Rich Man, Poor Man, Beggar Man, Thief, Doctor, Lawyer, Indian Chief.

All have their troubles. The rich man has nothing on the poor man when it comes to trouble. The doctor and lawyer, as well as the beggar man and thief have their troubles. They may differ somewhat, but trouble is trouble and why trouble trouble until trouble troubles you? But if you have trouble with your eyes I am at your service and can overcome eye trouble which will help you overcome all other trouble.

No drops. Satisfaction guaranteed. Dr. Eva B. Roan, Optometrist. Licensed by the State Board.

Bellefonte every Wednesday afternoon, and Saturday 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Rooms 14 and 15 Temple Court building.

State College every day except Saturday. Both phones. 68-1

Ethics of Odd Jobbers.

That a code of ethics exists among men of all work was discovered recently by a Woodlawn householder who hired a man to beat her rugs. She had seen the man loafing on the corner and asked him if he wanted a job. He said he was a truckman, and that he received 75 cents an hour when employed. He was engaged to beat the rugs at that figure. Finishing with the rugs, the householder asked him if he would put in three or four more hours scrubbing the kitchen floor. He certainly would not, although he needed the money. That was woman's work, he said, and he did not do it even at home. His wife had to do that.—Exchange.

Canada Wars on Beavers.

Beavers have become so destructive along the St. Lawrence river that owners of islands in Canadian and United States waters have been given permission by the Dominion government to exterminate them on the Canadian side of the boundary.

An experienced trapper has been engaged for the season and will make his headquarters on Dillingham's island.

Beavers have not been seen along the St. Lawrence before in a quarter of a century. They are protected by game laws on the New York side of the river.

WASTE OF TIME AND MONEY

Why One Young Chicago Matron Has Had Her Phone Taken From the Party Line.

The inconvenience of a party line telephone was amusingly illustrated in the home of a young couple in the suburbs not long ago, relates the Chicago Journal.

The telephone instrument for some reason was located in a large closet. A hard shower came up suddenly while the six-year-old son was at kindergarten, and as it was near closing time and Bobby was all unprepared for rain his mother went to the telephone to order a taxi to call for him. Much to her annoyance, when she took down the receiver she heard unmistakable indications of a lengthy conversation; "Take a cup of sugar, two eggs . . ." but rather than lose her opportunity of putting in her call as soon as the conversation ceased she remained in the closet. Impatiently she waited, taking down the receiver at short intervals, only to hear: "Then bake in a slow oven . . ." and "No, this recipe never fails. I always use it . . ." but was finally rewarded by hearing the final "Goodbye, call me up again when we can have time for a long visit." After at last giving her order to the taxi man she emerged from the closet hot and cross, only to find that the sun was shining brightly. Ten minutes later up drove Bobby in state, all smiles and enthusiasm at his unexpected treat. That was the last straw. The telephone still remains in the closet, but the party line is no more.

POOR REWARD FOR BRAVERY

Evidently the Police in Some Parts of France Have Queer Notions and Are Not Strong on Common Sense.

Passengers on the Bordeaux-Cette express in France were saved from a holdup by a masked bandit owing to the pluck of a railroad man who happened to be traveling on the train. Feigning sleep he waited until the bandit was leaning over him. Then suddenly he pulled a revolver and covered the outlaw, who was then disarmed and arrested by the passengers. The latter were surprised to learn next day that this smart act is being rewarded by a fine of one franc and the confiscation of the revolver—the local police authorities having found nothing better to do than prosecute for the possession of firearms without a license. To this must be added a sum of about fifty francs for the legal costs of the case.

It seems that the local police who would not have caught the bandit in a score of years, have few cases in which they can prosecute and are glad to jump at every opportunity to show their zeal.

Women Won't Eat Standing.

"Women are making a howl about their rights, and they are doing right well in their efforts to be men," remarked the old grocer, "but they are not taking full advantage of their opportunities. They are smoking cigarettes and rolling their own, they have their shoes shined in regular shoe parlors, they run their own automobiles—those who have 'em—they wear wrist watches and they carry fountain pens that won't write. But they are overlooking the right to eat vertically. They refuse to stand up while they inhale their soup and imbibe their pastry. Go into these restaurants that have stand-up tables and look for a woman tackling her food in a vertical position. She just isn't. She never will be entirely emancipated until she can eat and run without getting up."

A Faithful Sexton.

"It may be questioned," says a southern man, "if important personages derive as much satisfaction from their greatness as do some lesser holders of authority that magnify their office. In my town there is an amusing old colored sexton, a most efficient one, too, who is a very odd character.

"About a month after the coming of a new minister to his church he was met in the street by an old parishioner who asked:

"Well, Moses, how is the new minister going to do?"

"Oh," said Moses, "he is gittin' him into shape by degrees."

Would Sacrifice Tooth for Dime.
Carroll had a tooth pulled and through some miraculous agency known only to mothers and fathers that tooth placed under his pillow at night had turned into a silver dime.

