Democratic Hatchman.

Bellefonte, Pa., November 16, 1923.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-John B. Meek and family have moved from the D. L. Meek farm at Waddle, to State College, where they expect to make their home in the future.

-The American Legion auxiliary will give a card party in the Legion rooms, Tuesday evening, November 20th. Playing will begin at eight o'clock. Admission 25 cents.

-A crowd of fifteen hundred people saw the Bellefonte Academy football eleven defeat the strong Potomac State school team, of Keyser, W. Va., Hoy. A majority was given all of at Cumberland, Md., last Saturday, the constitutional amendments in Cenby the score of 27 to 0.

-Current reports say that the loan being 1492. Thanksgiving turkey will be considerably lower in price this year than it tween the candidates for Prothonotahas been for several years, but the ry and Recorder extra precautions toothsome bird is not very plentiful in some sections of the State.

-Monday was observed as Armistice day in Bellefonte, by the postoffice, banks and most of the stores. ing. The official envelopes were open-The event, however, was not celebrat- ed by Prothonotary Roy Wilkinson ed in any other way, either by the who handed them to Judge Quigley American Legion or the public generally.

-W. B. Rankin, the well known insurance man of Bellefonte, who was badly injured in an automobile accident a few weeks ago, is now on a tin street.

of the new dormitories being erected as finally announced is as follows: at State College, will be formally dedicated on Friday, November 23rd, when it will be thrown open for occupancy. The hall will accommodate about one hundred and ten students.

-A special train will leave Lemont late this evening to transport five hundred or more State College students to Philadelphia for the State -U. of P. football game tomorrow. Quite a number of students will make the trip by auto while others are hiking it.

-Fire last Friday morning, destroyed a good portion of the roof and third story of the house occupied by D. G. Meek, at State College. The building is owned by Mrs. H. E. Homan, of Centre Hall, and the estimated damage of three thousand dollars is covered by insurance.

---The Central Pennsylvania Greeters' club is the name of a new hotel association organized in Altoona last week by fifty or more hotel men in this section of the State. Included in the list of officers elected is James P. Aikens, of the Nittany Inn, State College, as sergeant at arms.

-Financial rally day at the United Evangelical church, on Sunday, resulted in contributions and pledges aggregating $2,500. This money will be applied to the fund for remodeling and increasing the size of the church and Sunday school room, both of which have become too small for this flourishing congregation. The committee in charge hope to have everything in shape to begin work in the spring.

---The newly elected county officers are already being besieged by many applicants for the various appointive positions to be filled. These will include a deputy sheriff, deputy treasurer, deputy recorder, deputy register, clerks to the county commis sioners, and attorneys for all the above. A number of names have been mentioned in connection with the various places but so far no appointments have been announced.

---There has been collected thus far for the Red Cross membership $632.25. Fifty of this amount was given by the Elks. All reports are expected to be in by the end of this week and the list of members and amount of money will be published in next week's papers as the committee wish to make a full accounting to the public and give credit lows: to the workers who have so kindly assisted in the Roll Call.

offering many splendid pictures on his regular programs at the Scenic and children included Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Spimovie fans who don't want to miss cer, Mr. and Mrs. John Blazosky, Mr. and any of the good ones should arrange to attend every evening's show. It is Laird, Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Weaver, Clair the only place in Bellefonte that offers entertainment every evening in the week except Sunday, and now that the weather is too cold for outdoor amusement the Scenic is the Wilbur and Wilfred Nearhoof. The four place to spend your evenings.

brought to Gettig's meat market in this place last Saturday it having Phillipsburg, were also present. -Almost a full grown fawn was this place last Saturday, it having been chased into a wire fence by dogs on the road from Brush valley into Sugar valley and so badly hurt that it had to be killed. Two more fawns were brought in this week, both having been killed by automobiles, on the and the other in Brush valley. The carcasses were cut up and the meat dio, which has been so successfully party was composed of Artelt, right carried on by the McGarvey sisters, is | end on the 'Varsity football team, photography and portraiture, who Artelt escaped with a bad shaking up prisoners have enjoyed for some time, cent London exposition. Miss Mc- Bellefonte during the summer as a themselves enjoyed giving the enter- ing for an entertainment to be given has been spent in that section and very Garvey is doing Mr. Dooner's home guest of Miss Eliza Blackburn at the tainment and are to be commended in the big dining hall on Thanksgiv- few years have passed in which he did photographs of women and children. home of Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler. for the spirit shown.

