The superintendent of the hospital extends thanks to all the above for their generosity.

Bellevue Bazaar and Exposition December 3rd to 8th.

Members of the Ladies Mooseheart Legion Chapter, No. 151, will hold a bazaar and exposition in the armory during the week of December 3rd to 8th, inclusive, for the joint benefit of the Chapter and Bellevue hospital, which the committee in charge claims will be one of the biggest events ever staged in Bellevue.

There will be booths, concessions, free acts, dancing—both round and square, lunch stands, sodas, ice cream and novelty. Professional circus acrobats have been engaged and will come direct from Eagle's indoor circus, in Ohio. They will perform on the trapeze, Roman ring and bar. The musical program will be furnished by Hill's orchestra of seven pieces, in full evening dress.

On Saturday evening, December 8th, at 11:45 p. m., an Overland Red Bird touring car and two diamond rings will be given away. The armory will open each evening at 7 o'clock and the program continue until 12. General admission will be 50 cents for the week. Single admission, 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. Tickets can be procured at the armory. The ladies of Mooseheart Legion beseech your patronage.

Dr. Sebring's Ford Coupe Burned.

Last Friday evening Dr. John Sebring had a call to attend a patient on Beaver road, west of Julian. When within a mile and a half of his destination his car, a Ford coupe, began to fill up with smoke and he stopped to make an examination. Hardly had the car come to a standstill when it burst into flames and as he had no means of extinguishing the fire he was compelled to see it go up in smoke. He walked the rest of the distance to the house he was to visit and when he returned only the skeleton of his car remained, and this was towed back to Bellevue the next day. The only explanation he can assign for the fire is that he had put some kerosene in the radiator and some of it had leaked out and caught fire.

Who Was This Woman?

The Houtzdale citizen is authority for the story that on Saturday, November 17th, while several men were hunting in the vicinity of the old Campbell place along the Tyrone road, they came across a mound of freshly turned earth. Being curious they started to dig and very soon uncovered the body of a woman, who had evidently not been dead many days. Two bullet holes in the body were evidence of the cause of death. The woman, it is claimed, was well dressed and wore several hundred dollars' worth of jewelry. As no woman in that locality is missing the finding of the body, if true, is probably another of those inexplicable mysteries.

BARTLEY.—Elmer E. Bartley, for the past eleven years a well known and much respected citizen of Bellevue, died at his home on Valentine street at 5:45 o'clock on Monday evening, following a short illness with angina-pectoris.

He was a son of William and Catherine E. Bartley and was born in Union county on August 6th, 1867, making his age 56 years, 3 months and 20 days. His early life was spent at the home of his birth but eleven years ago he came to Bellevue and for eight years worked for George M. Gamble at his flouring mill. On December 27th, 1894, he married Miss Ella May Stover, who survives. They were not blessed with any children of their own but raised two, Mrs. Elmedia Summers, of Tyrone, and Fred, of Reno. His parents are dead but he leaves the following brothers and sisters: Howard Bartley, of Bellevue; Irvin, of Chicago; James, of Nittany; Charles, of Marion township; Alice and Frank, of Bellevue.

At the early age of fourteen years Mr. Bartley became a convert to the Christian faith and united with the church in the locality where he then resided. On coming to Bellevue eleven years ago, however, he became a member of the Evangelical church, remaining a consistent and devoted member until his death. In his church life he was called to many offices of duty, all of which he filled with credit to himself and the cause he represented. He was also a member of the P. O. S. of A. and Knights of the Golden Eagle.

Funeral services were held in the Evangelical church at ten o'clock yesterday morning by the pastor, Rev. Reed O. Stealy, followed by brief services by the P. O. S. of A. Interment in the cemetery at Zion was in charge of the Knights of the Golden Eagle.

NOLL.—James B. Noll died at his home at Pleasant Gap at an early hour yesterday morning after an illness lasting over a period of five years or more with rheumatism and consequent complications.

