Bellefonte, Pa., October 12, 1923.

MEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Keep in mind the bazaar to be held in the Presbyterian chapel Thursday, November 15th.

Governor Pinchot has named Friday, October 26th, as fall Arbor and bird day in Pennsylvania. Yes, we will have big eats.

Hot dogs, sandwiches, doughnuts, coffee. Hallow-een. Woman's Club. -The ladies of the Milesburg Presbyterian church will hold their 7th and 8th, in the firemen's hall.

-While playing with some boy companions, last Friday, Kenneth Ulrich, eight year old son of Mr. and nursing service for three years and a ing. Mrs. Harry Ulrich, fell and broke his half. That surplus is now exhausted right arm.

-Frosty mornings with the thermometer six degrees below the freezing line, have characterized the weather of the past week in this section of the State.

-D. M. Walters, of Altoona, who has opened an auto repair shop at Pleasant Gap, has moved his family into half of the house recently purchased by Arthur Houck from G. Norman Good.

services in the Presbyterian church, both morning and evening on Sun- Mrs. Brouse, Mrs. Charles Kurtz, rattled down. The real work, the day, at the usual hours. The Holy John Love, Elizabeth Meek, Mrs. tiresome, tedious work of other days the dance. Communion will be administerred at Blanche Schloss, Mrs. J. D. Seibert, the morning service.

-Judge Henry C. Quigley has set Friday, October 19th, as the date for a special session of court to hear surety of the peace and non-support cases, quite a large list of which will be called up for disposal.

-The storm doors were put up at the Bush house entrance on Tuesday morning, and a decided improvement made by cutting out the solid panels in the double doors at the ladies entrance and replacing them with glass.

-Included in the delegation of Expenses: Pennsylvanians appointed by Governor Pinchot, last Friday, to attend the national convention of the Anti-Saloon League at Birmingham, Ala. December 17th to 20th, is Miss Rebecca N. Rhoads, of Bellefonte.

-Gettysburg and Penn State will clash on the gridiron on Beaver field, at State College, tomorrow afternoon. The battlefield kickers have shown considerable strength in the two games already played, and while State ought to win the game by a fair mar- other shooting if he could only be as- its, which will be held as follows: gin the visitors will likely make it incently sold his house on Howard to 15th, but the specifications require to Lamar, and those in Buffalo Run street to the Methodist congregation, that the animal be a male with four valley up as far as Waddle. Prizes made sale of his household goods on or more points to one antler. Inas- of $5.00, $3.00 and $1.00 will be than six months old. The member-Saturday and in the near future will much as the elk are not very plenti- awarded. anake his home with Mr. and Mrs. ful, even in the regions in which they

-Today there is to be another wisit of inspection to the new operations of the Blanchard-Moshannon Mining company east of Karthaus. All stockholders and any others who may care to accompany them are invited. The party will be guests of the company at a "real dinner" and will leave here about nine o'clock this morning in order to reach the operation by noon.

-Rev. E. Roy Corman, of Cressona, Pa., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the First Reformed church in Sunbury, Pa., as successor to Rev. Charles E. Roth, who goes to Reading. The item is interesting to Centre countians because of the fact that he is a native of Spring Mills, this county, and Mrs. Corman is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Fisher, of Centre Hall.

-A summer camp now in the course of erection on a small island one mile above the Masonic camp at the Snow Shoe Intersection, will have a joint ownership of eleven families, ancluding the John M. Bullock family, that of John Payne, Wilbur Baney, Frank P. Hoag, G. Oscar Gray, S. Claude Herr, Harry Murtoff, Edward Owens, Van Jodon, Rev. DePui Maynard and Mark Williams.

-Football is now the prevailing sport while the motion pictures at the Scenic is the one dependable source of entertainment in Bellefonte. Every evening in the week, except Sunday, thig programs of superior films are shown at this popular place of amusement, and the big attendance every evening is proof positive that the pictures are appreciated by the regular patrons. Be a regular and see all the good ones.

