Democratic Watchman.

Bellefonte, Pa., September 7, 1923.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-----Wetzler's band, of Milesburg, was the musical feature at Patton's Labor day celebration.

-Mrs. W. Cordiss Snyder entertained with a bridge luncheon at her home in Snow Shoe Wednesday after- features provided. noon. A number of Bellefonte friends were among her guests.

Only eleven more days until the provision for exhibits and the comfort battle of the ballots at the fall pri- of the campers had been made than maries, then will come the real tug of ever before and the program publishwar to decide who shall handle the ed last week was carried out to the county business during the next four letter, insofar as it was not interferyears.

-Miss Pearl Royer has resigned day. her position as book-keeper for the As might have been expected, be-Bellefonte Fuel & Supply company cause of the propitious season, the and on Tuesday morning went to work fruit exhibit was the outstanding feain the office of the flouring mill of ture of the agricultural display. Nev-Ulsh & Bashoar.

-Bellefonte won the pennant in the product of fields, orchards and the Centre county baseball league gardens of Centre county gathered towith a percentage of .675. State Col- gether. lege was second with .629, Centre Hall .461 and Millheim .266. The season closed on Labor day.

-A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hodges at their home in Syracuse, N. Y., on August 23rd, and has been named Thomas Hodges Jr. Mrs. Hodges is well remembered as Miss Katherine Curtin, the only daughter of Mrs. H. R. Curtin, of Curtin.

September 13th, with the musical Broadway," featuring the famous tain where they gathered yearly un-Jiggs and his wife Maggie. The new til the ground became too small for version pictures this fun-making cou- the accommodation of the crowds. ple on a trip to Honolulu, King Tut's Then for a few years the encampment tomb, Italy and Paris. An evening of was held in the woods adjacent to the genuine fun and frolic. Prices, 50 Old Fort. There the space became too cents to $1.50, plus tax.

-Picnics and family reunions are of the ground just on the outskirts of practically over for this season but Centre Hall which has been improved splendid diversion and entertainment until it has become really a permacan be found every evening in the nent park. week at the Scenic, watching the motion pictures. It is the one place of amusement in Bellefonte that is open every evening in the week except Sungeant of "The Third Season" exempliday and every week in the year. And every program is worth seeing, so be velopment of the Patrons of Husa regular and see them all. bandry.

-At a meeting of the Bellefonte It was scheduled for Tuesday and branch of the Red Cross on Tuesday Wednesday evenings but because of afternoon officers for the ensuing year Wednesday's rain the second perform- place and they would go away togeth- mains to be seen. were elected as follows: Chairman, ance was postponed until last even-Rev M. DePui Maynard; vice chair- ing. man, Rev. W. P. Ard; secretary, Mrs. In addition to the producing staff McClure Gamble; treasurer, Charles there were 288 characters represented M. McCurdy; chairman of the roll in it. The community groups were 33 call committee, Hard P. Harris. The from Axe Mann; 15 from Bellefonte; him to the reformatory. Consequent- call for candidates for the Bellefonte campaign for new members will be 95 from Centre Hall; 11 from Rock ly on Thursday a Hollidaysburg offi- Academy football team to report on visit with Mrs. Sherer's sister, Mrs. George launched early in October.

-On Saturday Harvey Griffith cel- from State College. 78th birthday anniversary. ebrated his PAGEANT A BIG SUCCESS. at Boalsburg. The Grange Encampment Has Been About fifty members of the old a Great Success.

Boal troop attended the annual re-The fiftieth anniversary encamp- union of their organization at Boalsnent of the Patrons of Husbandry of burg on Saturday and Sunday. All Centre county has been all that could former commanding officers of the have been desired. While Wednestroop were present with the single exday's rain and yesterday's lowering ception of Captain Pierre de Lagarde skies somewhat reduced the usual Boal, who is now in charge of the crowds on those days always there United States Legation, at Warsaw, was the city of tent-holders there to Poland. The commanding officer of enjoy the social and entertainment the present Boal troop was a guest of the veterans. As we stated in advance notices of

In the absence of Mr. Barrett, president of the association, Col. Wilbur the encampment more pretentious F. Leitzell presided at the business meeting and officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Charles Reed, Milroy; vice president, Walter L. Poorman, Boalsed with by the hard rain of Wednesburg; secretary and treasurer, W. Clair Lyons, Bellefonte. It was decided to hold the next annual reunion at Boalsburg the second Saturday and Sunday in August, 1924.