Official Totals of Vote Cast at Recent Election.

the jim-jams if he attempted to figure out a solution of the vote as cast at last week's general election in Centre county. Starting with the head of the ticket Judge Henderson, Republican, had a majority of 3524 over Charles D. McAvoy, Democrat, for Judge of the Superior court, and in the next block on the ticket E. R. Taylor, Democrat, was elected over William H. Brown, Republican, for Sheriff by a majority of 3531, a change of 7055 votes, as shown by the official count completed on Tuesday afternoon. Roy Wilkinson was reelected Prothonotary by the small majority of 54, while Lloyd Stover had only 32 of a majority over Sinie H. tre county, that for the road bond

Owing to the narrow margin bewere taken in counting the vote, which was begun at twelve o'clock last Thursday. David R. Foreman and Mrs. Donald Potter did the tabulatand he announced the figures recorded. Miss Winifred M. Gates checked up with the tally sheet and John Blanchard and Ivan Walker were also present checking up. After all the returns had been tabulated they were fair way to recovery, although he is again checked and compared and finalstill confined to his home on east Cur- ly added, the close votes being added on two different machines to be sure -Frederick Watts hall, the first they were correct. The official vote

1		2 (53)
-	Judge of Superior Court; John J. Henderson, Rep7194
1	John J. Henderson, Pro1146	0950
1	John J. Henderson, Prog 18- Charles D. McAvov. Dem	-8358 4834
1	John J. Henderson, Rep. 7194 John J. Henderson, Pro. 1146 John J. Henderson, Prog. 18- Charles D. McAvoy, Dem Henry John Nelson, Soc	159
1
1	William H. Brown, Soc 57-	4257
1	William H. Brown, Rep.       4200         William H. Brown, Soc.       57-         E. R. Taylor, Dem.       7049         E. R. Taylor, Pro.       739-	-7788
1	Dhothonotary:
1	Roy Wilkinson, Rep.         5413           Roy Wilkinson, Soc.         356           Roy Wilkinson, Pro.         211-
1	Roy Wilkinson, Soc	-5980
1	S. Claude Herr, Dem	5926
1	County Treasurer: James O. Heverly, Rep5781
1	James O. Heverly, Rep	-6126 5753
1	Dorigton.	01119
1	Register: Harry A. Rossman, Rep6310 Harry A. Rossman, Pro346-	0054
	Harry A. Rossman, Pro 346- Forest S. Ocker, Dem	-6656 $5251$
	Danadani
	Lloyd A. Stover, Rep. 5004 Lloyd A. Stover, Soc. 98- Sinie H. Hoy, Dem. 5443 Sinie H. Hoy, Pro. 527-	-6002
	Sinie H. Hoy, Dem5443
		-5970
		105
	Harry P. Austin, Pro 225-	4840
	John S. Spearly, Dem6382	4225
1500	John S. Spearly, Pro 533-	6915
	County Commissioner: Harry P. Austin, Rep	6278 459
	District Attorney:
,	District Attorney: John G. Love, Rep. Arthur C. Dale, Dem. 5056 Arthur C. Dale, Soc. 853 Arthur C. Dale, Pro. 601-	5356
,	Arthur C. Dale, Soc. 853 Arthur C. Dale, Pro. 601-	-6510
	Robert D. Musser, Rep5908	004.0
1	Robert D. Musser, Rep	-6292 $4883$
	Herbert H. Stover, Dem5456	K004
1	Jonathan S. Condo. Dem 435-	-5891 $4757$
	Coroner:	5
•	Coroner:   Dr. W. R. Heaton, Rep	-7453
1	Walter Tallhelm, Soc	752
•	County Surveyor:	6084
2	H. B. Shattuck, Rep	4550
9	County Surveyor: H. B. Shattuck, Rep H. B. Shattuck, Dem H. B. Shattuck, Pro	380
1	For	2471
	Against	2471 1776
-	Constitutional Amendment No. 2:	3244
1	For	1752
-	Constitutional Amendment No. 3:	1000
9	For	1988 1741
	Constitutional Amendment No. 4:
V	For	2338 2252
-	Against
e	A Happy Birthday Celebratio	n
1	A nappy Dirthday Celebratio	II.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Adams, at Port Matilda, was the scene of a delightful gathering, on Sunday, November 4th, held in celebration of Mrs. Adams' seventy-sixth birthday anniversary. The dinner was furnished and served by the children. Mr. and Mrs. Adams only recently passed their fifty-seventh wedding ansplendid health. Guests present at the birthday celebration were as fol-