Deceased was a son of Emanuel Noll and a brother of the late Col. Emanuel Noll of this place. He was born in Nittany valley about sixty-five years ago, but lived most of his life at Milesburg where he married Miss Charles, a daughter of Samuel Charles then one of the best known men of that town.

He was a lime burner, one of the best in this section and after years with the American Lime and Stone Co., went to Pleasant Gap to become inspector of lime for Whiterock quarries. He built himself a home there and continued at his profession until the trouble that caused his death incapacitated him and compelled his retirement.

He is survived by his second wife and four children: Prof. Irvin O. Noll, of Lansdowne; Harry, of Pittsburgh; and Gilbert and Pauline, at home.

No arrangements had been made for the funeral at the time of going to press, but interment will probably be made at Milesburg, where other members of his family are buried.

Mr. Noll was a man among men. One of highest integrity and splendid citizenship.

ZEIGLER.—Mrs. Myra R. Zeigler, wife of Josiah T. Zeigler, died at her home on Reynolds avenue at 6:20 o'clock on Saturday morning following a lingering illness as the result of a complication of diseases.

She was a daughter of Joseph and Catherine Stone and was born at Pleasant Gap on May 27th, 1860, hence was 63 years, 5 months and 28 days old. On July 16th, 1882, she was united in marriage to Mr. Zeigler and they made their home at Pleasant Gap until eight years ago, when they moved to Bellevue and this place had been her home ever since. She was the last member of her father's family, but surviving her are her husband and four sons, Charles, living near Bellevue; Clarence, of Bellevue; Edgar, of Juniata, and Homer, of Clearfield.

She was a life-long member of the Methodist church and Rev. E. E. McKelvey had charge of the funeral services which were held at two o'clock on Monday afternoon, burial being made in the Pleasant Gap cemetery.

MCCLELLAN.—Mrs. Anna McClellan, widow of David McClellan, died at her home in Milesburg on Tuesday evening, following a prolonged illness with asthma and other complications. She was eighty-six years old and was twice married, her first husband having been James Robb. She is survived by six children, James Robb, of Union county; Daniel McClellan, of DuBois; Edward and Harry McClellan, of Milesburg; George, in Ohio; and Mrs. Philip Hall, of Snow Shoe. Burial will be made in the Advent cemetery today.

—The banks, the postoffice and the stores faithfully observed Thanksgiving yesterday. In the afternoon many high school students accompanied the football team to State College for their last game of the season with the high school team of that place. In the evening the Bellevue Academy students held their annual Thanksgiving dance in the Bush Arcade hall and a private dance was held in the hall at the Underline fire company building, on Bishop street.

A Number of Minor Auto Accidents.

Last Thursday morning Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Strawn, of Pittsburgh, who motored in to Bellevue earlier in the week and were guests at the Brockhoff house, accompanied by landlord M. A. Lansdy, started on a drive to Lewistown in Mr. Strawn's big Packard car. Reaching Pleasant Gap they evidently forgot about the narrow gauge railroad of the Whiterock quarries until they saw the dinkey engine with a string of loaded cars close to the highway. Mr. Strawn was too close to the railroad to stop and there was no side street so he stepped on the gas and tried to beat the train across the track.

He almost succeeded, but not quite. The dinkey engine caught the left side rear fender and threw the machine around against the bank at the right of the road. The right rear wheel was smashed, both rear fenders and the steering rod broken. Fortunately, however, none of the occupants of the car were injured to any extent, but the car had to be hauled in for repairs.

Last Wednesday W. Harrison Walker Esq., and Eben Bower drove to Johnstown on a business trip and returning home on Thursday morning Mr. Walker's car skidded on a hill at Stoyestown and upset. Mr. Walker suffered an injury to one arm and shoulder, but as no bones are broken it is not serious. Mr. Bower escaped with a slight shaking up. The car was enough damaged that they did not undertake to drive it home but telephoned for Robert Roan, who drove out and brought them to Bellevue.

On Friday evening Budd Tate was down at Milesburg with the C. F. Tate truck and drove right into the rear of one of the big Emerick buses. The bus was very little damaged but the truck was pretty badly wrecked. No one was injured.

