The Sunday school and congregation will present their self-denial offerings at the evening service. Special music on Palm Sunday and Easter. Easter evening the school will sing a number of hymns from the new Church School Hymnal. The public is cordially invited to all of these services.

Ambrose M. Schmidt, D. D., Minister

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The hours of worship for the first Sunday of the new conference year will be at the usual time. The pastor will speak at 10:45 on "The Coming Triumph of Christ," and at 7:30 on "The Glory of Service." Sunday school 9:30; juniors at 2:30; teen agers and Epworth League 6:30. Passion week services will be held during the week, each night, except Saturday, at 7:30.

E. E. McKelvey, Pastor.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The ancient Palm Sunday ceremonies, always so inspiring and for centuries popular throughout Christendom, will be observed at St. John's Episcopal church on Sunday at 11 a. m. The palms are blessed at the beginning of the principal service of the day, distributed to all present, then occurs the procession of the palms in commemoration of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem. The Holy Eucharist follows, Faure's beautiful anthem, "The Palms" being sung at the offertory. Other services on Palm Sunday as usual: 8 a. m., 9:45 a. m. (school), 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. (sermon, "The Sacred Heart.")

Holy week services consist of the Holy Eucharist every morning and evensong in the afternoon or evening. Good Friday, 9 a. m., 12 to 3 p. m. (preaching of the Passion), and 7:30 p. m. The Lenten fast ends at noon on Holy Saturday. Visitors always welcome.

Rev. M. DeP. Maynard, Rector.

UNITED BRETHREN IN CHRIST.

Easter Communion will be observed at the United Brethren church this Sunday morning and evening.

George E. Smith, Pastor.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

"We aim to serve."

Lord's day services—9:45 Bible school with classes for all ages and a welcome in every class. Traveling men are cordially invited to share the fellowship and inspiration of the Brotherhood Bible class which meets at the same hour.

10:45 morning worship. Sermon theme, "The Triumphal Entry;" also a message for the junior congregation. 7:30 evening worship. Sermon theme, "The Man Who Wasn't Wanted." Every Wednesday evening at 7:30 a meeting for Bible study and prayer. Come and bring your Bible and profit by these studies in the Book of Acts.

There will be a special baptismal service for children at the morning service on Easter Sunday. Parents are asked to notify the pastor of any children to be baptized at that service. Communion service and reception of members the second Sunday of April.

The treasurer's books will close the thirty-first of March. Those who desire to have their contributions for the year (January 1922 to March 31st, 1923) appear on the "Report of Contributors and Contributions" should attend to this matter before the end of this month.

Seats are all free. Acousticon service. All are welcome.

David R. Evans, M. A., Minister.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

"The Friendly Church."

Palm Sunday. Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Morning worship 10:45, "Christ as King." New members will be received by the rite of Confirmation. Vesper service with sermon 7:30. Services for Holy week as follows: Wednesday evening, "The Voice of Loving Intercession." Thursday evening, "The Voice of Divine Pardon." Friday evening (Good Friday) "The Voice of Glorious Victory." Service of Confession and Absolute preparatory to the Holy Communion. Annual congregational meeting for election of officers Sunday morning, April 8th. Visitors are always welcome at any service.

Rev. Wilson P. Ard, Minister

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY.

Christian Science Society, Furst building, High street, Sunday service 11 a. m. Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. To these meetings all are welcome. An all day free reading room is open to the public every day. Here the Bible and Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased.

A tableaux and jubilee concert will be given in St. Paul's A. M. E. church, Thursday evening, April 5th, under the auspices of one of the church organizations, the proceeds of which will go to the church treasury. Aside from the merits of the entertainment, this cause is perhaps the most worthy that comes before the public and no one should refuse to buy their tickets at twenty-five cents. A small membership of worthy colored people, who have struggled for years to keep in existence their own church, should be a sufficient appeal to every person in Bellefonte to help this cause by buying at least one ticket.

George Fultz Fatally Injured at Whiterock.

George Fultz, of Axe Mann, suffered a fatal injury while working in the Crozier quarry of the Whiterock company, at Pleasant Gap, on Wednesday morning.