A big dance on Saturday night, which was attended by a number of young ladies from various parts of the county, was the social feature of ever reported for that day on the periences of their various active camby the rain, of course, and yesterday the Boal troop, alone and unsupportthere were quite as many there as ed, which repulsed and inflicted terrihave been usual on that day in the ble losses on three German waves of picked infantry at Apremont. This repulse, according to the accounts of tire German shock division. The troop distinguished itself by its effithe idea of gathering the farmers of ciency on the Mexican border in 1916 -The theatrical season will open Centre county together for an annual and 1917, and had the highest rating in Bellefonte on Thursday evening, conference on subjects conducive to in the recent tour of duty in the coal comedy, "Bringing Up Father on was held on the top of Nittany moun- stay at Boalsburg the troopers had their meals served by manager George Ferguson, of the Boalsburg tavern.

Clarence Gross Violates Parole, then Escapes from Officers.

Clarence Gross, sentenced to the them. Huntingdon reformatory by Judge Quigley in May, 1922, for larceny committed at State College, and who some lively sprinting last Thursday to escape the clutches of Blair county officers of the law. Gross was working out his parole at the home of er.

The inmate who received the letter Outlook for Football at Bellefonte turned it over to superintendent J. W. Herron and Blair county officers were requested to capture Gross and return The Pageant was presented in three when they went out onto the porch past few days football material has Gross suddenly jumped over the rail- been arriving from half a dozen ing and soon disappeared in a field States, and included in the squad are covered with weeds. Later the young some of the best High school players again made his escape. At last ac- pected to more than overbalance the evening. counts he was still at large.

Boal Troopers Hold Annual Reunion CROSS OF FIRE ON HALFMOON HILL.

Ku Klux Klan Caused Much Excitement Saturday Night.

"An' the goblins they will get you, If you don't watch out!"

Just as the good people of Bellefonte were in the act of retiring to fire houses, and both companies quick- lantic City. ly responded. Just who sent in the alarm is not known but the location of the fire was given as Coleville. But when the firemen reached Thomas street they were stopped by several hundred people massed there and gazing in awe-struck wonder at a large fiery cross, the emblem of the Ku Klux Klan, on Halfmoon hill. Many other people saw the cross from

No hooded ghoulish forms were seen flitting to and fro about the burning cross and when the fire died the reunion. Sunday was devoted to out several hundred people mustered swapping stories and recounting ex- up sufficient courage to climb the hill. and investigate the surroundings. But the ground a small quantity of Ku street. Klux literature. Not a single individual was visible, and if a meeting had was close to eleven o'clock. Of course the burning cross was generally discussed on Sunday and a few incline to the belief that it was the work of a few practical jokers, fields of Pennsylvania. During their while others are strong in the belief her work at St. Agnes hospital, where she that a Klan has been organized in is a nurse in training. Bellefonte. In fact rumors have reached this office of warnings having cupying a tent with Miss Caroline McClosbeen sent to people believed to be key, at the Grange encampment this week straying from the straight and narrow path, but as they are only ru- Hutchinson has been visiting with her mors no credence should be placed in sister, Mrs. John McCormick, at State

There is no gainsaying the fact that there was a fiery cross on Halfmoon hill Saturday night, and this recalls was recently turned out on parole, did the fact that just two weeks ago Winfield Rishel, a former Bellefonte boy but who lately has been located at sey shore. York, was here on a visit and at the time claimed to be a state organizer Mayberry Hileman, on Brush moun- for the Ku Klux Klan. It is altogethtain, near Hollidaysburg. While er probable that his visit here has rethere he wrote a letter to another in- sulted in the organization of a Klan mate in the reformatory urging him in Bellefonte and vicinity, and to what to escape and meet him at a certain extent their activities will develop re-

Academy.

