Bellefonte, Pa., July 13, 1923.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

L. J. Gilliland, of Snow Shoe, has been elected assistant principal of the High school in Lebanon, Pa.

Boyd White, of Axe Mann, is installing a fifteen thousand gallon gasoline service tank just above his store.

All those interested in the Bellefonte Chautauqua should purchase their tickets early and save confusion at the last minute.

The Civic club of Howard will hold a festival on the school lawn in that place Saturday evening, July 21st. Music by the Odd Fellows band, of Bellefonte.

The Logan Fire company, at their picnic at Hecla park on July 4th, cleared just a little over $700, enough to pay for their motor truck with a little over.

Next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Holy communion will be celebrated in the Reformed church at Zion. Rev. Dr. Schmidt will have charge of the service.

On Friday evening, July 13th, the Sunshine circle Sunday school class of the Evangelical church will hold a festival on Halfmoon hill. The Odd Fellows band will furnish music. The public is invited.

The ladies of the Baptist church at Milesburg will hold a festival on the church lawn Thursday evening, July 19th. Home-made bread, sandwiches, pies, ice cream and cake will be on sale. The ladies will appreciate a liberal patronage.

The annual picnic of the Bellefonte Reformed congregation and Sunday school will be held at Hecla park on Thursday, July 19th. Keep the date in mind and arrange to spend the day there. Games and various forms of recreation will be provided.

On Wednesday afternoon Harvey Schaeffer left the Beatty garage in a new Ford runabout and started up High street. In front of the Bush Arcade C. Y. Wagner's big delivery truck got away from the driver and ran into him badly damaging his car.

Game warden Mosher brought to Bellefonte last Friday the dead body of a three weeks old fawn which had three legs cut off by a mowing machine being operated by Milliken Yearick, on the farm about a mile east of Potter's Mills. Mr. Yearick did not see the fawn until after it had been fatally injured.

J. M. Willard, head of the department of mathematics, at Penn State, is hopelessly ill with pernicious anemia at the Johns Hopkins hospital, in Baltimore. Prof. Willard, although in bad health for some time, persisted in carrying on his work until ten days before commencement, when he suffered a complete collapse, since then his condition being critical.

Hundreds of bushels of cherries are doomed to rot on the trees in Centre county because the farmers have not the time to pick them and are unable to secure help to market the fruit. Some farmers are giving the fruit away to those who will pick it. The crop is an unusually large one, although the fruit is not of the highest quality, owing to so much dry weather.

A large corps of ticket sellers for the Bellefonte Chautauqua will make a thorough canvass of the town, street by street, within the next few days. Chautauqua programs have been distributed showing the good things in store for the people of Bellefonte. All those interested in the five days' offering should be prepared to purchase their season tickets when the sellers make their rounds.

On Sunday, July 2nd, Willis E. Wion, with two companions, left Bellefonte at 5:45 o'clock and drove to Philadelphia in a four cylinder Nash car, landing in the Quaker city at 2:15 o'clock in the afternoon. He made one stop of thirty minutes so that the actual driving time was seven hours and a half. The distance he covered was 210 miles. He drove back the next day with a new seven passenger car for W. H. Macker.

John Pelton, young son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pelton, of State College, was badly burned in the face on July 4th by a fire cracker he thought had exploded. He found the cracker and applied a piece of burning punk to the short fuse and almost immediately it exploded and he got the full force of it in his face. His face and eyes were badly burned and at this writing it is not known whether his sight has been impaired or not.

On Monday afternoon, July 2nd, Gilbert Boyer took a run to State College in his Ford coupe. Just as he neared the new stretch of state highway, a short distance east of the College, he turned out for a passing car and in order to avoid hitting a woman walking on the side of the road ran into a deep ditch. His car was completely wrecked, but fortunately, Mr. Boyer escaped with a bad shaking up and some superficial cuts and bruises.

Henry G. Noll, Pleasant Gap's commercial aviator, had a little accident on Monday that will put his ship out of commission for a week or two. He went up for a flight that morning and was in the air about thirty minutes, attaining a height of twelve hundred feet. When he attempted to land he miscalculated his distance from land and came down in a corn field with the result that his machine nosed up. Mr. Noll escaped injury but the ship was slightly damaged. New parts were promptly ordered.

Rev. Evans Resigns as Pastor of Presbyterian Church.

