

Exclusively Loomed

THE makers of Eagle Shirts have been making good shirts for fifty-five years. They design their own patterns, dye their own yarns, loom their own fabrics, exclusively used by them, and give each one a trademarked name woven in the shirt-label. It's no wonder that the well-dressed men who know good fabrics want Eagle Shirts. They ask for them by the name of the maker and the name of the fabric as well. It's a double identification—a double guarantee.

AUSPICES OF THE CAMP FIRE GIRLS

TRAINED WILD ANIMALS WITH MAIN CIRCUS.

Once They Roamed the Jungles, Now They are as Temperamental as Broadway Actors.

More beautiful far than the brush of a Rosa Banheuer could portray are the picturesque groupings of the trained wild animals exhibiting and performing within the confines of a huge steel girt arena with the Walter L. Main circus which comes to Bellefonte Monday, May 7th.

Here we see the trainer's art of subjugation demonstrated to the highest degree of mental and physical possibility. The biblical injunction that the lion should lie down with the lamb is here exemplified on a scale so broad that it passes understanding. Great natural, implacable foes of the forest, jungle and frozen wastes are seen gathered together for one another transformed into amiable union, their inherited hatred for one another transformed into animal love by the teachings and precepts of man. We see presented the incredible spectacle of the harmonious housing of once ferocious and lordly lions, fierce Bengal tigers, savage polar bears, and magnificent Great Dane dogs.

The trainer enters the great steel girt arena, especially constructed for this act, and the animals answer his call and do his bidding like human beings. Colossal pyramids are formed, beautiful tableaux are staged, while the spectator sits spellbound. The jungle terrors, the tigers, engage in a game of see-saw with a Great Dane dog furnishing the motive power, as he gleefully wags his tail and barks his dog happiness.

Another tiger rides a motorcycle propelled by the dogs. Leopards and Polar bears frolic together and do rolling and balancing stunts on barrels and chairs. Lions and tigers convert themselves into a downy couch in which the trainer reclines in peaceful repose.

Then the entire group gathers around a festal board, with the trainer acting as host, and a monster lion and lioness on either side in the places of honor. The lion presently opens his mouth and the trainer unhesitatingly places his head in it.

But the crowning test of the complete subjugation of these ferocious beasts comes when the trainer, with bare hands feeds them rare tid bits of raw meat. One familiar with the savage instincts of these jungle dwellers when feeding in their natural state can form some conception of the wonderful character of this unparalleled feat.

The trainer claims that no human actor is more temperamental or has more varying moods than these four-footed performers. Truly the only thing lacking to make them the equal of human thespians is the gift of speech.

When Gif. Forgot.

From the Clearfield Republican.

The only period G. Pinchot was not a part of the "joy riding" Sproul administration, from the day he was sworn in as forester, was the one day he was out of service between the date of his resignation and the date of his reappointment at an increase of $3,000 per year salary. That was the same day his mind was a blank about Pennsylvania having a Constitution.

Woodland Owners

Are you realizing from your land all that it can produce? Close utilization and new uses of forest products and forest land have revolutionized values. Freight cost on lumber brought into the State is now double the price paid for lumber a few years ago. Scientific methods applied to forests, protection, manufacture, utilization, marketing, transportation rates and methods, timber estimating, damage appraisal, etc., will do for you what it has done for other industries. It will cost you nothing to talk this over with an organization specializing on these subjects. Give full particulars.

Week-Ahead Program

Cut this out and save for reference.

SATURDAY, MAY 5:

SHIRLEY MASON in "PAWN TICKET 210," an appealing little drama that is powerful, the plot being the pawning of a baby that finally reunites a family when grown up. Also, Snub Pollard Comedy.

MONDAY, MAY 7:

BETTY COMPTON and TOM MOORE in "OVER THE BORDER," an excellent drama of the Royal Canadian mounted police, showing their handling of the bootlegging situation. Magnificent snow scenes. The great blizzard thrill and many other interesting scenes. Seven reels. Also, Pathe News and Harold Lloyd Comedy.

TUESDAY, MAY 8:

VIOLA DANA in "CRINOLINE AND ROMANCE," a story of the heroine's grandfather whose life has been embittered by runaway daughter's marriage, brings up heroine in strict seclusion and no knowledge of the world that makes her different and attracts suitors. Also, two reel Comedy.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 9:

MIRIAM COOPER in "KINDRED OF THE DUST," a story of the North that revolves around a young man who has fallen in love with daughter of squatter. He goes to college, she becomes a chorus girl, has a child by a mock marriage, returns home, is scorned, but finally hero marries her and all is well. Eight reels. Also, two reel Sunshine Comedy, "Poor Fish."

THURSDAY, May 10:

KATHERINE McDONALD and big cast in "MONEY, MONEY, MONEY," a story of a family tricked into spending a fake inheritance loan, with a moral, "Don't spend money before you get it." An interesting tale of misguided ambitions. Also, Pathe News and Review.

FRIDAY, MAY 11:

HOOT GIBSON in "THE GENTLEMAN FROM AMERICA," a mixture of comedy, drama and farce. Past action. A pleasing picture, with some old world stuff, an over there boy falling in love with a grand duke's daughter. Also, the third episode of "THE OREGON TRAIL."

OPERA HOUSE.

SATURDAY, MAY 5:

Return of "OLD HOMESTEAD" at popular prices. Matinee at Scenic.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, MAY 11 AND 12:

HELENE CHADWICK and JAMES KIRKWOOD in "THE SIN FLOOD," an interesting and entertaining high-class production. A thrilling flood scene that is best ever, reunites two young lovers after a series of experiences. Good. Also, Larry Semon Comedy and Leather Pushers.

Coming, Adam's Role.