Coach Carl Snavely has issued a

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL. -Miss Margaret Cooney left Tuesday to atives in Williamsport.

resume her work in New Jersey, where she has been teaching for several years. -Miss Anna M. Miller went to Salona the early part of the week, expecting to visit at her home in that place for two weeks.

-Mary and Ellis Harvey, the two children of Mrs. Betty Orvis Harvey, have their downy couch, on Saturday night, been making their annual summer visit an alarm of fire was sent in to both with their father in Philadelphia and At-

----Among the "Watchman" office callers on Saturday was Mr. Henry McWilliams, of Pennsylvania Furnace, who motored to Bellefonte to look after some business affairs.

-Mr. and Mrs. John S. Walker and Miss Mary Treaster will drive to Philadelphia next week; Miss Treaster going down to be operated on for a nerve affection of the feet.

-Mrs. C. Edward Robb and two sons, their homes and watched it until the Gene and Richard, returned home on Sunfire burned out and the last fluttering day afternoon after a visit of ten days sparks commingled with the rays of with friends at Bethlehem and with Mr. moonshine filtering through the tree and Mrs. M. R. Sample, in Philadelphia.

-Hugh N. Boyle drove over from Hazleton Saturday for Mrs. Boyle and the children, who had been here for a visit with Mrs. Boyle's mother, Mrs. Tanner. The return drive home was made Tuesday.

-Mrs. Ray Stauffer, of Hazleton, and her two children arrived in Bellefonte Saturday, intending to spend a part of the paigns. It will be recalled that it was all they found was the wooden cross, month of September with her sisters, the almost twenty feet in height, and on Misses Cooney, at their home on Bishop

-Miss Elizabeth Heckman, who had spent her three weeks vacation at home been held there it must have been be- with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton prisoners, practically broke up an en- fore the cross was set on fire, which Heckman, of Willowbaank street, left on Tuesday to return to her work in Philadelphia

-Miss Anne Shaughnessy, who has been home for five weeks, while convalescing from an operation for appendicitis, returned to Philadelphia Saturday, to resume

-Miss Fannie Hutchinson has been oc and during her absence from home, Mrs College.

-Mrs. Grier Foresman and her daugh. ter Helen, of Philadelphia, came to Bellefonte Tuesday, for a visit of several days with Mrs. Callaway. Mrs. Foresman is in Central Pennsylvania spending several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Sides, at Jer

-Mr. and Mrs. William Katz drove to New York State Sunday, returning Monday, with their daughter Mary and Mrs. Katz's niece, Miss Dorothy Hassel, both of whom had been there at a girl's camp during August.

-Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Bixler left Saturday, accompanied by Miss Janet Potter, for the return drive to Boston, where Miss Potter will be their guest for several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Bixler had been vis iting with friends in Clinton and Centre counties since the middle of August.

-Mr. and Mrs. J. Norman Sherer, of Reading, have been making their summer Springs; 32 from Spring Mills; 24 cer went to the Hileman home and Hughes field tomorrow for the start Green, in Lock Haven, and with friends in took the young man into custody. But of preliminary practice. During the Bellefonte and vicinity; looking after some business interests here and at Snow Shoe. The home drive to Reading was made yes-

-Miss Cadula Love returned home on Sunday from a two week's visit with rel_

-----Miss Mary McClure is spending her vacation with her sister, Mrs. Murdock Claney, in Philadelphia.

-The Misses Anne and Rebecca Lyon have been entertaining their nephew, Bond Valentine, of Philadelphia.

-Miss Mabel Harrar, of Williamsport, is visiting in Bellefonte, a guest of her sister, Mrs. James C. Furst.

-Miss Grace Showalter, who will teach in the schools of New Castle this winter. left Sunday to begin her work.

