

POTATO GROWERS AWARDED PRIZES.

Junior Farmers Banqueted in Bellefonte Last Thursday Evening.

Most anybody can stick a potato in the ground and then allow nature to take its course, and if a good crop results all right, if not, then they blame it on the weather. But the boy potato growers of Centre county, members of the junior farmers' organization, in their exhibit at the Y. M. C. A. last Thursday afternoon and evening, presented incontrovertible evidence that prize potatoes can be grown in Centre county as well as anywhere else, if proper attention is given them.

Sixty or more exhibits were on display, all of the russet variety, and in size and general appearance they were so uniform as to give the impression that they were all from one potato patch instead of sixty or more different places in various sections of the county.

After placing their exhibits last Thursday afternoon the boys were taken in charge by a committee of the Bellefonte Business Men's association and shown through the Pennsylvania Match company plant and the Bellefonte silk mill. In the evening they were guests of the business men at a banquet served at the Y. M. C. A. A delegation of the Y. W. club was in charge and one hundred and fifty plates were taken, the guests including the boys, their fathers and sponsors. John B. Payne, vocational supervisor of Centre county, presided and the after dinner speakers included Col. J. L. Spangler, Dean R. L. Watts, of State College; Dr. J. F. Marsh, Prof. C. E. Meyers, H. E. Gayman, Nelson E. Robb, F. B. Bennett, I. L. Foster, Prof. E. L. Nixon, the potato wizard of State College; Dr. L. H. Beeler, and county farm agent J. N. Robinson, who awarded the prizes, as follows:

- Grand champion of the county, $20.00 in cash—Orvis Hosterman, Aaronsburg.
- $15.00 cash—Charles H. Campbell, Pennsylvania Furnace.
- Trip to Harrisburg State show—Fred Ross, State College.
- Pair of shoes given by H. C. Yeager, Bellefonte—Ralph Ishler, Zion.
- Pair of boots by Cohen & Co.—Ralph Poorman, Bellefonte.
- $5.00 cash—John Kline, Boalsburg.
- Sweater by Montgomery & Co.—Paul Campbell, Pennsylvania Furnace.
- $3.00 cash—Milford Hazel, Aaronsburg.
- Flashlight given by Bellefonte Hardware Co.—Ray Corman, Bellefonte.
- Scout knife given by the Potter-Hoy Co.—Harold Albright, State College.
- $2.00 cash—Harold Bloom, Bellefonte.
- $1.00 cash—Kenneth Wert, Boalsburg.
- $1.00 cash—Earl Barner, Zion.
- $1.00 cash—Fred Markle, State College.

The cash prizes were given by the First National bank and Bellefonte Trust company, of Bellefonte; the First National bank and the People's National bank, of State College.

The organization of the junior farmers' association and the boys' potato clubs is due entirely to county agent J. N. Robinson and John B. Payne, county vocational supervisor, who conceived the idea, enlisted the aid of the banks and business men in Bellefonte, State College and Port Matilda, and counseled the boys in their work of planting and growing the spuds. Naturally both men are well satisfied with the result obtained and Mr. Payne states that the possibilities are unlimited in the development of the agriculture of Centre county through such a system of practical training.

The Bellefonte branch of the Woman's Guild of America will make their yearly distribution this morning from the home of their president, Mrs. W. J. Emerick, on Linn street. The articles contributed will be given to the hospital, the borough home and the worthy poor of the community.

Rally day services will be held in St. John's Reformed Sunday school next Sunday morning at 9:30. Special rally offering for the school's mission in Japan. Annual contest between the boys and girls for the pennant.

Investing for the Family.

Abraham Lincoln humorously said of a poor neighbor's assets, "He has a wife and two children, which I should think were worth thirty thousand dollars to any man."

The family is the greatest wealth of every member of it—the first concern of the individual or of society. It is a golden investment and needs the same protection and care that any investment requires.

One of its best safeguards is good reading; one of the things that puts it in jeopardy is bad reading. The Youth's Companion has always been in the matter of supplying good reading, what a United States bond is to the investor. Its principal is guaranteed, and its interest is paid with every issue. Try this investment for your family.

The 52 issues of 1924 will be crowded with serial stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and receive:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1924.
2. All the remaining issues of 1923.
3. The Home Companion Calendar for 1924. All for $2.50.
4. Or include McCall's Magazine, the monthly authority on fashions. Both publications, only $3.00.

..Scenic Theatre..

Week-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3:
DUSTIN FARNUM in "MAN WHO WON," is a good western melodrama with fast action all through. A story of a brave westerner whose aim is to help the weak. Also, 2 reel Century Comedy.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5:
DOROTHY DALTON in "DARK SECRETS," is a good picture. A story dealing with love of an English lord for an American girl heroine. She becomes crippled and he degenerates, but she finally saves him and marries. Some sex problem in the story. Also, Pathe News and Topics.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6:
JACK HOLT in "NOBODY'S MONEY," is a bright little comedy melodrama of six reels, with Wanda Hawley and Julia Faye. A misappropriation of estate funds and finally the saving of the Governor's life and marrying his daughter, make a satisfactory picture. Also, 2 reel Comedy.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7 AND 8:
All Star Goldwyn cast in "THREE WISE FOOLS," a seven reel enjoyable comedy drama which in part becomes a melodrama. There is action, heart appeal as well as good acting and photography, and will surely please all. A story of three bachelors who don't get married and adore a young girl who enters into their lives. Alex Francis, William Crane and Claude Gillingwater are the bachelors. Also, a 2 reel Comedy.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9:
HOOT GIBSON in "BLINDY," is a comedy drama of a "rookie" becoming a second lieutenant in the cavalry. A mamma's boy becomes a soldier. Also, the 12th episode of "THE EAGLE'S TALONS."

OPERA HOUSE.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2 AND 3:
All Star Cast in "THE SPOILERS," a wonderful 8 reel picture that is action every minute. Anne T. Nelson, Robert McKim, Barbara Bedford, Mitchell Lewis are among the few good ones. Also, 2 reel Sunshine Comedy

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9 AND 10:
Tom Mix in one of his latest. Also, a good two reel comedy, "Tips."