At the evening service on Sunday, July 1st, Rev. David R. Evans, formally presented his resignation as pastor of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, effective August 19th, to accept a call from the congregation of the Knox Presbyterian church, at Kearny, N. J. Rev. Evans came to Bellefonte from Wellsboro just about fifteen months ago and his brief pastorate here has proved a stepping stone to a much wider field of usefulness, as the church at Kearny has a membership exceeding seven hundred and is in the heart of a locality with over thirty thousand residents. In fact Kearny is only a short distance from Newark, N. J. In tendering his resignation Rev. Evans said:

"In taking this action I believe that I have been divinely and providentially guided and that, in obeying these promptings of the spirit of God, I shall be enabled to render a larger ministry for the glory and praise of God, the salvation of souls and the ennobling and transformation of lives. The call to this new field of labor came to your pastor, absolutely unthought."

The Knox Presbyterian church is located in a rapidly growing community, which numbers, at the present time, nearly 30,000 inhabitants, nearly two-thirds of whom are of the protestant faith. There are approximately ten churches administering to the spiritual needs of the town. Every prospect points to the doubling of the population of the community within the next ten years. The field is within about a half-hour's ride of the heart of New York city and within about ten or fifteen minutes' ride of the heart of Newark, N. J., and presents an opportunity such as seldom comes to a man in the ministry.

"While the present pastorate has not been as long as I had expected it to be, still I feel that another servant of God, coming with other methods of approach, may accomplish a larger work than has been possible under the present administration. During this period many souls have been brought to a knowledge of Christ, the current expense and benevolent budgets have been materially increased and are being met, the administrative life of the church has been more effective, and souls have been built up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. For all these, and other blessings, we give thanks and praise unto God."

"As we face the close of the pastorate, your minister does so with the earnest wish and prayer that the church and congregation may be directed by the good hand of God in the choice of a new leader, and that the blessing of a Triune God—Father, Son and Holy Spirit, may increasingly be yours."

Former Centre County Man Installing Carbide Plant in Norway.

James G. Marshall, a former Centre county boy but now superintendent of the Union Carbide company, at Niagara Falls, is at Sande, Norway, installing a carbide plant for a Norwegian company. Mr. Marshall was born and raised in Benner township. He graduated as an electrical engineer at State College, class of 1895, and shortly thereafter located in Niagara Falls. Later he became associated with the Union Carbide company and during the twenty-five years of his association with the company he has been advanced from one position to another until he is now superintendent. He has installed eleven carbide plants in the United States and Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall sailed for Norway on May 25th and on June 29th their two daughters, Miss Dorothy Marshall, who graduated on June 7th at the Russell Sage College, Troy, N. Y., and Miss Lois, a second year student at Wellesley, sailed from New York to join their parents in Norway, and after Mr. Marshall's work is done at Sande the entire family will spend a month or more traveling on the continent.

Bellefonte Soldiers Now in Camp at Mount Gretna.

Bellefonte's unit of the Pennsylvania National Guard, Troop B, of the Fifty-second mounted machine gun regiment, with a full complement of officers and men, are now at Mount Gretna for their annual fifteen days' encampment. The troop left Bellefonte on a special train at 5:34 o'clock last Saturday morning, proceeding over the Lewisburg division. At Oak Hall the Boal troop at Lewisburg, and the Lewisburg Lock Haven troop joined the train. The soldiers will be in camp until the latter part of next week.

Troop B, being without a captain, left in charge of I. cut. "Dode" Miller, the election of a captain to take place at Mount Gretna.

Concert by Orphans' Home Band.

The justly famous Loysville Orphans' Home band will give a delightful concert on the Diamond Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock, and the public is invited to enjoy this musical treat. The band which has appeared in Bellefonte several times before, is composed of forty boys ranging in age from ten to sixteen years, and is under the personal direction of Prof. Harry C. Stenger. They will play a varied program suitable for a Sunday evening engagement and a free will offering will be lifted which will be given entirely to the band. This concert is being managed by St. John's Lutheran church.

Mrs. Mary Kane has resigned as matron of the borough home and on Wednesday moved to the top of Nittany mountain where she will occupy the Dale farm. Mrs. W. E. Keene succeeds her as matron of the borough home.

