

To Correspondents.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Terms of Subscription.—Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates: Paid strictly in advance - $1.50

Published weekly, every Friday morning. Entered at the postoffice, Bellefonte, Pa., as second class matter.

In ordering change of address always give the old as well as the new address. It is important that the publisher be notified when a subscriber wishes the paper discontinued. In all such cases the subscription must be paid up to date of cancellation.

A sample copy of the "Watchman" will be sent without cost to applicants.

Two Men Killed in Automobile Accident.

Winfield M. Lose, of Milesburg, but who was born and raised in Bellefonte, was the unfortunate victim of an automobile accident on the state highway between Philipsburg and Osceola Mills, at an early hour last Thursday morning, which resulted in two deaths, Joseph Atterson, of Punksutawney, having been killed instantly.

Atterson and Lose fell beneath the car, the former being killed outright while Lose lived until Saturday morning when he died in the Cottage State hospital, Philipsburg, as the result of a fractured skull.

Mr. Lose was a son of W. Scott and Margaret Robb Lose and was born in Bellefonte forty-two years ago, most of his life being spent here. He was a painter by occupation and during the past year had been employed by the Bellefonte Lumber company.

Some years ago he married Miss Annie McGinley, of Milesburg, who survives with one son, Hassell. He also leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Lose, now living in Altoona, two brothers and two sisters, namely: Harry Lose, of Philadelphia; James, of Altoona; Mrs. Joseph McGowan, of Bellefonte, and Miss Ella, of Altoona.

The remains were taken to his late home in Milesburg where funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock on Monday afternoon by Rev. J. F. Andreas, of the Milesburg Methodist church. Interment was made in the Curtin cemetery where the Bellefonte lodge of the Loyal Order of the Moose, of which he was a member, was in charge.

The family and friends hereby express their appreciation of the kindness of neighbors, officials and employees of the Bellefonte Lumber company during the funeral and for the floral offerings contributed.

Stole a Car But Too Busy to be Arrested.

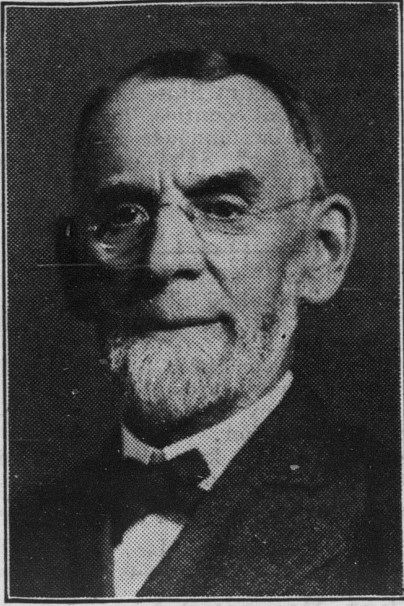

Emory Fink, of Hannah Furnace, is under five hundred dollars bail for his appearance before the Blair county court on the charge of stealing a car belonging to John Carney, a trackman on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad. Carney always rode from his home to where he worked, in his car, parking the machine until his day's work was done.

Motorist Gave Life to Save Child.

Joseph Ashcroft, of Barnesboro, lost his life last Thursday evening in order to avoid hitting a little child on the streets of Houtzdale. Mr. and Mrs. Ashcroft were in the car and were running slowly through the above town when a woman threw a gum ball across the roadway.

Law, Not War.

The national council for prevention of war has appointed the week-end of July 28, 29, the anniversary of the outbreak of the great war, as a time for a world-wide demand for law, not war. Many organizations are sharing in this work.

JARED HARPER

HARPER.—Jared Harper one of the last of the old-time merchants and business men of Bellefonte, passed away at the Bellefonte hospital on Saturday evening. He had been in frail health for some weeks and on Tuesday of last week was taken to the hospital for an operation for bladder trouble.

A son of George and Elizabeth Kreamer Harper he was born at Spring Bank on January 12th, 1839, hence had reached the advanced age of 84 years, 6 months and 9 days. His father died when he was but four years old and he went to live with his sister, Mrs. George Weaver, of Wolf's Store, where he remained until he was seventeen years old when he went to Aaronburg and became an apprentice to learn the trade of a wagon maker.

