To Correspondents.-No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

- Editor

Terms of Subscription.-Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates:

$1.50 Paid strictly in advance -Paid before expiration of year - 1.75 Paid after expiration of year - 2.00 Published weekly, every Friday morning. Entered at the postoffice, Bellefonte,

Pa., as second class mail matter. In ordering change of address always give the old as well as the new address. It is important that the publisher be notified when a subscriber wishes the paper discontinued. In all such cases the subscription must be paid up to date of cancellation. A sample copy of the "Watchman" will be sent without cost to applicants.

Railroaders in Whom You Might be Interested.

The following items are from the last issue of The Pennsylvania News, the interesting railroad paper published by rail-roaders at Tyrone:

James F. McCullum, formerly car distributor at Osceola Mills, has been adelphia.

now a freight brakeman on the Tyrone division, has recovered from a very serious attack of typhoid pneu-F. W. Ingram has given up his po-near Unionville. George W. Bullock has been transferred from Julian to Unionville where he has succeeded W. B. Parsons, retired, as station agent.

ing in that vicinity practically his en- ago when she was injured in a fall. tire life. He worked in various capacities on the Tyrone division prior to was almost ninety-six years old. For house, and it is as spic and span as Walker her immediate survivors inany home on the division.

miles a year, as it is estimated that cemetery. the postal planes are rapidly winging their way to the 6,000,000 mile mark.

The air mail service since its installation has cost, the report shows, Ferguson township, died on Sunday A Student's Ideas on the Betterment her heirs and assigns forever. $4,295,967.69. Much of this expense such as, repair shops, development of landing fields, and the creation of a reserve ship supply. In their flights diseases. running into millions of miles the mail pilots have carried 160,473,600 letters. rad H. Struble and was born on the of Bellefonte and the following was devises herein made to such person or That this number will increase rapidly old homestead near the present Stru- adjudged the best of those submitted: persons so controverting or disputing Parkersburg soon after midnight. is indicated by the fact that for last ble station on June 3rd, 1849, making year alone planes carried more than his age 73 years, 10 months and 19 60,000,000 of that total.

The air mail service has even comlish the fact that a mail pilot's life is up until about seven years ago when not all sunshine. More than one-third he retired and moved to State College. of the trips undertaken, 8,373, were His health failing last summer he and made in rain snow, hail or fog; 14,- his wife went to the A. B. Struble 704 trips in five years' operation were made in clear weather. Although the he passed away. He was a member of cut from 1,473 in 1921 to 573 in 1922. For this record increased skill on the part of pilots and a rigid inspection system for planes, is entitled to credit.

High School Baseball League.

cluded in the western division Hub- eran church, after which burial was lersburg, Milesburg, Howard and made in the Pine Hall cemetery. Blanchard. In the eastern division Millheim, Spring Mills, Centre Hall and State College. Spring Mills, however, dropped out because no suitable ground could be secured for a Downes, rector of St. John's Catholic home field. In the opening games Hublersburg defeated Milesburg by the score of 9 to 7; Howard won from Blanchard 6 to 4, and Millheim defeated State College 3 to 2.

John B. Payne, of Bellefonte, who organized the league, has announced that a pennant will be awarded the Catholic church, of Altoona. Survivwinning teams in each division, while George Graham, of State College, is offering a beautiful silver trophy to the team winning the county chamsisters: Daniel and James Downes, of buildings, a serious disaster could oc-third annual picnic at Hecla Park.

RUMBERGER.-Mrs. Margaret A. Rumberger, wife of George W. Rumberger, died at her home at Unionville pital, Pittsburgh, at 12:30 o'clock on at 4:30 o'clock on Monday morning. She had been seriously ill for several ness which dates back to a serious weeks with a complication of diseases breakdown about Christmas time. She due to her advanced age, so that her had partially recovered therefrom but passing away was not unexpected.