-Miss Gertrude Taylor, who on account of ill health was obliged to resign her position as instructor of Bright in the schools of Bellefonte, Several months ago, is now critically ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. D. Zerby. Miss Taylor's condition becrame so grave during the past week that her mother, Mrs. Hugh S. Tay-Hor, and her sister, Miss Bernice Taylor, a professional nurse, were called home from Pittsburgh.

-Six candidates on the Demoeratic county ticket attended a getacquainted meeting in Philipsburg. last Thursday evening, and were greeted by many loyal Democrats in Centre Hills; vice president, O. C. Philipsburg and every precinct of Skinner, of Birch Hill; secretary- of borough council has secured two men their only score, otherwise the ron. There he went into the work of Rush township. There wasn't any Make-warmness in the reception givthe candidates but such genuine centhusiasm as to warrant the belief That that section of the county will wrinke a good showing for the whole Democratic ticket at the polls in No-

be Discontinued?

The annual Red Cross roll call will was decided to hold the roll call in of progress and ingenuity. October but, since there are several nounced. Hardman P. Harris has of years ago a snit today. charge of the roll call and will soon publish a list of his helpers for the service is to be continued, at least was a surplus in the Red Cross treasand only enough money remains to year. The question for us, as a community, is whether or not the nurs- do them. ing service is worth continuing. Let Dr. J. L. Seibert, Kline Woodring.

The report of the Red Cross comfor September:

163

Nursing care visits Instruction visits Investigation visits Miscellaneous visits Visits to schools Total -

Number of babies at well-baby clinics Individuals treated at office Number of hours spent in office

Total upkeep of automobile $19.16 Scrubbing Gloves and washing - -Fees collected - - - - sured of bringing down a lordly elk. | Court house, Bellefonte, Tuesday -Mr. G. R. Spigelmyer, who re- killing this fall, from December 1st in Nittany valley from Pleasant Gap ing on getting any.

now in season is raccoon, and already school exhibits. quite a number have been captured in Centre county. But the greater number of hunters are waiting for November first when squirrel, wild turpheasants can be killed, but inasmuch as these beautiful game birds are still quite scarce in Centre county it would izens of Haines township. be a gracious act on the part of all hunters to voluntarily abstain from killing them. The ordinary pheasant (ruffed grouse) are said to be quite plentiful, Ferguson townships. Prizes by the while various flocks of wild turkeys Business Men's association and the have been seen on the mountains. banks. Rabbits are also numerous but squirrel hunting does not afford the sport it did a quarter of a century ago when various nut trees were more plentiful. However, enough small game will probably be found in the woodlands to afford sport for the small army of hunters during the month of November, and then will come the universal exodus to the mountains in quest of deer, which are reported as numerous this year as last, when the kill in Centre county was the largest in many years.

Golf Association Organized.

The Central Counties Golf association of Pennsylvania was organized by representatives of seven country clubs in the central territory last Saturday, following an invitation interclub tournament at the new Centre Hills Country club, of State College. Blairmont, of Hollidaysburg; Altoona Cricket Club, Birch Hill, of Lewistown; Huntingdon, Tyrone, Nittany, of Bellefonte, and Centre Hills are the charter members. The Lock Haven, Philipsburg, and Clearfield clubs will be invited to join the association. The purpose of the new association is to arrange inter-club matches on a ment, and in all other ways to further representatives of each club.

delegates the following officers were super-speed cut films." elected: President, R. H. Smith, of Hills; chairman of the tournament white lights, which for the present committee, L. Cannon, of the Altoona will be used to control traffic at the Cricket club.

named Ethel, was born Saturday, to discount of the good things to be served on evenings when traffic is the heaviest. Hallow-een by the Woman's Club. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gettig.

-Here's a Tip.