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Adams, Mr. and Mrs. John Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel -Manager T. Clayton Brown is McMonigal, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Nearhoof, Mrs. Clifton Goss, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cowher, Axil, Mahlon, Gilbert, Paul, Theodore, Mary, Reuben and Charlotte Adams; Roosevelt, Matthew, Melvin, Christ, Roxanna, Dorothy, Bertha and Delilah McMonigal; Clair and Matthew Shaner, great grand-children were Frances Spicer. Clair Blazosky, Lawrence and Myrtle Ma-

Wreck.

On Sunday evening two State College students and two young ladies, guests at the house parties there over public highway, one near Boalsburg Sunday, were mixed up in an auto wreck just above the penitentiary grounds when the steering knuckle of delivered to the Bellefonte hospital. their car locked and they crashed into ---The work of the McGarvey stu- a tree by the side of the road. The at present in charge of Miss Blanche with his sister and Miss Nancy Mc-McGarvey, who will continue the high Kee, both of Philadelphia, and Thomgrade work for which the studio has as Trimble, a Senior. Trimble was at a national reputation. Miss Mary first believed to be badly injured and McGarvey is spending several months was brought to the Bellefonte hoswith Richard T. Dooner, of Philadel- pital, but it has fortunately developed numbers. phia, one of the pioneers of modern that his condition is not serious. was awarded the gold medal for the while the young ladies were unhurt. and to their isolated lives it brought best portrait photograph, at the re- Miss McKee, by the way, visited in a ray of sunshine. The performers ner, of State College, have announced the engagement of their son, Lieut. An expert mathematician would get M. B. Gardner, of the U. S. Navy, to Miss Mary Gorgas, a daughter of Lieut. Com. Miles C. Gorgas, of San Francisco. Lieut. Gardner is now on duty at the naval air station at San Diego, Cal., where he is the engineering officer of his squadron.

Our Christmas Cards are Here.

sending cards conveying Christmas or ed out of bed and opened the door in-New Years greetings we wish to an- to the hallway which was already fill- sister, Mrs. Cronemiller, at Patton; having nounce that our line is now ready for ed with smoke. Hurriedly dressing gone over last week for a visit of ten days inspection.

All are exclusive designs and cannot be duplicated in this territory. an alarm of fire. Both companies We will print or engrave them as de- quickly responded and found the fire little shopping. sired, both as to style of lettering and in the cellar but before the flames the greeting.

will find some to please you.

Dental Hygienist in Milesburg Schools Miss Cora Mitchell, dental hygien-Bellefonte schools since September short circuit in the electric wires. 24, moved her equipment to Milesburg on Tuesday and will work for a week in the Milesburg schools. The work is made possible through the money secured in the sale of tubercureally due her. By this means rural communities might secure the dental Miss Hasel at the piano. hygienist for their schools and would

The Last Warning.

Next Thursday evening the Bellefonte theatre goers will have an opportunity of seeing "The Last Warning," one of the newest and greatest of mystery plays, said by many to rival "The Bat," which gave excellent satisfaction at its recent appearance in Bellefonte. The same company, with the complete cast of characters, which opened the season at the Garrick theatre, Philadelphia, on Labor day, will appear in Bellefonte. The seat sale for this remarkable mystery play will open tomorrow (Saturday) morning at the Mott Drug Company, and inasmuch as the demand is sure to be heavy reservations should be made at once.

Small Game Season Half Over.

