

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-The crap shoot is were not in cil, at the regular meeting on Monday evidence last Sunday.

Morton Smith.

-State policemen have been watching this week for a truck load of booze said to be destined for a prominent place in Centre county, but up to the time of going to press it had not been sighted.

-The American Legion auxiliary, the P.O.S. of A., and Brooks-Doll Post dent Walker stated that as soon as of the American Legion, of which organization Rev. Ard is chaplain, will attend services at the Lutheran church Sunday morning at 10:45.

a little punch in your ideas and develthe community and help yourself by and he made a motion that the bor-see them at the Fallon House, where finally referred to that committee she is now permanently located.

morial day, afternoon and evening. Proprietor W. C. Rowe has the park cleaned up and in fine shape and the public will find it an ideal place to spend the day.

The annual election of officers of the Woman's club will be held on Monday, May 28th, at 7:30 o'clock, at the High school building. After the business meeting the evening will be devoted to a social time, with refreshments. All members should make an effort to attend this meeting.

in the Reformed chapel next Sunday Christian Endeavor societies of the Presbyterian and Reformed churches. The leaders will be Messrs. Andrew Wetzel and Paul Foreman. A good meeting. Everybody welcome.

sic lovers next Friday evening, June sible. 1st. at the Presbyterian chapel. The for further notice.

STREETS TO BE REPAIRED. Considerable Work Planned at Meeting of Borough Council Monday Night.

Samuel B. Miller, of east Linn street, appeared before borough counevening, and made a plea for the grad--Miss Lucille Smith, with No. ing of the east end of Curtin street 352 card, won the coffee percolator and the north portion of Wilson street. given away on Saturday evening by In defense of his request he stated the Electric Supply company. She is that when the Armors gave the bora daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. ough the property for the opening of the above streets it was with the understanding and implied agreement that the streets were to be graded and water service installed as an inducement to prospective purchasers. He further averred that builders and home seekers hesitate to purchase lots there because so far the borough has not made any improvements. Presilots were sold in that locality and building operations begun council would put the streets in shape. Mr. Fauble, however, expressed the belief It's the wallop that counts. Put that it would be a good move on the part of council to grade the streets op your wallop. Show your grit. Help and thus encourage the sale of lots, subscribing for shares in the Centre ough manager and the borough engi-Building and Loan Association. 21-1t neer go on the ground and establish -On account of the fire which a grade, then solicit bids for the gradburned her home and place of business ing of the streets. Mr. Walker, howon Main street, Lock Haven, several ever, thought any work that was done weeks ago, Mrs. Jane Crowley Carson should be under the supervision of the announces to her patrons that she will Street committee and the matter was with instructions to work with the -Auchenback's famous orchestra borough manager and the borough enwill furnish music for the dance at the gineer, and if possible, get bids for official opening of Hecla park on Me- the work and report at next meeting of council.

Mr. Miller also complained of the low water pressure at his place. Though he is always able to get water in his bath room he has no force when it comes to using a hose. His third complaint was in connection with the Crider property, which he claimed is very unsightly and a nuisance. Dr. C. M. Parrish stated to council that it is his intention to begin work his new building on the corner of Al-A patriotic meeting will be held legheny street and Pike alley and in the construction of same he would quirements. evening at 6:30 sharp, by the united like to erect the chimney in the Pike alley wall, and to make it of sufficient size it will probably extend ten inches outside of the face of the wall, and he requested council's sanction of

-George A. Johnston, organist at ough should replace the pipe. The Tickets are being distributed at the others whose names could not be grand-parents. the Lutheran church, will play the fol- request for a light was referred to the very low price of thirty-five cents. lowing numbers at the usual Sunday Street committee and the complaint to evening recital from 7:30 to 7:45 the Water committee.

should be extended through to Lamb street.

The borough manager called attention to the fact that something should be done to prohibit people from dumping ashes in the alleys, as every hard rain washes them down the hills into the open sewers and clogs the traps. Three wagon loads were removed from one trap on Howard street. The secretary stated that there is an ordinance prohibiting the deposit of ash- morning five of the number returned es on the streets and allevs and providing a fine for any violation, and the and blurted out the tragic story that borough manager was instructed to enforce the ordinance.

Mr. Brouse reported the steps leading from St. Paul street to Halfmoon hill in a dangerous condition and the Street committee was authorized to have them replaced with concrete to Beech creek, a distance of approxsteps which council adjourned.

The Music Study Club Meeting.

n the Episcopal parish house. There selves at home. The camp, a two stowill be the annual election of officers ry house in reality, was partially fur-fifty boys will attend this year.