A daughter of John and Anna Bev-9 months and 8 days. Her marriage immediate cause of her death. to Mr. Rumberger took place on December 29th, 1859, in the parsonage of the old Methodist church of Bellefaith.

In addition to her husband she is ent home. survived by the following children: Mrs. John E. Brugger, of Unionville; John C., George F. and William H., of DuBois; Mrs. E. M. Griest, of Philipsburg; Harry D., of Scranton; Allen G., of Tyrone; Mrs. A. F. Holderman, promoted to a similar position at Phil- of Huntingdon, and Miss Anna Laura, at home. She also leaves two brothers, Henry and John T. Armagast, Roy Strunk, formerly of Bellefonte, both living near Hunter's park, as well as twenty grand-children and eleven great grand-children.

Funeral services were held at her late home at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon by the Methodist passition as a foreman on the Tyrone di- tor, Rev. F. W. Andreas, after which vision and moved onto his own farm burial was made in the Unionville cemetery.

HARTSWICK. - Miss Henrietta Hartswick, the last surviving member of a family long identified with the history of Stormstown, in Halfmoon W. B. Parsons, for over thirty years valley, died last Thursday night at agent at Unionville, was placed on the the home of her nieces, the Misses "Roll of Honor" on April 1st, with a Kate and Minnie Walker, in Williamstotal record of forty years and seven port. Though she had been confined months of service. He was born at to bed only two weeks her failing Julian, Pa., January 20th, 1858, resid- health dates back to eighteen months

January 18th, 1892, when he was made many years she and her sister Hannah Evans, of the Presbyterian church, ofthe agent at Unionville, which posi- kept a milinery shop at that place but tion he filled faithfully and well until after the death of her sister, or in Unionville.

John Hilliard, pumpman at Pennsylvania Furnace, Tyrone division, has charge of a pump house reputed to be one of the cleanest and most orderly one of the system. Mr. Hilliard takes a long with her two nieces mentioned in the system. Mr. Hilliard takes a long with her two nieces mentioned in the old home, her last trip, during 1921, being made by automobile. Since the death of her sister, Mrs. Mansel, she had made her home with her two nieces mentioned in the old home, her last trip, during 1921, being made by automobile. Since the death of her sister, Mrs. Mansel, she had made her home with her two nieces mentioned in the old home, her last trip, during 1921, being made by automobile. Since the death of her sister, Mrs. Mansel, she had made her home with her two nieces mentioned in the old home, her last trip, during 1921, being made by automobile. Since the death of her sister, Mrs. Mansel, she had made her home with her two nieces mentioned in the old home, her last trip, during 1921, being made by automobile. Since the death of her sister, Mrs. Mansel, she had made her home with her two nieces mentioned in the old home, her last trip, during 1921, being made by automobile. Since the death of her sister, Mrs. Mansel, she had made her home with her two nieces mentioned in the old home, her last trip, during 1921, being made by at the old home, her last trip, during 1921, being made by and grand-daughter, Magdalene C. Thompson, or either of them, deem it to the best interest of my estate to sell any of my real estate, I hereby authorize my said Trustee to make sale thereof and empower said from the older boys' of mer home; Oscar, Stewart and Edwin Myrtle Walters, Mrs. William Reed, of Johnstown, Mrs. Underwood's form and use of them, deem it to the best interest of my estate to sell any of my real estate, I hereby authorize my said Trustee to make sale thereof and empower said home with the old home, her last trip, during 1921, being made at noon dodging the showers and gave a belated afternoon p "housewifely" interest in his pump above. In addition to the Misses Five Million Miles Through the Air. of Detroit, Mich., and Harry Mansel, with a complication of diseases. She of Waycross, Ga.

