Democratic Matchman. Bellefonte, Pa., August 10, 1923.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Candidates for the fall primaries have only eleven more days in which to file their nomination papers, the last day being Tuesday, August 21st.

-T. L. Smith, of Centre Hall, was elected conductor at the fourth annual meeting of the Central Pennsylvania association, P. O. S. of A., held at Lewistown last Friday.

-Miss Alice Tate, who had spent two months at home, after being a patient in the Bellefonte hospital for seventeen weeks, was obliged to return to the hospital a week ago.

-Owing to the impaired health of Philip L. Beezer his son and daughter, Arthur and Helen Beezer, will take over his interest in the Beezer meat market on August 15th and con- they made an effort on Friday night duct the same in the future.

-Mr. and Mrs. Guy Coll are now occupying the apartments in the Furst lowing the thrilling incident of Thursbuilding, on High street, opposite the Richard Lutz, on east Howard street.

their annual picnic tomorroy in creted behind the window casing a steel the Hartsock grove, just above Par- dinner knife which they nicked to readise. It is hoped that it will develop semble a saw and with this rude ininto a community affair, as every one strument sawed the heads off of a in the valley is invited, regardless of number of rivets that held the top of church affiliations.

-Miss Theressa Shields, who is now taking a post graduate course in nursing at Columbia University, New York city, has resigned her position as directress of nurses at the Cottage State hospital, Philipsburg. It is understood that Miss Shields has a better position in view.

-Harry A. Thompson, editor of the Tyrone Times, has been appointed postmaster of Tyrone to succeed Al. S. Garman. Mr. Thompson's strongest competitor for the appointment was assistant postmaster Fred C. Buck, who will likely be retained in his position when the office changes hands.

-Gordon Amend, an instructor College, is mourning the death of his mother, Mrs. J. H. Amend, who died at her home at Wilkinsburg on Sunday. Her maiden name was Hagerty . and she was born near Houtzdale. Burial was made at Williamsburg on Wednesday.

-The evenings have grown decidis crowded is evidence that the pic- day night, all heavily guarded.

All Stores to Close at Noon Today. CONVICTS MAKE SECOND TRY

Banks Will be Closed Today.

Harding.

lowing program will be observed:

Address-Col. J. L. Spangler.

Hymn-"Lead Kindly Light."

Servant Depart in Peace."

verses).

Schmidt.

College.

Evans.

National Anthem-(1st and last

Prayer-The Rev. Dr. Ambrose M.

Closing Prayer-Rev. David R.

Chant-"Lord, Lettest Now Thy

Camp Grounds to be Dedicated.

Official dedication of the tri-county will take place at 2:30 p. m. on Sun-

located about two miles east of Spruce

AT BREAKING JAIL. the late President Harding all stores But Now Safely Housed in Concrete and business places in Bellefonte will Cells in Death House at close today at noon, to remain closed the balance of the day.

Rockview. Clair Jamison, Arthur Price and

Edward Fiddell, the three escaped convicts who staged a daring escape from the Centre county jail at noon last Thursday, but were foiled in their act through the bravery and cool headedness of Miss Marion Dukeman, who clung to Jamison after he had gotten Marion this afternoon. out into the hallway of the sheriff's residence until her father appeared, and the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Dukeman in hurriedly locking the jail door to keep others from getting out, are now in a safe place for keeping, having been transferred on Saturday night to the western penitentiary at Rockview and placed in three of the concrete cells in the death house.

The men have proven to be three desperate characters. Not content with their attempt at escape last Thursday to wreck the steel cell in which they were incarcerated. Immediately folday noon the three men were locked court house, having gone there from the home of Mrs. Coll's mother, Mrs. in a steel cell from which the iron bed and everything that could be converted into a weapon of destruction had -The Sunday school of Gray's been removed. Or, at least, so the church, in Halfmoon valley, will hold sheriff believed. But the men had se> their steel cell in place. When discamp grounds, in Huntingdon county, covered they had succeeded in pushing up the heavy slabs of steel and had a hole almost large enough to