Every suit in our stock is now priced at a figure that means rare value for every man who comes here. Kuppenheimer, Fashion Park and other good makes of suits.—Sim the Clothier. 27-1t

While working on the new addition to the Sutton-Abrams Engineering company, on Monday morning, Fred Walker, a carpenter, made a misstep and fell from a ladder breaking his right arm, injuring one ear and sustaining body bruises. He was taken to the Bellefonte hospital for treatment.

If you want to practice real economy you won't want to miss this clothing sale. Men who are acquainted with the store know that regular prices they always get full value. But these August clearance sale prices mean a saving in cost and a gain in value that you can't afford to pass by.—Sim the Clothier. 27-1t

The Fourth of July is a thing of the past for this year and the next holiday will be Labor day, but for every evening entertainment go to the Scenic and watch the motion pictures. A two hour show of the latest and best productions of the leading film makers make up the nightly programs. The Scenic is the one place of amusement in Bellefonte open every evening, except Sunday, and only by being a regular will you be able to see all the good ones.

Shortly before five o'clock on Wednesday evening Gross Bros. Ford delivery truck was completely wrecked when it was run down by a heavy fruit truck from Tyrone, at the intersection of High and Spring streets. The driver of the truck was entirely at fault but doubtless blamed the accident on his poor brakes which were not in condition to hold his truck. The Gross Bros. truck was driven by Ed. Gross, who had his daughter with him, but fortunately neither one was injured.

Last Thursday evening a very delightful reception was held in the chapel of the Reformed church for William Schmidt and his bride. Among the guests of the evening were Mrs. Edward Wright and her daughter, the mother and sister of the bride, and Miss Dora Reynolds, all of Johnstown. The next day the bridal party, with their friends, left for Johnstown, where Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt will be "at home" in their apartment at 233 Green street, Westmont.

When you can buy Kuppenheimer and Fashion Park suits at these prices don't put it off. We are determined to sell all suits in our present stocks now, to make way for the fall stocks soon to arrive.—Sim the Clothier. 27-1t

The latter part of last week Joseph Ceader Jr., with his mother, Mrs. Joseph Ceader, and Miss Margaret Cooney left Newark, N. J., to motor to Bellefonte but at Allentown a big picnic bus ran into their car wrecking it so completely that they were compelled to abandon the trip. Mrs. Ceader was coming to Bellefonte to spend the summer and her son for a week's vacation but after the accident they decided to delay their trip and returned to Newark. Miss Cooney was returning home for her summer vacation but because of the wreck went to Bethlehem to visit friends for a week before coming to Bellefonte.

C. D. Casebeer, the well known jeweler of Bellefonte, received a broken arm on the evening of the Fourth while participating in the sports held on east Curtin street. After the children had participated in the potato race the men were invited to enter a race for the entertainment of the children. A number promptly volunteered and during the race Charles F. Beatty ran against Mr. Casebeer with sufficient force to bowl him over and he fell on his left arm, fracturing the bones above the wrist. The only other accident in Bellefonte happened to a young lady of east Bishop street, who fractured the small toe on her left foot when she slipped on the iron ladder in the swimming pool on Hughes field.

Dr. H. Clay Campbell, a well known veterinarian of Philadelphia, came to Centre county last week to spend his vacation and incidentally was assisting his brother Robert, living on the farm at Penn's Cave, get in his hay crop. Early Saturday morning he was helping back the wagon out of the barn floor when he slipped and fell, one wheel passing over his right leg and fracturing the bone above the ankle. He was brought to the Bellefonte hospital where the fracture was reduced, then taken back to his brother's home at Penn's Cave, where he is resting as comfortably as possible. In addition to his own laboratory work Dr. Campbell is an instructor in veterinary work at the University of Pennsylvania.

Hot weather is not all gone by any means—plenty of days yet when you'll be thankful for the cool comfort a light-weight suit will give. You save by buying now for immediate service, and for wear next summer.—Sim the Clothier. 27-1t

Everything Going Lovely at Camp A. G. Morris.

Parents and friends of the forty or more boys who are spending three weeks at Camp A. G. Morris, near Franklinville, in Huntingdon county, will be gratified to learn that they are all well and having an enjoyable time under the supervision of S. S. Aplin, secretary of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., who displays unusual qualifications for managing a boys' camp. He takes a keen, personal interest in each boy, and this factor combined with his extensive knowledge of woodcraft and camp life assures a wonderful time for the boys. The camp is run on a semi-military plan and it is really remarkable how well the boys have adapted themselves to the life.

