister, of Williamsport, preached a very able sermon in the Reformed church on Monday evening. All the services have been good and fairly well attended.

The Value of a Smile.

"The thing that goes the farthest towards making life worth while, that costs the least and does the most, is just a pleasant smile.

"It's full of worth and goodness too, with hearty kindness bent, It's worth a million dollars and doesn't cost a cent."

Proper fitting glasses will remove the frown and make it easy to smile.

Dr. Eva B. Roan, Optometrist. Licensed by the state board.

Bellefonte every Saturday 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Rooms 14 and 15 Temple Court building.

State College every day except Saturday. Both phones. 66-42

Pinchot Appoints "a Friend" Attorney General.

Philadelphia, Jan. 8.—George W. Woodruff, of Philadelphia, a long time personal friend of and co-worker with Governor-elect Gifford Pinchot, was announced today by the Governor-elect as having been selected for Attorney General of Pennsylvania under the incoming administration.

The appointment did not come as a surprise to those who have known the intimate relations between the Governor-elect and Mr. Woodruff.

Mr. Woodruff was a classmate of Mr. Pinchot at Yale and for years has been associated with him in the national conservation movement.

During his college days he was a star athlete, having been a member of the Yale varsity football crew and track teams. He was once coach of the University of Pennsylvania football squad and originator of the famous Woodruff "guards back" play.

Mr. Woodruff was chief law officer in the United States forestry service during the Roosevelt administration. Later he was appointed assistant Attorney General for the Department of the Interior and served for a time as acting secretary of the interior. He was a member of the Roosevelt "Tennis cabinet" and at one time was United States district judge in Hawaii.

When Mr. Pinchot was appointed head of the State forestry department by Governor Sproul he took Mr. Woodruff into the department with him as chief of the bureau of land. Mr. Woodruff is a native of Susquehanna county and is fifty-eight years old.

Other appointments made by the Governor-elect included the following: Dr. Ellen Potter, Philadelphia, to be commissioner of public welfare, succeeding Dr. John Baldy, Philadelphia.

A. Nevin Detrich, Chambersburg, to be superintendent of public printing. Peter G. Cameron, Wellsboro, commissioner of banking, to succeed himself.

Major Lynn G. Adams, Scranton, superintendent of state police, to succeed himself. Dr. Clyde L. King, of Swarthmore, as Secretary of the Commonwealth.

The Governor offered to re-appoint Fred Rasmussen, of State College, but that gentleman declined a re-appointment as he will shortly become president of a Pennsylvania-Maryland joint land bank which will have offices in Harrisburg.

Art and Money Making.

The old theory that when art turns to making money, either to satisfy need or to gratify desire, it is near death is open to debate. Too many young people who have determined to devote their life to art mistrust the "world's coarse thumb" and the judgment of those who pay money for things that please them.

The first thing for any young artist or writer to understand is that he must have something to say that will appeal to ordinary human beings. If he can manage to express himself through his art and still keep a certain amount of liking for the common people and understanding of them, he needn't fear for the outcome.—Youth's Companion.

Glacier "Got a Move."

Chased by a glacier which suddenly came to activity after having been inactive for years, a trio of Minnesota geological student climbers hurriedly abandoned camp. The students went to Glacier National park to study Heaven's Peak glacier, pitching their camp 50 feet from the end of the ice wall. They were awakened by a dull rumbling and with daylight they discovered a widening crack some 200 feet back on the glacier and noted that the wall of ice was advancing. They hurriedly moved and half an hour later the ice foe had covered their camp site. The ice moved about 200 feet down the valley, advancing about one foot a minute.

Island Now Sheep Pasture.

The island of Cuttyhunk, in Buzzard's bay, is to be turned into a sheep pasture. The head of the American Woolen company is now the owner of the greater part of Cuttyhunk, and this is a new venture of his in turning the island pastures over to sheep. Neighboring islands have long been used for sheep pasturing, the animals running wild for the greater part of the year, with a little extra feeding during the winter.