Result of Red Cross Enrollment.

Total amount collected in the Red Cross membership enrollment was $940.60 with 428 members enrolled. Of this amount $44.10 is from Junior Red Cross members enrolled in the schools as follows: Allegheny street building, $21.50; Bishop street building, $12.15; Parochial school, $5.00; Bush Addition, $2.11; Coleville, $3.34.

Fifty cents out of every membership, excepting juniors, goes to National headquarters, hence $214.00 goes to Washington, leaving $726.60 for the local nursing service. This will not be enough to finance the service through another year but the committee plan to continue the service until the money is used and hope that enough regular contributing members may be secured to put it on a permanent basis. At the present time there have been so many demands on the public it seemed inadvisable to attempt this now, but in the late winter the matter will again be put before the public. In the meantime, acquaint yourself with the work of the nursing service and be prepared to state an intelligent and unbiased opinion from your own observation.

Elks Memorial Services.

The annual memorial services of the Bellevue Lodge of Elks will be held in Petrikin hall on Sunday, December 2nd, at three o'clock p. m. A splendid musical program has been arranged. The principal address will be delivered by Hon. James A. Gleason, of DuBois, who is an orator of unusual ability and whose talk will be worth hearing. The public is invited to attend these services. The program to be rendered will be as follows:

- March. Mrs. Russell Bland
Music, "Holy Art Thou," Handel
- Choral Society
- Opening Exercises.
- Prayer—Chaplain.
- Music, "Why Do We Mourn"
Departed Friends, Bressler
- Male Quartette.
- Exercises by the lodge Roll Call.
- Music, "Invictus," Bruno Hahn
- Choral Society.
- Eulogy
- Viola Solo, selected. Mrs. Louis Schad
- Address. Hon. James A. Gleason
- Music, "By Babylon's Wave," Gounod
- Choral Society
- Closing Ceremonies - Officers of Lodge

Pasqualine Presta Taken to Danville.

Pasqualine Presta, the young Italian woman who on Sunday, Nov. 18th, stabbed Joseph Carvelli and later was adjudged of unsound mind by a lunacy commission appointed by Judge Henry C. Quigley, was taken to the Danville asylum on Sunday by sheriff Harry Dukeman. The young woman, who is probably twenty-eight years old and rather comely, accepted her fate without protest, though some of her own countrymen have put forth the claim that her mind is not unbalanced, and the stabbing of Carvelli was the result of the young woman's learning that she was not legally married to the man.

State College Young Man Appointed Cadet to West Point.

As the result of a competitive examination held recently by the Civil Service Commission at Clearfield, Pa., of candidates for appointment as cadets to West Point military academy, highest marks respectively were made by John I. Thompson, of State College; Thomas J. Lewis, of Karthaus, and Richard A. Goheen, of Boalsburg, Congressman W. I. Swoope has, therefore, nominated Thompson for appointment as cadet; Lewis as first alternate and Goheen as second alternate.

Tuberculosis Christmas Seals Now on Sale.

The sale of tuberculosis Christmas seals will begin today, November 30, This has been erroneously confounded with the Red Cross drive but the two are separate and under the direction of different organizations, local and national. Before the war, the Red Cross appeared on these little X-mas sketches because the Red Cross organization was not carrying on a definite program and permitted the tuberculosis association to sell the seals as Red Cross seals and use the money for tuberculosis work. Now the double-barred red cross stands for the tuberculosis association which has enlarged the scope of its work from merely looking after active cases of tuberculosis to a preventive-educational program. In Bellevue, for two years, proceeds from the sale of X-mas seals have been used to pay a dental hygienist, who worked in our schools two months last year and has just completed two months this year in which time she cleaned the teeth of 235 children in Bellevue and of 30 in Milesburg. Besides financing the hygienist, the tuberculosis committee has guaranteed, from the seal sale, $100 for rent of room used Tuesday afternoons by State tuberculosis clinic.