Five million miles through the air; Miss Hartswick was a life-long Harnden and was born in Centre counthis is the sum total of the activities member of the Methodist church and ty on September 23rd, 1862, hence was of the air mail service of the Post- Rev. W. W. Banks had charge of the in her sixty-first year. She is survivoffice Department, since its inaugura- funeral services which were held at ed by her husband, four children, two tion May 15th, 1918, to December 31st, her late home on Sunday afternoon brothers and a sister. Burial was 1922. At the present time the air mail and on Monday morning the remains made in Oak Ridge, Altoona, on Monservice is flying on a schedule esti- were taken to Stormstown for burial day afternoon. mated to require nearly 2,000,000 in the family plot in the Stormstown STRUBLE.—Calvin H. Struble, for Store. many years a well known farmer of night at the home of his brother, A. has been for permanent improvements B. Struble, on west Beaver avenue, State College, following an illness of honorable christian man. About thirty-three years ago he married Miss Maria Reisch who survives with two brothers. A. B. and John C. Struble, both of State College, as well as one half-sister, Miss Mary B. Struble, of Erie. Funeral services B. Struble, of Erie. Funeral services and surrounding the spring. A public library would be a fine thing for ball league opened the season last church at 2:30 o'clock on Wednesday Bellefonte. Friday with several well contested afternoon by Rev. S. C. Stover, assistgames. The league as organized in- ed by Rev. J. F. Harkins, of the Luth-

DOWNES .- Michael J. Downes, a church of Bellefonte, died at the Mercy hospital, Altoona, on Sunday afteras well as his mother, living in Ty-Pittsburgh; Mrs. C. A. Butts, of Phil- cur in event of a fire. adelphia; Rev. Father William E. -The Associated Business Men Downes and Miss Catherine, of Belleof Bellefonte have named Thursday, fonte; John, Patrick and Elizabeth, of on Wednesday morning.

Harper died at the West Penn hos-

Miss Harper was the second daugh- me at any time heretofore made. ter of Jonathan and Minnie Schreyer I direct that my just debts and Harper and was born in the Garman funeral expenses be paid as soon as tor. Individual trustees, in a period fonte, the Rev. A. B. Snyder being the house, Bellefonte, where her parents may be by my executor hereinafter of thirty years, may die. Trust Comofficiating minister. For more than at that time made their home. Liv- named. sixty-three years this well known ing most all her life in Bellefonte she couple have trod the pathway of life, was educated in the public schools ($200.00), dollars, to the Bellefonte one trustee during the life of the side by side, most of the years being here, finishing at Maplewood Institute Cemetery Association, for the perpetspent at Unionville. They have had in Chester county, where she special- ual care of the cemetery lot belonging ning thirty years or more will be subtheir years of sunshine, with perhaps | ized in music for which she had an un- to me in the Union cemetery of Belletheir days of shadow and sorrow, but usual talent, through both her voice fonte, and of the graves contained the sorrows were mellowed through and piano work gaining more than or- and to be contained therein, and I dithe many years of wedded life, both dinary recognition. Later most of her rect that this legacy be free of any being spared to see their children be- time was devoted to the pipe organ, collateral or other estate tax, any tax come leading men and women in the this being continued until she left thereon to be paid out of my estate. come leading men and women in the communities in which they reside.

Mrs. Rumberger was a life-long member of the Methodist church, living a her of the Methodist church, living a her of the Methodist church, living a her to Ells- on indebtedness by him to my estate,

I direct that all indebtedness owing to make her home in Scranton with her sister. The Main Show Will be a Good One.

The Main Show Will be a Good One.

The Main Show Will be a Good One.

The Main Show, on its the time of my death, shall remain as the time of my death, shall remain as indebtedness by him to my estate,

The Walter L. Main show, on its cross, 7:30 a. m. Holy Eucharist. worth, Washington county, their pres- and the payment of the principal

> Miss Harper is survived by two sis- after his death. ters and two brothers, Miss Maude, I further direct that my daughter, to the home of her brother, on Bishop sire, without any charge therefor. street, where funeral services will be cemetery.

