PLEASANT GAP.

Don't crack nuts all the time, eat kernels a while and rest your teeth.

We must know what's the matter before we medicate, else it will be like the shooting at the song of a bird in a tree.

If the quantity of money matters regulates price, why is it that butter and eggs are commanding such fabulous prices.

When the poor are thinking that they have the worst time in the world, the rich are also possessed with similar thoughts.

Obey the mandates of temperance and be happy. "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty" here as well as in the social world.

Collins Baumgardner and his estimable wife motored to Tyrone on Friday last, returning on Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. T. Noll entertained a five hundred party a few evenings ago. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gauth, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bilger, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Melroy, Earl and Paul Lego, Walter Wolford and Professor Treaster.

On Tuesday evening, January 16th, the ladies of Camp No. 229, P. O. of A., and the ladies of the Milesburg Lodge were royally entertained by Camp No. 231 P. O. of A., of Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Melroy entertained on Saturday evening. Three tables of five hundred were in play. The guests were Miss Mary Twitmore and Wade Evey, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gheen, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Noll, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bilger and Mrs. Henry Noll.

Our Sportsmen's Association is kept busy feeding wild turkeys and smaller game; the twenty-four inches of snow on the mountains adjacent to Pleasant Gap is driving the smaller game down into the fields of the Lee Brooks farm for subsistence.

The bachelor and maid, who are such from choice, are true philosophers. They cannot see the advantage of changing a tolerable condition for one that may be intolerable, or at least no better than their present one.

The five hundred game craze has struck us, and the question of right or wrong is a debatable subject in our community.

tainment it affords, bears no close resemblance to the motive which prompts one to take the money or valuables of another.

A sensible person of even reasonable moral strength, will not be carried into a vortex of sin that is in plain view. There must be a weak spot somewhere.

Calvin Moyer, of Freeburg, is the welcome guest of his sister, Mrs. Catherine Phillips, at her cozy home on Front street.

Mrs. Grenoble, after having spent some weeks among his children and other relatives, returned to his home in this place recently.

Squire A. S. Stover returned home Friday evening from Harrisburg, where he attended the inauguration of Governor Pinchot.

LEMONT.

Some of the roads were quite icy on Sunday. Thomas Boal, who had a bad sick spell last week, is improving.

Many of the farmers are getting ready for spring and the sales. The two oldest citizens, Robert Jackson and Ira Lyle, are quite ill.

Arthur Wasson is slowly improving and it is hoped will soon be out. Sunday brought rain and a thaw, but some of the snow is still with us.

Most of the people who have been housed up with chickenpox are out again. John Wirtz fell last week and has been confined to his home since with a sprained back.

Jared Mayes came up from Watson town on account of the serious illness of his father, J. B. Mayes. J. C. Ethers and wife are spending a few days in these parts while settling up the John Ethers estate.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fike say they have the finest daughter in town, since the Stork visited their home. Mrs. R. G. Bressler had the misfortune to fall one day last week, at State College, and has not been able to be out of the house since; it was thought for a time that she would not be able to walk again.

The sale of the property of the late John Ethers was held on Saturday and almost everything brought a good price; the farm brought $5,000 and the house and lot $2,900, both being purchased by Mr. Walker.

Mrs. Edith Sorghum and son Sterling, of Flemington, spent last week at the William Weaver home. Word has been received here that T. P. Beightol, who has been visiting his son in Philadelphia, is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Several members of the Ephraim Lucas family, who have been down with the grip, are all recovering nicely at this writing. The singing school announced in these items some time ago is now in full swing and progressing very nicely. Twenty young people are enrolled in the class.

Miss Ethel Neff, one of our township's efficient school teachers, recently purchased a player piano, and now there are delightful musical concerts most every evening at the Chester Neff home.

Most of the younger children of the Albert Orr family are sick with the measles the eldest son, Leo, who has been staying with his aunt, Mrs. Dietz, and going to the High school, is now seriously ill with the same disease.

Last week's deep snow blocked the roads in our valley so that the driver of the Bellefonte milk truck had to shovel his way through a number of drifts, while the Mill Hall truck was unable to get through for several days.

Department Will Award 100 Medals. Harrisburg.—With the co-operation of scout officials the Department of Forestry will afford 100 medals to Boy Scouts who perform meritorious protection service during the fire hazard season.

The State has been divided into ten districts and in each district ten medals will be awarded. A medal may be awarded to an individual scout, a patrol, troop or Boy Scout officials. It Didn't Do Any Good.

An earnest young West Virginian, misled by the stories of profits to be made from chicken raising, complained sorrowfully to a neighbor that his hens wouldn't lay. "Feed them moonshine," suggested his friend.

A few days later the neighbor, passing the farmhouse where the boy lived, stopped to ask him how the experiment was working. "The hens are layin' fine," the boy told him, as gloomily as ever. "But paw has took to suckin' the eggs."—Life.

Love's Young Dream. They were talking together under the shaded lights in the conservatory. "Mabel," he said, "I had such a realistic dream last night. I dreamed I proposed to you, and you said 'Go to father!'"

"Yes, Harry. And what did father say?" she cooed. "Well, that part is a little hazy. All I know is that I woke up and found myself on the floor!" POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Had a Helper.

An alumni of Radcliffe was helping in the recent drive to raise money for the Radcliffe endowment fund by selling soap. She employed two small boys to take the soap to the houses of some of her friends.

Little Johnnie, with the boxes under each arm, marched up to one door and knocked. "Why are you selling the soap?" inquired the lady of the house. "To raise $3,000,000 for Radcliffe."

"Three million dollars! And are you trying to raise it all by yourself?" "No," came the quick response, "there's another little boy helping me."—Indianapolis News.

The Professor Explains. Professor's Wife—Where were you last night? Professor—Didn't I tell you I was out lecturing to a special class? "How come poker chips dropping out of your pocket?" "Let's see them!" "Here."

"Why, I lectured on blood. The red chips represented the red cells, and the white chips the white corpuscles." "And how about the blue chips?" "The blue chips represented the corpuscles of the venous blood."—The Medical Quip.

So Deceptive. Many Bellefonte People Fail to Realize the Seriousness. Backache is so deceptive. It comes and goes—keeps you guessing. Learn the cause—then cure it. Possibly it's weak kidneys. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills are so effective.

They're especially for weak or disordered kidneys. Here's a Bellefonte case. Mrs. Mahala Kreps, Phoenix Ave., says: "A few years ago my kidneys were in a wretched condition and I suffered a lot with dull, nagging backaches. At night the pains were so severe I couldn't rest."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Kreps had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. 68-4