-Mrs. H. S. Miller went up to Altoona on Saturday to be with her husband over Labor day and see the big auto races. -Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cohen and family spent Sunday and Labor day on a motor trip to Harrisburg and Gettysburg.

-Mr. and Mrs. Bowersox and son William; Mrs. H. W. Stover and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Knoff spent Labor day in Altoona. -Mrs. Ellis Bierly, of State College, went to Philadelphia this week to enter the University hospital, as a surgical patient.

-Miss Betty Lockington went to Wellsboro this week to begin her work as instructor in French in the High school of that place.

-After spending two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lose, in Bellefonte, Mrs. Jean Reling left for her home in East Pittsburgh on Saturday.

-Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Schaeffer and their daughter LaRue spent the Labor day vacation on a drive to Watkins Glen; returning home by way of Eagles Mere.

-Mrs. W. F. Reeder, of Pasadena, Cal. who is visiting with friends in Lock Haven, has made several business visits to Bellefonte during the past ten days.

-Mrs. Willard Abt and little son and Miss Louise Abt were over Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Abt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cole, in Philipsburg.

-Mrs. John Van Pelt and her daughter Rachel, who had been visiting with Mrs. Van Pelt's mother, at Mrs. John McCoy's, returned to her home in Johnstown Saturday.

-Mrs. E. J. Harrington, of Hazleton, has been with her niece, Mrs. Oscar Gray, for a week or more, called here by the serious illness of Mrs. Gray's father, Dominic Judge.

-Mr. and Mrs. Maurice B. Runkle and their daughter Dorothy, returned Monday night from a motor trip to Coatesville and Lancaster, both former homes of the Runkle family.

-John D. Sourbeck, who had been spending a month or more with his daughter, Mrs. Herbert Bellringer, at Jamaica, L. I., returned to his home in this place Wednesday evening.

-Hugh Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Miller, returned home last Saturday to be here for the opening of school on Tuesday, after spending the summer at the Sayers home, at Yarnell.

-Mns. H. F. Miller and sons, Roy and Kenneth, and Miss Viola Sayers spent Sunday at State College with Mrs. Miller's sister, Mrs. Wallace Woomer, and her daughter, Mrs. Homer Johnson.

-Miss Helen Smith, of Bellefonte, and Miss Tamazine Kerstetter, of Pleasant Gap, are both students at the Potts business college of Williamsport, having left here Sunday for the opening of the school.

-Byron H. Blackford, who has spent three years ago and of the 170 men the progress of agriculture. then members only 10 are living to- | Last evening's reproduction was day.

-Two big bus loads of Italians for the reason that lighting effects, so went to DuBois on Monday for the noticeably ineffective Tuesday night, Twenty-seven New DeMolays Initiatparade and banquet of the Sons of Italy, it being the occasion of their annual State convention. The party left on Sunday evening in two of the Emerick motor busses, spent Sunday night in Philipsburg and completed the run to DuBois on Monday morning. Returning they left DuBois after the banquet on Monday night and got home Tuesday morning.

-The annual picnic of the Brooks-Doll post of the American Legion, at Hecla park on Monday, was not as largely attended as such gatherings ordinarily are. Many people were at the big Grange encampment at Centre Hall while quite a number went auto races. The big attraction at Hecla was the ball game in the after-Hall, the former team winning.

-Howard E. Wetzel, of Belle- falling grabbed the fender and held to made the presentation speech, and work to be conducted in co-operation with the United States Buerau of of Mrs. Harvey Wetzel, of this place. his sale of hot dogs.