Boys, Get Ready for Camp.

Who Borrowed My Wig?

Some time ago we loaned a wig, that has served a good purpose on occasions when hair has been a desirable adornment, to a young man of debris of the burned barn at the H. N. Bellefonte. We have forgotten to whom we loaned it and he has probably forgotten from whom he got it. An event looms which will require us to be wholly dressed and if the in the near future on the erection of young man in question will please return the wig we will have the neces-

29th.

Prof. Harry J. Ditzler, accomplishthat plan. He was assured that coun- ed blind organist, will give a recital -A rare treat is in store for mu- cil would co-operate in every way pos- in St. John's Lutheran church Tuesday evening, May 29th, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Showers asked that a light be Mr. Ditzler has been blind since he musical artists of Bellefonte will give placed in front of her home at No. 16 was two years of age, but by persista concert of superior merit which no Logan street. She also made com- ent effort and study has become a one should miss. The proceeds will plaint about the borough manager cut- master of the organ. He is a gradugo to the Woman's Auxiliary of the ting the water pipe at her property ate of the organ department of Combs Y. M. C. A. Watch next week's paper on Ridge street, claiming that he had Conservatory of Music and a member

BOY BURNED TO DEATH.

Lost Life in Fire Which Destroyed W. C. Snyder's Camp on Beech Creek.

On Monday afternoon six Snow Shoe boys, ranging in age from twelve to fifteen years, went out onto the headwaters of Beech Creek to fish. Shortly before five o'clock on Tuesday home almost exhausted from running one of their number had been burned to death. Though rather incoherent individually the facts as gathered from all the boys are about as follows: They left Snow Shoe about three o'clock in the afternoon and walked imately five miles. After fishing a located in that locality. Whether the Maine. camp was open or the boys forced an this writing, but in any event they got Friday, May 25th, at 8 o'clock p. m., inside and proceeded to make them-of the Music Study club and a pro- nished. The kitchen contained a cook gram of vocal and instrumental music. stove and a big fire place was a feature of the living room. The boys evidently had built a fire in the stove and it was just possible had a fire in On Tuesday evening next a camp- the fire place, owing to the cool night. er's reunion of the boys who attend- They were sleeping upstairs in ed last year's camp, and other mem- the bunks and along about three bers of the boy's division of the Y. M. o'clock some of them were awakened C. A., will have a supper at the Y, by smoke. Five of the boys were soon Gap, and Edward Rossman and wife, of and announcement will be made of the wide awake but one of their number, plans for the camp to be conducted Aloysius Devlin, was so deep in the day morning to motor to Lake Michigan this summer. Applications are now arms of morpheus that it was imposin order and it is expected that about sible to arouse him to a recognition of the danger. The boys claim, however, that they dragged him to the door and then had trouble getting the door open and when they did so the Devlin boy had disappeared and the fire had gotten such a start they were compelled to flee for their lives. The camp was doomed and realizing that their guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Potter, Col. companion could not be saved the boys and Mrs. W. F. Reynolds, and other relastarted on a run for Snow Shoe and tives of Miss Potter. never stopped until they reached the Devlin home and distractedly told the story of Aloysius' horrible death. It was only a question of minutes until a motor party left for the scene sary apparel to comply with the re- of the tragedy and arriving there found the story of the boys to be only too true. The fire had about burned Blind Organist Here Tuesday, May itself out and the remains of the burned boy were recovered and wrapped in a coat, then conveyed to the Devlin home.

The unfortunate lad was a son of Misses McCracken, of Ferguson township, Peter and Margaret Devlin and was a made one of their occasional motor trips little past twelve years of age. He was said to be unusually bright and considerable of a favorite among Snow Shoe people. In addition to the parents the following brothers and sisters survive: William, of Stormstown; Bridget and John, of Jersey account of the filness of her daughter Mar- ings before we were prepared for most no legal right to do it, and the bor- of the American Guild of Organists. Shore; Victor, Dollie, Marge and two garet, who had been visiting with her anything, but confess our utter failure learned day morning by Father J. F. Connelly, burial being made in the Catholic

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

pital as a surgical patient. -H. S. Miller, who is employed in Al- World Mission's Conference June toona, was home for a Sunday visit, spending the day with his family, on east High street.

serving as a juror in court this week and found time for a brief call at this office held in Centre county June 17th and yesterday afternoon.

street.