> Creek and about a mile north of the crawl through. On Friday night, at the request of the sheriff, two state policemen were sent here to act as guards and a continuous watch was placed over the men. On Saturday district attorney

James C. Furst got into communication with the warden, John M. Egan, of the western penitentiary, and asked that the men be taken back to the penitentiary. Warden Egan was loath to grant the request, owing to the crowded condition of the old penitentiary at Pittsburgh and because of the effect in English at The Pennsylvania State afternoon, however, at the suggestion grown variety offered in the Belleof Judge Quigley, warden Egan consented to have the three men taken to enterprising proprietor of the Bon Rockview and imprisoned in the concrete cells in the death house, and a court order was issued by the judge for a transfer of the men and pro- just happened that Bill Taylor's horse viding for their appearance before the court of Centre county on the fourth edly longer and there is no better Monday of September to answer to place in Bellefonte to spend them than any and all charges which may at that truck and devoured about one-third at the Scenic. There you are assured time be lodged against them. The of two hours of motion picture enter- convicts were taken to Rockview betainment, and the fact that the Scenic | tween ten and eleven o'clock on Saturtures are appreciated. Get the habit | While the three men will h and become a regular, thus being as- answer to the Centre county court for breaking and escaping from the Rock--A very beautiful memorial view penitentiary and attempted esservice in tribute to President Hard- cape from the Centre county jail, ing was held Sunday morning in St. Jamison and Price will have addition-John's Lutheran church, Bellefonte. It al charges to face. The former is the at an early hour on Friday morning, watched him as much as possible but time. Miss Graham has now decided to rewas featured by special music and an man who hit the sheriff with an iron address by Rev. Wilson P. Ard in bar, cutting a gash on his head, fracwhich he spoke feelingly of the great turing three ribs and seriously injurheart, the sterling character, the ex- ing his right hand. Price is the man who brutally beat up Timpco Capella, istics of America's martyred chief- the trusty, so that he had to be sent tain, that made him loved and esteem- to the hospital for treatment. Both car was considerably damaged. men are liable to charges of assault kill. It is understood that one or two be taken into consideration when they The original sentences of the three they have enough coming to them now to send them up for long terms.

BUSINESS MEN'S PICNIC.

Out of respect to the memory of Expect Next Thursday's Gathering at Hecla Park to be Biggest of the Season.

If none of their plans miscarry the fourth annual picnic of the Associated Busines Men of Bellefonte to be held at Hecla park on Thursday of next week will be the biggest gathering of The Bellefonte Trust company and the First National bank of Bellefonte the season at that place. In these will be closed today as a memorial to days of automobiles galore it is an the late President, Warren G. Hard- easy matter for anybody living in Cening, whose funeral will take place at tre county to take a day off and join the Bellefonte business men in this annual affair. It will be a day of rest Memorial Services for President and recreation from business cares and afford a good opportunity for a co-mingling of business men from all Community memorial services for the towns and villages with the men, the late President Harding will be women and children from the farms held in the court house at three o'clock and countryside. No formal invitathis (Friday) afternoon. Judge Hen- tions will be sent out but this article ry C. Quigley will preside and the fol- is notice to every individual who reads it that he or she is invited.

Every arrangement will be made to take care of all who may attend, regardless of the size of the crowd. the parking of cars and responsible Address-Dr. John M. Thomas, persons will look after the safety of cousin, Capt. George P. Runkle. president of The Pennsylvania State every car. Both dinner and supper who wish to do so can take their own basket. In addition to the regular program a big Midway of various concessions will lend itself to the entertainment of the crowd. Motor busses will leave every hour during the day, starting at 8 o'clock. The complete program | three weeks. and State Sunday school training for the day is as follows: 9-10:30-Concert by the I. O. O. F. band of Bellefonte. Quoit pitching contests. day, August 12th. The grounds are (Register on the grounds).

10:30-Baseball game, State College vs. Millheim 10:30-12-Boating, swimming, etc. 12-1:30-Big picnic dinner served by 2 p. m.-Dancing; music by Penn State

2-3 p. m .- Band concert, with special 3:00-Baseball game, Centre Hall vs.

