

HESS.—Following an illness of several years, during which time she put up a gallant fight for life, Mrs. Margaret Hess, wife of Newton E. Hess, of State College, passed away at her home in that place on the morning of December 21st. Less than a month before her death she returned home from Johns Hopkins hospital and for some days felt somewhat improved but when a turn for the worse came she gave up hope. She was conscious, however, almost to the last and dictated disposition of her personal effects.

Mrs. Hess was a daughter of George W. and Mary Keichline McWilliams and was born at Fairbrook on December 20th, 1861, hence was just sixty-two years old. Her girlhood life was spent at the home of her birth where she grew to womanhood and was educated in the public schools. Early in life she became a member of the Presbyterian church and at once took an active part in all church and Sunday school work. After her marriage she transferred her membership to the Lutheran church at State College, and was one of its most active members up until overtaken by illness. She was a woman of most pleasing personality and was endowed with many charming traits of character that won her a host of steadfast friends.

On March 10th, 1899, she married Newton E. Hess and they took up their residence on the well known Hess farm on the Branch where they lived until 1912 when they moved into their new and beautiful home in State College. In addition to her husband she is survived by two sons, Samuel M. and John W. Hess. She also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Alice Buchwalter, of Lancaster; Mrs. Olie Bowersox, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Annie Dreiblebis, of White Hall; John E. McWilliams, of Pine Grove Mills; Prof. S. P. McWilliams, of Cannonsburg, and Henry McWilliams, on the old homestead.

Funeral services were held at her late home in State College at 2:40 o'clock on Monday afternoon of last week. Rev. J. F. Harkins was in charge and was assisted by Revs. Kapp and English, while Dr. C. T. Aikens, of Selingsgrove, paid a glowing tribute to the deceased. Burial was made in the Branch cemetery.

GLENN.—Thomas E. Glenn died at his home at State College about twelve o'clock on Sunday night. Eighteen months or more ago he underwent a serious operation which apparently gave him relief and he was able to devote his entire time to his business interests. About six weeks ago he began to complain of not feeling so well but continued at work until a week prior to his death.

He was a son of William and Annie Williams Glenn and was born at Lemont on July 17th, 1881, hence was 42 years, 5 months and 13 days old. When quite a young man he came to Bellefonte and became a clerk in the store of Joseph Bros., where he remained a number of years. On leaving here he went to State College and accepted a similar position in the store of L. D. Fye, where he remained until a year ago when he and Mr. Neidigh opened a dry goods and notion store under the firm name of Glenn & Neidigh.

Mr. Glenn was twice married, his first wife being Miss Grace Sellers. They had one daughter, now Mrs. Ellen Klingelhoefer, living in Illinois. His second wife was Miss Edna Kooz, of Bellefonte, who survives with one child, Virginia. He also leaves his parents, one brother, Hamill Glenn, of Pine Grove Mills, and one sister, Mrs. Russell Shirk, of Boalsburg.

Funeral services were held at his late home at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon by Rev. A. E. Mackie, of the Methodist church, of which he was a member, assisted by Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick, of the Presbyterian church, burial being made in the Branch cemetery.

ARCHIE.—Mrs. Nina Archie, wife of Francis W. Archie, of Pennsylvania Furnace, died at the Altoona hospital on Sunday morning, December 23rd, of blood poisoning and other complications. She had been a sufferer with diabetes for a number of years which finally resulted in an affection of the leg requiring an operation.

Her maiden name was Miss Nina Patton, and she was born at Allensville, Mifflin county, in 1864. Most of her life, however, was spent at Pennsylvania Furnace. She was a member of the Presbyterian church and a woman who had the love and esteem of all who knew her. In addition to her husband she is survived by one son, Wallace B. Archie, of Altoona, and one daughter, Mrs. A. L. Burwell, of State College. She also leaves two sisters and one brother, Mrs. Maude Pennis and Lawrence Patton, of Sinking valley, and Miss Elizabeth Patton, of Allensville.

Rev. Harry D. Fleming had charge of the funeral services which were held at 10:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning of last week, burial being made in the Graysville cemetery.

PARRISH.—E. C. Parrish, a brother of Dr. C. M. Parrish, of Bellefonte, and long known as the weather prophet of Ebensburg, died on Monday night at the Johnstown hospital following less than a week's illness. He was seventy-two years old and in addition to his wife is survived by six children. He also leaves his brother, mentioned above, and one sister, Miss Flora Parrish, of Ebensburg. Burial will be made at Ebensburg this (Friday) morning, Dr. Parrish and his son Joseph having gone out for the services.

ARNEY.—Benjamin H. Arney, for many years a well known resident of Centre county, died at his home at Niagara Falls on Sunday night, December 23rd, as the result of an attack of acute indigestion.