The fellow who said "there's nothbegin November 4th and continue for ing new under the sun" pulled that one week, ending November 11th. It bit of philosophy long before this age

Every day some new way of doing entertainments for the hospital dur- an old job is turning up. Alert minds ing this month, the Red Cross com- and modern devices are working tomittee selected the date above an- gether to make the burdensome jobs

When a boy we took a flour sack. a worn out baby carriage or a wheeldifferent sections of the town. It barrow and started for the hills to must be remembered that not a cent gather walnuts. Being too small to collected for the Japanese relief went climb the large trees and too light to to the Red Cross and if the nursing shake or bump the walnuts off with a stone, we spent most of the day sixteen hundred dollars must be col- throwing clubs at the branches nearannual Christmas bazaar December lected. At the close of the war there est the ground and would come home Inasmuch as the contest has only a in the evening with a peck or so of little over two weeks to run it beury which, with the amounts collected the nuts and a right arm so sore that in the annual drives, has financed the we could scarcely raise it next morn-

The boys of today know little of how the boys of yesterday did things. continue the service through this And the boys of yesterday never dreamed how the boys of today would

On Monday three youths were the reports published monthly and As they neared Gum Stump one of then decide. The columns of this pa- them noticed three walnut trees loadthe subject and its discussion is earn- side. They stopped the truck, made estly desired by the officers and com- a quick survey of the situation and mittee-M. DeP. Maynard, chairman; then started to back. Quicker, almost Wilson P. Ard, vice chairman; Charles than we can tell it, they had backed Gamble, secretary; Mary Blanchard, with such force that the nuts fairly that required hours, was over in a jiffy and the lads jumped off, gathered up the nuts and were off with half munity nurse, Mrs. Merrill Hagan, of the trees, who had been so inter- ing it a great financial success. ested in their unusual maneuvers, wakened up and remembered that he had been planning to have those walnuts for himself.

Agriculture Community Days and Potato Round-Up.

Four agriculture community days and potato round-ups will be held in Centre county next week, in the High 3.00 schools having a course in vocational 3.90 agriculture. The round-ups will be 10.00 preliminary exhibitions of the summer's work of the boys' potato clubs Elk Will be Legal Game to Kill in preparation for the big potato show to be held in Bellefonte on Thursday, October 25th, during the Upwards of half a million hunters week of the teachers' institute. Each go to the woods every year in Penn- boy will exhibit one peck of potatoes sylvania during the game hunting from his project as well as his record season and at least half that num- book. The public is cordially invited ber would be willing to forego all to attend these meetings and exhib-

This species of game will be legal afternoon, October 16th, for all boys

Millard Hartswick, just across the were transplanted five years ago, the 17th, at 1:30 p. m., exhibits of all all over Centre county, and petitions field for a short visit with her sisters, street from where he has lived for chances of being able to kill one are schools in Worth and Halfmoon town- are constantly coming in for admisso remote that few hunters are bank- ships. Prizes, $10.00 by Community bank for boys' potato projects, and initiated the fourth Tuesday of this The only worth while game that is $15.00 by business men for general month, and regularly every month

Aaronsburg, Thursday, schools in Haines township, and potato show of boys in Penn and Haines keys, pheasant and rabbits will come townships. Prizes, $10.00 by Millin. Only the male bird of ringneck heim business men for boys' potato projects, and $20.00 for general exhibits by the Millheim banks and cit-

State College, Friday, October 19th, at 1:30 p. m., in the High school building, for all boys carrying potato projects in Potter, Harris, College and Spring Creek Trout.

Time and again amateur and, protrout in Spring creek but never sucbecause of this fact the "Watchman" while for his efforts. But this week peace. we received ample proof that fish in to Bellefonte, includes Spring creek hear him Sunday. above the falls and very plainly shows three trout. In a letter accompanying the photograph the doctor says:

"I notice in your news department that a movie photographer attempted the interests of the game in Central ture of Spring creek, above the falls, Pennsylvania. The business of the which shows three trout, a print of association will be conducted by a which I enclose. I used a reflex focal board of delegates, composed of two plain shutter camera, with a Tessar and showed splendid team work. Zeist lens 4.5, stopped to 18 and speed At the first meeting of the board of one twenty-fifth of a second, and intersection of High and Spring streets and Allegheny and Bishop -A little daughter, who will be streets. The signs will be in opera-

Shall Our Red Cross Nursing Service If You are Going to Gather Walnuts All Aboard for Hallow-een and the Harvest Queen!