4:30-5:30-Quoit pitching contests, semi-finals and finals. 5:30-7:00-Supper by Jerles. 7:30-11:00-Dancing, music by Penn

Excitement by Wandering from Home.

A two year old, curly haired boy created more excitement in Ferguson of his truck to take home later. Now it township, on Tuesday, than that community has witnessed for many a day. was standing nearby and the smell of The little lad, Wilmer Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Andrews, who occupy the tenant house on the A. C. Tuesday afternoon. Kepler farm in the Glades, wandered away from home between 8:30 and 9 led away. The corn was evidently just o'clock in the morning and it was and Stone company, arrived in Bellefonte

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Miss Agnes Shields has gone to Altoona to spend her vacation with her cousin, Miss Anne Snyder.

-Elmer E. Davis, of Olean, N. Y., now a shoe traveling salesman, was a Bellefonte visitor on Wednesday.

-Mrs. Mattie Evey has planned to leave tomorrow for New York city, for an indefinite stay with her son Richard and his family.

-Misses Thelma Gates and Helen Lucas, of Lewistown, have been guests this week of Miss Ella A. Gates, at her apartment in Crider's Exchange.

-Miss Christine Klessius returned to her home in Altoona on Saturday after spend- ily during their stay of several days. ing two weeks in Bellefonte as the guest of Miss Elizabeth Hazel.

-Miss Ellen Hayes is home from Syracuse to spend the month of August with her mother, Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes. Miss the Syracuse University.

-Mrs. N. F. Wagner, of Watsontown has been making a visit home this week Special arrangements will be made for with her father, W. R. Brachbill, having come to Bellefonte for the funeral of her

-Mr. and Mrs. George M. Gamble went will be served on the ground but all to Paxtang Saturday of last week, for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Ostertag and their son, George Gamble Ostertag. Mrs. Ostertag is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gamble.

-Miss Louise Carpeneto took all the children of the family to Danville, Sunday, for a day with their mother, Mrs. Bellefonte promptly on the minute Louise Carpeneto, who has been a surgical patient in the Geisinger hospital for

-Dr. Melvin J. Locke, who recently returned from a three week's stay in Baltimore, will leave shortly, with Mrs. Locke, for a visit at the latter's home, Willow Hill, in the Cumberland valley, before resuming his practice.

-Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young, of Al toona, with their children, Sylvester, Mary Jerles, the well known Lock Haven caterer. and Nellie Musser and Martha Young, motored to Centre county on Sunday morning and spent the day with friends at Pleasant Gap and in Bellefonte.

-Mrs. Joseph Hogentogler left on Sunday for a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. W. A. Fulton and family, in Pittsburgh. From there she will go to Harrisburg and York to spend a few days with Mr. Hogentogler's relatives before returning home.

-Charles A. McClure, of Wayne, Pa., and J. Harvey McClure, with the Chicago & Elgin R. R. Co., of Aurora, Ill., were both McClure, who has been in ill health during the greater part of the summer.

-Mrs. Ernest Culver, of DuBois, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. H. Johnstonbaugh, at Axe Mann. She came over on Monday and will spend several weeks. Mrs. Frank Barron, another of Mrs. Johnstonbaugh's sisters, who had been visiting her for some time, returned to her home in Altoona on --The family of W. R. Phillips, the new general manager of the American Lime after six o'clock in the evening when this week and have taken possession of the after six o'clock in the evening when a party of searchers found him in the which they have leased and expect to occuunderbrush at the foot of Tussey py. Mr. Phillips' family consists of him-

-Robert W. Osman and his son William left Sunday on a ten day's vacation, expecting to divide the time between Washington and Atlantic City.

-Miss Catherine Conaghan, of the office force of the Bell telephone company, is away on her summer vacation, a guest of friends in Columbus, Ohio.

-Miss Alberta Bryan, of Altoona, has been a house guest for the past week of the John Love family, on Reynolds avenue, and will remain in Bellefonte for another week.