-Rev. George C. Courtney, chaplain of the western penitentiary, has leased Mrs. Callaway's apartments in the Bush Arcade to take possession on October first, when Mrs. Callaway could. will vacate same. Rev. Courtney and wife had been living at State College but were obliged to vacate their apartments there on September first. They have stored their furniture in the Bush Arcade and Mrs. Courtney will visit friends in the western part of returning to Bellefonte October first.

open on Wednesday of next week and further information, and the launchif indications count for anything that ing of the drive that will perhaps be mistic he "never counts his chickens be glad to receive contributions. Seluntil they are hatched," and on the dom in the world's history has their

The Odd Fellows band remembering episodes: First, rural organization that he is a veteran Odd Fellow as for fraternity; second, the Grange well as a Civil war veteran marched broadens its program; third, the harto his home at the corner of Spring vest time. It was written and direct- man entered a store in Hollidaysburg in the country. Only five of last and Bishop streets, and surprised him ed by W. A. Gordon, of The Pennsyl- and being recognized by the man in year's squad will return to the Acadfith joined Centre Lodge, 153, fifty- a charming and instructive revue of er was a more creditable display of Tuesday's crowd was the largest grounds. Wednesday's was reduced

This fiftieth anniversary encampment was in a sense a tribute to the memory of the late Hon. Leonard

Rhone, who fifty years ago conceived their progress. The first actual picnic limited and resulted in the purchase

THE PAGEANT.

tertainment of the week was the Pafying in action and tableaux the de-

The really big and interesting en-past.

much more finished than the first one had been greatly improved.

Patsy Bathurst Run Over by Auto but Escapes Serious Injury.

Knocked down and run over by an automobile but back on the job selling hot dogs within half an hour was the rather unique experience of Patsy Bathurst on Saturday evening. He at the festival held on the island by church. Running short of gasoline he Decker Bros. garage to get a supply. With a can of gasoline in his hand and many Masons were present to see he walked to the curb and waited un- the initiation. to Altoona for the much advertised til a motorcycle and an automobile passed and believing the roadway clear started across the street just as noon between Bellefonte and Centre an auto shot around the curve and hit gift of L. Frank Mayes, of Lemont.

fonte, is one of six graduates who the car. His hold broke and as he fell acknowledgment of the gift was made have been appointed to research fel- down the car passed over his right by Wilson I. Fleming, chairman of lowships at Carnegie Institute of shoulder. His shoulder was cut and the board of advisors for the chap-Technology for next year. Their in- badly bruised, but fortunately no ter. vestigations will be confined to im- bones broken. He also sustained cuts portant problems in coal mining, their on his head and face and both wrists. Penn-Centre chapter now has a Mines. Mr. Wetzel is a graduate of be superficial, and after applying the effort now is to purchase uniforms for Pennsylvania State College, and a son necessary bandages Mr. Bathurst the band members. Chapter meetings went back to the Island and resumed

The car which hit him was a Buick | cade. driven by a young man named Dean, who stopped as quickly as possible and rendered what assistance he

Red Cross Fund for Japanese Relief.

The authorities of the Bellefonte chapter of the Red Cross have as yet received no word as to Centre county's quota in the Japanese relief fund, the State during the present month, but they are assured that when the time comes both the town and county well known institution will likely be necessary, those desiring to give may ing of the merits of his contention it well filled with students during the do so. Charles M. McCurdy, of the publishes the article because it might coming school year. While headmas- First National bank, Bellefonte, is offer suggestions to the men who have ter James R. Hughes is always opti- treasurer of the local chapter and will the rural and isolated schools of the same basis he never gives figures on been such a disaster; America already at the same time afford greater ad- that while all the Embassy buildings his students until the final count is leaps forward to aid. We need not vantages to some children who bemade. But from the number of res- wait until our quota has been assign- cause of living in detached sections ervations and implied promises there ed before we begin to give. Judging don't have the same opportunity in is every prospect that the Academy by past experience, Bellefonte does not fail in this sort of thing. by past experience, Bellefonte does not fail in this sort of thing.

ed in Penn-Centre Chapter.