Just one-half of the open season for small game has passed and while quite a number of wild turkeys, pheasant, squirrel and rabbits have been killed in various parts of the county, the total amount of game hunters have not pursued the sport with their old-time vigor or else they have lost their cunning in stalking

Of course the deer season is coming on apace and that will be the gala time for hundreds throughout the county, including many in Bellefonte, and inasmuch as deer are reported very plentiful they all anticipate great sport during the fifteen days of the

cupants.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. William Hoover and young son, of Greensvalley, started to drive to Bellefonte in a buggy. On the mounwere run into from the rear by an automobile, their buggy completely wrecked and Mr. and Mrs. Hoover painfully injured. Mr. Hoover had several ribs broken and sustained a number of cut and bruises. Mrs. and it ran away.

buggy until almost on top of it, and too late to avoid the accident.

National Male Quartette Entertained Prisoners.

hundred of the prisoners at Rockview hours and Sundays. on Wednesday evening. This was ren-State College Football Player in Auto | dered entirely gratuitously, the secretary of the Y. M. C. A. and Mr. James Potter arranging same with superintendent Stutzman.

The violin soloist, Wyman Moore, played "Hejce Kadte," a Hungarian versified life that one is constrained concerto by Jean Houbay, in a very to wonder why every now and then pleasing manner. Walter E. Munroe, baritone and pianist, gave an amusing pianologue, "Here Comes the Groom.' dedicated to married men. The but they have out-door work and exquartette's rendition of "On the Sea," The saxophone solos by George Turnbull brought down the house. Wayland Simons, as first tenor and impersonator, gave some most amusing

This is the first entertainment the

-Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Gard- Mice Blamed for Fire at John B. Payne Home.

The new home of John B. Payne, on home for the winter. east Linn street, was damaged by a fire, last Saturday morning, which the funeral of their nephew, Dennis L. Mr. Payne blames on a short circuit | Solt, at Altoona, this morning. in the electric light wires caused by mice chewing off the insulation. At guests last week Mrs. Mignot's nephew. least that is the only possible solu- Earl Bigelman and wife, of Pittsburgh. tion of the origin of the fire he can discover. The fire started about 4:30 a two week's visit with her cousins, Miss o'clock. Mr. Payne was awakened by Mary and Howard Struble, on their farm For the benefit of those who intend the smoke in his bed room. He jump- near Zion. Mr. and Mrs. Payne took their two children to a neighbors and sent in could be extinguished they had burn-Christmas season we would like you hardwood floor in one corner of the and Mrs. William Gehret. to look ours over. We are sure you cellar, and had burned up the studded wall of one side of the house to much as it occurred at the opposite side of the cellar from where the furist, who has been working in the cause so far as can be determined is a

Brita Beckman's Song Recital.

Grateful acknowledgements are due the Woman's club for the aesthetic delosis Christmas seals and as Miss light afforded to the large audience Bessie Miles had charge of the seal Tuesday evening in the Presbyterian a position in the general offices of the sale last year in Milesburg, the credit | chapel, where Mrs. Beckman appeared for the hygienist's services there, is in a recital of "Folk Song and Playtime Songs of Sweden," assisted by

The songs were introduced by a find it an excellent means of arousing short and interesting talk on the orichildren to the need of care of the gin of the "Folk Song" and an expla- sox, on east High street. nation of the picturesque costumes der, delicate and poetic feeling. The Monday afternoon. ed the meaning of the words.

Miss Hasel is a finished accompanist and a talented pianiste-Her two so- county. los-"Weep Not Little Mother," by Mericanto and "Dance from Jolster" the Woman's club an opportunity may F. Pierson, of Philadelphia. again be presented to us of hearing artists of distinction.

Stock Perish in Flames that Destroy Barn.

The large barn on the W. Miles paratively small. Either Bellefonte wheat, oats, corn and hay as well as wheat, oats, corn and hay as well as most of the farm implements. The farm was occupied by M. C. Wheeland and family and the fire was discovered by Mrs. Wheeland about 11:30 cycleck. She promptly awakened her to the farm of the farm o come by the dense smoke and fumes. All he was able to save was several hogs. Inasmuch as there had not Auto Smashed Buggy, Injured Oc- been any fire near the barn the prevstock and implements being partially Murch for two weeks. tain road above Pleasant Gap they insured, but not sufficient to cover the

Men's and Women's Clothing Needed for Rockview.