A large stone that had been loosened by the frost rolled from the top of the face at which he was working and struck him on the head causing a compound fracture of the base of the skull.

He was hurried to the hospital here but didn't regain consciousness, and died at 10 o'clock that night.

Deceased was about 37 years old, was married and leaves a widow with three children, the oldest of whom is eleven. Burial will be made in the Zion cemetery on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock.

Walter Hugg Making Good.

Walter A. Hugg, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Toner A. Hugg, of Milesburg, whose musical ability is known to his many friends in this section, was given the following notice in one of the Reading city papers, clipped as follows: "Walter A. Hugg, a graduate of the Ithaca Conservatory of Music, reputed a saxophonist and clarinetist of exceptional ability, is now playing with Joe Roman's orchestra of this city. Mr. Hugg, although a stranger to Reading, has through his ability as a player of the saxophone, attracted considerable attention and has made many friends."

A Japanese tea will be given on Saturday, March 31st, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the Episcopal parish house, by the Girl Scouts, for the benefit of their camping fund.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

W. E. Stover is putting out some choice fruit trees on his farm.

A new arrival at the Clarence Cori home has been named Clarence Jr.

James Johnson is hobbling around on crutches owing to a very sore leg.

Lumberman George Huey and family fitted to Clearfield county on Monday.

Mrs. Emma Hess recently celebrated her 84th birthday anniversary by receiving the congratulations of her many friends.

Public sales continue to be the big attraction in this section. At the Carey Shoemaker sale on Monday horses sold up to $217 and cows $62.

After spending several weeks at the Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia, D. S. Neidigh has returned home, and is able to be around and on a fair way to recovery.

Rev. J. E. English will hold special Easter services at 10:30 o'clock Easter morning, while a special program will be given by the children in the Bethel Reformed church.

Easter services will be held in the Presbyterian church here at 9:30 o'clock, Easter morning, when a special program will be rendered by the Sunday school, followed with preaching services at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. Kirkpatrick.

Henry Sents, of Shingletown, took a friend out for a ride on Sunday in his Ford car and for some reason or other tried to climb a telephone pole. Both men escaped with a few minor bruises but the car was almost reduced to junk.

Mrs. Claude Witmer underwent an operation at the Bellefonte hospital last week and, according to reports, is getting along nicely. Mrs. M. A. Dreiblebis was discharged from the hospital recently and is now at her home at Circleville.

A severe wind storm passed over this section last Thursday night, blowing down trees and unroofing small buildings. Over the half of the roof on the N. E. Hess barn near Shingletown was torn off and carried thirty rods from the barn.

The Sholl gap hunting club held their annual banquet last Thursday evening at the C. E. Close home at Fairbrook. The wives of the married men and the lady friends of the single fellows were present and it proved an enjoyable time for all.

The sale totalled $2800. At the New-

in Meyers sale the best horse went at $212, while the best cow brought $160. The total for the sale was $4900. The Homer Walker sale amounted to $5800, a team of mated horses bringing $480 and cows up to $126. Across the mountain at the James McCool sale at Charter Oak, cows sold as low as $15 to $30. Four horses and a span of mules were put up but the bids were so low that none were sold. At the John Bowersox sale Plymouth Rock chickens went for $1.45 each, one man taking the entire flock. The Irvin Walker sale near here on Wednesday aggregated $2850, and the John Shuey sale at Houserville on the same day brought him $3800.

CENTRE HALL.

Spring reached us on Wednesday—an ideal day, cool but full of sunshine.

W. A. Odenkirk is operating a new Chevrolet car, purchased about a week ago.

The Ralph Homan family are all afflicted with scarlet fever, but are improving.

Mrs. Hazel Finkel spent a few hours with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Emery, on Saturday evening.

Why Does a Brown Cow Eat Green Grass and Give White Milk.

That's the cow's business. If the cow had to have glasses to help her perform this wonderful feat, we wouldn't be able to prescribe the proper glasses.

This not being necessary, we give all our time to caring for men's, women's and children's eyes so they can see the brown cow, green grass and white milk, as well as anything else.

No drops. Satisfaction guaranteed.