-Mrs. Robinson, of Columbia, S. C., who eign mission work, and absolutely no had been here for a visit with her sister, appeal for funds will be made. Bills to the amount of $2575.00 little while the boys decided to stay Mrs. Robert Morris, left early in the week were approved for payment, after all night in the W. C. Snyder camp, for her summer home at Kennebunk Port,

> -Alfred Tate, of Punxsutawney, but a entrance is not definitely known at former resident of Bellefonte, was a guest of friends on a drive here last week, for an over Sunday visit with relatives in this locality.

> > the mountain on Saturday with Mrs. E. C. alty.' Tuten and returning by train Monday evening.

Sunday, for a day's visit with Mr. Eberhart's brother, Daniel Eberhart and his daughter, Miss Mary.

-John Rossman and wife, of Pleasant Rock Springs, left at four o'clock on Monon a two week's fishing trip.

-Mrs. James Johnson, of Narberth, has been spending the week at Hecla, with Mr. Johnson's cousins, Miss Louise and Lawrence McMullen, stopping here on one of her frequent visits with her daughter in Altoona

-The Countess Santa Eulalia, of Ashbourne, Pa., and Miss Thomazine Potter. have been visiting in Bellefonte this week,

-Mr. and Mrs. John Slack, of Centre Hall, were guests on Tuesday of Mrs. John Musser and her daughter. Miss Catherine. of James Goodhart, who is serving as a juror in court this week.

-W. I. Fleming, George T. Bush and Charles Garbrick, of Bellefonte, and Dr. J. T. Bartlet, of Pleasant Gap, have been in Pittsburgh this week attending the seven- at the Titan Metal company. teenth annual conclave of the Knights Templar, of Pennsylvania.

-J. H. McCracken and his sisters, the to Bellefonte Tuesday, spending a part of the day here in the shops and attending to some business matters.

-Mrs. Elmer Eby has returned to Lewger. Mrs. Eby had been called here on

-Mrs. T. K. Morris and Mrs. Mollie Valentine motored in from Pittsburgh Fri--Miss Grace Stover has gone to Dan- day, going directly to Hecla, where they ville, where she entered the Geisinger hos- have arranged to spend the summer.

17th and 18th.

Plans are rapidly taking shape for -Mr. I. A. Meyer, of Coburn, has been the World Mission's conference to be 18th, in which all denominations are -Mrs. Odillie Mott was in Altoona on co-operating and taking an active Sunday attending the installation of a large part. Special speakers of prominence class of candidates in the Eugene A. Gar- will address the congregation of every vey Court Catholic Daughters of America. church in the county Sunday, June -Mrs. Homer Johnson, of State College, 17th, and special mass meetings will and her two children, are visiting in Belle- be held Monday in strategic centers fonte, guests of Mrs. Johnson's parents, like State College, Bellefonte and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Miller, of east High Spring Mills. The meetings will be held purely to arouse interest in for-

Farewell Sermon.

Rev. George E. Smith, pastor of the United Brethren church of this place, will preach his last two sermons here on Sunday, May 27th. His morning -Mrs. Harold Kirk spent Sunday with subject will be "Christian Statesher husband in Philipsburg, motoring over men," and his evening theme. "Lov-

Rev. Smith expects to move his family and household goods, Thurs--James Eberhart, with his two sons and day, May 31st, to take up his new son-in-law, drove here from Lewisburg on pastorate at Huntingdon on June 1st. His successor will be Rev. Fred Hackett, of the Bonebrake theological seminary, of Dayton, Ohio.

Rev. Smith will deliver the Memorial address at Pleasant Gap, Wednesday evening.

Nogle-Lucas.-Harry H. Nogle, of Tyrone, and Miss Irene M. Lucas, of Runville, were married on Thursday of last week at the Methodist parsonage in Hollidaysburg by the pastor, Rev. Robert C. Peters. The bridegroom is a fireman on the Tyrone division of the Pennsylvania railroad and the young couple will make their home in Tyrone.