He worked at that trade fifteen years or longer then came to Bellefonte and became a clerk in the Harper Bros. store on Spring street, which was owned and conducted by his three brothers, William, Jonathan and Simon. He spent fifteen years there and thoroughly mastered the business then, in connection with Harry Teats, opened a store in the McClain block, in the room now occupied by Caldwell's plumbing establishment.

A few years later he moved his store to the Humes block where he was located at the time the block was destroyed by fire in 1887. That fire occurred in the morning and when he saw the building was doomed he secured the room now occupied by Herr & Heverly and gathering about him as much help as possible moved what goods he could into that room and was open for business the same afternoon.

Thoroughly honest in all his dealings he yet exercised remarkable judgment of business conditions and prospered under conditions where many men would have met with only mediocre success. He was a life-long member of the Reformed church and always a faithful attendant and supporter of same.

He was the last of a notable group of elders of his church to go. C. M. Bower, A. Lukenbach, C. T. Gerberich and Jared Harper, a quartet of churchmen of the days that seem to have gone forever. Mr. Harper was a ruling elder for thirty-seven years and until his last illness every one of them had been actively devoted to constructive work in his church.

In 1860, while living at Aaronburg, he married Miss Annie Cronemiller and they had two sons, both of whom died quite young. Following the death of his first wife, or in 1895, he married Miss Mary Wetzel, who survives with one son, John W., of Schenectady, N. Y. He was the last to pass away of his generation of the Harper family.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Thomas street at 10:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning by his pastor, Rev. Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt, after which burial was made in the Union cemetery.

KANE.—Mrs. Elizabeth Ellen Kane, one of the oldest women in this section, died shortly after one o'clock yesterday morning at the home of her son Peter. Notwithstanding the fact that she was a nonagenarian she enjoyed remarkable health up to the beginning of this week when she became ill and passed away yesterday morning.

She was a daughter of Peter and Mary Haupt Solt and was born in Nittany valley on January 11th, 1831, hence had reached the remarkable age of 92 years, 6 months and 15 days. When a young woman she married William Kane and the early part of their married life was spent in Buffalo Run valley. Over fifty years ago they moved to Bellefonte and this had been her home ever since. Her husband died many years ago but surviving her are four children, Edward Kane, of Bellefonte; George, of Harrisburg; Peter and Mrs. John Emel, of Bellefonte. She also leaves one brother, Jacob Solt, of Frederick, Md., one half-sister and three half-brothers, Mrs. Levi A. Walker, James and Conrad Solt, of Williamsport, and Cyrus Solt, of Bellefonte.

Private funeral services will be held at the Peter Kane home at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon, after which the remains will be taken to Curtin for interment.

MONGAN.—Dennis Mongan, probably the last survivor of the old-time furnace men in and around Bellefonte, died quite suddenly on Saturday evening as the result of a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Mongan was employed as night watchman at the plant of the Sutton-Abramsen Engineering company and went on duty Saturday evening as usual. About eight o'clock he told Mr. Hansen that he felt very sick and asked that he be taken to a doctor. Before Mr. Hansen could get him to his car he had become almost helpless and it was evident that he was the victim of a slight stroke, hence he drove as quickly as possible to the office of Dr. Dale but the aged gentleman suffered another stroke and died just as the doctor's office was reached.

Deceased was a son of Dennis and Elizabeth Jones Mongan and was born at Boonesboro, Va., on November 9th, 1852, hence had reached the age of 70 years, 8 months and 21 days. As a young man he served in the U. S. army and was in the Indian war when but twenty-one years of age. On receiving his discharge from the army he located at Sharpsburg, Md., where he went to work as a furnaceman. In 1884 he came to Bellefonte to assist in the rebuilding of the Nittany furnace, but fifteen years later left that plant to go to work as a furnaceman at the Bellefonte furnace, working there until that plant was closed for good. Since then he has worked at various places but of late had been employed as watchman at the Sutton-Abramsen plant. In early life he was a member of the Church of God but of late years had been identified with the Methodist church.

On December 21st, 1886, he married Mrs. Jennie Solt who survives with the following children: Dennis W., of Wilmington, Del.; William and Mrs. Fred Houser, of Bellefonte. He also leaves these step-children: Mrs. J. R. Burley, of Detroit, Mich.; Samuel and J. L. Solt, of Altoona. He was one of a family of eight children only one of whom survives, namely, Christopher C. Mongan, of Hagerstown, Md.