According to word received from the camp there have been no serious cases of homesickness and most of the boys will regret the coming home time. A special program was carried out on the Fourth of July, which included a ball game between Franklinville and the Camp A. G. Morris teams, the latter winning by the score of 7 to 6. All kinds of sports are indulged in but the track events between the boys create the most enthusiasm.

Among the Bellefonte visitors who have been at the camp are Mr. and Mrs. George R. Meek, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bortoff, Mrs. William Katz, Joseph Herman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Kurtz, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Troup and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Daggett, Mr. and Mrs. John Curtin and a few others. Mrs. Faree and family, of Huntingdon county, were also among the callers. The boys are running the camp on daylight saving time and any one motoring there should bear this fact in mind. Following is a list of the boys who compose the regular party of campers:

Annual Sunday School Convention Held at Orviston.

The fifty-fourth annual Centre county Sunday school convention, held at Orviston June 27-28, was not as largely attended as former conventions, but considerable interest was manifested in the reports of the work done in Centre county the past year.

George E. MacMillan discussed the plans for the tri-county and State training camp on the new grounds near Franklinville, Huntingdon county. The schedule arranged provides for a girls camp from July 24th to August 5th; adult workers from August 7th to 19th, and boys August 21st to September 7th. The resignation of I. L. Harvey as a member of the training camp committee was accepted and Mr. MacMillan was elected to fill the vacancy.

Officers elected for the ensuing year included Prof. I. L. Foster, of State College, president; George Bixel, of Orviston, vice president; Darius Waite, Bellefonte, secretary, and C. C. Shuey, Bellefonte, treasurer.

An Open Appeal for Bellefonte Chautauqua.

The promoters of the Bellefonte Chautauqua are making an open appeal to the fraternal organizations and clubs of Bellefonte, as well as citizens generally, to give all the assistance possible in making this year's Chautauqua a success. The date will be July 21-26, and so great is the faith of the guarantors that they have been willing to guarantee $1800 to bring the Chautauqua to Bellefonte.

The small sum of $3.00 invested by an adult in a season ticket; $1.00 for children and $2.00 for young people, will give a splendid result in high-grade entertainment and an indication that something is being done to boost the town and promote its welfare. There are seventy-eight guarantors and the town will be thoroughly canvassed within the week for the sale of tickets.

A Call for Threshermen.

The Centre county threshermen and Farmers' Protective association will meet in the grand jury room at the court house Saturday, July 14th, at 10 o'clock a. m. New legislation affecting traction engines, tractors, insurance, and fire insurance on threshing outfits, saw mills, etc., will be considered in a way that should interest all operators.

Over-size suits are now under-priced. Stout men have a particular interest in this sale of suits. They can choose from a stock which offers an interesting variety of fabrics, patterns and colors. Plenty of suits, short, tall and slender as well as those who wear regular or stout suits.—Sim the Clothier. 27-1t

Wednesday, July 18th, will be baby health day for the babies of the United Brethren church. The time from 1:30 to 5 p. m. Mothers are requested to attend and take their babies up to school age.

James Reuben Rose, with Mrs. Rose and their daughter Dorothy, stopped in Bellefonte over Sunday, on a drive from Sewickly to Eagles Mere, where Mrs. Rose and the child will spend the summer.

Owing to Mr. Gearhart being transferred from the aviation service here to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Gearhart will vacate the Rachau apartments in the McClain block and leave here on the 18th of June.

Mrs. George Hazel went over to Clearfield a week ago to enter the hospital as a surgical patient and be under the care of Dr. Waterworth. Mrs. Hazel's operation was for goiter, and proved very successful.

John Campbell, of Tyrone, and J. Milo Campbell, of Pennsylvania Furnace, were in Bellefonte Saturday, to see their brother, Dr. Clay Campbell, of Philadelphia, who was brought here to the hospital for an X-ray examination.

Mrs. Southern, who had been visiting in Bellefonte for six weeks, left Wednesday for Ambridge, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. John Hartswick. Mrs. Hartswick intends remaining with her daughter for an indefinite time.

Miss Marie Royer, who has been acting head nurse at the Bellefonte hospital while Miss Hartman had been home for her vacation, has accepted the position of head nurse at the Altoona General hospital, and will leave the first of August to begin her new work.

William Flack and his three children have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flack during the week, having motored here from Philadelphia, Monday. Mr. Flack is a native of Bellefonte and was an apprentice in the barber shop of Billy Storm when he occupied a room in the Bush Arcade.