-Mr .and Mrs. Fred Hollobaugh are planning for a visit to Austin, next week, where they will be guests of Mrs. Hollobaugh's uncle, W. W. Thomas and his fam-

-Miss Ruby Eberhart, a registered nurse, of Washington, D. C., is spending -Col. and Mrs. W. F. Reynolds' house a part of her vacation with her father, J. guests during the past week have includ- H. Eberhart and the family. The remained the Countess Santa Eulalia and Miss der of Miss Eberhart's time will be given Thamozine Potter, both of Ashbourne, Pa. to friends in Punxsutawney and Brookville.

-Miss Margaret Brockerhoff is home from Philadelphia for her summer vaca-Hayes is one of the physical directors at tion, a guest at the home of her uncle, Dr. Joseph Brockerhoff. With Miss Brockerhoff is Miss Margery Lanard, who will spend a part of the month of August in Bellefonte.

> -Miss Evelyn Irvin, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Irvin, of Akron, Ohio, is here for a two week's visit with her two grandmothers. Mrs. Washington Irvin, of Reynolds avenue, and Mrs. Florey, of Pleasant Gap. Evelyn arrived in Bellefonte Sunday.

-Miss Augusta Murray and Miss Auna Sweeney were guests of the Misses Katherine and Ellen Dale on a drive to Bellefonte Tuesday afternoon. Aside from a little business and a few calls the party was on pleasure bent, which they seemed to be finding while here.

-Mrs. J. O. Brewer and her two children, Ruth and Orville, left yesterday for Mrs. Brewer's former home at Kirkville, N. Y., with plans for visiting there during the entire month of August. Mr. Brewer will join them for his vacation on the 18th of the month, remaining with them until their return home.

-John H. Wagner, among the best known citizens of Potter township, spent a part of Tuesday in Bellefonte, looking after some business and doing some buying. Mr. Wagner farmed for twenty-eight years, retiring eight years ago and is now in that well-earned and enviable position, of much play and little work, and carries with it such a bright outlook on all matters, that his short visit was most refreshing.

-Miss Verna Chambers was hostess on a driving party to Pittsburgh Saturday, her guests being J. Frank Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Smith and Swengle Smith. The object of the visit at this time was to see Miss Nellie Smith before she left, Monday, for Wyoming, where she has accepted the position of superintendent in the hospital at Casper. Miss Smith had been night superintendent of the Columbia hospital at Wilkinsburg.

-Mr. and Mrs. G. Oscar Gray, with their two sons, Carl and Richard, and Mrs. Gray's father, Dominic Judge, left Thursday morning for the drive to Hazleton, expecting to visit over Sunday with Mr. Judge's sister, Mrs. E. J. Harrington. Mr and Mrs. Gray had been entertaining Mr. Gray's mother and sister, Mrs. Ella M. Gray, and her daughter, Miss Florence, who are leaving State College to make their

Bill Taylor's Horse Likes Roasting Ears. On Tuesday morning H. J. Markle, of Pleasant Gap, drove to Belle- State orchestra. it might have on the other inmates if fonte with a supply of golden bantam sent back to Rockview. On Saturday sweet corn, the first of the home Ferguson Township Child Creates in Bellefonte over Sunday, here spending fonte market. Jimmy Caldwell, the

Mot, purchased enough ears to make a good mess and threw them in the rear the green corn evidently appealed to his taste for he walked right up to the of the corn before he was detected and right for eating as one man bought a half dozen ears, had it cooked and ate all of it at one sitting.

far from Franklinville. The girls' camp closed on August 5th and the leaders' camp is now in session. The boys' camp will open August 21st.

singing. Bellefonte.

state highway running from Spruce Creek to Pennsylvania Furnace, not orchestra.

sured of seeing all the good ones.

ecutive ability, and other charactered by all men alike.

-James R. Downes, brother of Rev. Father William E. Downes, of Bellefonte, has been promoted to superintendent of freight transportation of the Central division of the Pennsylvania railroad, with headquarters in Pittsburgh. Mr. Downes began his railroad career in Tyrone but has been located in Pittsburgh for some years. He is quite well known in railroad circles in the central part of the State and his many friends will be glad to know of his advancement.

