List of Nominations.

The official list of nominations made by the several parties, and as their names will appear upon the ticket to be voted on the 6th day of November, 1923, at the different voting places in Centre County, as certified to respectively by the Secretary of the Commonwealth are given in the accompanying form of ballot, which is similar to the official ballot.

Notice is hereby given, that every person excepting Justice of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the Government of the United States or this State, or of any city or incorporated district whether a commissioned officer or otherwise a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the Legislative, Executive or Judiciary department of this State, or of the United States or of any city or incorporated district and also that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioners of any incorporated district is, by law, incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of judge, inpector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector, judge or other officer of any such elections, shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for, except that of an election officer.

Under the law of the Commonwealth for holding elections, the polls shall be opened at 7 o'clock A. M. and closed at 7 o'clock P. M.

HARRY DUKEMAN [Seal]
 Sheriff of Centre County.

SAMPLE BALLOT

To vote a straight party ticket, mark a cross [X] in the square, in the first column, opposite the name of the party of your choice.
 A cross-mark in the square opposite the name of any candidate indicates a vote for that candidate.
 To vote for a person whose name is not on the ballot, write or paste his or her name in the blank space provided for that purpose. This shall count as a vote either with or without the cross-mark.
 To vote for an individual candidate of another party, after making a mark in the party square, mark a cross [X] opposite his or her name.
 For an office where more than one candidate is to be elected, the voter, after marking in the party square, may divide his or her vote by marking a cross [X] to the right of each candidate for whom he or she desires to vote.