He was a son of Jacob and Rachel Meyers Arney and was born in Gregg township on December 5th, 1840, hence was 83 years and 18 days old. When thirteen years old his parents moved to Potter township where he attended the public schools later taking a course in an academy at Lock Haven. At the age of seventeen he went to work as a clerk in the store of Arney & Ross, at Centre Hill, later working for William Wolf, at Linden Hall, and Daniel Hess, at Danville, Ill., and accept employment with the Toledo & Wabash railroad, but after a few years returned to Pennsylvania and became manager of a store at Rock Island. In 1868 he returned home and assisted his father on his farm near Centre Hill. In July, 1870, he married Miss Mary A. Ziegler, of Penn township, and a year later they took up their residence on the Foster farm below Centre Hill where they lived until 1893, when he moved onto the old homestead. Some years later he retired to a comfortable home in Centre Hall where he lived until moving to Niagara Falls some ten or twelve years ago. He was a life-long member of the Reformed church, in politics a staunch Democrat and for many years was treasurer of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance company.

Surviving him are his wife and one son, A. Miles Arney, of Niagara Falls. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: John J. and Charles C. Arney, of Centre Hall; Rev. James Arney, of Northeast, Pa.; Mrs. Minnie Richard and Mrs. Laura Lee, of Centre Hall; Mrs. James Herring, of Altoona, and Mrs. John Mullen, of Belleuve.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday of last week after which the remains were placed in a receiving vault at Niagara Falls, to be brought to Centre county later for burial at Centre Hall.

FREEMAN.—Harry Freeman, a well known business man of Phillipsburg, died on Christmas day as the result of taking a dose of roach poison in mistake for soda. While at work in his lunch shop the night before Christmas he suffered an attack of indigestion and decided to take some soda in a glass of water. He mixed the deception and drank it at one gulp. A burning sensation followed and he made a hasty investigation only to find that he had gotten hold of the roach powder instead of soda. Physicians were promptly summoned and although everything possible was done he passed away at 10:30 o'clock on Christmas morning.

He was a son of Gurne and Henrietta McClellan Freeman and was born in Phillipsburg fifty years ago. He was one of the pioneers in the motion picture industry in Central Pennsylvania. He was a member of the Episcopal church, the Sphinx club, of Phillipsburg, and a thirty-second degree Mason. He married Miss Bertha Hancock who survives with one daughter, Mrs. Carl Goebert, of Phillipsburg. He also leaves his parents and three brothers, William and Ellis, of Phillipsburg, and Dr. Charles Freeman, of Steubenville, Ohio. Burial was made in the Phillipsburg cemetery on Friday afternoon.

RHONE.—Charles Edward Rhone, D. D. S., died at his home in Los Angeles, Cal., on December 15th. He was a son of Dr. J. William and Caroline Elizabeth Rhone and was born at Boalsburg on April 30th, 1867. When a child his parents moved to Bellefonte and here he grew to manhood and received his preliminary education in the common schools. Later he entered State College but instead of finishing his course there entered the University of Pennsylvania where he graduated in dentistry. At that time his father was the leading dentist of Bellefonte and on receiving his diploma Charles Rhone returned to Bellefonte and went to work in his father's office. He left Bellefonte about a quarter of a century ago and located in Los Angeles, California, where he became one of the leading practitioners in his profession.

On June 1st, 1904, he married Mary Cecelia Boshbyshell, of Los Angeles, who died several years ago. Surviving him, however, are four children, Caroline A., John F., Edward C. and Leonard F. Rhone, all at home. He also leaves one sister, Miss C. Ellen Rhone, of Monterey, California. The funeral was held on December 17th, burial being made at Los Angeles.

RUNKLE.—William H. Runkle, a life-long resident of Pennsvalley, died on Monday afternoon at the home of his son Elmer, at Centre Hill, following a few days' illness as the result of a general breakdown. He was eighty-one years old and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Runkle. For many years he was in the draying business at Centre Hall. He was twice married, his first wife having been a Miss Treaster, by whom he leaves two children, Mrs. Elizabeth Tate, living near the Red Mill, and Mrs. Rebecca Weaver, of Nittany valley. His second wife was Miss Sarah Meyer, who also preceded him to the grave, leaving one son, Elmer, with whom he made his home. He also leaves one step-daughter, Mrs. Joshua Armstrong, of Pleasant Gap, and one sister, Mrs. Emma Shutz, of Aaronburg. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon, burial being made at Centre Hall.

WILSON.—Miss Alice Wilson, the last surviving member of one of the old-time Pennsvalley families, passed away at the residence of Mrs. Louisa Harris, on Allegheny street, about seven o'clock last Friday evening, following a three week's illness as the result of a general breakdown.

She was the youngest daughter of Dr. William I. and Mary Potter Wilson and was born at Potters Mills on January 31st, 1842, hence had reached the age of 81 years, 10 months and 29 days. Her girlhood life was spent at the place of her birth until the home was broken up when she came to Bellefonte and took up her residence with the family of ex-Governor Andrew G. Curtin, Mrs. Curtin being an elder sister. During Mr. Curtin's term as Governor, when the family lived in Harrisburg, Miss Wilson was a frequent visitor at the Governor's mansion and on such occasions formed acquaintance with many people in the State capital which continued throughout her life. When the Curtin home was broken up in 1909 she went to the home of Mrs. Louisa Harris where she had lived ever since. She was the last surviving member of a family of eight children and her only survivors are nieces and nephews.

