Week-Ahead Program

Get this out and save for reference.

SATURDAY, JULY 14:

ETHEL CLAYTON in "EXIT THE VAMP," a story of a husband being vamped away by an adventuress and is brought back by wife playing the same game. Also, Saub Pollard Comedy.

MONDAY, JULY 16:

CONSTANCE BINNEY in "A BILL OF DIVORCEMENT," a six reel society drama with strong human interest. Has to do with insanity in family, divorce, remarriage and recovery. An interesting tangle of love and duty. Also, another episode of "The Leather Pushers," as well as Pathe News and Lloyd Comedy. A big show.

TUESDAY, JULY 17:

WILLIAM HART in "THREE WORD BRAND," a seven reel western film, but of a new type in which Hart plays three parts—father and twin sons. A story of a scheme to rob Utah ranchers of their water rights through crooked politics. Also, the interesting Movie Chats and two reel comedy.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY, JULY 18 AND 19:

ANNE I. NILSSON in "ISLE OF LOST SHIPS," an eight reel picture with all star cast including Milton Sells, Frank Campeau, Walter Long, Hershell Mayall and others. A romantic sensational melodrama that has to do with a society girl and condemned man in the Sargasso sea. Everything good well presented. Don't miss it. Also, a two reel Sunshine Comedy.

FRIDAY, JULY 20:

ETHEL GRAY TERRY in "WHAT WIVES WANT," a story of a wife saved from the consequences of indiscretions. A wife peevish because a husband thinks more of business than of her. Also, the 13th episode of "THE OREGON TRAIL."

Always cool in Scenic. Many powerful electric fans.

Tom Mix, Saturday, July 21.

Important Notice to Milk Shippers

—announcing the issue of $875,000 8% Cumulative First Preferred Capital Stock of the Western Maryland Dairy, Inc., offered to investors by the Commonwealth Bank, Baltimore, Md.

Believing that the public offering of these shares by the Commonwealth Bank will result in an oversubscription, Irvin D. Baxter, Chairman of the Board, and Asa B. Gardiner, President, of the Western Maryland Dairy, Inc., have asked the Bank to give preference to subscriptions received from dairy farmers and others doing business with the Company.

This the Bank has agreed to do. Subscriptions for these shares should be given promptly, therefore, to any employe of the Company; or mailed direct to the Western Maryland Dairy, Inc., Linden Avenue and Dolphin Streets, Baltimore, Md., or to the Commonwealth Bank, Howard and Madison Streets, Baltimore, Md.

In the case of subscriptions received from persons not doing business with the Company, the Bank will give preference in allotments to small subscriptions.

One or more shares may be purchased at $51.50 per share, plus accrued dividend, either for cash or at the rate of $5 per share down and $5 a month. The investment will earn 7 1/2%, free of the present normal Federal income tax, dividend checks being mailed every three months from July 1, 1923.

A pamphlet containing detailed information about the Company's assets, earnings and operations will be sent to anyone on request.