-At the last regular meeting of the Penn-Centre chapter Order of De-Molay sixteen petitioners were electfourth week in August has been set as the time for the next big ceremonial, when the indications are that a grees. The DeMolay band now numbers twenty-two and the young men itial appearance at the Masonic picnic to be held at Curwensville on August 23rd.

-Apiarists all over the county report this as being a poor year for honey. The excessive dry weather during May and June and the most of July was extremely hard on the various flowers and literally dried up the red clover blossoms before they came out in full bloom. The latter are one of the main sources of the early crop of honey and because of the dry season the bees were unable to work with good results. Throughout Bald Eagle valley, where buckwheat is a staple ble work during the season it is in will be short this year.

-Metaphorically speaking, passenger agent Harry L. Hutchison was up in the air on Wednesday morning when he discovered that some unknown individual, during the previous night, had literally smashed to smithcereens the glass covering the face of the penny in the slot weighing machine standing in front of the station. This is the second time that the glass ism went so far as to steal the hands mame that seems to fit the deed.

Since the removal of the three men to Rockview things have quieted down to normal at the jail. The sheriff is slowly recovering from his injuries, ed for degrees and membership. The along as well as can be expected. trusty who faced the desperate prisoners on Thursday, were discharged class of about forty will take the de- from the custody of the sheriff on Tuesday. The sentences of both men had almost expired and after their are practicing diligently for their in- faithfulness on Thursday the court ordered their discharge forthwith. It is understood that Jamison and

Price have finally decided to plead guilty to any and all charges to be made against them and throw themselves upon the mercy of the court. This action on their part will probably take place early next week. Fiddell, however, has so far remained firm in his decision to stand pat and not enter a plea of guilty.

Price of Tents Remain the Same.

Notwithstanding the fact that many costly improvements are being added of communicable diseases, gave an adcrop, the bees will have more profita- to the picnic grounds at Grange park there will be no increase in the price tion," and urged the advisability of blossom. But at that, the honey crop of tents. The fees will be $6.00 for community effort to wipe out this dis-12x12 tents and $7.00 for 14x14 feet will admit the holder to the grounds during the entire week. Pay admission will begin on Saturday, September 1st, but Sunday will be free to June, after which time free serum for everybody. The Grange pageant on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, ble as it must now be purchased, at September 4th and 5th, will be something worth seeing.

individual who committed the vandal- known in the western part of the age but it is hoped that our communiidentity of the individual he gave him bandry department of Cornell Univer-! sity.

Two Hurt in Auto Accident.

Driving from Baltimore to Belleman, the latter of Hecla park, met failed in finding him anywhere and with an accident in the public square thoroughly alarmed Mrs. Andrews of the town of Mifflin, in which both summoned help to assist in the search. women were painfully injured and the In less than an hour the entire coun-and aggravated assault with intent to almost impenetrable fog hung low child.

of the men have made threats against silent policeman stands in the centre torney James C. Furst by telephone the life of the sheriff as well as of the public square of Mifflin. It and asked him to have a detail of state against some of the officials at the stands almost directly beneath an arc police sent to the scene as the generpenitentiary and this fact will likely light but no red light tops it as a al impression was that the child had warning to travelers. In the dense been kidnapped. The Andrews home come before the court in September. fog Mr. Jones was unable to see the is located right along the state highsilent majesty of the law and ran up way where hundreds of cars pass daimen were from three to five years but on the concrete base, his car toppling ly. The kidnapping belief was over on the side. Miss Margaret sus-strengthened by a report that some Mr. Hamilton's brother Clarence, who ow-broken glass and Mrs. Workman re- heard a child crying "Mother! Moth- months in Centre county. ceived a cut on the head. Help was er!" as a car sped by. Motoring gypsummoned and the women taken to a sies had also been seen in that localiphysician who rendered the necessary ty the previous day. Of course the and Timpco Capella is also getting treatment. The party was obliged to situation was desperate and with the stay in Mifflin until Saturday, in or- mother frantic over the disappearance Both he and George Tarbay, the other der to have necessary repairs made to of her child the district attorney callthe car, then continued their drive to ed up state police headquarters in Bellefonte.