Make a habit of sticking one of these seals on every letter and package you send from this time until X-mas. It makes a bright spot on your letters and aids the fight against tuberculosis.

Times Are Changing.

Each succeeding Christmas season eclipses the past one in the amount of fine furniture sold for gift giving. Furniture is the prized and appreciated gift—for the individual or family—and by all odds the most useful and enduring gift for the home. Hand-some overstuffed living room suits in Mohair, tapestry and velour, or reed and tapestry, add new charm to the parlor or library. A matched dining room suit, along with a tea-wagon to help serve the well baked turkey. A colonial four-poster bed room suit for the guest chamber. Make mother remember X-mas every day of the year by saving her miles of footsteps with a Hoosier kitchen cabinet. Sister or sweetheart will be disappointed unless she receives that hope chest of Tennessee cedar. Big brother will be pleased with a chiffon robe or smoker's cabinet. Don't forget Dad. He would appreciate a large comfy chair, or a Globe-Wernicke sectional bookcase. While for the kiddies are doll carriages, child's rockers and high chairs, cribs and baby strollers, and toy cedar chests.

Individual gifts of toy and table lamps, gate-leg and end tables, spinet desks, Windsor chairs and rockers, candlesticks, foot-stools and card tables. All these and many more quaint articles can be found in the largest holiday stock ever assembled at

Centre County Farm Products Show.

The Centre county farm products show will be held this year on the day of the annual meeting of the Farm Bureau, Saturday, December 22nd, at the court house, Bellevue. Due to the early date of the Grange fair at Centre Hall, this will be the only real farm products show in the county, the Centre Hall fair being too early for a good exhibit of farm products. The exhibits this year will include corn, wheat, barley, oats, potatoes, apples and eggs. The quantity required for each exhibit will be, corn, 10 ears; wheat, oats and barley, 1 peck; potatoes, 1 peck; apples, plate of five; eggs, one dozen.

Uniformity is the thing most important in selecting a good exhibit of farm products. This includes uniformity in size, shape and color, and also freedom from disease.

As in the past years the best exhibits will be forwarded to Harrisburg to represent Centre county at the State farm products show in January. Attractive premiums have been offered for both the county and State show, hence every farmer should take this opportunity to exhibit the best of his farm products.

—Snook—Hoover. — Arthur Snook and Miss Laura Alice Hoover, both of Pleasant Gap, were married at the Methodist parsonage on Howard street, last Saturday evening, by the pastor, Rev. E. E. McKelvey. Immediately following the ceremony they left on the excursion train for Washington, D. C., as a brief wedding trip. The young couple will reside at Pleasant Gap, where the bridegroom is in the employ of the Whiterock quarries.

McKivison—Ellenberger.—James McKivison and Miss Olive D. Ellenberger, both of Warriorsmark, came to Bellevue last Saturday, after securing the necessary license proceeded to the Methodist parsonage on Howard street where, at eleven o'clock, they were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. E. E. McKelvey.

—Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lyons moved last week from the Royer property on Water street to their new home in Bush Addition, recently purchased from Charles Garbrick. The house they vacated has been leased by William G. Weiler, who with his family will take possession of it immediately.

PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

Harry Williams and wife were Sunday visitors at the Will Glenn home at Boalsburg.

Many hogs are dying in this section, but it is from the butcher's knife and not cholera.

Harry Sunday, with his wife and children spent the Sabbath at his parental home here.

Miss Mary Slagle, teacher of the Glades school, has resigned her job, effective yesterday.

Mrs. Guyer Wilson is seriously ill with heart trouble and drowsy at her home at Spruce Creek.

Miss Marjorie Frazier, of Reading, was a guest of Miss E. V. Dale the latter end of the week.

Walter Johnston, son of Joseph Johnston, with a party of six, are on a motor trip to Texas.

Both the Long and McNitt lumbering operations will be closed during the deer hunting season.

Ralph Walker was discharged from the Bellevue hospital last Friday and is now convalescing at his home on the Branch.