A request has been made by the Hoover was also cut and bruised but chaplain of the Rockview penitentiary the boy escaped serious injury. The for the following articles which will niversary and both are still enjoying wrecking of the buggy freed the horse be used by the prisoners in producing a play for their entertainment on The accident happened at the Thanksgiving day: Two dozen pair Wednesday on a week's motor trip, the bridge just above Pleasant Gap. The white stockings and bloomers; one Captain to stop at Cooperstown to visit driver of the machine that ran into dozen pair women's shoes and twenty his niece, Mrs. Homer Crawford, while the buggy, whose name could not be dresses 29 to 40. Also twelve men's Mr. and Mrs. Boozer will go to Youngslearned, was blinded by the head-lights of two machines going up the of the above articles to donate may daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kline. mountain and was unable to see the notify the Y. M. C. A., and same will -Among the Saturday visitors to Bellebe called for and forwarded.

A collection of books and magazines reading and library. Keep this in mind. Magazines and books may be left at the Potter-Hoy Co., and taken The National Male quartette, which to Rockview by trucks coming in alopened the Lyceum course at the most every day. Help improve the court house last evening, rendered a condition of the inmates by giving very entertaining program before five them good reading matter for idle ercise and during the summer months dozen subjects. And now they have twenty or more inmates are practicing evening.

Show on Thanksgiving.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL. -Mrs. D. I. Willard returned to Bellefonte for election day; intending to be

-Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houser will attend

-Mr. and Mrs. John Mignot had as

-Miss Mary B. Struble has been making

-Mrs. John Hoy, of Waddle, is with her

-Mrs. B. P. Bell, of Spring township, was a pleasant caller at the "Watchman" office on Saturday while in town doing a

-Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hubler and son of Lock Haven, were Wednesday visitors If you contemplate using cards this ed the joist and a hole through the at the home of Mrs. Hubler's parents, Mr.

-Arthur Ostrander, of Altoona, spent Sunday and Monday with his grandmother, the ceiling of the first floor. Inas- Mrs. Maude A. Ostrander, at the Bowersox home on east High street.

----Mrs. Harry Bowersox, who has nace is located, the only possible been housed up for a week with illness, is now able to be out and around almost as usual.

-Mrs. George Stevenson, of Waddle, and her two children, Frank and Irma, spent the after part of last week in Clearfield with Mrs. Stevenson's brother, V. G. Henderson and his family.

-Thomas Hayes, who now holds down spent Sunday in Bellefonte with his mother. Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes.

-Mrs. Oscar Ostrander and two children, Junior and Dorothy, and Miss Bealast week of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bower-

-Mrs. C. U. Hoffer and daughter, Miss worn by the two artists. Mrs. Beck- Anne, of Philipsburg, came to Bellefonte man's portrayal of the Swedish on Sunday to visit over Armistice day with join Mrs. Smith here before she leaves. character as seen through the medium Miss Louise Hoffer, at the home of Dr. of the "Folk Song" was full of ten- and Mrs. M. A. Kirk, returning home on beauty of her voice, the grace and elo- . -C. D. Moore was in Bellefonte Tues quence of her gesture enhanced the day on his way home to State College, fol- Garman motored to Coatesville on Sunday lovely melodies and forcibly illustratiowing a six month's visit in the west. ferent parts of Missouri; then to Cleveland, from where he returned to Centre

-Miss Helen M. Lose, of Philadelphia, by Grieg were in harmony with the and Mrs. J. C. McGowan, of Reynolds ave-Scandinavian atmosphere of the even- nue. While in Bellefonte she received many congratulations on the recent an-It is to be hoped that through nouncement of her engagement to Dr. A.

> -Mrs. Paul Reish, of Williamsport, who had been visiting with friends in Tyrone, on east Bishop street. came to Bellefonte yesterday, with plans sister-in-law, Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes at her ter, Mrs. John Miller, of Potters Mills, Reish's son is a student at State.

