Grange Gives All its Funds to Memorial at College.

When Union Grange No. 1391, of Lebanon county, disbanded recently, the members decided to give the balance in the organization treasury towards the fund for the erection of a Grange memorial building on the campus of The Pennsylvania State College. A $250,000 residence hall for women students is planned as the aim of this State Grange project, and the action of the Lebanon Grangers enriched the fund by $91.24 a few days ago.

.....Christmas.....

and What it Does to Our Hearts

If for the 51 weeks preceding Christmas, our hearts beat the same tune that they do for the six days preceding the gift giving day, the world would with impunity beat its swords into plowshares and its spears into pruning hooks.

No particular use in enlarging upon this fact, because we are all agreed that there isn't very much to be gained by discussing a subject when everybody says "Amen!"

For nearly 2000 years the inhabitants of this old world (perhaps it is a young world, nobody knows) have been doing many of the things we are doing.

They have had spells and spurts when they wanted to kiss everybody they met and then came the reaction and they wanted to kick everybody who crossed their path.

Too bad this is true, but denying it does not in any way change or altar the facts.

We have a wheel attached to a water pipe in our cellar for the purpose of turning off the water should a pipe burst. We did not touch it for a year. It rusted. The other day we tried to turn it but we couldn't budge it. The plumber told us that in order to keep it fit and have it serve our purpose in an emergency, we should quite frequently turn it on and turn it off.

Christmas turns on the Best that is in us

It Keeps us from Selfishly Rusting

We invite you to do your last few days of your Christmas shopping with us—we shall be only too glad to serve you.

We wish you a Very Merry Christmas and a Most Happy New Year