Not many days later Carroll presented himself at his father's office and demanded that another tooth be pulled. Upon father's refusal Carroll grew insistent and finally between sobs of grief he explained:

"Walter hasn't any kite, and kites cost 10 cents at the book store, and I wanted you to pull my tooth so I could put it under my pillow tonight, and then in the morning I would have a dime and could buy Walter a kite."

Unanimous.

In one of the towns of the Pacific coast a distinct earthquake shock was felt recently, and when the municipal building rocked perceptibly the city fathers, then in session, left without bothering about the usual formulas.

The clerk, a man of rules and regulations, was hard put to it to give his minutes the proper official tone. Finally he evolved this masterpiece:

"On motion of the city hall, the council adjourned."—The American Legion Weekly.

SUFFERED WITHOUT A GROAN

Almost Unbelievable Story of Fortitude Exhibited by Mortally Wounded Sioux Indian Brave.

American Horse—a splendid example of the Sioux, stalwart, broad-chested and imperious—had been shot through the abdomen and his intestines were protruding from the wound. But his wife hastened to him and wrapped a shawl about his middle to hold them in.

With never a word of complaint he walked the distance to a camp fire and sat down. It was some little time, says Adventure Magazine, before the surgeons tending the wounded, white and red, reached him. An operation was necessary. American Horse declined chloroform in the tepee to which he had been removed. He had his own palliative. He spoke a few words to his wife, who scuttled out and returned with a short piece of hard wood. This he thrust between his teeth; he motioned the surgeons to proceed.

During the terrible work upon him the sweat stood out upon his forehead, he bit deeply into the stick, but he uttered never a groan, nor did he flinch. As he well knew, the wound was mortal; but he insisted upon sitting up, until just before dawn, he fell back—he died as silently as he had suffered. He was man and Indian to the end.

The annals of the plains are filled with heroism, but there is no instance more striking in bare simplicity and naked fortitude than this end of American Horse, who fought the good fight and lost.

BREAKFASTS, BIG AND LITTLE

Really Makes Little Difference, Provided Requisite Amount of Exercise Is Taken.

Hearty breakfasts are recommended after being frowned on by many dietitians for long. Appetite, like conscience, was whispering the truth all the time. And those who "basely yielded and distended their rosy morning cheeks with wads of sirup-dripping buckwheat cakes and gobs of ham and eggs, went right on keeping those rosy cheeks; while the pale flowers of abstinence who niggardly and dolefully lifted to their sad mouths the breakfast provender irrigated with skim milk, grew no less pale if not more so.

One must interject distinctly here, that the robust and rosy, also made their muscular activity consume the heavy fuel their appetites demanded; for a generous breakfast should not be coddled by a whole day in an easy chair or even in a swivel one.

Eat what you like, but hike, hike, hike. "Shall I be carried to the skies on flowery beds of ease?" Precisely that is where one will be carried quite promptly by heavy meals and no exercise.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Week-Ahead Program

Cut this out and save for reference.

SATURDAY, MARCH 17:

KATHERINE MACDONALD in "WOMAN CONQUERS," a melodrama with this world-beauty star in a play that suits her, with its fine display of clothes. Also, Snub Pollard Comedy.

MONDAY, MARCH 19:

NAZIMOVA, in "A DOLL'S HOUSE," is a fairly appealing picture of six reels, founded on Ibsen's story, and those who like Ibsen and the star will like this picture very much. A story of a mother's heartbreak at leaving her children. Also, Pathe News and Harold Lloyd Comedy.

TUESDAY, MARCH 20:

DOROTHY DALTON, in "THE CRIMSON CHALLENGE," is a fairly thrilling melodrama that will give satisfaction. A story of the heroine leader of a band of cowboys destroys a gang of outlaws. A romance woven in the plot. Beautiful scenic settings. Also, Movie Chats and a Comedy.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY, MARCH 21 AND 22 (Matinee and Night):

A fine ALL STAR CAST in "THE FLIRT," one of the ten big pictures of the year. Nine reels. Eileen Percy and Helen Jerome Eddy with Buddy Meisenger do extra fine work. A fine human drama guaranteed to please all. Interest kept high from beginning to end. Be sure to see it. See what trouble a selfish girl can make. Plenty of comedy. Also, 2 reel Sunshine Comedy.

FRIDAY, MARCH 23:

HERBERT RAWLINSON, in "ONE WONDERFUL NIGHT," is a comedy drama that gives this growing artist a chance to display some good work. Also, the eighth episode of "AROUND THE WORLD IN 18 DAYS," ever interesting with its thrills.

OPERA HOUSE.

SATURDAY, MARCH 17:

WILLIAM FARNUM in "MOONSHINE VALLEY," a six reel story of marital troubles. Also, Larry Semon Comedy.

SATURDAY, MARCH 24:

TOM MIX, in "ARABIA," a melodrama with fast action. Human interest thrills and suspense make it entertaining. Also, 2 reel Buster Keaton Comedy.