Walker farm, at Fairbrook station, in John Anderson, went over to Clearfield on mained until yesterday and we just know Ferguson township, was totally de- Sunday to see their brother, Edgar Big- what a feast all of them had over old times stroyed by fire on Monday night to- elman, who was injured in an auto acci- at "the Bank." Time was when "the gether with four horses six cows two dent while on the way to a store on Satgether with four horses, six cows, two dent while on the way to a store on Satpigs and the entire season's crops of urday evening. While his injuries are ser- home of many of the county's best famiious they are not considered critical.

o'clock. She promptly awakened her Ulsh's guests at the Bush house for dinhusband who rushed to the barn with- ner and spend the afternoon playing cards. out taking time to dress in the hope __Miss Sara Woods and a friend, of New of saying his live stock but when he York city, who visited in Bellefonte last got there the entire lower portion of week, were honor guests at the dinner and the barn was already a seething mass for the dance following, given by Gordon of flames and most of the stock over- Montgomery, at the Nittany Country club, Friday. Mrs. Henry W. Shoemaker, of McElhattan, was also among Mr. Montgomery's guests.

-Miss Georgia Daggett accompanied Mrs. Wells L. Daggett home from her reious day the only conclusion as to the origin is that it must have been set on in Cleveland, intending to spend a short fire by some person unknown. Mr. time with her aunt before returning to Walker estimates the total loss at ap- her work in New York city. Mrs. Daggett proximately $4,500, the barn, crops, and Miss Daggett had been guests of Mrs.

> -Among the many Centre county Grangers who have been in Pittsburgh this Curtin street home today. week attending the annual meeting of the State Grange are Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Grove, of Bellefonte, and Capt. W. H. Fry. of Pine Grove Mills. Because of the latter's visit to the Smoky city the "Watchman" is this week devoid of the always interesting "Pine Grove Mentions."

-Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Boozer, of Centre Hall, accompanied by Mrs. Boozer's father, Capt. George M. Boal, will leave next fonte were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Carver, with their daughters Esther and Grace, of will soon be made for the prisoner's State College. Mr. Carver is employed in the agricultural department of the college and looks after that part of the college farms that was once the Musser homestead. He resides in the house that replaced the Musser home that burned some years ago with such tragic consequences.

-Frank P. Blair is looking forward to having with him on Thanksgiving his eldest son, A. F. Blair, of Seattle, Washington, who is now on an extended business Rockview Inmates to Give Minstrel trip through the northern States and Canada, with the expectation of reaching Bellefonte the last week in November. Mr. The inmates at the western peni- Blair is connected with the Puget Sound tentiary at Rockview have such a di- Machinery company, in Seattle, and it is fifteen years or longer since his last visit home.

some of them try to escape. Of -The venerable John D. Decker, of course they must live up to the rules Decker valley in the foothills of the Sevin force there and are under restraint, en mountains, was in Bellefonte last Friday and in his official capacity as jury commissioner helped to draw the jury for the December term of court. This, in itby Dudley Buck, gave expression to their baseball teams in the way of self, is a minor matter but the fact that the excellent blending of the voices. sports. Only recently educational Mr. Decker is past eighty-nine years of classes were organized under the au- age and is making arrangements to take spices of members of the faculty of his annual deer hunt this winter, as usu-The Pennsylvania State College so al, is an altogether different story. Deckthat any of the inmates who wish to er valley is one of the best hunting secimprove their opportunity can take tions in the Seven mountains. Deer are up a course of study in any one of a so plentiful in that section that they are about as familiar a sight in the fields as cattle, so that Mr. Decker can, literally organized a minstrel club and some speaking, step from his hearthstone right into good deer territory. His entire life

-Mrs. Denithorne, of Pittsburgh, has been visiting with her mother and brother, Mrs. J. B. Scott and Charles M. Scott, at their home on Linn street.

.-Mrs. D. Q. Decker came over from Altoona yesterday to look after some business; spending the remainder of the hour and a half she had here with some special

-Mrs. Walley, of Homestead, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. D. I. Willard. Mr. Walley accompanied his wife to Bellefonte, but returned home after an over night visit.

-Mr. and Mrs. John Hartswick had as week-end and Armistice day guests, their son and his wife. Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Hartswick and their two children, of Ambridge, Pa.

-G. Murray Andrews will sail for his former home in England, early in December, to spend the Holiday season with relatives. Mr. Andrews' present plans are but for a few week's stay abroad. -Mrs. Mabel Stover Williams is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stover, of Logan street. Mrs. Williams, who is a nurse in training at the Hazleton hospital, is convalescing from a recent operation. -Miss Johnston, of Howard, spent a part of the week in Bellefonte with her sister, Mrs. C. D. Tanner; who is now rapidly recovering from her fall two weeks ago, in which she fractured several ribs.

