Fourth in a series of Lenten sermons. Vesper service with sermon 7:30. Mid-week prayer service Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Visitors always welcome.

Special attention is called to the get-together meeting for the men of the churches of Bellefonte, to be held in the Y. M. C. A., Tuesday evening, March 13th, beginning at 6:45 with dinner. The main event of the evening will be the address by Dr. A. B. Van Ormer, of Huntingdon, on "A Challenge to Manly Men." The dinner will be fine and the address will be great.

Rev. Wilson P. Ard, Minister

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH. You are invited to join us in the hours of worship on the Lord's day. The pastor will speak at 10:45 on "The Shrine of the Heart;" and at 7:30 on "The Greatest Movement of the World." Sunday school at 9:30. Juniors, 2:30; teen agers and Epworth League 6:30. Bible study and prayer Wednesday evening, 7:30. This will be the last Sunday of this conference year. If you have any obligations for the Lord's work, kindly arrange for the same. If in arrears for this year, see the treasurer; if you have not received envelopes for the new year, then see the Unit leader. The pastor wishes to thank one and all for their expressions of kindness as expressed in the work for this year.

E. E. McKelvey, Pastor.

ST. JOHN'S REFORMED CHURCH. Services next Sunday morning at 10:45 and evening at 7:30. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. and C. E. meeting at 6:45 p. m. Special Lenten services Friday evening at 7:30.

Ambrose M. Schmidt, D. D., Minister

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH. "We aim to serve." Lord's day services:—9:45 Bible school. Classes for all ages. The Brotherhood Bible class meets at the chapel. Teachers, Col. Spangler and Rev. D. R. Evans. The men of the church will find this class a place of fine fellowship and helpfulness. Start Sunday!

10:45, morning worship. Sermon theme, "The Bush that Burned." The pastor will also give a message to the junior congregation. 6:30 Christian Endeavor society meets. Leader Thurston Smith. 7:30 evening worship with a brief inspirational message by the pastor.

Special: Sunday afternoon from 2 o'clock until 6 o'clock the every member canvass of the congregation for pledges for current expenses and benevolence. Kindly make your pledges "on the weekly basis" and in keeping with the needs of the budgets. The budgets ($6250 for current expense; and $4500 for benevolence) have been arrived at after much study on the part of the church officers. A liberal increase in the amount pledged by the membership of the congregation will help the officials inaugurate a "pay-as-you-go" plan for the church.

All the men of the church who are willing to assist in the canvass are asked to go to the chapel immediately after the morning service for a luncheon in order to conserve time and energy and enable the canvassers to secure all needed supplies in readiness for a start in this religious service at 2 o'clock sharp. Canvassers will report at the church after the evening service. Members are urged to tarry in their homes Sunday afternoon until the canvassers have called.

David R. Evans, M. A., Minister.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY.

Christian Science Society, Furst building, High street, Sunday service 11 a. m. Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. To these meetings all are welcome. An all day free reading room is open to the public every day. Here the Bible and Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased.

State College Faces Grave Financial Crisis.

Pennsylvania industry, its agriculture and the thousands of friends of The Pennsylvania State College are deeply concerned in the amount of money that the Legislature will appropriate for college maintenance for the next two years. The present bill at Harrisburg allows only $1,360,000 for general college operation, a sum over half a million below what is now required for maintenance. It is said that the college cannot stand this cut and perform the work it is now doing. In part, a reduction on this scale would mean that:

PINE GROVE MENTION.

John M. Moore spent Sunday among friends at Coleville.

Mrs. Elmer Rossman spent Monday at the Will Glenn home.

Albert Corl and family spent last Friday with friends at Rock Springs.

J. A. Fortney came down from Bellwood and spent Sunday with his family here.

James Kline and Harry Williams made a business trip to Huntingdon on Monday.

The public sale of the late Mrs. Peter Corl will take place at Pine Hall, next Monday.

The wheat came from under the blanket of snow the latter part of the week looking fine.

March came in balmy and summer-like, but the usual high winds followed, with a snowfall on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Neidigh took a sleigh ride to Boalsburg last Friday and spent the day with friends.

Mrs. William Gardner and daughter Mary, of the Glades, spent Saturday at the C. C. Williams home near town.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Corl were pleasant callers at the J. H. Bailey home at Fairbrook on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Goss, of State College, were entertained at dinner on Sunday at the Dr. R. Milton Krebs home.

Fay Randolph, of this place, recently accepted a clerkship in the Frye store at State College, and likes the job very much.

George Burwell has been teaching the Shingletown school the past week owing to the illness of John Jacobs, the regular teacher.

Robert Barr returned to his home in Frankstown, last Friday, after spending several weeks with his cousin, postmaster David Barr.

The annual congregational meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

A. Stewart Bailey is nursing a sore knee, the result of being kicked by a steer while assisting Mr. Shoemaker load a car of animals for shipment.

After spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Elsie Corl, on the old home farm, Mrs. W. H. Goss returned to her home in this place last week.

Mrs. O'Bryan, who has been confined to her room several weeks with neuralgia, is now improving and hopes to be around by garden making time.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Shirk and Mr. and Mrs. Will Glenn and son Willie motored up from Boalsburg and spent Monday evening at the W. H. Glenn home.

Another farmer's meeting will be held in the old Academy building next Tuesday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. Dairying and poultry will be the subjects discussed.

Fred Williams and family, of Tyrone, and Ray Williams and family, of Lemont, were entertained on Sunday at the John Williams home on east Main street.

"The Daughters of the Desert," rendered in the town hall by local talent, last Saturday evening, proved a delightful entertainment. It will be reproduced in Boal hall, at Boalsburg, this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fishburn, of Pine Hall, spent Tuesday in town shopping and completing arrangements for their public sale. They will retire from the farm and occupy a home in State College.

While John Sweeney, of Pennsylvania Furnace, was in the act of cranking a gasoline engine on Monday the critter gave a back kick, striking him on the lip, cutting quite a gash and loosening several teeth.

The Ladies Mission Band, of Rock Springs, will give a play in the Grange hall at that place this (Friday) evening at 7:30 o'clock. The play will be repeated in the I. O. O. F. hall in this place tomorrow evening. Everybody is invited.

Among the sick are Ed. Moore, Mrs. J. H. Strouse, Mrs. O'Bryan, Mrs. C. E. Close and Samuel M. Hess. The latter has had a bad attack of pneumonia but has turned the crisis and is now on a fair way to recovery. Mrs. Fred B. Tate, who has also been ill, is now much improved.

The sharp curve in the state road east of town was the scene of another collision on Monday morning when the cars of Charles Campbell and Mr. Laird crashed together. No person was hurt but Mr. Campbell's Buick car was considerably damaged and had to be towed in for repairs.