Twenty-seven new members were initiated into the mysteries of the Penn-Centre chapter Order of DeMo- Academy. lay on Monday evening. The ceremony was preceded by a parade of the though only three contests will take charter members of the order and noplace on Hughes field. The opening vitiates, led by their own band under game will be with Potts College, of the leadership of Frank Wetzler, of was in charge of the hot dog stand Milesburg. The initiation ceremonies were held in the opera house and the Lumber city kickers are an accumumembers of the United Brethren full ceremonial was performed in a lation of stars from various schools very creditable manner by the chap- and are always a hard team to buck went across south Water street to ter officers. The candidates came against. That is the reason why the opening game will be one worth seefrom various portions of the county the field early. A pretty feature of the ceremony was the presentation of a beautiful U. S. flag of fine embroidered silk, the him. He was knocked down but in Prof. Eugene Weik, of State College, delegates, superintendents and pastors to attend the convention. Each Though only three months old the school should be represented by one delegate in addition to the superin-He was picked up and taken to a membership of one hundred and sixphysician who found all his injuries to teen, with their own band. The big tre county this year should be an inducement to send a large delegation. are held every second and fourth Please arrange for your delegates ear-Tuesday in the month in the Bush Ar-

Something for the School Directors.

A most interesting discussion of a subject that is of special interest to school directors and general interest to the parents of school children will be found on page 2 of this issue. Under the head of "Harris Township's Debt to Its Youth," Paul C. Coxey, of Boalsburg, treats the problem of consolidation of some of the schools of that township with an in-The Bellefonte Academy will will do their share. While awaiting telligence begotten of considerable study of the subject.

While the "Watchman" knows nothcounty in charge that would result in economies in the school districts and terday.

-Lawrence Jones went out to Pitts burgh on a business trip on Saturday and was accompanied as far as Johnstown by his wife and little daughter, who spent with a delightful serenade. Mr. Grif- vania State College, and proved both charge an effort was made to lock the emy, but among the new material will Sunday and Labor day at the home of store and keep him prisoner, but he be found a number of scintillating Mrs. Jones' brother, Edward L. Gates and beat the storekeeper to the door and gridiron stars who are confidently ex- family, all returning home on Monday > loss of the old men. Young athletes -Mrs. E. B. Callaway is preparing to leave Bellefonte the first of October to be from West Virginia, New York and gone for the greater part of a year. The Ohio will compete with products of fall and early winter will be spent in At-Pennsylvania High schools for a place lantic City, Philadelphia, Boston and New on the team. Competition will be York, and in February she will sail on her keen and the result should be one of third trip around the world, returning the best teams ever turned out at the | home July of 1924.

-Mrs. J. Archibald Saxe and her broth-The schedule this year includes er. Jerome G. Harper, were guests on a games with many strong teams, al- drive to Bellefonte Saturday of friends motoring from Ellsworth to Eagle's Mere. Mrs. Saxe and Mr. Harper visited here over Labor day with Mrs. Harper, at Mrs. Charles Smith's, on Bishop street, return-Williamsport, on September 29th. The ing to Ellsworth Tuesday.

-Mr. and Mrs. Newton E. Hess, of State College, left yesterday morning for Baltimore, where Mrs. Hess has entered the Johns Hopkins hospital, to be under the observation of Dr. Kelly. Mrs. Hess had ing. Keep the date in mind and be on been under treatment at the Bellefonte hospital three times within a few months and went directly from there to Baltimore.

Notice to Sunday School Workers of -George T. Bush returned last week from a trip to the Thousand Islands and visit to the Toronto Exposition in Can-

The annual convention of the Pennada. The Exposition is a yearly affair and draws from fifty to one hundred thoussylvania State Sabbath School assoand people daily. Before returning home ciation will be held at Williamsport, Mr. Bush visited Buffalo and Niagara October 10th, 11th and 12th. I have Falls, where the weather was cold enough just received the credential cards for for overcoats.

-Mr. and Mrs. John Kotcamp and their two children left State College, Tuesday, to drive to their home in Brooklyn, expecting to stop at Mr. Kotcamp's former tendent and pastor. The fact of the home in York, and with his brother in convention being held so near to Cen-Philadelphia. The Kotcamp family had been making their auunal summer visit with Mrs. Kotcamp's father and brothers. Dr. William S. Glenn, Dr. Grover Glenn and Dr. William S. Glenn Jr., at State ly and send the names of each one College.

who expects to go to Williamsport to me and I will mail to them the neces--Mrs. Thomas R. Hayes left Wednessary credentials with the railroad one day on her thirty-seventh trip across the continent, going to the coast to look after some business interests. While making their home in Bellefonte Dr. and Mrs. Hayes always spent the winters in California, but after becoming residents of Atlantic City, it was only occasionally that Public Service corporation, with offices in they visited Pasadena. Mrs. Hayes had been in Bellefonte with her sister, Mrs.