-Judge Henry C. Quigley departed for Philadelphia yesterday afternoon. He is presiding in court there today and will attend the State-Penn game tomorrow, returning home in time for the general hos pital meeting Monday night.

-L. H. Musser has gone to Florida to represent his company in a Southern district. Mrs. Musser will join him there State Highway department, in Harrisburg, after Christmas, while their daughter, Miss Mary, is anticipating spending the after part of the winter in Florida with her parents.

-Mrs. John Smith, of Shamokin, who trice Ostrander, all of Altoona, were guests, is with her aunt. Mrs. W. C. Cassidy, will continue her visit in Bellefonte until Mrs. Cassidy leaves in ten days for her two week's winter visit with Mrs. Thomas Moore, in Philadelphia. Mr. Smith will

-Taking advantage of the Armistice anniversary holiday on Monday Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Garman, Miss Ruth Garmin, Mrs. Clara Iddings and Robert and John for a visit with friends. Miss Ruth Gar-Mr. Moore's time was mostly spent in dif- man and Mrs. Iddings continued their trip to Philadelphia and New York city, while the other members of the party returned home on Tuesday.

-Messrs. Earl Pierson and J. Allen was a guest last week at the home of Mr. | Brown, of Philadelphia, and Miss Margaret Kleffman, of York, motored to Bellefonte last Saturday for the State-Georgia Tech game, being joined here by Miss Mary Nason, of Julian, and Miss Marion Morrison, of Bellefonte, for the trip to -Mrs. Paul Reish, of Williamsport, who the College. The party were guests over for spending a part of the winter with her | -Miss Caroline McClaskey and her sisapartments in the Eagle block. Mrs. were recent guests of Mrs. Margaret -Mrs. John Mignot and sister, Mrs. over on Wednesday of last week and rememories of the days when real hospitality and real folks made certain rural sections quite as popular socially as Belle-

> -We didn't see him, but we heard that Abe Markle, of State College, was in town yesterday. We can't believe that it was our particular friend Abe, for our informant says this one was stormin' 'round and accusin' us, almost, of high treason. Our Abe wouldn't do that kind of thing. He'd drop in with a box of honey in one hand and a bag of dandelion in the other and be gone again before any one would get a chance to thank him. There must be two Abe Markles up at State College. We just can't believe the one we have always known was the fellow who was in here yesterday "ravin" around because Dick Taylor didn't get more votes.

-David A. Barlett and family. who spent the summer on the farm at Hecla park, will move back to their

W. C. McCLINTIC The $22.50 Suit Man

Representing Richman Bros., of Cleveland, Ohio, will be at the Bush house, Bellefonte, Friday, November 16th, day and evening. Richman clothes have been worn for years by many good dressers of Bellefonte. Come and see samples of our beautiful all wool suits and overcoats we are making this season. A great surprise awaits you at $22.50. 68-44-2t

Milk Prices to be Advanced.

Owing to the high price of hay and dairy feeds the Bellefonte milk men will, on December 1st, advance the price of milk to 12 cents per quart and cream to 12 cents per half pint.

-The Basket Shop is offering as a specialty, at their Special sale at Rusbell's (Petrikin hall), high-handled Porch Baskets with tin liners at Cost; also novelties, scrap and magazine baskets, suitable for Christmas presents.

Child's Nursery .- Only place in Bellefonte where you can leave children in good care while you do your visiting and shopping. Both phones. -Eva M. Rachau, Krader apartments, corner Allegheny and Howard streets.

Shot Gun for Sale. Piper doublebarrel, circular hammers; fine Damascus twist steel, matted rib English walnut stock; splendid shooter, never fails. $18.-W. C. Cassidy.

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Weekly by C V Weener & Co

Corrected	Cara					$1.00
Wheat -	•				•
Shelled Corn		Duri s	7.05	177-	-19.1	1.00
Rye		523513	-1	. PT.	- 200	.00
Oats		acres ($15)		Burnson		.45
Barley -	-				3.532	.60
Buckwheat	-	•	-	-	-	.90