The Harvest Queen contest for the Elk's big Hallow-een celebration opened on Wednesday morning of this week, instead of next Monday morning, as advertised last week, and from the interest manifested on the first friends from their former home at Millersday there is every indication that there will be some lively competition among the girls of Bellefonte and surrounding places for the queenship honor. As stated in the "Watchman' last week, the contest is not limited to Bellefonte girls but is open to any aspirant in the county, and the one way to add excitement to the enterprise is for other towns and villages to put their popular girls in the running. hooves all entrants to not only get trip home on Sunday by his brother Lawbusy at once but work hard until the final vote is cast.

Capt. William H. Brown has been chosen chief marshall of the big parade which will form at 7:30 p. m. on Hallow-een evening, and all organiza- Potter, who has been in ill health, spent tions entering in a body, or individuals who intend to enter floats, are us not evade it but consider carefully going to Snow Shoe in a small truck. requested to notify Capt. Brown of Saturday, October 27th, so that a this week, other Centre countians who are signed them. services of Achenbach's famous nine J. Will Mayes, of Howard. orchestra, of State College, to furnish -Rev. T. W. Young will hold M. McCurdy, treasurer; Mrs. Max speedily and bumped the walnut trees music for the big charity ball to be given in the armory after the parade, a fact that will please all lovers of

Inasmuch as the celebration this year will be given as a benefit for the Bellefonte hospital everybody in Cena truck load of them before the owner tre county should lend a hand in mak-

DeMolay Officers Installed.

At the last regular meeting of Penn-Centre chapter Order of DeMolay, the following recently elected officers were installed for the ensuing term:

Master Councillor-J. Malcolm Aikey. Senior Councillor-Warren L. Cobb. Junior Councillor-Nelson Zimmerman. Treasurer-Charles E. Williams. Scribe-Mahlon Robb. Chaplain-Edward Willard. Senior Deacon-Nelson Jones. Junior Deacon-Russell Hill. Senior Steward-Allison Hollobaugh. Junior Steward-Edwin T. Tuten 3rd. Almoner-George Scott. Marshal-Jack Yeager. Standard Bearer-Sherman Confer. Sentinel-Herbert Bilger. First Preceptor-Joseph Hoy. Second Preceptor-William Garbrick Third Preceptor-Hoy Royer. Fourth Preceptor-Sherwood Hollobaugh Fifth Preceptor-Kenneth Mayes. Sixth Preceptor-Robert Raymond. Seventh Preceptor-Paul Dubbs.

sion. A new class will probably be thereafter. Subscriptions are now October being solicited for the band uniforms, 18th, at 1:30 p. m., exhibits of all and a three act play is in prospect for the latter part of November for the benefit of the band.

Noted Orator to Speak in Bellefonte on Sunday.

Hon. Clinton N. Howard, the little giant of the American platform and one of the most eloquent speakers in this country, will be at St. John's Lutheran church Sunday morning at 7:30 p. m. In the morning Mr. Howard will take as his subject "God Remaking the World," and in the even-Dr. J. Finley Bell Got Photograph of ing will speak on "Peace Through the Prince of Peace." Mr. Howard comes to Bellefonte as the representative of the National Refessional photographers have tried to form association, which has for its take a photograph of the many big 1923 program the following objectives: National obedience to Christ cessfully accomplished the feat, and as Supreme Ruler; enforcement of national prohibition; equal rights for editor, in an item last week, rather men and women; industrial justice; discouraged the idea that the mov- religious education; the reading of the ing picture operator who reeled off Bible in the public schools; Sabbath several hundred feet of film for the observance; abolition of polygamy by purpose of catching the big trout in constitutional amendment, and a fedthe creek, would get anything worth- eration of nations for world-wide

Mr. Howard speaks to more people a flowing stream can be caught by the in a year than any living American, camera in a photograph sent us by with a possible single exception, and Dr. J. Finley Bell, of Englewood, N. is noted for his brilliant talents as a J. The picture, taken on a recent trip lecturer and orator. Do not fail to Bellefonte High Overwhelms Philipsburg.

