Millheim, 7:30—Illustrated lecture, "The Church in Action." The members of the other churches of the charge and churches of other denominations in the community are urged to attend these services. No admission will be charged for the lecture but a silver offering will be lifted.
Rev. John S. Hollenbach, Pastor.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY.
Christian Science Society, Furst building, High street, Sunday service 11 a. m. Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. To these meetings all are welcome. An all day free reading room is open to the public every day. Here the Bible and Christian Science literature may be read, borrowed or purchased.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

A new arrival at the Leonard Griffin home is a daughter, No. 5.
Charles Louck is breaking ground for a new house on west Main street.
Bert and William Grove, of Altoona, were Sunday visitors at the Grove and Ward homes in town.
Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Williams, of Houserville, were Sunday visitors at the A. L. Boverox home.
A new corn sheller with a capacity of 100 bushels an hour, is being installed in the Auman mill.
Our popular sale caller, E. B. Harpster, of Pennsylvania Furnace, spent Monday at the county seat.
Rev. and Mrs. Sweigert, of McVeytown, spent Friday with their brother-in-law, Samuel Fleming and family.
The farmer's picnic which was to have been held at Pine Hall tomorrow has been postponed until September 1st.

A squad of Boy Scouts from Pittsburgh, under command of Ralph Thomas, are camping in Shingletown Gap.
J. G. Miller, who is holding down a good job in Philadelphia, spent the latter end of the week at his home here.

John L. Dunlap, of Bellefonte, spent a few hours with relatives in town on Sunday while on a motor trip to Altoona.
J. E. Johnson and wife spent Sunday at Bellwood seeing Mrs. Johnson's father, J. E. Markle, who has been quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gitt Aikens, of State College, spent Sunday and Monday with Dr. C. T. Aikens, at Selingsgrove.
A big corn roast at the S. A. Homan home, on Tuesday evening, brought out a large crowd of the younger set.

Squire E. H. Auman and Bruce Stover motored to the city of Brotherly Love on Monday, expecting to be away a week.
Elmer Barr was discharged from the Geisinger hospital, at Danville, last week and is now at home convalescing nicely.

Mrs. Agnes Smith, of Tyrone, is visiting relatives and friends in our town and noting the many changes hereabouts since she left here in 1901.
Mr. and Mrs. Krout, Mr. and Mrs. Brewster and Mr. and Mrs. Mack, of Lancaster, Ohio, have been guests this week of Prof. Krout and family.

Samuel Fleming, wife and mother, and Mrs. S. E. Peters, motored over the mountain to Mifflintown on Tuesday, to look after some business matters.
Roy Selkner, of Carnegie; Herbert Markle, of Tyrone, and Charles Wilson, of Altoona, were callers at the Joe Johnson home on Sunday afternoon.

Joseph Fleming entered the hospital at Huntingdon, on Saturday, as a surgical patient, being the second operation he has undergone within a month.
Dr. Ray C. Gilliland, accompanied by his two sons, his mother and two brothers, attended the annual reunion of the Murray family at Clearfield last Saturday.

Rev. J. E. English and family have gone to New York State for the latter part of the pastor's vacation, having left Maryland because the climatic conditions there did not agree with them.
Earl Musser, fifteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Musser, of the Branch, was taken to the Bellefonte hospital last Friday and operated upon for appendicitis. Reports say he is getting along nicely.

Isaac and Elliott Ward, oil operators in the western part of the State, were here for the Baileyville picnic. Isaac is an old Pine Grove Mills Academy student and will probably be better remembered by his former chums as "Buckem" Ward.

The venerable Philip Dale, a veteran of the Civil war, who was in feeble health for a month or more, has recovered to that extent that he is able to travel around selling fruit trees and shrubbery. On Wednesday, he and his daughter and grand-daughter were entertained at the C. M. Dale home on the Branch.