Diphtheria Immunization Program to be Inaugurated this Month in Bellefonte.

Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. there will be a meeting in the Red Cross room of the committee to complete arrangements for the diphtheria immunization program to be inaugurated this month in Bellefonte under the supervision of the division of communicable diseases, State Department of Health, Harrisburg. Dr. Seibert, county medical director, and Miss Daise Keichline will have charge of the work. At the March meeting of the Parent-Teachers association, Dr. Bruce McCreary, chief of the division dress on "Diphtheria and Immunizaease and offered the help of free sein size. A fifty cent admission ticket rum, physicians and nurses from the State department. The suggestion was endorsed by the association but was not carried into execution before children of school age was not availalow cost, by the board of education in communities taking up the program.

The campaign to be organized this ty will follow the good example of The Hatchison does not know the be connected with the animal hus- all that is possible to insure our chil- eral public who always make their most to his neck. The result is that his Oats dren against the dread disease of plans to attend this reunion, should body is almost entirely inert but his brain Barley diphtheria.

mountain, almost a mile from home. While Mrs. Andrews was busy with tryside was aroused and everybody in

It was not only a dark night but an that section was hunting for the lost over the Juniata valley. A permanent Finally some one called district attained a bad cut on the shoulder from cherry pickers along the highway had ing to ill health, has spent the past three Harrisburg and asked for two state policemen. Some men advised securing blood hounds in an attempt to hospital for treatment. trail the child.

The search continued throughout the afternoon. Several large sink holes were thoroughly inspected and practically every foot of ground within reasonable proximity of the Andrews' home was searched. It was well after six o'clock, when the shades of dusk were beginning to gather, that a shout went up from a party of searchers at the foot of Tussey mountain which heralded the fact that the child had been found. Tired and almost famished, his face and hands scratched by briars through which he had wandered the boy was located in the underbrush trying to find his way home again in his mother's arms.

Williams Reunion to be Held at Port man. Matilda This Year.

ion, which has been held in the John the association was organized, will -Mr. Russell C. Miller, well month is for children of pre-school at the park in Port Matilda. The date will be Saturday, August 18th. Mem-self, Mrs. Phillips and three children.

-Miss Sara Graham and her niece, Miss the family wash, in the rear of their Helen Harper, have postponed indefinitely home the child was allowed to play in their trip to Cooperstown, North Dakota. Duncan Runkle, of Shamokin; John Runfonte last Thursday night, or rather the yard. Naturally the mother which they had planned for the vacation Albert Jones and two sisters, Miss at nine o'clock when she looked for main in Bellefonte and resume her piano and his daughters, Miss Laura, of Centre Margaret Jones and Mrs. C. C. Work- him he was gone. A thorough search teaching, which she has carried on so suca number of years.

> -Mrs. James Noonan entertained a motor party, Sunday, which included Dr. and from out of town here Wednesday, for the Mrs. DeLaney and their daughter, Miss Lucille, of Williamsport, and Mrs. Melvin and her daughter, Miss Mary Louise, of Corning, N. Y.; Miss Melvin remaining will be John Curtin and James Lane, of here for a visit with her aunt, Mrs. Noonan. Mrs. Noonan, Mrs. DeLaney and Mrs. Melvin are sisters.

-Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hamilton and Mrs. Hamilton's niece arrived here Monday, from Jersey City, to spend Mr. Hamilton's vacation with his father and sister, Thaddeus Hamilton, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. E. M. Broderick, of State College. On the coast drive. drive home they will be accompanied by

-Mr. and Mrs. Philip Beezer, their daughters, Rose and Helen, Miss Agnes Corl family that for years has held such Gherrity and George Carpeneto motored to Danville on Wednesday morning, Mr. Car- and College townships. He left that compeneto to visit his wife, who is a patient in the Geisinger hospital, and Mr. Beezer, who has not been in good health for some time, to undergo a complete physical examination, the result of which will natur- has been serving that city in an unique ally determine whether he will enter the

-Mrs. Hassell Montgomery, with Mrs. McClure Gamble, Mrs. Lewis Daggett and Miss Elizabeth Cooney as guests, left early Tuesday morning on a drive to Philadelphia, where Mrs. Montgomery has been looking after some business interests and Miss Cooney has been attending several early fall showings of millinery. The party will return home today, accompanied by Jane Daggett, who, since leaving Stoddartville has been with her grandmother, Mrs. Canfield, at Wyncote.