Beaver, for a month or more.

-Charles K. McCafferty, of Bradford, was in Bellefonte over Tuesday night. The purpose of his visit was to dispose of the last of the McCafferty property holdings in this community. All of our older folks remember his father, the late Charles Mc-Cafferty, contractor, and know that he built many homes and other buildings in and about Bellefonte. Gradually they have been disposed of until nothing was left but the strip of woodland extending along the west side of the Lewisburg railroad tracks from the toll gate to Griffith's turn. He sold that to former County Commissioner D. A. Grove and now has no further interest at his old home than sentimen-

the summer doing special work at the Bloomsburg Normal, is at his home here for a short vacation prior to entering the Lock Haven Normal for the regular fall term.

-Mrs. Joseph Baker and her six children returned to Harrisburg Saturday, after spending a part of the week at the Nittany Country club. Mrs. Baker is known better in Bellefonte as Miss Jennie Breese.

--Postmaster Jacob Meyer, of Boalsburg, was a Bellefonte visitor on Tuesday; having come over to say good-bye to an old acquaintance who was returning to his home in New York after a visit with Centre county friends.

-Emily and George Parker, who had been here for a month's visit with their grand-parents, Hon. and Mrs. Jmaes Schofield, and their aunts, the Misses Parker, returned to their home in New Brunswick, N. J., on Wednesday.

-E. H. Miller, with the Philadelphia traction company, in Philadelphia, made his annual pilgrimage back home this week, having come to spend Labor day in the home of his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Miller, of east High street.

-Mrs. Keller, of Charleston, W. Va., widow of Judge B. Frank Keller, is visiting with members of Mr. Keller's family, in this locality. While in Bellefonte, Mrs. Keller has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keller, at their home on Linn street.

-Mrs. Irving Warner went to New York on Tuesday; having taken her daughter, Anne Dickey Warner, back for her fall school term. From there she will go to Wilmington to supervise the reopening of their home in that city in preparation for the family when they leave here next Friday.

-Mr. and Mrs. James Bayard, of Williamsport, are in town; having come up Wednesday evening for a visit until today with Mrs. Bayard's sister, Mrs. Odillie Mott. Since quitting printing Jim has been getting on fine, owns his own home in the Lumber city and is as happy as a man can well be.

-Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zieme, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidt, drove in from Johnstown, and spent Sunday and Labor day with relatives; Mr. and Mrs. Zieme going to Woodward, to visit Mrs. Charles Hosterman. Dr. and Mrs. Schmidt entertained their son and his wife. Both Mr. Zieme and Mr. Schmidt are in the employ of the Penn Johnstown.

Additional personal news on page 4, Col. 6.

Twenty Bricklayers Wanted.

$1.40 per hour, 2 years work. Apply Folscheid Bros., American Viscose houses, Lewistown, and bring tools. 68-35-1t

Concerning Plants.

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co. $1.00 .90 .90 Rye .50 Oats Barley toba Hour ora weat 11 .60 .75 Buckwheat - and one-half fare certificate. Boost for delegates. DARIUS WAITE, Secretary, Bellefonte, Pa.

Hon. Cyrus E. Woods Safe. While all the world has stood aghast at the terrible catastrophe of earthquake and holocaust in Japan which cost several hundred thousand lives and millions upon millions of dollar's worth of property Centre countians were personally interested in the fate of Ambassador Cyrus E. Woods and wife. On Wednesday, however, the State department of the United States government received a wireless message from Ambassador Woods stating have been destroyed he and his wife, as well as every member of the Embassy, have escaped and are safe. All,

Centre County.