ADDITIONAL PINE GROVE MEN-TIONS.

Mrs. Mary Brouse, our oldest woman, was seriously injured in a fall on

A baby boy, No. 2, arrived in the Oscar Witmer home at four o'clock on Tuesday morning. John H. Strouse is housed up as the result of an attack of heat prostration on Tuesday. John R. Markle and daughter, Mrs. Anna Fortney, left on Monday for a week's visit among friends in the Buckeye State. Miss Betty Brenneman a daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Brenneman, of State College, has been spending the week at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. English. Miss Elizabeth Everhart, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Everhart, of Indiana, Pa., is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Quinn, at Pennsylvania Furnace. Five year old May Bottorf, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bottorf, who live on the W. G. Runkle farm, was badly bitten in the face by a poodle dog several days ago. After the wound was properly cauterized it required three stitches to close it. The dog was immediately penned up and will be closely watched to see if it developes rabies. Resigns After 14 Years as Penn State Registrar.

After fourteen years of service as Registrar of the Pennsylvania State College, professor A. H. Espenshade has resigned. Since last fall, professor Espenshade has been vice-director of the college emergency building fund campaign for $2,000,000, and he has resigned as registrar in order to devote all of his time to the completion of the drive. It is estimated that during his term as registrar, professor Espenshade has admitted about 85 per cent. of the total number of Fall. students who have entered Penn State. Professor W. S. Hoffman, for-College for 25 years, being professor of rhetoric before the registrar's duties demanded all of his time.

Give the Railroads a Chance

Resolved, that the Bellefonte Board of Trade, believing that the Country is on the eve of a great wave of industrial production that will require the railroads to handle the heaviest traffic of their history, pledges earnest co-operation and support, and solicits the earnest co-operation and support of the Public, in the constructive transportation program for 1923, now being waged by the railroads, in order that in the crisis they may furnish the necessary basis upon which successful industry is founded, adequate transportation, and to this end urges shippers and receivers of freight to GIVE THE RAIL-ROADS A CHANCE by shipping coal and other carload commodities early, loading cars full and releasing equipment properly.

I, W. T. Kelly, Secretary, certify that the foregoing is a true copy of a resolution passed by the Bellefonte Board of Trade on

We cheerfully give our advertising space to the above resolution. The railroads are the vital element in our industrial life. By helping them, we help our-

Week-Ahead Program Cut this out and save for reference.

SATURDAY, JUNE 30: WANDA HAWLEY and EARLE WILLIAMS in "MASTERS OF MEN," a seven reel drama of the Sea, founded on Morgan Robertson's famous story. Other worthwhile stars appear in cast. Hero, accused of theft, leaves school and joins navy. An effective battleship scene. Also, Hal Roach

News and Lloyd Comedy.

MONDAY, JULY 2: WILLIAM HART in "TRAVELING ON," a story of an Arizona frontier town with hero a tough man who starts to steal the minister's wife but after many trials and tribulations becomes a better man. Also, Pathe

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, JULY 3 AND 4:

JACKIE COOGAN in "DADDY," a six reel dandy story with this wonderful boy star doing some exceptionally fine emotional acting. His struggles serving and eating spaghetti, his pet pig and other boy pranks are plenty of fine comedy, and yet contain pathos in his hunt for fortune and finding daddy. Don't miss it. Also, Sunshine Comedy.

THURSDAY, JULY 5:

WILL ROGERS in "ONE GLORIOUS DAY," is an entertaining curiosity, spiritualism being its theme. It is presented in a humorous vein. A roving spirit got into a professor's body instead of a baby's and some humorous complications ensue. Also, Pathe News and Pathe Review.

GLADYS WALTON in "THE TOWN SCANDAL," is a cute story of this dainty, winsome star, in which she shocks the town by apearing in tights in a show. Also, the eleventh and next to last episode of "THE OREGON

SATURDAY, JUNE 30: TOM MIX in "STEPPING FAST," is another rapid fire, quick action picture by this wonderful star that you won't want to miss. Also, Semon