In their opening game on Hughes field, on Saturday, the Bellefonte to photograph the trout in Spring High school football team simply creek. Your reference to the matter overwhelmed the Philipsburg High was one of doubt as to its success, eleven, the final score being 42 to 0. uniform basis, hold an annual individual and club championship tourna- done. On the morning of September panied their team to Bellefonte feelthey never had a chance from the be-Bellefonte boys played excellent ball

The Bellefonte Academy team lost olina, on Beaver field, by the score of joined the forces of the local traction c 16 to 0.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Miss Nina Lamb returned home last Friday from Chicago, where she had been for a two week's visit with Mrs. Miles lantic City and Philadelphia.

-Mr. and Mrs. Alter Ulsh had as house Charles Bowman and their small son, burg.

-Mr. and Mrs. G. Willard Hall, of Harrisburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kase, of Sunbury, were in Bellefonte on Saturday for the G. R. Spigelmyer sale of household goods.

-Among Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Houser's October house guests have been Mrs. William Wert, of Millersburg; Mrs. Benton Negley, of Killinger, and Miss Sue C. Lenker, of Lemont.

-Albert Jones motored up from Baltimore and spent the week-end with friends in Bellefonte being accompanied on the rence, who returned home on Monday night.

-Miss Janet Potter is expected in Bellefonte within a few days for a short visit home, intending then to return east. Miss the summer at Ashbourne, Atlantic City, Boston and Baltimore. -In addition to the delegation from

State College in attendance at the annual their intention so to do on or before dairy and stock show at Syracuse, N. Y., per are open for communications on ed with nuts, standing by the road- proper place in the parade may be as- helping to swell the crowd are county agent Joseph N. Robinson, of Bellefonte; The committee has secured the Robert P. Campbell, of Centre Hall, and

-Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Young returned on Tuesday from a three week's visit with their daughters in Pittsburgh and with old friends at Washington and Prosperity, Pa. At Washington Rev. Young had the pleasure of preaching to his old congregation and was the central figure in a general reception after the church serv-

-Mrs. Wells L. Daggett was obliged to postpone her visit to Cleveland until next week's visit with her nieces, Mrs. Murch and Miss Georgie Daggett; the latter will then accompany her home, expecting to the Daggett family, before returning to with relatives.

her work in New York. -Mrs. C. G. McMillen spent the early part of the week in Bellefonte with Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler, having driven here Sunday from Altoona, with her daughter, Mrs. Roxey McMillen Moore and some friends. Leaving Tuesday, Mrs. Mc-Millen joined the party in Altoona, expecting to start on the drive back to Dayton. Ohio, Wednesday morning.

-Mr. and Mrs. William Strausbaugh have returned to their home at Sparrow's Point, Md., after a brief visit with Mrs. Strausbaugh's mother, Mrs. Emma C. Bathgate, at Lemont, being accompanied by the latter, who has closed her home and will spend the winter with her daughters, Mrs. Strausbaugh, at Sparrow's Point, and Mrs. Ora W. Seeley, in Philadelphia.

-Mrs. P. H. Fairlamb, of Philadelphia, who had been here for a visit of three weeks with Mr. and Mrs. George J. Weaver, of Ridge street, returned to her home Her mother, Mrs. Forrest Bullock, ex-The Chapter is progressing finely, in the city on Saturday. Mrs. Fairlamb considering the fact that it is less enjoyed her visit here very much, having met many friends who were her schoolship roll contains the names of one mates when she was a girl in Bellefonte Port Matilda, Wednesday, October hundred and sixteen young men from and while here also made a trip to Clear-Mrs. H. C. Crissman and Miss Jennie Weaver.