Taylor-Emil.-George A. Taylor and Miss Mabel M. Emil, both of Bellefonte, were married at the United having come to Bellefonte as motor guests Evangelical parsonage, on Saturday morning of last week, by the pastor, Rev. Reed O. Steely. The young couple will make their home in Bellefonte, the bridegroom being employed

-Following the many and delightful entertainments of music week in Bellefonte came the recital of the juvenile proteges of Mrs. Loius Schad and Mrs. Robert Walker in the parish house Tuesday night. Following our surprise and delight at hearing what istown, after a short visit in Bellefonte Mrs. Alberta Krader is developing in with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bad- the public schools in the way of an outlet for musical talent a few evento grasp the possibilities after hearing -Miss Mary B. Struble arrived here Master Gilbert Cole, scarcely more Funeral services were held in the from Erie, Saturday, on an enforced vaca- than twelve years old, play the violin formance was remarkable. And the a guest of her brother and his wife, Mr. composure with which he concluded the "Allegro Brilliant" by Ten Have, after his accompanist had lost him, -Mr. and Mrs. Jack Decker and Mr. and was enough to arouse the envy of a Mrs. John F. Smith arrived in Bellefonte finished performer. The duet by Pearl the after part of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Garbrick and Eleanor Barnhart was Decker, with their daughter, Mrs. Smith, another outstanding number on the program rendered by the little musicians, as was the "Sonatina" for piano, by Mary Harvey. The entire concert of the little folks was quite beyond the expectations of the large audience.

"An den Fruhling," by Edward Grieg. A written complaint was received ors are always welcome.

-Community decoration service will be held on Memorial day at Snydertown at 10 a.m.; at Hublersburg at 2 p. m., and Zion at 4 p. m. A special invitation is extended to all Sunday schools, churches, orders and patriotic citizens to meet and take part in the services at the above named places. There will be several able speakers who will make addresses at the three cemeteries.

-T. H. Harter expects to begin moving the Gazette printing office into his new building the latter part of this week and continue by easy stages until the entire plant is moved. The work will be so planned as not to interfere with the regular publication of the paper. As soon as the office has been moved the old building will be torn down and a new building erected by Charles F. Mensch.

gram published elsewhere in this paon the fair grounds. Every evening's program will be worth seeing and if you miss them next week there'll be no other opportunity to see them.

directors of Whiterock quarries held at the company's offices, last Friday idend of 1 per cent. were declared ed concrete crossings. payable to stockholders of record on June 1st. This puts the stock of the Whiterock company on an 8 per cent. which was authorized. basis and will be continued there if the present business outlook continues.

-Members of the American Legion are invited to join with the members of the G. A. R. and attend memorial services in the Methodist church on Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The old soldiers will meet at o'clock and march to the church. Memorial day exercises next Wednesday will be in charge of the Brooks-Doll Post of the American Legion and will he has about completed the repairs on take place at two o'clock, as usual.

that a similar meeting should be held but as it would be impossible to get ecutive committee of the Presbyterian the oiling tank arrives here he had or- desirable for the electric line because officer's association of Blair county, dered only 4660 gallons. No definite only one side of it is at present lined nouncement of the program to be And when Spring street is repaired there are already two lines of poles ed acting postmaster at State College, made later.

Theme from "Air Varie," by H. Vieux- from Clay Witmer regarding a coltemps, and Pilgrim's Chorus from lection of litter and rubbish on east "Tannhauser," by R. Wagner. Visit- High street, which should be removed at once.

The Street committee reported various repairs and the collection of $5.00 from the Main circus for the broken railing where the lion cage went over the bank at Rhoads' corner; $5.00 for manure, $91.92 from the Highway Department for the use of the road oller, and $25.00 for a sewer permit. The Water committee reported the collection of $5.00 from Main's circus for water on the show grounds, and that 163 water meter bills for the first quarter, totalling $1232.68 were ready to turn over for collection.

The chairman of the Fire and Police committee reported that on at least three occasions the Undine pumper was taken out of town on orders of Charles Anderson, chief of the Undine fire company and an assistant director of the Bellefonte fire department, without securing permission from either the Fire and Police com--According to the Scenic pro- mittee or the chief fire marshall, and when protests were made he said "To per a number of exceptionally good h-1 with them, go ahead." On mopictures will be shown at that popular tion of Mr. Cunningham Mr. Anderson place of amusement during the ensu- was expelled as an assistant director ing week. Be sure to see the motion and the Undine fire company was repictures before going to the carnival quested to recommend a man as his successor.