UNDERWOOD. - James Harrison family home at Erie on Saturday upon the following trusts, viz: morning. He was born at Renovo, Bellefonte at the home of his grandwhich attracted all who knew him.

and Jean Underwood. The remains such survivors or survivor; were brought to Bellefonte on Monday She was born at Sormstown and afternoon and taken direct to the Union cemetery for burial, Rev. David R.

ficiating. Among those who were here for the retirement. Mr. and Mrs. Parsons 1904, she went to Williamsport and funeral in addition to the family were will continue to make their home in spent the winters with another sister, Miss Edith Kinkead, Miss Harriet to the approval of my son George T. and a lot knee deep in mud. The cir-Mrs. James Mansel, but every summer Kinkead, Miss Winifred Jones, Miss Bush, and my grand-daughter, Magda- cus put out a very creditable street

> KLING.—Mrs. Emma Harriet Kling clude three nephews, Dr. C. C. Walk- died at her home in Altoona last Frier, of Williamsport; Dr. B. H. Mansel, day following an illness of some weeks was a daughter of Henry and Sarah

-Shredded wheat, 3 boxes 32c., always fresh at Weaver's Pure Food 17-1t

of Bellefonte.

some months with a complication of man class of the Bellefonte High question the validity of this will, or

Although Bellefonte is a beautiful my said will, shall cease, determine town there are some improvements and become absolutely void, and days. With the exception of two years which might be made. To safeguard thenceforth all such estates, bequests The air mail service has even compiled statistics which definitely establish the fact that a mail pilot's life is up until about seven years ago when the houses when at the cost of a few ciaries in equal shares, if more than cents it could be taken away. Some one, or in the surviving residuary houses on these alleys could be put in beneficiary, if only one. a much better and safer condition. A home for the winter and it was there new and more extensive drainage sys- the Bellefonte Trust Company, Belletem would add greatly to the health fonte, Pennsylvania, executor of this pilots were compelled to make 3,088 the German Reformed church of Pine of the town. Without impairing the forced landings, the yearly total was Hall for many years and a good, clean, town's beauty we might keep the streets in better repair and in some places trees would be greatly appreciated. The old steam heat and gas last will and testament, set my hand works, which are in a rather dilapidatand seal his 17th day of September, ed condition, are an eye-sore to many A. D. one thousand nine hundred and people. One crying need is a public twenty-one. park, which could be erected on the (Signed) I.(school building should be devoted en- Bush, as for her last will and testatirely to the grades and a new and larger building for the High school built. The play ground needs more room and more equipment. Strangers have to ask a citizen the way to their destination in Bellefonte because of each other. well known broker of Altoona, and a lack of street signs. Why not rembrother of Rev. Father William E. edy this? The street crossings are dangerous in some places and those crossings, a well as others, should be better lighted. The Lamb street railroad crossing is dangerous, because noon following a brief illness. He was the mill shuts out the view of the railsix years ago and had been a resident be very careful or there would be go to her grand-children, Mrs. Garber burned about the arms and face. of Altoona for twenty-five years. He many accidents. Many of our streets and Mrs. Thompson and her heirs. In was a member of the Sacred Heart Catholic church, of Altoona. Surviving him are his wife and two children, in him are his wife and two children, him are his wife and two children. traffic but also detracts from the beauty of the street. Because of the lack rone, and the following brothers and of fire escapes in many of the public and Trustee.

Store.

BUSH.