Mr. and Mrs. Mordecai Miller were host and hostess at a family house party at the Miller home at the toll-gate, the first of the month. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Moore and their daughter Katherine, of Tyrone, and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Miller, of Philadelphia, it being the latter's first visit home since their marriage a short time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Peck, with Mr. and Mrs. Amos Swarmer, of Lewistown, as their driving guests, spent last week motoring through the western part of the State. While visits were made with friends in a number of places along the route, their objective point was Mr. Peck's former home at Homewood; it was there at Homestead and Zellenopol that they spent most of their time.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend S. Moran and their son John, of Buffalo, stopped in Bellefonte over night last week, on a drive to their former home in Phillipsburg, where they expected to spend a short time with Mrs. Moran's sister, Mrs. W. B. Brown, and to make a visit with her brother, W. E. Tyson, at Tyrone. Mrs. Moran and Mrs. Brown, as Sallie and Kate Tyson, with their brother Will, were all born and spent their early life in Bellefonte.

Dr. and Mrs. George P. Ard, with their bright little daughter, of Jefferson City, Mo., are making their annual summer visit at the home of Mrs. Ard's father, I. J. Dreese, at Lemont, and with Dr. Ard's father, Dr. W. P. Ard, at Woodward. Dr. Ard is State psychiatrist in Missouri and on their way east attended the national psychiatric convention at Detroit, Mich., going from there to Atlantic City and returning to Centre county the last week in June.

Miss Berenice Finklestein, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Finklestein, of Norristown, formerly residents of Bellefonte, was an arrival in town Sunday evening for a visit with her uncle Dave and with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Hazel, who were their neighbors when they resided on Willowbank street. Following her stay with the Hazel family, Berenice will visit with LaRue Schaeffer, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Schaeffer.

Melvin J. Griffith, a native of Axe Mann, spent the Fourth here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Griffith, of Spring street. His first visit home in eight years. Melvin left Centre county to seek his fortune when sixteen years of age, and has been in many parts of the country, finally locating in Miami, Florida. His recent invention of the septic tank and his forming of the Florida Septic Tank company, has brought him into considerable prominence in southern Florida, where he will make his home. The trip north at this time was made that he might accompany his family from Akron to Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sternberg of Seattle, Wash., were Bellefonte visitors last Friday and Saturday. This, in itself, might not be very interesting to the average reader, but greater importance is attached to the item when the fact is considered that Mr. Sternberg is a native of Bellefonte, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. Sternberg, and that this was his first visit back to his old home town since he left Bellefonte thirty-two years ago. And he hadn't married a young lady from Columbus, Ohio, four years ago who came east in May to visit her folks. They then decided to come on to Bellefonte just to look the town over, going from here for a brief visit with Mr. Sternberg's two sisters in Philadelphia.

Joseph Cordell, court stenographer of Allegheny county, with Mrs. Cordell; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Penny and Mr. Penny's mother, motored to Bellefonte Saturday from Pittsburgh, and have been guests at the C. W. Showers home, and of Mrs. C. R. Penny's sister, Mrs. David Barlett Jr. at Hecla. Mr. and Mrs. Cordell will return to Pittsburgh in their car, while the other members of the party expect to visit here for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gramley, of Kaneville, Ill., who drove to Pennsylvania in June for a six week's visit with their relatives through the State, spent a part of last week in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Garthoff. During their stay Mr. and Mrs. Garthoff were their motor guests on their drives to different parts of Centre county. Mr. and Mrs. Garthoff expect to leave tomorrow for a week's visit with their daughter, Mrs. J. Linn Blackford and her family, at their home in Huntingdon, and their summer camp on the Juniata river.

Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker, who had gone to Philadelphia to attend the funeral of Mr. Shoemaker's cousin, Mrs. Sue Collins Gallagher returned home the middle of last week, accompanied by Mr. Gallagher and his daughter Josephine; Mrs. Nan Collins Gallagher and her three children. The party drove here in Mr. Gallagher's car, he and his daughter remaining in Bellefonte for several days and taking back with them Miss Ellen Shoemaker, who will be a member of the Gallagher family, at Narberth, for an indefinite time. Mrs. A. B. Gallagher and her children went from here to Linden Hall for a month's stay with Philip Collins before they return to Philadelphia.