Word has been received here that Dr. Hugh L. Fry, a veterinarian in the employ of the government at Jackson, Miss., has taken his first vacation in three years. With his wife and children he motored to Columbia, Tenn., where he was first stationed on going south, and hunting up his old boarding house mistress, spent two weeks very pleasantly at her home.

Thomas Wogan and Miss Florence Corl motored to Bellefonte on Wednesday evening of last week and were married at the Presbyterian parsonage by the pastor, Rev. David R. Evans. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. W. K. Corl and is a splendid young woman. Mr. Wogan is a miller by trade and an industrious young man. The young couple will make their home in Altoona.

Frank Harpster, who occupies the Col. Boal farm on the Branch, has certainly run into a streak of hard luck. Some weeks ago a pack of dogs got into his flock of sheep and chewed several of them pretty badly. Later one of his best horses died and on Monday night dogs again invaded his flock, killed three sheep and badly mutilated a half dozen others. The dogs made their escape and are still at large.

The annual picnic at Baileyville, last Saturday, was well attended, despite the threatening outlook in the morning. By noontime the grounds were well filled, and everybody was ready for the sumptuous dinner, which is always a feature of that gathering. Baseball was the principal diversion, the first game being between Lemont and Baileyville, the latter winning by the score of 22 to 2.

The big game of the day was between Pine Grove Mills and Dudley, the latter winning 7 to 3, which was rather heart-breaking for the Pine Grove lads. The final game between Tadpole and Warriorsmark was won by the latter by the score of 20 to 2.

"Oh, Wad Some Power the Giftie Gie Us, to See Ourselves as Others See Us."

It's quite natural to see the shortcomings in every one but ourselves. In looking for the mote in the other fellow's eye we overlook the beam in our own, which may be caused by myopia (near-sight), hyperopia (far-sight), or astigmatism (mixed-sight), all of which may be corrected with glasses that will make you feel better; also help you see the good traits in the other fellow.
If in doubt about your eyes consult me.
Dr. Eva B. Roan, Optometrist. Licensed by the State Board.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 25:
BUCK JONES in "SECOND HAND LOVE," is fine farce comedy by this pleasing actor that will furnish lots of laughs as he gets through with several scrapes by the teeth. Also, 2 reel Hal Roach Comedy.

MONDAY, AUGUST 27:
VERA GORDON in "YOUR BEST FRIEND," a seven reel, deeply human story of a mother's unlimited sacrifices to the end that her children might be happy, touches the heart strings. A son's wife and her mother ignore his mother, who sacrifices much, but he finally realizes his mistake and all is well. Also, Pathe News and Topics.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 28:
VIOLA DANA in "HER FATAL MILLIONS," is an entertaining and lively farce comedy in six reels. A story of a heroine who wishes to let on that she is rich before her hero who has prospered in the city, and her borrowed flummery gets her into many ridiculous situations. Also, Movie Chats and Comedy.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 29:
SYLVIA BREMER in "BAVU," is a seven reel strong melodrama. It is a skillfully produced picture to keep you on edge at all times. A Russian Bolshevik story of the hero who does not like bloodshed tries to protect a princess and her father with final success. Also, 2 reel Sunshine Comedy.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 30
FRITZI RIDGWAY in "TRIFLING WITH HONOR," an 8 reel story directed by Harry Pollard in a masterful way. Will hold your interest from beginning to end. A story of a paroled prisoner arrested at once escapes and later makes good and is finally pardoned and marries the heroine who has waited all the years. Also, Pathe News and Review.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 31:
HERBERT RAWLINSON in "RAILROADED," is a six reel story of a young man who falls in love while serving prison sentence imposed by father on a lonely estate with his valet as a guard. Romance and melodrama combined. Also, the second episode of "THE EAGLE'S TALONS," a fine thriller.

OPERA HOUSE.

Opera House opens Saturday, September 1st, with a seven reel thrilling animal adventure picture, "A DANGEROUS ADVENTURE."