I, Louise T. Bush, of the borough of about the first of April her condition Bellefonte, in the county of Centre became such that her physician and State of Pennsylvania, being of ett Armagast she was born at Fill- thought it best to take her to the hos- sound mind, memory and understandmore on July 15th, 1840, hence had pital for special treatment. A stroke ing, do make and publish this my last subject to the general creditors of the reached the advanced age of 82 years, of apoplexy on Tuesday night was the will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills by thereof shall not be enforced until May 7th. Any circus bearing the the 1:27 p. m. train today and taken ural lives, or so long as they may de-held at three o'clock by Rev. Dr. A. of my estate, and property, real, per- prise. M. Schmidt, after which burial will be sonal and mixed, and wheresoever sitmade in the Harper lot in the Union uate or being, of which I shall die seized or possessed, including all indebtedness due from and payable by my son, George T. Bush, I give, devise cus business and for that reason it is Underwood, only son of J. Irwin and and bequeath unto the Bellefonte capitalized by others who are carry-Mary Kinkead Underwood, died at the Trust Company, of Bellefonte, Pa.,

I direct that after the payment of Clinton county, sixteen years ago and all annual taxes, interest on mortgage had on various occasions visited in and all other necessary and legal expenses, that the net income derived der the control of two syndicates: parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Under- from my property shall be paid semiwood, on Spring street. Although not annually to my daughter, Elizabeth H. ligan-Bowers interests. The Main encome. physically strong he was possessed of B. Callaway, and to my two sons, a cheerful and loving disposition George T. Bush and Harry P. Bush, share and share alike during their life- and good as a small circus can be. In addition to his parents he is sur-time, and to their survivors or survivived by three sisters, Martha, Edith vor of them during the lifetime of

> I direct that my estate shall remain in trust until the deaths of my daughter, Elizabeth H. B. Callaway, and my two sons, George T. Bush and Harry P. Bush:

I direct, however, that should the above mentioned Trustee and subject exhibited here yesterday ran into rain thereof: tate shall cease at the deaths of my daughter, Elizabeth H. B. Callaway, and my two sons, George T. Bush and Harry P. Bush. I then direct that my estate shall be settled and the balance shall be divided equally between my grand-children, Louise B. Garber, ingrand-children, Louise B ment of my estate, I direct that the

I nominate, constitute and appoint my last will and testament.

In Witness Whereof, I, Louise T. Bush, the testatrix, have to this my

(Signed) LOUISE T. BUSH (SEAL). Signed, sealed, published and de-The Allegheny street clared by the above named Louise T. ment, in the presence of us, who have (Signed) W. R. BRACFBILL.

17-1t by the Bellefonte Trust Company, as more real than pictures.

HARPER.-Miss Louise Garman WILL OF THE LATE LOUISE T. principal, for the benefit of the grandchildren to be paid to them after the death of the three beneficiaries. The Wednesday morning following an ill- Bellefonte Trust Company Executor real estate fund will be treated as trust funds and under the law, subject to the examination of the State

Banking Department. The Bellefonte Trust Company must invest separately in the name of Bush estate and such trust funds are not judgment in the selection of the Trust Company for her trustee and execupanies, being incorporations, never die. I give and bequeath two hundred This secures unity of managementtrusts. Other estates with trusts runject to several sets of trustees and every change will be a different man-

Trust Company. Mrs. Bush showed good business

Should a Trust Company dissolve or fail, the trust funds are untouched and 44th annual tour, will exhibit here on Main name is a drawing card in this section for the story of the wreck of Mrs. Archibald Saxe, the latter of Elizabeth H. B. Callaway, and my son, the original Main circus near Gard-Ellsworth; Jerome G., of Bellefonte, George T. Bush, shall be permitted to ner station on the Clearfield division, and Edward, of Cleveland, Ohio. The occupy their respective apartments in some thirty years ago, has been handbody will be brought to Bellefonte on the "Bush Arcade" during their nat- ed down from father to son until everybody in Central Pennsylvania feels that he or she has a personal in-All the rest, residue and remainder terest in this particular tented enter-

If our memory serves us right Walter L. Main died some years ago, but his name like those of Barnum and Bailey is still "Shibboleth" in the ciring on since he has departed to quibble with Noah as to whether he really did have a regular menagerie in the Ark.

