> The nation possessing the greatest number of homes is positively the most enduring. Home life is elevat ing and strengthening, and when young men and women marry and found a home of their own they are participants in the work of perpetuating a people and assume responsi-bilities the gravity of which they do not realize for some time afterward. A wife leaves home, parents, friends, and all connected with her previous existence to follow her husband, who, on his part, must consid-er her above all things else and make her the chiefest object of his care, so-

The royal seat is near the stern, raised on four pillars, and surmounted by a highly ornate, tower-like canopy. In front and behind the royal seat stand attendants holding up large umbrellas, which look like golden cones. On landing at an appointed place. the King rides in a sedan chair to the temple, when all along the way the people prostrate themselves on the ground keeping silent as a mark of supreme respect. For about half an hour the King occupies himself with the ceremony of worship in the temple, into which the public is not admitted. To the temple outside Bangkok the King dispatches deputies, his person-al pilgrimage being confined to the temples of the city.

Three Famous Surgeons Leave Vienna for United States.

Three Vienna professors left last week for America, where they will lecture and perform operations. The dean of Vienna surgeons, Prof. Adolph Lorenz, world famous orthopedist, will go first to Buffalo and then to New York, at the invitation of the New York Health Department. He will be a consultant in important operations. Professor Pirquet, of the Children's Clinic, famous for his organization of the American Relief committee's feeding system, will go to Minneapolis, where, as founder of the most modern children's clinic in Vienna, he will assist in the foundation of a similar clinic. On a like mission Dr. Bela Schick, first assistant in Dr. Pirquet's clinic, will go to New York to advise in opening a children's cilnic in connection with one of New York's largest hospitals.

Bakers Drop Lotus Leaves.

Shanghai bakers used to wrap their bread and cakes in nice green lotus leaves. But the days of this romantic practice are gone forever. Ac-cording to the new regulations cover-ing bakery products, bread and other products must be suitably wrapped in grease-proof or similar papers. The clause in the regulation covering this particular requirement quoted by As-sistant Trade Commissioner A. V. Smith in a report to the Department of Commerce, reads as follows:

"That bread and bakery products shall, upon sale or when carried or handled for sale, or delivered in baskets, vehicles or otherwise, be suitably wrapped in grease-proof paper or

A convict at San Quentin who wanted more than the regular fare, once made a complaint in rather ingenius terms. An inspector entered this man's cell and found it very hot

Mr. Millerton, who is a great deal of a hypochondriac and enjoys look-ing forward "to the end," was in an especially depressed mood one evening when he gave some thought to the question of a second marriage for his wife. "Harriet, my dear," he said gloomi-ly, "when I am gone from this vale of tears, you must marry again. It is my dearest wish." "William," observed his wife, with a faint smile, "no one will marry an old woman like me. You ought to have died fifteen years ago for that."