Revs. E. E. McKelvey and C. C. Shuey had charge of the funeral services which were held at ten o'clock on Wednesday morning at his late home on north Allegheny street, after which burial was made in the Sunnyside cemetery.

SMITH.—Augustus Valentine Smith, an old soldier of the Civil war, passed away at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clyde Wetzel, south of Bellefonte. He had been in frail health the past year or more as the result of a stroke of paralysis and his death was not unexpected.

A son of Jacob C. and Hannah Gardner Smith he was born in Howard on July 6th, 1839, hence had reached the age of 84 years and 18 days. His boyhood life was spent in the place of his birth and when the Civil war broke out he enlisted in Company A, 45th regiment and served for three years. Over forty years ago he came to Bellefonte and accepted a clerkship in the Valentine store in the Bush Arcade and when they closed out opened a grocery store of his own which he conducted a number of years and later was associated with the late E. T. Tuten in the grocery business. Seventeen years ago he and his wife went to Nelson, Nebraska, where they lived nine years, returning to Centre county in the fall of 1915. Since the death of his wife he had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Wetzel. He was a member of Gregg Post, No. 95, the only organization to which he belonged.

In 1876 he married Miss Emma Pifer, of Howard, who passed away in 1916, but surviving him are three children: Harry A., of Bellefonte; Mrs. Clyde Wetzel, and Arthur, who makes his home with his sister. He also leaves one brother and two sisters, J. M. Smith, of Berwick; Mrs. Sallie Barham, of Jonesboro, Arizona, and Mrs. Hayes Schenck, of Renovo.

Funeral services were held at the Wetzel home at one o'clock yesterday afternoon by Rev. M. C. Piper, after which the remains were taken to Howard for burial.

RAY.—John C. Ray, a native of Centre county, died on Sunday at the Methodist home for the aged in Tyrone, where he had been a guest the past seventeen months. Some five years ago he sustained a stroke of paralysis and although he partially recovered so as to do some work for several years he finally decided to enter the home.

He was a son of Robert and Elizabeth Ray and was born in Centre county about sixty-eight years ago. When a young man he engaged in the sewing machine business and for many years lived in Lewisburg. It was there his wife died about six years ago. He had no children but is survived by four brothers, S. D. Ray Esq., of Bellefonte; George, of Mill Hall; Calvin, of Altoona, and Ambrose, of Bellefonte.

The remains were taken to Lewisburg on Tuesday where burial was made the same day.

SWOPE.—Roland D. Swope, a well known attorney and coal operator of Curwensville, and a brother of Congressman William I. Swope, died on Friday morning following an illness of seven months, aged almost 68 years. In addition to being recognized as one of the ablest lawyers in Clearfield county he had various business interests in that section of the State. His wife and three children survive. Burial was made at Curwensville on Monday afternoon.

—Subscribe for the "Watchman."

WAITE.—The sudden and unexpected death of George H. Waite, at his home on Phoenix avenue on Tuesday night, was quite a shock to his numerous friends in Bellefonte. While he had not been in good health for a year or more and had done little work since last October he was around so frequently that his condition was not regarded as even very serious. In fact he was out and around his home most of Tuesday but shortly before six o'clock suffered a collapse. Three other sinking spells followed in quick succession and at 9:45 o'clock he passed away.

He was a son of Adam and Amanda Tate Waite and was born at Barree, Huntingdon county, on February 20th, 1859, making his age 64 years, 5 months and 4 days. When he was a boy his parents came to Centre county and located at Howard where as a young man he worked in the Bernard Lauth rolling mills. Thirty-six years ago he came to Bellefonte and two years later went to work for the Bellefonte Fuel & Supply company. It is a matter worthy of note that during the more than a third of a century that he was employed there, up until his late illness, he never missed a day through sickness and rarely, if ever, took a vacation. He was the one man who could always be found on the job and in every way possible was faithful to the interest of his employers. He was a member of the lodge of P. O. S. of A. and the Loyal Order of the Moose and the few social hours he spent with his fellow members were his only diversions. All the rest of his time was given to his work and his home.

