The ladies auxiliary of the association of postoffice employees of Bellefonte gave an oyster supper for the men last Friday night. It was served at the Schaeffer and Runkle bungalow on Spring creek. Twenty-five covers were laid and the party enjoyed the evening immensely.

PLEASANT GAP.

J. W. Gill and family spent Sunday with relatives in Huntingdon.
Miss Tamazine Kerstetter, of Williamsport, was a week-end visitor at her home.
Miss Emeline Noll, of Philadelphia, was a week-end visitor at the home of her father.
Ree Florey is spending this week in Williamsport, under the care of an eye specialist.
Foster Frazier, of Spring Mills, was a visitor last week at the D. F. Rimmey home.
Elmer Horner and family, of Amboy, Ill., are visiting with his father, George Horner.
Mrs. Houser vacated her home this week, which she recently sold to William Ross, who will begin at once to make repairs.
Frank Armstrong, of Washburn, Missouri, was here last week to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. James Eckenroth.
Mrs. H. M. Kerstetter has been visiting her parents at Lemont, the past week, but has returned home to greet her numerous friends here.
D. F. Rimmey and family, accompanied by Earl Rimmey and wife, motored to Altoona on Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roush.
Becker's Medicine show is the attraction at Noll's hall this week; Mrs. Boyd Rachau being the winner of one of the five dollar prizes in the nail-driving contest.
The Keystone Power Corporation has served notice on their patrons to the effect that they have decided to discontinue collecting at the Gap; so that payment will in the future have to be made at their Bellefonte office. The change meets with the approbation of most people here. One jolly patron remarked it suited him exactly, inasmuch as it would not be so long between drinks.
The former Miss Mamie Corl, of the Gap, is now a resident of Cripple Creek, Colorado. She was some time ago married to Mr. J. M. Keener, hence she has changed her name as well as her residence. They returned east a few weeks ago and visited Mamie's old friends at the Gap, and had a most enjoyable time. While here they made their headquarters at uncle Frank Corl's and with the family of Robert Milward. They left here recently for their future home; Miss Mary Corl, a sister, accompanying them, and expects to remain at Cripple Creek for an indefinite visit. They stopped off at Chicago for a week on their return home, with a view of visiting relatives there.

Politics, for unknown reasons, are practically at a stand-still. The average voter seems to be unusually uninterested, and from present indications an unusually light vote will be polled in November. The aspirants evidently think a nomination is equal to an election. In this they may be disappointed as there may be some surprises when the votes are counted. At the recent primaries, our district, which is a large one—over 560 registrations—only 28 per cent. voted. Under existing circumstances we may poll fifty per cent. at the approaching election, and it will require hustling at that. This tardiness is a mistake; all who are entitled to vote should respond cheerfully.

Our efficient postmaster, J. Abner Noll, of Noll Bros., has resigned as postmaster and his resignation has been accepted by the Department. His reason for resigning is in consequence of the growing business in their extensive mercantile interests. The examination for a successor will take place on the 20th inst., at Bellefonte. But few applicants are in sight; in fact we have but few available to fill the vacancy. We have a population of 720; two churches, with five well patronized public schools, with an attendance of 250 girls and boys, and our town is growing annually. There are over 2500 money orders issued from the office annually; the office now pays almost fifty dollars monthly and will exceed that amount in the near future as our village is gradually increasing in population.
