

Church Services Next Sunday.

ST. JOHN'S REFORMED CHURCH.
Services next Sunday morning at 10:45. No evening services until September.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
"We aim to serve."

Lord's day services—9:45 Bible school; 10:45 morning worship. This will be an unusual service. Every member is urged to attend. Special message by the pastor; also sermon for the junior congregation. Evening worship at 7:30 with sermon by the pastor.

Special Note—In a quiet, dignified way and as an act of worship we plan to wipe out the indebtedness of the church. A debt unpaid because a milestone about the neck of the church and increases the financial burden through interest charges, as time runs on. We invite every member of the church and congregation to meet with us Sunday morning and assist in re-establishing the credit of the church. Those who are absent on Sunday will be seen during the week by a committee of the men of the church. Attend Sunday and save them this extra work!

David R. Evans, M. A., Minister.

UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH.

Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Morning worship, 10:30, "The Compassion of Jesus." C. E. 6:30 p. m. Evening worship, 7:30, "The Normal Life." Fourth quarterly conference, Monday, July 30th, at 7:30 p. m. Dr. J. S. Fulton, conference superintendent, will preside.

Frank B. Hackett, Pastor.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Services for Sunday, July 29: Ninth Sunday after Trinity, 8 a. m. Holy Eucharist. 11 a. m. Mattins and sermon. The Rev. A. M. Judd, executive secretary of the Diocese, will be in charge of these services. Evensong omitted. Visitors welcome.

Rev. M. DeP. Maynard, Rector.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

"The Friendly Church."

Ninth Sunday after Trinity. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. Morning worship 10:45. Visitors always welcome. No evening service until September.

Rev. Wilson P. Ard, Minister

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The pastor will speak next Sunday morning at 10:45 on "The Value of Enthusiasm in Christian Work," and at 7:30 on "The Reason Why God Gave Us Commandments." The Sunday school for all ages at 9:30. Both Epworth Leagues at 6:30.

Monday night, teacher training; Tuesday night, class; Wednesday night, prayer and Bible study.

We have a lot of empty jars at the church to be filled for the home for the aged, at Tyrone. Do not forget them.

E. E. McKelvey, Pastor.

AARONSBURG REFORMED CHURCH.

Aaronsburg—Sunday school 9:30; Holy communion 10:30.
Coburn—Sunday school 9:30; Holy communion 7:30.

The Salem Reformed Sunday school of the Aaronsburg charge will hold their picnic in Herring's grove west of the church, on Saturday, July 28th. All members and friends of the school are urged to be present.

Rev. John S. Hollenbach, Pastor.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY.

Christian Science Society, First building, High street, Sunday service 11 a. m. Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. To these meetings all are welcome. An all day free reading room is open to the public every day. Here the Bible and Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased.

CENTRE HALL.

Our baseball boys are going to Pittsburgh for the game on Monday.

Miss Grace Smith has been preparing her list of children of school age.

Mrs. W. B. Garis is entertaining her sister and husband, from Greensburg.

Mrs. Spyer and children are visiting their old home in Huntingdon county.

Mrs. F. P. Geary and daughter Agnes are spending several weeks at Central Oaks Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher are visiting their daughter and son-in-law, the Cornans, at Cressona.

Mrs. Amanda Lukenbach, of Lewis-town, is spending a month with her sister, Mrs. D. J. Meyer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lambert made a trip to Delaware Water Gap, where they enjoyed one of the many family reunions now in vogue.

A baby came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Musser, on Monday night. Mrs. Musser, before her marriage, was Miss Grace Fye.

Miss Laura Runkle entertained the "Club," of which she is a member. The members come from Millheim, Spring Mills and Bellefonte, as well as Centre Hall.

Mrs. Jennie Sandoe, of Ingram, came to Centre Hall on Friday for an indefinite visit. While here her headquarters will be at her old home—now the Bartholomew residence.

Helping the Farmer

THE FARMER should pray to be delivered from his political friends. In the last Congress the Farm Bloc put through certain legislation on the plea that it would help the farmer. The Grain Futures Act was part of this legislation. When it was enacted wheat was selling at $1.27. The price is now less than one dollar.

The Emergency Tariff and Fordney Bill—other measures—have increased the cost of everything the farmer buys, closed his foreign markets and advanced the cost of labor.

Farming conditions will not improve until the questions at issue between Germany and the Allies are settled, and until there is a market here for foreign goods taken in exchange for our surplus produce.

But the next Congress will see the quacks again at work trying to fool the farmer with silly legislation.

Week-Ahead Program

Out this out and save for reference.

SATURDAY, JULY 28:
ALICE BRADY in "ANNA ASCENDS," a story of Syrian emigrant girl with great ambitions, and is a pleasing melodrama that is considered Miss Brady's best picture, and well adapted to her. Also, a Hal Roach Comedy in two reels.

MONDAY, JULY 30:
MARION DAVIES in "THE YOUNG DIANA," is a fantastic story showing the heroine being jilted when she becomes old, but is later rejuvenated by the elixir of life, meets her old lover and happiness reigns. Her beauty and the artistry of the picture appeal. Also, The Leather Pushers, Pathe News and Lloyd Comedy, a great program.

TUESDAY, JULY 31:
BETTY COMPTON in "THE LAW AND THE WOMAN," a 7 reel story of a faithful wife saves her husband from a supposed crime of killing his ward by becoming a vamp and forcing a confession from real criminal. An interesting, modern drama. Also, Comedy and Movie Chats.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY, AUGUST 1 AND 2:
MARGARET de la MOTTE in "WHAT A WIFE LEARNED," is an all star seven reel domestic drama that will please, as it is the hard story of wifehood mixing with career-hood. John Bowers, Milton Sells and other well known stars in plot. A bursting dam supplies the thrills. Miss de la Motte's acting is superb. Also, 2 reel Sunshine Comedy.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 3:
GLADYS WALTON in "CROSSED WIVES," is a good farce comedy by this dainty little artist, being a "hick" characterization. Eddie Gibbon and big Kate Price add to it. A telephone operator aspires to a social marriage and finally attains it. Also, an episode of the wild west historical serial, "THE OREGON TRAIL." It is always cool in the Scenic.