In 1882 he married Miss Sarah Sharp, of Bellefonte, who survives with the following children: George Waite, of Williamsport; Miss Emma, at home; Fred, of Trafford City; John, of Johnstown; Joseph, in San Francisco; Gilbert, Merrill and Ruth, at home. He also leaves his aged mother, living in Bellefonte, one brother and a sister, Allen Waite, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Harry Rhoads, of Wilkingsburg.

Funeral services will be held at his late home at two o'clock this (Friday) afternoon by Rev. E. E. McKelvey, after which burial will be made in the Union cemetery.

WOOMER.—Jay F. Woomeer, quite well known in the western section of Centre county, died at his home in Juniata on Monday morning, following an illness of some weeks with an ulcerated stomach. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Woomeer and was born in Ironsboro, Blair county, on December 16th, 1869, hence was in his fifty-fourth year. He was employed by the Pennsylvania railroad company in Juniata and was a member of the P. R. R. relief association and the Juniata Lodge of Odd Fellows.

Surviving him are his wife and two children, Mrs. Clyde Keefer, of Tyrone, and Robert C., of Juniata. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. George McWilliams, of Pennsylvania Furnace; Mrs. George Glass, of Uniontown; Mrs. Olive Archey, of Graysville; Miss Bell, of Juniata; Joseph K., of Homer's Gap; Mrs. Herbert Lippincott, of Haddonfield, N. J., and E. K. Woomeer, of Graysville.

Rev. J. O. C. McCracken had charge of the funeral services which were held at 2:30 o'clock on Wednesday, burial being made in the Grandview cemetery at Juniata.

HERSHEY.—A. J. Hershey, the oldest known resident of Snow Shoe township, died on July 14th at the age of 97 years. Though he was the father of seven children he outlived them all but one, his only survivor being one daughter, Mrs. Hiram Shimmel, of New Kensington. His wife preceded him to the grave many years ago. Mr. Hershey was buried in Askey's cemetery on July 16th.

JOHNSTON.—Mrs. Mary Stoler Johnston died at her home at State College last Friday, following an illness of some weeks, aged seventy years. She is survived by two daughters, Misses Mary and Ellen, at home, and two sisters, Mrs. John C. Eaton, and Miss Ellen Stoler, both of Blanchard. Burial was made in the Disciple church cemetery at Blanchard on Monday morning.

The Bellefonte Chautauqua closed last night after a five days' session. The various musical entertainments and lectures were enjoyed by all those who were able to attend, but this was the first year that the Chautauqua did not feature a band concert, which always delighted so many people. Though the guarantee this year was only $1300, owing to the Chautauqua being confined to five days, the advance sale of tickets failed to cover it. Only a little over one thousand dollars resulted from the ticket sale, which left in the neighborhood of three hundred dollars to be made up by the guarantors, or an assessment of about five dollars each. An effort is being made to sign up guarantors for the return of the Chautauqua next year, but nothing decisive had developed when the "Watchman" went to press.

Marriage Licenses.

Clair E. Reiter, Karthaus, and Virginia Lucas, Pottersdale. Elisha Darlington and Helen S. Chambers, West Chester. Ralph C. Solt and Mabel L. Heylman, Williamsport. Forrest F. Bennett and Anna B. Haines, Jersey Shore. G. C. Askey, Philipsburg, and Guldie E. Long, Glenn Campbell.

—Subscribe for the "Watchman."

State Police Busy in Centre County.

Quite a number of Centre county automobilists were caught in the state police dragnet spread out on the various state highways of Centre county last week. Most of them were for minor infractions of the highway rules promulgated by Secretary Wright but it resulted in fines and costs for the unfortunates. One of the men caught in the net spread last Thursday on the paved highway this side of Runville was a county official. He was held up for running without a tail light, but according to the men who were with him the light was on when they left Gum Stump and the connection had evidently been broken while the car was in action.

This explanation, however, was not satisfactory to the state police who insisted that the man pay his fine. The policemen volunteered the information that they had received drastic orders from headquarters to rigidly enforce the rules in Centre county especially, but was unable to explain why motorists of this county had been singled out as deserving of drastic action. Under the circumstances the county official paid his fine.