-Taking advantage of the afternoon holiday John B. Griffin and family motored to Bellefonte last Thursday afternoon and during their brief stay in town Mr. Griffin made a brief call at the "Watchman" office. He is a son of the late J. Hile

Griffin for years the Democratic war horse The news of the finding of the child, in Halfmoon township, and the political Lewistown, wishes to announce that little the worse for his experience, instincts of his father still stick to the spread rapidly and it was only a son like cockleburrs in sheep's clothing. piano playing, expecting to begin her question of minutes until he was safe It is thirty-four years since he broke away from the home roof and went to Tyrone where he is now very comfortably located and quite a successful business in the beginning of the week from an ex-The old-time Williams family reun- tended visit among her children in Pittsburgh and vicinity. Considerable of her Q. Miles grove at Martha ever since time while away was spent with her son Gladstone and wife, at Taylorstown, Washchange locations this year and be held ington county, owing to Mr. Taylor's illness with an insidious disease that has rendered him almost entirely helpless. An injury he received while serving in the Wheat bers of this prominent and widely world war caused a hardening of the spi-Ohio, to Ithaca, N. Y., where he will Huntingdon and other towns and do scattered family, as well as the gen-nal column, which has now progressed almake a note as to the change of place. Is just as active as ever.

-Mrs. Hugh Taylor Sr. returned home

instructor in the schools of the city.

-Mrs. George P. Runkle, of Bridgeport, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Runkle and Mrs. kle, of Middleburg; the Rev. and Mrs. James Runkle, of Altoona; James Runkle Hall, and Mrs. J. R. G. Allison, of Millheim; Mr. and Mrs. John Runkle, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. Robert Musser and her son, of Spring Mills, were among the many funeral of the late Capt. George P. Runkle. -Two driving parties in contemplation by the younger young men of the town, McKeesport, in the former's car; their week's drive being now planned for the latter part of the month, will take them to Harrisburg, Overbrook and Atlantic City. The second, composed of Charles Mensch, Bill Potter and James Lindsay, of Pittsburgh, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Beatty, in the Mensch car, will cover Philadelphia, Delaware Water Gap, and an Atlantic

-We had a very interesting caller Wednesday morning. He was J. W. Corl, of McKeesport. Mr. Corl, as you might infer from the name, is one of the well known a prominent place in the life of Ferguson munity forty years ago and has made his home in McKeesport practically ever since. He is what is called McKeesport's commercial messenger and for thirty-four years field. Residents who have business in Pittsburgh, and are unable to attend to it themselves, "call Corl," give him the commission and as he personally makes one trip every day to Pittsburgh they get the same results as if they had gone themselves. Everything from marriage licenses to groceries, dry goods and theatre tickets is in his line and the fact that he has been at it so long is the best testimonial of his integrity and judgment. Mr. Corl came in Sunday for a week's vacation, the first in fifteen years. Mrs. Corl is with him, also their daughter, Mrs. Naomi Payne, and her daughter, Dorris. The party motored in with Mr. Roland Davis, a friend of the family.

Additional personal uews on page 4, Col. 5.

-Miss Sara Graham, who last spring returned to Bellefonte, from she is about to organize a class in work at once. Children wishing to join the class can see Miss Graham at Mrs. J. C. Harpers, 111 east Howard 31-3t street.

Wanted .- A good home for a boy of eleven years. Apply to Mrs. Mary Waddle, president Children's Aid society, Brant House, Bellefonte.

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co.

$1.00 .90 . Corn .90 Rye .50 .60 .75 Buckwheat