The Fire and Police committee presented the burgess' check for $74.52 for fires and licenses. The committee -At a meeting of the board of again called attention to the unsafe condition of the metal plate crossings over the gutters at each of the fire idend of 3 per cent. and an extra div- powering them to put down reinforc-

> The Finance committee asked for the renewal of one note for $3,400,

> Mr. Hazel complained of the unsightly condition of Logan street, owing to piles of dirt and stones, and attention was also called to the same condition in front of one property on Allegheny street. The secretary was instructed to notify property owners that the stones and dirt must be re-cost plus twenty-five per cent. charged to the owners. The borough manager reported that cises held at Lakemont Park, Altoona, authorized at the last meeting of for light and power and run close on June 21st last year, it was decided council will require 6950 gallons of oil enough to Zion to offer residents of at the same place this year and the ex- all the streets in shape by the time back road down the valley seems most who have charge of the arrangements, provision has yet been made for the for telephone service, consequently wish to announce that Lakemont Park oiling of Bishop, Allegheny and Linn there would be less intterference than has been secured for this meeting on streets, although property owners thre would be if the new line were to Wednesday, June 27th, definite an- along those streets want them oiled. be strung on the main highway where from Bishop to Howard the work for telephones.

Boy Scout News.

The minstrels given two weeks ago were such a success that plans are becemetery. ing made to give the performance in other towns. The Bellefonte performances netted about eighty dollars, Centre County Baseball League to which will go to the camping fund. The Bellefonte Troop has received the national colors awarded by President Harding to all troops increasing their membership 25 per cent. The two low patrols entertained the high patrols at the last regular meeting, when assistant scout master Reynolds drilled

ANDREW WETZEL, Assistant Scribe.

Bowlers Had Enjoyable Reunion.

A large number of bowlers who took part in the contests during the winter on the Y. M. C. A. alleys met in competition in the Y on Tuesday evening. The prize winners for the evening included the high average for three games, 181, Gelhaus, a three pound box of candy. The highest score, 219, was also made by Mr. Gelhaus. The highest number of successive strikes, 4, Mr. Abt, a silk necktie. High left handed, 179, Hood, pair silk socks. The competition for the booby prize was quite interesting. J. Bullock made 99, Mallory 96 and Kline 94, the latter winning the massive 'gold" pin.

During the evening chairman Keichline presented the American Legion team with the bowling trophy as champion for the past season, being the second year the Legionaires have been winners. Refreshments were evening, the regular semi-annual div- houses and a motion was passed em- served during the evening and a general good time had by all.

Electricity Proposed for a Part of Nittany Valley.

If plans that are now being considered materialize there will soon be an electric service line for light and power, through a portion of Nittany valley at least.

The Nittany Country club has made a request to the Keystone Power Corporation for service at the club house moved within ten days or they would at Hecla and it will probably be grantthe monument in the Diamond at ten be taken away by the borough and the ed. If it is the service line will leave the main cables of the company at Pleasant Gap and run down what is known as the back road to Zion and thence to the club house. This will Thomas street ready for oiling. He give all the farm and other homes At the Presbyterian day exer- further stated that to oil the streets along the line opportunity to connect that village the same advantage. The Open the Season on Saturday.

Tomorrow they'll be off. The amateur hurlers of Bellefonte, State College, Millheim and Centre Hall will be serving the apple over the plate to the Bambinos grown on the lots of old Centre county. Baseball always was the Scouts for the first time this year. popular and the way the new Centre County League starts off promises to fans of the county. There are to be no paid players, no professionalism. Every town is to be represented by players drawn from its immediate vicinity. If this rule is adhered to the League will be a success, for it will not entail much of a financial burden, a large town team will not be stuffed with paid players to the disadvantage of a smaller one and. over all that, every spectator will know the boys he's rootin' for and there's nothing that inspires enthusiasm like personal interest.

The first game on the League schedule will be tomorrow when Bellefonte opens with State College at the latter place. The first home game for Bellefonte will be with State College on Memorial day. It will be called immediately after the memorial exercises here and will be played on Huntingdon reformatory. Hughes field as will all the home games.

The admission will be 25 cents per game throughout the season. The schedule calls for twelve games in Bellefonte. Hugo Bezdek is president of the League; Randall Musser, of Millheim, secretary and treasurer, and John J. Bower Esq., statistician. The officers of the Bellefonte club are George H. Hazel, president; Earl Kline, manager; Blain Mabus, secretary, W. Fred Reynolds Jr., treasurer. The board of directors comprises Geo. H. Hazel, W. S. Brouse, Orian Kline, H. J. Walkey and A. Linn McGinley. The Bellefonte lineup for the opening game at State College tomorrow has not been determined. The following players are on the list and the team will be picked from them: John Gordon, Edw. Miller, C. Torsel, Samuel Weaver, Nevin Robb, E. Kline, Robert Long, Russell Beezer, Basil Martin, Joseph Katz, C. Thompson, Joseph Herman, John Shope, Fred Gelhaus, John Weber, Swengle Smith, O. Shay, Claire Deitrich, Geo. Mosely, Merle Waite, Henry Montgomery, McClellan are all natives of Freeport, and Kline and Gorman Fisher.