The complete list of those who fell in the dragnet and who were fined by the peace of J. M. Keichline is as follows: Edward Thompson, Bellefonte, driving without a tail light; Benjamin Aikie, Bellefonte, no tail light; John Curtin, Bellefonte, no tail light; Harold Mayes, Howard, reckless driving; M. N. Swabb, Johnstown, no tail light; David Tressler, Bellefonte, only one head light; F. T. Davidson, Snow Shoe, Intersection, no tail light; Samuel Vonada, Bellefonte, no tail light; W. V. Smith and J. C. Hockman, Bellefonte, reckless driving; George Yarnell, Mingoville, no tail light; Ben Gordon, Bellefonte, no tail light; Harry S. Tressler, Bellefonte, no tail light; F. H. Sampson, Fleming, no registration certificate; George Gilliland, Bellefonte, no tail light; Dr. R. L. Capers, Bellefonte, no tail light, and Harold Alex, Bellefonte, no tail light.

Reformed Reunion at Lakemont Park.

Members of the Reformed churches of Central Pennsylvania will hold their annual reunion at Lakemont park, Altoona, on Thursday, August 9th, and many members in Centre county will doubtless attend.

Dr. George D. Robb, chairman, and his efficient committee of arrangements have made every provision for a big day. A strong program has been arranged by the committee in charge of that work. The morning worship will be in the casino at eleven o'clock. Liturgical service will be in charge of visiting ministers. Rev. Howard S. Fox, pastor of St. John's church, Roaring Spring, will preach on "Elijah."

Rev. Elmer L. Coblenz will speak at the 2:30 service in the theatre. His theme will be "Why Believe in the Church?" He is recognized as one of the ablest orators of the denomination. H. S. Lang, who has always had charge of sports on Reformed day, will have new events this year, with suitable prizes.

"The Light of the World," a sacred cantata first presented at the world Sunday school convention in Japan, will be the evening attraction. It will be given by a cast and chorus from Grace Reformed church, under the direction of Miss Maude Minster.

Darlington—Chambers.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Chambers, on east Curtin street, was the scene of a quiet little wedding, at eleven o'clock last Saturday, when their niece, Miss Helen S. Chambers, of West Chester, was united in marriage to Elisha Darlington, a well known young business man of the same place. Rev. E. E. McKelvey, pastor of the Methodist church, performing the ceremony. The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Chambers and was born and spent her girlhood in Bellefonte. For a number of years past she has made her home in West Chester and it is in that city the young couple will continue to live.

Eisenhuth—Orndorf.—Last Saturday morning Orvis Eisenhuth, of Penn township, and Miss Edna Orndorf, of Woodward, came to Bellefonte and after securing the necessary marriage license inquired for a minister. Rev. Dr. Schmidt was summoned and the young people were united in marriage in the library in the court house, the witnesses being register Frank Sasserman and Miss Winifred M. Gates.

Just before noon yesterday D. M. Kline drove his Studebaker car down High street and parked it in front of William Ott's residence while he went into a nearby store. The brake failed to hold and the car ran down High street to in front of Thal's store where it swerved to the left and crashed into one of the trees, wrecking the right front fender.

Harold Mayes, of Howard, fell into the official drag net to catch speeders and was fined $12.50. A story was in circulation to the effect that the young man had been fined $125 for transferring license tags from his Ford runabout to a Ford coupe without authorization of the Highway Department, but he says there is nothing to it.

While cleaning a revolver on Tuesday, Herbert Justice, of Coleville, was shot through the palm of his left hand and the fleshy part of his left leg. It was another case of taking it for granted that the weapon was not loaded. Neither of the wounds are considered serious.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

—Dr. R. L. Stevens joined Mrs. Stevens and their family last week, for a short visit at his former home in Petersburg.

—Mrs. H. C. Quigley is visiting in New York State, a guest of her own family relatives, and with Judge Quigley's sister, Mrs. W. D. Horne, at Youkers.

—Mrs. Josie Willard Hazel and her son Edward, who had been for a short visit with Mrs. Hazel's aunt, Mrs. William Larimer, at Rockview, returned to her home in Altoona, Wednesday.

—Mrs. Mabel Stover Williams is home on a vacation visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stover, of Logan street. Mrs. Williams is a nurse in training at the Hazleton State hospital.