Miss Irene Fletcher has returned from a visit to her home at Howard and is again at the C. M. Dale home on the Branch.

The Lord's sacrament will be administered on Sunday morning in the Presbyterian church. Preparatory services will be held tomorrow evening.

The bazaar and chicken and waffle supper held by the ladies in the I. O. O. F. hall, last Saturday evening, proved a financial bonanza, $224.40 being realized.

Miss Nannie Bailey, who had been quite ill while visiting at the home of Mrs. Maggie Gates, at Cresson, was brought home on Saturday and is slowly improving.

In addition to a 220 pound bear the Fleetfoot hunting club brought home with them from a four days hunt in Taylor county a dozen jack rabbits and a nice bunch of grouse.

Dr. Frank Bailey came up from Milton to spend a few days with his mother before joining the Modock hunting club for their annual camp over at the old Ross place.

Word has been received here of the death at his home in Ohio, of Rev. Henry Webb, a well known Presbyterian minister, and at one time a resident of Pine Grove Mills.

Edward Vanzant, of Columbia county, was a caller at the C. M. Dale home on the Branch a few days ago while spending a week with his two daughters at State College.

Alex B. Tanyer, who has been seriously ill as the result of a stroke of paralysis, at the home of his brother-in-law, George Graham, at State College, is now much improved.

Harry McCool, who was one of the unfortunate ones to be laid off by the P. R. R. company, in Altoona, is at home helping his mother look after the farm work at Rock Springs.

The venerable Massey Tate, who served during the Civil war as a member of company E, 45th regiment, spent Tuesday in town, looking after some business affairs and greeting old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fortney and daughter came down from Bellwood to visit among their old friends and neighbors the early part of the week, and all of them like their new home very much.

Game warden Robert Bailey came down off of Old Tussey last Friday, with a fourteen pound wild turkey gobbler. Newton Bell Miller, of Altoona, got a nice, fat turkey hen the same day in the Baileyville gap.

Miss Arene Gingrich, a nurse in a Reading hospital, was at home caring for her mother, Mrs. Henry Gingrich, during a recent severe illness, and now that she is recovering will visit friends for a few days before returning to her hospital work.

The venerable Richard T. Gates, a Civil war veteran, this week celebrated his 80th anniversary at his home at Baileyville. He received quite a lot of remembrances from intimate friends. Notwithstanding his years he still enjoys splendid health.

Ben Everhart, who after the first of the year will be one of the county commissioners of Huntingdon county, with his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Everhart and two boys, spent Sunday at the Mr. and Mrs. John E. Reed home at Rock Springs. Mr. and Mrs. Everhart will soon leave their farm home to spend the winter at Colerain.

Last Saturday as Misses Ethel and Emma Weaver were driving home from a trip to Pine Grove, in a Ford car, they crashed into a heavy truck on the sharp curve in the state road just east of town. Both young ladies were cut and bruised and their car badly wrecked. The driver of the truck brought them back to town and took them to the office of Dr. Woods, then hauled in their car.

The Prof. Heckman sale, last Friday, drew only a fair crowd and bidding was not very brisk. The best horse went for $107, and from that figure went to $25. Cows sold at from $40 to $83. Shoats and pigs went at a sacrifice, but the machinery sold fairly well. The sale totalled $3600. The professor is quitting the farm and will retire to a comfortable home at Centre Hall. His farm will be tenanted next season by John Rimmer. Will Cole, who has been on the Jack Mitchell farm, will move to the J. M. Goheen place. D. W. Thomas has purchased the Frank McFarlane farm which he has occupied for twenty-five years, for $8000. Will Kuhn, of Shingletown, last week fitted to the Grayville the "Squire E. K. Woome" farm, while the "Squire" will devote his time to his flouring mill.

—"The Honeymoon" was the name of a burlesque show, replete with vaudeville stunts, given by a troupe of inmates of the western penitentiary at Rockview yesterday afternoon as a Thanksgiving entertainment for the prisoners. The show was in charge of Clarence C. Rhoads, of Bellevue, a guard at the institution.
