and Mrs. Blanche Schloss.

The third clinic will be held Tuesday, September 4th, between two and three o'clock. Parents who have not had their children treated and desire to do so must obtain permits from Miss Daise Keichline, east Bishop street, or Mrs. Blanche Schloss, High street. These permits must be signed and returned to Miss Keichline not later than Saturday noon, September 1st, and those having signed the permits for the first treatment and have not had their children there, may bring them to the next clinic, September 4th.

Across the Continent and Back With Only One Puncture.

On the first day of last June Mr. and Mrs. George E. Meyer stepped into their Ford car in front of their home in Boalsburg, called goodbye to every one and headed for California.

Last Tuesday night they returned, having traveled 9345 miles and crossed nineteen States with nothing more than a small puncture when they picked up a tack in Utah to mar the pleasure of a wonderful trip.

All the way they met Pennsylva-nians, especially in California, the sons and daughters of the Keystone State seemed to appear everywhere they journeyed.

Just when they were approaching Boalsburg on the return they ran over a skunk and consequently arrived in a little mal odor but all the rest of the trip was so fine that they soon forgot that little incident.

'Vanity of Vanities, All is Vanity," So Said King Solomon.

People have been accused of wearing glasses for pride. This is wrong. We have prescribed for thousands of patients, any of whom would have willingly paid ten times the price of glasses if they could have obtained the comfort and relief otherwise. False pride had kept some people from wearing glasses which to their sorrow was discovered only when an operation was imperative.

Pittsburgh Trying Salaried Sunday School Superintendents.

Salaried superintendents for Sunday schools is being tried in a number of Pittsburgh churches in the hope of placing that branch of their activity on a more efficient basis. The salaries range from $2000 to $3000 a year and varying degrees of success from the experiment have been re-portd by several churches. The decision to bring well trained men into the service was made when it became apparent that the work connected with many of the Sunday schools was too much for the average volunteer worker. These volunteer worker. These men were selected with great care, special attention being paid to their executive ability and personality. In a number of instances the ability of the applicant's wife was considered on the the cant's wife was considered on the the-ory that her influence in the Sunday school organization would be of great importance. The theory has proved true as in every instance the wife has taken a prominent part in the super-intendent's activities.

Week-Ahead Program

Cut this out and save for reference

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1: DOUGLAS McLEAN in "THE SUNSHINE TRAIL," is a pleasing comedy, with this star at his best, assisted by a talented child actress. A story of an ex-soldier who stopped off to see the home folks in Montana and scattered sunshine and kindness. The strange complications are sometimes hard to straighten out. Also, Pathe News, Topics and a Comedy.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 3:

THOMAS MEIGHAN in "BACK HOME AND BROKE," is an eight reel comedy drama and should please everybody, but especially those who are called failures and have made good. A dandy picture. Don't miss it. Also, 2 reel Comedy and Movie Chats.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4 AND 5:

BETTY COMPSON in "KICK IN," is a seven reel thrilling and fascinating picture, and is excellent entertainment in every particular. Bert Lytell and May MacAvoy are also leads. A story of a battle to go straight against prejudice. A convicts hard work to be good against prejudice of police and people but finally wins out by marrying district attorney's daughter. Also, 2 reel comedy, "Love's Nest."

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 6:

AGNES AYRES in "DAUGHTERS OF LUXURY," is an eight reel interesting and appealing society drama produced in artistic atmosphere; direction, acting, settings and photography all being good. A story of an impoverished heroine who is accused of a crime but finally is cleared and marries the villian's son. Also, Pathe News and Review.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 7:

LIONEL BARRYMORE in "THE FACE IN THE FOG," a six reel drama with Seena Owen as feminine lead, and is a story of a crook's struggle for possession of the Romanoff jewels. Is a sensational picture, with many thrills, and will please most people. Also, the third episode of "THE EA-GLE'S TALONS," a good serial.

SATURDTY, SEPTEMBER 1:

GRACE DARMOND and All Star Cast in "THE DANGEROUS ADVEN-TURE," a seven reel thrilling tale of adventure with wonderful wild animal scenes. Also, Comedy. FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 7 AND 8:

WESLEY BARRY and MARIE PROVOST in "HEROES OF THE STREET," a seven reel story of experiences of deceased policeman's son trying to fill father's shoes. Sentimental and humorous. Also, Vitagraph