—C. B. Nicholson, the American Lime & Stone company's representative in Pittsburgh, was in Bellefonte this week on his first trip back since leaving with Mrs. Nicholson, early in July.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walkey and their young son, with Mrs. James Selbert as a motor guest, drove to Stoyestown last week, for an over-Sunday visit with cousins of Mrs. Selbert and Mr. Walkey.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gramley, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. George Emeric, of Centre Hall, were among the out of town relatives in Bellefonte Wednesday, for the funeral of the late Jared Harper.

—Gertrude, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Claude Dawson, of Philadelphia, came to Bellefonte a week ago to spend the remaining part of her school vacation with her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Griffith, of Spring street.

—Mrs. May Turner Handley, of Buffalo, will spend next week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Turner, of Brawn Row. She is coming to Bellefonte for her daughter Helen, the child having been with her grand-parents for several weeks.

—Mrs. Frank Barron, of Altoona, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. H. Johnstonbaugh at her home at Axe Mann. Mrs. Barron has not been in good health lately and it is hoped that a stay of a month or so in the environment of the old home will be beneficial.

—Mrs. Rachel Harris, who returned to Bellefonte two weeks ago, from an extended visit with her son in Detroit, is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John McCoy, during the latter's absence in Hagerstown. Mrs. McCoy and her daughter Jane left a week ago for a visit with Mrs. McCoy's brother, in Maryland.

—The four Pennington children, Lillian, Mary, Franklin and Charles, who had been on a two week's visit with their aunt, Mrs. Emma Stauffer, in Altoona, returned home Saturday. Three of the children and their father make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Massey, of Pine street, while the remainder of the family are with their grandmother, Mrs. Peter Smith, on Bishop street.

—The Japanese beetle is a greater menace to this country than the Japanese battleships ever were.

—Only four more days of trout fishing and the agony will be over for this season.

PLEASANT GAP.

Glenn Weaver, of Tyrone, is visiting with his parents.

F. D. Millward and family spent Sunday at Huntingdon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Jodon motored to Harrisburg last week.

James Kepler is visiting with his two brothers in Pittsburgh.

Boyd Spicer and family spent Sunday with friends at Tyrone.

Rev. Young and family, of Dubois-town, are visiting with C. K. Stitzer.

Mrs. Theodore Ramsey, of Harrisburg, is visiting with relatives in this town.

The Sunday schools of this place will hold their annual picnic at Hecla park Saturday, July 28th.

George Musser, of Virginia, was a visitor for a few days last week with his brother, T. M. Musser.

The Pleasant Gap ball team will hold one of their mammoth festivals Saturday evening, in Noll's grove.

Margaret Wartz, of Sunbury, also Mr. and Mrs. William Derome, of Williamsport, are visitors at the J. C. Mulfinger residence.

That famous bird, the Stork, flew over our town this week and left a nine pound baby boy at the home of Edward Mulfinger; also one at the home of Guy Wells.

So many of our former employees of the penitentiary are worrying since their unexpected suspension, and frequently ask, when will work be resumed? This is a conundrum. To "man up a tree" the present prospects look dark, dismal, gloomy and discouraging. An appropriation of $450,000 passed the Legislature, but when Governor Pinchot began his shoving down process from necessity, as it is alleged, on account of insufficient available funds, his Excellency lopped off $205,000 from the original allowance, leaving a balance of $245,000. The first move on the checker board will likely be a complete reorganization from top to bottom and numerous changes may result. For the present it looks anything but encouraging so far as resumption is concerned. It is to be regretted that so many have been thrown out of employment; they however, have the consolation of knowing that there is an abundance of labor in sight all over the land.

Even a Donkey Will Listen to Good Advice Yet May Not Heed.

Some say, "The road to hell is paved with good intentions." Not having made the trip, I don't know but I do know that thousands suffering from eye strain, having been advised by their physicians and friends to consult a reliable optometrist and get correctly fitted glasses if so advised. Many failed to heed the advice of their physicians until an operation was necessary.

Dr. Eva B. Roan, Optometrist. Licensed by the State Board. Bellefonte every Wednesday afternoon, and Saturday 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Rooms 14 and 15 Temple Court building. State College every day except Saturday. Both phones. 68-1