H. J. Thompson Buys the Mrs. Hiller Home in Bellefonte.

A deal was closed on Wednesday morning whereby Howard J. Thompson, of Curwensville, became the purchaser of the Mrs. Hiller property on High street, Bellefonte, next door to the Elks home. The property has been for sale the past year and several parties had made tentative offers for it. The Brooks-Doll Post of the American Legion took an option on it last fall but were unable to raise a fund sufficient to complete the purchase.

Mr. Thompson, the purchaser, is no stranger to the people of Bellefonte. as he spent several years here while superintendent of the State-Centre Electric company. He is now engaged in the coal business in Clearfield county. While no definite announcement has been made as to his purpose in purchasing the property it is rumored that an addition will be built in the rear of the first floor which will be converted into a moving picture theatre, to be operated by Mr. Thompson's brother, while the upper floors will be made over into flats for residential purposes. Of course this is only a rumor, and it remains for the future to show what will be done.

Calvert - Miller. - Announcement was made on Sunday of the marriage in Philadelphia on June 17th, 1922, of J. Norman Calvert, of Williamsport, and Miss Lucy A. Miller, a daughter of Mrs. Della Miller, of Bellefonte. The bridegroom's brother, Walter Calvert, of Philadelphia, was present at the wed-

The bride has been with the Bell Telephone company as an operator for six years. During the war she went to Washington, D. C., and entered the service as a telephone operator, remaining there three years. She returned to Bellefonte two years ago and resumed her position with the Bell people here. She has tendered her resignation and will leave the latter part of the week to join her husband, an enterprising and efficient optometrist, in Williamsport.

Brownell-Langton.-A wedding of interest to many of our readers took place in Philadelphia on Saturday, January 13th, when Miss Grace Langton, formerly of Snow Shoe, was joined in the holy bonds of matrimony to Richard P. Brownell, an internal revenue inspector, of that city. The bride taught several very successful terms in the public schools of Centre county, but left the profession about five years ago to take up business in the Quaker city. She is well and favorably known and the young couple the best wishes of numerous friends for a happy wedded life.