All of the circuses in America, as we told you some weeks ago, are un-One the Ringlings, the other the Multerprise is affiliated with the former and that means that it must be clean That it is that we need but call your attention to the following from the Huntingdon, W. Va., Herald-Dispatch of the 14th inst.

The show played Huntingdon on the 13th and the Dispatch confirms our At 7:30 p. m. special musical service prediction that it will be worth seeing of organ numbers, anthems, duets and here on May 7th. here on May 7th.

The Walter L. Main circus which Trustee to give a good and sufficient though the elephants floundered round deed or deeds for the conveyance in the mud and the famous Wirth riding act was given in the ring that junior congregation, "The New Man."

The foregoing Trusteeship of my eswas a veritable muck hole their per3 p. m. Junior Christian Endeavor sotate shall cease at the deaths of my formance was not curtailed and it was ciety meeting in the church auditorter-married with Harry L. Garber, and ler. Downies' elephants were also Magdalene C. Thompson, intermarried very much in evidence and one of them service of Bible-study and prayer. with George B. Thompson: in case did a shimmie that would have sham- Read the 16th chapter of Acts. however, of the death of the said Louise B. Garber, before the final settlement of my estate I direct that the somersaults in succession. After leavwhole of my estate shall go to and vest ing the ring Georgie slipped in the in the said Magdalene C. Thompson, mud on the way to the dressing room and fractured his arm on a stake. The I hereby provide, nevertheless, that circus lived up to its billing and gave 11 a. m. f any of the beneficiaries named in real satisfaction. It was clean and Recently the students in the Fresh- this will controvert, dispute or call in not even an Oriental dance in the side all are welcome. An all day free show; the first circus seen here in reading room is open to the public years that did not have this attraction every day. Here the Bible and Chrisschoo were requested to submit of the validity of this will, or of the estate hereby granted, then in such case, the estates, bequests and driver and the following was derived by the submit of Bellefonte and the following was derived by the validity of this will, or of the validity of this will, or of the estate hereby granted, then in such case, the estates, bequests and driver a good crowd despite the bad borrowed or purchased. weather and the show train left for

> -Last Saturday afternoon while John Smay, of Huston township, with his two children, Erma and Howard, was on his way to Julian with a team of colts hitched in a buckboard wagon, the animals frightened and ran away. The little girl jumped and in her fall sustained concussion of the brain, cuts and bruises. Mr. Smay grabbed his little son and also jumped from the wagon but was thrown violently to the ground, the child sustaining a fractured jaw, chest injuries and cuts and bruises, while the father got an ugly gash on the head. They were brought to the Bellefonte hospital, but Mr. Smay was able to go home after his injuries were attended to. The children are getting along fairly well.

-Mrs. David Keller, of Philadelphia, was severely burned in a pecuhereunto subscribed our names at her liar manner one day last week. The request as witnesses thereto, in the unfortunate woman is a daughter of presence of the said testatrix and of Mr. and Mrs. Harper Rice, of Bellefonte, and came here the week previous to the burning of the Gamill Rice house, in which her parents lived, or what a pair of properly fitted and in which most of her clothing were glasses will do. The Trusts under the will are to ruined. Last week she was boiling continue during the lives of the three clothing in a gasoline preparation beneficiaries and to the survivors or when the clothing caught fire and in born in Lock Haven a little over fifty- road from the street and people must survivor. The remaining estate is to an effort to save them she was badly go to Mrs. Thompson and her children. in at the box in Bellefonte. The house These Trusts may run at least from grossed over a thousand dollars. The twenty-five to thirty-five years. Un- house was racked and seats ran as der the will the net income is distrib- high at $2.27 which accounts for the MARY WOODRING, B. H. S., '26, uted equally from time to time to record breaking total. We have had Mrs. Callaway, George and Harry only about half a dozen shows during -Beautiful cut flowers for every Bush. The money arising from the the winter and the audience gave August 16th, as the date for their Tyrone. Burial was made at Tyrone occasion, at Weaver's Pure Food sales of real estate must be invested every evidence of wanting something

Church Services Next Sunday.