-Mr. George Kirk, of Luthersburg, was Dr. M. A. Kirk. Ordinarily we would stop attaches to Mr. Kirk because of the fact active duty. Notwithstanding his extreme age he thinks nothing of traveling eight or ten miles a day through rough, mountainous country while running lines of old surveys or making new ones.

-Mr. and Mrs. Leonard B. Geis were guests at the Brockerhoff house over the week-end and Sunday. Mr. Geis is a nephew of Mrs. M. A. Landsy and spent the past five years in Colorado and Missouri. Tiring of the west he decided to 10:45, and in the Methodist church at return to his old home in Philadelphia and disposing of his interests in Missouri he and his wife left that State last Monday morning and made the trip east in a Ford coupe, traveling 1260 miles in four days at an expenditure of less than thirteen dollars for oil and gas.

-A driving party which included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gilliland and Mrs. E. M. Broderick, of State College; Miss Grace Smith, of Centre Hall, and Miss Mabel Allison, of Spring Mills, left Sunday in the Gilliland car for a drive to Philadelphia. Mr. Gilliland drove the car as far as Harrisburg, Mrs. Gilliland taking it there for the remainder of the trip down and the drive home Wednesday. During their stay in the city Miss Allison was a guest of Miss M. Eloise Schuyler, while Miss Smith spent the time at Ardmore, with J. Witmer Wolf and his daughter, Miss Emma. -Perry L. Powell, head of the employment bureau of the Viscose enterprise at Lewistown, was in Bellefonte the latter part of last week looking for girl operatives. Viscose products are artificial silk and the industry at Lewistown is a very large one. Construction work has been completed and at present there are 1750 workers in the plant. The plans are for enlargement until they employ 3500 people. The company is building a model village near the plant so that attractive homes for operatives will be provided and employment for all members of the family who are legally and physically competent to work.

-Wednesday afternoon we pleasure of a short chat with J. M. Ward, of Akron, Ohio. He came in for the fun-2nd, 1923, at 10 o'clock, I took a pic- ing confident of an easy victory but eral of his sister, the late Mrs. David Behrer, who was buried on Tuesday, and inginning to the end of the game. The asmuch as he hadn't been in Centre county for some years was very busy getting 'round to see the places and people he knew when here. Mr. Ward is a son of the late John Ward, of Stormstown, and like their game with the Penn Freshmen his respected old father before him, was in Philadelphia by the close score of for years the village blacksmith there. 6 to 0. An arbitrary ruling of the Finally he closed the shop that father and -The Fire and Police committee referee literally gave the Penn Fresh- son had run for so long and moved to Aktreasurer, A. R. Warnock, of Centre "stop and go" signs, with red and game would have been a scoreless tie. making auto tires at one of the big plants State College defeated North Car- but soon got tired of that business and pany, where he has been ever since an now in charge of all the blacksmith work on its entire system. He has a -Stop! Look!! Eat!!! Watch job, looks well and, best of all, is ap

-Miss Virginia Hilton, of New York city, is a guest of Miss Helen Valentine. -Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Richard left yesterday for their annual fall visit to At-

-Mrs. LeRoy Plumb, who was called here by the death of her mother, Mrs. guests over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fox, left Monday to return to her home at Newton, Kansas

> -Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fenlon and Mrs. James B. Lane are east for a stay at Atlantic City and a visit with relatives in Philadelphia and New Jersey.

> -Mrs. H. S. Meyers, who had been in Bellefonte with Mr. Meyers' sister, Mrs. Edith Knoff, and with the Kephart family at Fillmore, for a week, returned Monday to her home at Olean, N. Y.

> -Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wieland, of Linden Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarlane, of Boalsburg, were in Bellefonte yesterday, going from here to State College to hear the concert by Sousa's band.

