

LYON.—Mrs. Mary Magdalene Lyon, wife of Samuel Lyon, died at her home at Lyontown last Thursday, as the result of an affection of the heart. She had been ill since July and had been confined to bed five weeks.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lucas she was born near Unionville on April 13th, 1843, making her age 80 years, 6 months and 19 days. Forty-nine years ago on the 21st of October she married Samuel Lyon and all their married life had been spent at Lyontown. She had been a member of the Methodist church for many years.

Surviving her are her husband and the following children: Mrs. Nathan Bachman, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Rebecca Bickle, of Lock Haven; Miss Hannah, at home; John, of Lyontown; Mrs. John Walker, of Howard; Mrs. Sylvester Summers, of Wingate; Mrs. Christ Rhindecke, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. Clarence Gallagher, of Bellefonte. She also leaves one brother, Daniel Lucas, of Mechanicsburg.

Rev. Kepler, of Pleasant Gap, had charge of the funeral services which were held at two o'clock on Sunday afternoon, burial being made in the Curtin cemetery.

STOVER.—Mrs. Alice M. Stover, wife of Orville J. Stover, a well known business man of Blanchard, passed away at her home in that place on Monday of last week following a week's illness with uraemic poisoning.

She was a daughter of Henry and Sarah Schroyer Heaton and was born at Yarnell about sixty-one years ago. She married Mr. Stover when a young woman and all their married life had been spent in Blanchard where she was well and favorably known. In addition to her husband she is survived by one daughter, Miss Faye Stover. She also leaves two brothers, Frank Heaton, of Youngstown, Ohio, and George H., of Renovo.

Rev. H. K. Bower, of Bellwood, had charge of the funeral services which were held last Thursday afternoon, being assisted by Rev. Cross, of Blanchard, burial being made in the Disciple cemetery.

STROUSE.—Mrs. Hannah Jane Strouse, wife of Luther K. Strouse, passed away very unexpectedly at her home at Pine Hall at 1:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cramer and was thirty-eight years old. Since her marriage to Mr. Strouse they had occupied the old Thomas Strouse farm at Pine Hall. A life-long member of the Lutheran church she was a woman of many cheerful and lovable characteristics, and her death has caused much genuine sorrow among a large circle of friends. In addition to her husband she is survived by three small boys, as well as her father, who made his home with her. Funeral services will be held this (Friday) afternoon, burial to be made in the Pine Hall cemetery.

HOUSEMAN.—Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Houseman, widow of Adie Houseman, died at her home in Altoona last Friday morning following an illness of one year with heart trouble. She was born in Ferguson township, Centre county, on January 24th, 1850, hence was in her seventy-fourth year. Practically all of her married life, however, had been spent in Altoona. Her husband died a number of years ago but surviving her are three sons, W. H., John A. and Allison Houseman, all of Altoona. Funeral services were held at the John A. Houseman home at 2:30 o'clock on Monday afternoon and burial made in the Rose Hill cemetery.

GRUBB.—Mrs. Berenice Grubb died at her home in Akron, Ohio, last Friday following a prolonged illness with kidney trouble. She was a daughter of Frank and Carrie Downing and was born in Bellefonte thirty-two years ago. Following her marriage to Mr. Grubb they moved to Akron. Surviving her are her husband and two daughters, Thelma and Betty. She also leaves her parents and two sisters, Mrs. Wilbert Rhoads and Mrs. Charles Grubb, all of this place. The remains were brought here on Monday morning and funeral services held on Tuesday afternoon, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

MUSSER.—Dr. D. K. Musser, a well known dentist, died last Saturday at the home of his brother, A. S. Musser, at Aaronsburg, following an illness of a number of years. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Musser and was born in Haines township sixty-four years ago. He graduated in dentistry in Philadelphia and practiced his profession in Aaronsburg, Bellefonte and Centre Hall, but was compelled to quit work on account of ill health. He never married and his only survivor is his brother, A. S. Musser. Burial was made at Aaronsburg on Wednesday afternoon.

LOSE.—John Lose, who for some years past has made his home with the Foster Fanning family, died on Monday afternoon after an illness of some years with hardening of the arteries, aged 79 years. His wife and one daughter preceded him to the grave but surviving him is one son, William Lose, of Chicago, and one brother, Nicodemus Lose, of Millheim. Burial was made in the Meyers cemetery yesterday afternoon.

Week-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10:
JOHN GILBERT in "EXILES," a story by this new star in which he is cast on a solitary island with a beautiful girl and the consequent romance is interesting. Also, a two reel Century Comedy. Saturday evening show begins at 8:15.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 12:
MARY MILLS MINTER in "DRUMS OF FATE," is a well made picture in six reels and is unusual. The setting is all over the world and is artistic. A story of the beauty of self-sacrifice. One you will enjoy. Also, Pathe News and Topics.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 13:
WALTER HIRS in "MR. BILLINGS SPENDS HIS DIME," a six reel pleasing farce comedy. There are many wholesale laughs in it. Cast includes Geo. Fawcett, Josephine Logan, Robert McKim and Joseph Swickard. A rapid action story of a financially broken American who starts a South American revolution. Also, 2 reel Comedy.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 14:
All Star Cast in "TRILBY," a 100 per cent. picture with the now famous French star, Andree Lafayette as "Trilby." A vividly painted romance, life-like and extremely artistic. A picture that will please all. Don't miss it. Everybody knows the story. Eight reels. Also, 2 reel Sunshine Comedy.
Matinee Wednesday at Scenic.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15:
All Star Cast in "ARE YOU A FAILURE." Also Pathe News and Review.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16:
GLADYS WALTON in "UNTAMABLE," is a drama dealing with hypnotism and dual personality. Keeps the spectators on the jump. A story that will please most especially those who like this dainty star. Also, 18th episode of "THE EAGLE'S TALONS."

OPERA HOUSE.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10:
Feature to be announced later.
