Nothing develops and stimulates confidence like giving the public more than they anticipate. That is what this sale has done since the opening day—Created more confidence among the careful purchasers of merchandise than any sale ever held in this part of the State. The pleasure we have enjoyed through selling hundreds upon hundreds of dollar's worth of goods the past few days has been through the people buying several times more than they anticipated because of the extraordinary savings with every purchase.

This has been the best advertisement for this sale of anything that could be done. Through that we have been encouraged to even lower prices for the balance of this sale, and that today with themers we have gained since the opening hourly from the hundreds of new custo recommendations we are obtaining day of this sale.

They in turn are sending their friends to buy a big supply, marks this sale now as the greatest opportunity ever, through the richest savings awaiting the people obtaining the choicest quality of clothing and furnishings at less than actual cost. But prices like these can only last a few more days. So come, get your share.

Week-Ahead Program

Cut this out and save for reference.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 27 (Matinee and Night):

AN ALL STAR CAST in "NOTORIETY." A story of the good girl ignored by society and idolized when name becomes stained by scandal. Had to be bad to be popular. A crackerjack seven-reel State's rights picture. Don't miss it. Also, 2 reel Snub Pollard Comedy.

MONDAY, JANUARY 29:

WILLIAM DESMOND, in "THE PARISH PRIEST," is a six reel story of hero ejects sunshine into dying mother's life by being ordained into the priesthood. A story of good folks depicting a love without a blemish. A story of our grandmother days. Also, Pathe News and Lloyd Comedy.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 30:

CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG in "ENTER MADAME," A light domestic drama that will hold your attention all through the seven reels. A story to cure a wife of roving. Excellently directed and acted. Also, Movie Chats and Press Fun.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31 (Matinee and Night):

GUY RATES POST'S famous play, "THE MASQUERADERS." A wonderful play of love, politics and gratified ambition. Eight reels you should not miss. A well played double part that holds your interest to the end. Also, Sunshine Comedy.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1:

OWEN MOORE in "REPORTED MISSING," a romantic melodrama comedy that shows a lot of high jinks aboard a schooner on the high seas. Plenty of action. H. zardous exploits with hero triumphant in the end. Also, Pathe News and Review.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2:

HOOT GIBSON in "RIDIN' WILD," One of the good ones in which you will want to see the real western stuff. Also, the first episode of the new serial, "AROUND THE WORLD IN 18 DAYS." Interesting, instructive and full of thrills. Take a trip around for 22 cents a week. See heralds for particulars.

OPERA HOUSE.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 2nd AND 3rd:

"THE OLD HOMESTEAD," the wonder play of the year. Everybody knows about it and wants to see it. Matinees at the Scenic.