> -H. Freeman Stecker, instructor in mathematics at Penn State, is seriously ill at his home at State College. J. M. Willard, head of the department for many years, resigned his position during the summer, owing to ill health. -Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shattuck will drive to State College this week from Nashua, N. H., for their first visit with Mr. Shattuck's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Shattuck, whose guests they will be until after the Navy-Penn State game.

-Mrs. Walls, who had been in Bellefonte for a month with her grandmother. Mrs. Mitchell Lieb, and the Osmer family, returned Saturday to her home at Oberlin, Ohio. Mr. Walls had accompanied Mrs. Walls here, but remained only for a two week's visit.

-Charles Atherton, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. George W. Atherton, of State College, is at present with his sister, Mrs. C. E. Govier, and will continue his visit at State College until after home-coming day. Mr. Atherton has for years been in the Y. M. C. A. work of New York city.

-Miss Florence Gebhart, of Dayton, Ohio, is a guest of her cousins, the Misses Monday; her plans now being for a two Parker, at their home on Howard street. Miss Gebhart arrived in Bellefonte Monday evening, having stopped here for a ten day's visit en route home from the Blue stop in Bellefonte for a short time with Mountains, where she spent the summer

-The Misses McCurdy have had as a guest for the week, Mrs. Buck, a friend from their former home at Gettysburg; she being the honor guest at the McCurdy dinner given at the Country club Monday night. Mrs. Buck will return home with her son, who will be up with the Gettysburg people for the Penn State game tomorrow.

-Miss Alice Tate was discharged from the Bellefonte hospital Wednesday, and is now making plans to go to Lycoming county, for an indefinite visit with relatives in the vicinity of Jersey Shore. Miss Tate had been a medical patient in the hospital twice during the past year, covering a period of six months, but is now very much improved in health.

-Mrs. Birckhead Rouse, whom it was thought would go to the south-west for the winter, will be taken to Sylriaville, Md., in the Blue Ridge mountains, hoping the climate there will benefit her health. pects to return to Bellefonte shortly. bringing with her Mrs. Rouse's two small sons, who will be here with the grandparents until their mother recovers her health.

-Celebrating the seventy-sixth anniversary of his birth and vowing that he was just as good a man as the two stalwart sons, Harry and George, who accompanied an over-Sunday visitor with his cousin, him, our old friend and former resident, George Wolf spent yesterday shaking this item right here but unusual interest hands with Bellefonters. The trio motored down from their homes in Altoona and had that he is eighty-six and a half years old a busy time of it. The name of Wolf is an and the oldest surveyor in the State on old one here and forty years ago, whenever the tin business was mentioned, of course it came into mind, for the older Wolfs were leaders in that work George is still doing an occasional job, but only for the exercise, as he has landed on Easy street and doesn't have to work if he feels disinclined. His sons are connected with the Altoona fire depart-

Help the Hospital.

All arrangements for the presentation of "The Coming of Ruth," at the Garman opera house next Monday and Tuesday evenings, are now complete and a splendid rendition is assured. Those who have attended the rehearsals aver that the music is wonderful. The tickets are going fast and there is every indication of crowded houses both nights. The Penn State mandolin club will play between acts. The chart will open this (Friday) morning at 9 o'clock, at the Mott Drug Co.

Jackson-Rearick.-Jacob E. Jackson, of Lemont, and Miss Edna M. Rearick, of Zion, were married on Monday afternoon, at the Reformed parsonage in Bellefonte, by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt.

House Coal for Sale.

Having leased the coal land on the north side of Horne's Heights, Philipsburg, from J. E. Horne & Co., I am now offering to the public a very superior quality of house coal. CHARLES McMULLEN.

Sale of Household Goods.-At G. R. Spigelmyer home, Howard St., Saturday, October 6, at 2 o'clock p. m. All kinds of furniture in good condition.

For Rent.—Two unfurnished rooms and a bath. Apartment unsuitable for children. Inquire at this office.

-The Last Resort is now serving a 55c plate luncheon from 11:30 to 1:30. Supper from 5:30 to 7. 68-40-4t

Bellefonte Grain Market.

a al
1 81
-