ST. JOHN'S REFORMED CHURCH. Services next Sunday morning at 10:45 sermon "Radio Broadcasting." Evening service at 7:30. Sunday school at 9:30 a.m. C. E. meeting at 6:30 p. m.

Ambrose M. Schmidt, D. D., Minister.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH. A hearty welcome to those who wish A hearty welcome to those who wish to worship with us. The pastor will speak at 10:45 on "The Real Weak Point of this Age." Sunday school at 9:30; Juniors 2:30; teen agers and Epworth League 6:30; evening worship 7:30, subject "Precepts and Promises." Monday evening teacher training, 7:30. Tuesday evening, class, 7:30; Wednesday evening Bible study and prayer, 7:30. and prayer, 7:30. E. E. McKelvey, Pastor.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Services for the week beginning April 29th: Fourth Sunday after Easter, 8 a. m. Holy Eucharist; 9:45 a. m. church school; 11 a. m. Mattins and fail, the trust funds are untouched and are secure in the beneficiaries. 67-17-1t

Movement; 7:30 p. m. evensong and sermon, "Blessed John Keble." Tuesday, May 1st, feast of SS. Philip and John May 1st, feast of SS. Philip Visitors always welcome.

Rev. M. DeP. Maynard, Rector. AARONSBURG REFORMED CHARGE. Services for Sunday, April 29th:

Salem: Regular services at 9:15; Sunday school at 10:15. Milheim: Sunday school at 9:30; C. E. at 6:30; regular services 7:30. Theme of the sermon, "The Work of the Comforter."

CENTRE HALL CHARGE. Communion at Spring Mills at 10:30; Farmers Mills at 2:30. A good attendance and a liberal offering is requested. This is the last chance to pay the apportionment in full.

Rev. John S. Hollenbach, Pastor.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH. Divine services, 10:30, with sermon on "Odd Fellowship" to the Bellefonte Order, theme "The Crowned Life." Evening service 7:30, subject, "Inseparable Love." Class meeting 9 a. m. Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor 6:30 p. m. Everybody wel-

Reed O. Steely, Minister.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

"The Friendly Church." Fourth Sunday after Easter. Sunday school 9:30 a.m. with weekly contest for highest percentage of class attendance. Morning worship 10:45, with sermon. Junior church 2 p. m.

Rev. Wilson P. Ard, Minister FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

"We aim to serve."

Wednesday 7:30 p. m., Seats are all free. Acousticon serv-

David R. Evans, M. A., Minister.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY. Christian Science Society, Furst building, High street, Sunday service 11 a. m. Wednesday evening meet-ing at 8 o'clock. To these meetings borrowed or purchased.

Marriage Licenses.

Alexander Robison, Penfield, and Isabel Spotts, Port Matilda. William S. Arnold and Mary Ann Etters, Runville.

Arthur H. Dewey and Mabel P. Barker, State College. Clarence B. Wagner, Martha, and Mary H. Goss, Hannah.

-Mr. and Mrs. T. Clayton Brown have purchased the house in which they live, from the Mrs. William Dawson estate, and will at once begin making the needed repairs, in view of making it their permanent home.

Signalling to Mars by Wireless May Yet be Accomplished.

If Mars is peopled there is no doubt that this wonderful feat may yet be accomplished. Scientists claimed certain conditions existed on Mars until the Great Lick Telescope was completed (1898), which proved otherwise. Optometrists, by the compounding of lenses, are working wonders as great. Thousands of people have no idea how far they should see Consult me when in doubt.

Dr. Eva B. Roan, Optometrist. Licensed by the State Board. Bellefonte every Wednesday afternoon, and Saturday 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. Rooms 14 and 15 Temple Court

State College every- day except

The Line of 25c. Stockings Cannot be Equalled Anywhere

Garmans