-George Glenn has been appointvice J. M. Williams, deceased.

Catholic church at Snow Shoe yester- tion, due to ill health. Miss Struble re- with a master's hand. Really his permained in Bellefonte over night, going on to State College Sunday, where she will be and Mrs. Clayton Struble, for an indefinite time.

as their guest, are occupying their apartment in the Cadillac building, while Mr. Smith returned to Shamokin Monday, to resume his work with the Eagle Silk Co. -Ferguson Parker has been spending a part of the past week here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Schofield, and his aunts, the Misses Parker. Owing to make it intensely interesting for the ill health Ferguson had been taking a month's vacation and was on his way home from a visit with his mother in Newark, N. J., to resume his work with the Bell Telephone Co., at Bradford.

> Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Hunter on a drive to Philadelphia early in June. Mr. and Mrs. Hunter are going east for their daughter, Henrietta, who has been studying at the school of Applied Arts. Mrs. Foye, of Bloomsburg, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter's eldest daughter, was a recent visitor in Bellefonte, having spent several days here with her parents.

Sutherland, accompanied by his wife, left festival will be held at the Firemen's Friday afternoon for a visit of two weeks hall. Visitors to the Memorial day having been appointed steward of the sic in the evening.

-Mrs. J. Norman Calvert, of Williams short visit, while her mother, Mrs. Miller, and Janet Lyons were her guests over the past week-end. Mrs. Miller and her son drove to Bellwood yesterday, spending the day there with Mrs. Spotts, Mrs. Miller's mother. -Mrs. Orrin Miller arrived in Belleexpecting to spend the greater part of the summer here, and with her son and his family, at State College. While visiting in Bellefonte Mrs. Miller will be a house guest drive back to Erie with her son, A. J. Miller, who will come here for his mother. -A. G. Morris and his daughter. Miss will leave tomorrow morning on their annual drive to Freeport, Pa., for Memorial day. Mr. Morris, Mrs. Sheffer and Mrs. this time. This year the trip is made a Rye few days earlier that Mr. Morris might Corn look after some business for his niece, Miss Oats Wier, whose parents recently died within Barley twenty-four hours of each other.

-Rev. Charles S. Keene, a missionary in China, died on Sunday of typhoid fever. His death will be of interest to Centre county people because of the fact that his wife was

-Mrs. E. B. Callaway will be a guest of Miss Marion Fischer, a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. William E. Fischer, of Shamokin, but whose girlhood life was spent in Centre Hall, her father having been pastor of the Lutheran church in that place for some years.

-A festival will be held on the lawn of the Presbyterian church, at -Having resigned his position at the Milesburg, on the afternoon and evenwestern penitentiary at Rockview A. B. ing of May 30th. In case of rain the with friends in Pittsburgh and at Mrs. exercises are invited to rest here and clusion of which they will take up their meet friends. Ice cream and refreshresidence in Huntingdon, Mr. Sutherland ments of all kinds for sale. Band mu-

-The annual Eberhart reunion port, has been hostess for several parties will be held at Brook Park, Lewisburg, during the month of May. Her two sis- Thursday, June 21st. All are invited ters, Mrs. Guy Lyons, of Bellefonte, and to attend and make it the banner day Mrs. Wetzler, of Milesburg, drove down of these reunions. Do not forget the with their brother Edward last week for a day or date, June 21st, at Lewisburg.

Geranium Sale.

Mrs. Geo. A. Miller will open her annual geranium sale, at Miller's hardware store on Allegheny St., on Saturday, May 26th. She will also fonte a week ago from her home in Erie, have an assortment of other varieties 68-21-1t

-Large opportunities come to of her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. those who make use of small ones. Thomas Shaughnessy Jr., with whom she Co-operation is the key to the door has been for the past week, and upon the which opens to better things. Join termination of her visit in Centre county, the Centre Building and Loan Associaplans have already been made for a motor tion and be a co-operator. 68-21-1t

Join the Centre Building and Lida, with Mrs. Samuel Sheffer and her Loan Association now. Save monthly sister, Mrs. McClellan, as motor guests, and see how fast your money grows. 68-21-1t

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Thomas Mensch, Fred Lose, William it has been their custom for a number of Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co. yyears, to make a pilgrimage back home at Wheat - - - - $1.25 this time. This year the trip is made a Rye - - - - 80 .80 .85 .50 Barley - - - - Buckwheat - - -.60