PLEASANT GAP.

Minnie eGntzel, of Philipsburg, is visiting at the Charley Bilger home.
Joe Huntsinger, of Pottstown, is visiting with Miss Anna Mae Lambert.
Abner Musser, wife and three children, of Pitcairn, are visiting in our town.
Miss Thelma Wallace, of Pitcairn, is spending a few days with Beatrice Noll.
Helen Glasgow, of Centre Hall, spent the week-end with Miss Margaret Keller.
Miss Jennie Zeigler, of Madisonburg, spent the week-end with Miss Helen Gettling.
Mrs. Ray Melroy is visiting this week in Williamsport, in the Dr. Langley family.
Miss Bess Eckenroth, who had been spending the summer in California, returned home Sunday.
The huge cherry crop harvest is over; blackberries are now attracting the attention of the pickers. The blackberries are finely developed and the yield is a very prolific one.
T. E. Jodon, our cattle buyer, is again busy buying cattle. He has about 25 head in his spacious pasture grounds and more coming in daily. Tommy is partial to the handling of choice blooded stock, however, he turns down nothing that is marketable. Mr. Jodon disposed of a car load of choice cattle Monday last.
Our farmers are agreeably surprised since our thresherman, Collins Baumgardner started in on his threshing tour. Wheat is yielding far above the average; the wheat heads are much larger than usual and exceedingly well filled. This is good news for our farmers, as under existing circumstances they need all they can get.
Adrian Primrose and daughter Olive, of New York, are visiting George Harrison, of Bellefonte, and the family of W. A. Hoover, of our village. Mr. Primrose is a manufacturer of violins, while his daughter is a superb manipulator of the piano, her qualifications in that line being unexcelled; both have made many friends during their brief sojourn here.
Some of our office seekers are making frequent inquiries as to how many registered women voters we have in Spring township. I am in possession only of the number that were entitled to vote at the time of their first vote, as follows: South precinct, 245; North Precinct, 191; West, 168; a total of 604. A sufficiency to cut quite a figure if all would vote. However, not one-fourth voted; and the vote has been falling off annually. Now that they are obliged to pay taxes same as men they may recuperate and declare themselves.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Miss Margaret Robinson, of Altoona, is visiting at her parental home here.
Miss Edith Sankey, of Centre Hall, is visiting at the Charles Smith home in this place.
Mrs. Emma Saunders and her twin sister, Mrs. McCartney, both of Altoona, spent Sunday at the home of their nephew, Hon. J. Will Kepler, in this place.
Word was received here yesterday morning that Elmer Barr, who was taken to the Geisinger hospital, in Danville, ten days ago, underwent an operation on Wednesday afternoon and so far as results were concerned it seemed very satisfactory. His sister Sallie and Mrs. Minnie Goss are with him.

The anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Susan Goss was celebrated at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elsie Corb, on the old Goss homestead, with a dinner yesterday, to which many of her relatives were invited.

BOALSBURG.

Alvin Johnstonbaugh recently purchased a new Ford runabout.
Mrs. Anne Patterson, who had been quite ill, is slightly improved.
Mr. Floray purchased the late John Charles' property at public sale on Saturday, the price being $2,025.
Mrs. Leonidas Mothersbaugh and Mrs. Susan Keller spent part of last week with friends at State College.
Rev. William Wagner and A. W. Dale visited Wallace White, who is confined to his home near Linden Hall.
Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brooks and daughter Evelyn, of Spring Mills, were visitors at the home of Jacob Meyer, recently.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reitz, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reitz and Fred Reitz visited at the home of P. B. Jordan, at Colyer, on Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Owens and Reuben Kaup, of Bellefonte, and Jacob Kaup, of Wilkinsburg, were in town on Sunday evening.
Misses Gladys and Mary Hazel returned home after a visit of several weeks with their sister, Mrs. Charles Maxwell, near Albany, N. Y.

College to Train Men for Cow Testing Work.

Because of the great shortage of men trained for cow testing association work, the dairy department of The Pennsylvania State College will give a short course of six days beginning August 13th, to train men for the positions now open. The only qualifications for entrance required by the college officials are accuracy with figures, practical dairy experience, honesty, and good judgment.
Testing associations in fifteen counties of Pennsylvania are organized and ready to begin the testing work as soon as capable men can be secured. A number of other counties plan to start associations in the near future. The counties in which associations are already organized are: Centre, Potter, Clarion, Bedford, York, Lawrence, Monroe, Bucks, Erie, Crawford, Huntingdon, Bradford, Clearfield, Lehigh and Perry.
"Officers of associations are offering from $75 to $100 a month and board for good testers, and several large associations will pay more," says C. R. Gearhart in commenting on the shortage.

About the only way to reconcile State Treasurer Snyder to the new conditions at Harrisburg is to let him in on the patronage.
