How Thoughtful!

Hubby came home at 7 o'clock, as usual. He wore a benign smile, which wifey noted with satisfaction.

He had dinner, and then, after he had lit his pipe, he said with a smile:

"My dear, you have nothing decent to wear, have you?"

"No, indeed, darling," responded his wife with alacrity, "I have not. Not a thing that I wouldn't be ashamed of to be seen in anywhere. My newest party dress has been worn four times already."

Hubby gave a long pull at his pipe before replying in satisfied tones:

"Yes, that's just what I told Bangs when he offered me two tickets for the theatre tonight. I knew if I had them both they'd only be wasted. So I just took one. Well, I must hurry off now."

10,000,000 Trees to be Given Away for Planting.

The Pennsylvania forestry department plans to give away 10,000,000 young trees next spring for reforesting purposes out of the 33,000,000 trees in State-owned nurseries. The trees range from five to twelve inches in size; the department having found that best results are obtained from planting small but thrifty trees. Millions of trees are given away annually for reforesting; the recipients paying only the cost of packing and transportation. Reforesting is being carried on in the State by water mining and lumbering companies, while the State continually keeps re-tilting its own lands.

A Human Crow.

The opinion of generations which have disliked written speeches is reflected in a story told by an Atlanta man of an old colored woman who sat under a youthful minister who always read his sermons.

"How is dat new minister of youahs a-gittin' on?" some one asked the old woman.

"How's he a-gittin' on?" she repeated. "Jest like a crow in a tater field—two dabs an' a look-up."

A Child's Influence.

There is a touching story told of a little girl who was to undergo an operation. The physician said to her as he was about to place her on the operating table: "Before we can make you well we must put you to sleep." The little girl looked up and smilingly said, "Oh, if you are going to put me to sleep I must say my prayers first." Then she knelt down beside the table and said:

Now I lay me down to sleep;
I pray thee, Lord, my soul to keep;
If I should die before I wake,
I pray thee, Lord, my soul to take.

The surgeon said afterward that he prayed that night for the first time in thirty years.—Selected.

Handled With Care.

Mrs. Brown was bathing her baby when a new neighbor's little girl came into the room carrying a doll. She watched the process for a few minutes and then said: "Mrs. Brown, how long have you had your baby?" "Seven months, dear," answered the mother. The little girl stole another glance at her doll, which was very much battered and minus a leg and an arm. "My, but haven't you kept it nice!" she said with an envious sigh.—Boston Transcript.

Harry Rossman, drayman, says: "My kidneys were in a disordered condition and their action annoyed me both day and night. I often had to get up several times at night. My back was lame and ached a great deal, especially in the morning, making it hard for me to keep at my work. I read of Doan's Pills helping others so I used them. They were not long in relieving me of all signs of kidney trouble. My kidneys were soon acting regularly."