She was a member of the Presbyterian church but owing to the fact that the Bellefonte church is now without a pastor, Rev. Dr. Schmidt, of the Reformed church, had charge of the funeral services which were held on Monday morning, burial being made in the Union cemetery. Among the out of town people here for the funeral were Mrs. K. R. Breeze, of Downingtown; Mr. and Mrs. Alan D. Wilson, of Philadelphia; Mrs. J. M. Curtin, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Joseph Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. McCormick, Vance C. McCormick, Mrs. Edward Z. Gross and Miss Mary Cameron, all of Harrisburg; Miss Mary Sommerville, of Winburne, and Mr. and Mrs. John Sommerville, of Robertsdale.

McWILLIAMS.—Joseph Milliken McWilliams, a native of Centre county, died at his home in Tyrone last Saturday morning, following an illness of several years.

He was a son of W. E. and Sarah Anna McWilliams and was born in Ferguson township on September 15th, 1875, hence was 48 years, 3 months and 14 days old. His early life was spent at the home of his birth but when he reached manhood he located in Tyrone. He served during the Spanish-American war in the marine corps and was on active duty in Cuba. Following the war he became a postal clerk, a work he was engaged in for seven years, but in 1911 he entered the baking business in Tyrone, establishing the bakery now conducted by Getz & Dickson. Ill health compelled his retirement several years ago.

In 1905 he married Miss Caroline M. Kienler, of Osceola Mills, who survives with one son, Joseph. He also leaves his father living at Rock Springs, and the following brothers and sisters: J. A. and W. H. McWilliams, of Johnstown; Mrs. Frank W. Goodhart and Miss Nancy McWilliams, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. Ralph Musser, of Rock Springs.

Funeral services were held at his late home on Monday afternoon by Rev. Francis Shunk Downs, of the First Presbyterian church, of which he was a member, after which burial was made in the Grandview cemetery, in Tyrone.

ROTE.—John C. Rote, a well known Civil war veteran of Spring township, died at his home at Axe Mann on December 21st, following an illness consequent upon a stroke of paralysis he suffered early in the morning of November 25th.

Born at Aaronburg seventy-nine years ago he was a son of Simon and Susan Rote. During the Civil war he served in Company D, 148th regiment, and in the 116th company of the Second battalion, Pennsylvania Reserves. He married Miss Bertha Boalick who survives with the following children: Harry B. Rote, of Chestertown, Md.; Mrs. E. E. Meese, of Pitcairn, and Simon E., of Greensburg. He also leaves one brother, Thomas H. Rote, of Ladysmith, Wis. Funeral services were held at his late home on December 24th, burial being made in the Pleasant Gap cemetery.

PETERS.—J. Milton Peters, for many years a well known resident of Unionville, died on December 20th at the Bellefonte hospital as the result of hardening of the arteries.

He was a son of Lewis and Beulah Peters and was born in Unionville almost seventy-eight years ago. Most of his life was spent in the home in which he was born. In 1886 he married Miss Charvilla Lucas, who survives with no children. He leaves, however, five brothers and one sister, Mrs. Ada Smith, Edward and Joseph Peters, of Bellefonte; Oscar, of Lancaster; Alfred, of Ligonier, and William, of Milesburg. Rev. J. F. Andreas had charge of the funeral services which were held on December 24th, burial being made in the upper cemetery at Unionville.

GINGRICH.—Mrs. Catherine Lavina Gingrich, wife of Henry E. Gingrich, died at her home in Sinking valley on December 20th, following a brief illness. She was a daughter of George and Susan Biddle and was born at Scotia on March 2nd, 1864, hence was in her sixtieth year. In addition to her husband she is survived by seven children and six brothers and sisters. Burial was made in the Lutheran cemetery in Sinking valley on December 22nd.

SHRECKENGAST.—Mrs. Mary M. Shreckengast, wife of H. E. Shreckengast, died at her home near Centre Hall on Christmas afternoon as the result of hemorrhages. She was a daughter of William and Sarah Weaver and was born in Brush valley a little over fifty-two years ago. She married Mr. Shreckengast in 1891 and he survives with the following children: William, of Dallas, Texas; Earl, of Bellefonte; Ruth, Paul and May, at home. She also leaves two brothers and one sister, Jack Weaver, of Tusseyville; John, of Minnesota, and Mrs. James Scholl, of Farmers Mills. Burial was made in the Centre Hall cemetery on Saturday morning.

The annual meeting of the road supervisors of Centre county was held in the court house last Friday, at which time the supervisors endorsed the county aid proposition for township roads.

Science on the Hoop.
Cincinnati, Dec. 31.—Lack of finances failed to keep J. S. Want, ardent young scientist, away from the annual meeting of the American Association of Scientists here. He "beat" his way from State College, Pa., where he is a student at Penn State, to Cincinnati, it became known today, when the association elected him to membership and remitted his fee as a result of his feat.

Want, whose home is in Huntingdon Mills, Pa., left his school almost three weeks ago afoot. Automobiles gave him frequent lifts, and after being enroute almost two weeks, six days of which were spent in actual travel and the remainder visiting friends, he arrived in Cincinnati on December 21. Until the convention opened on December 27 he was a waiter in a restaurant, making enough to cover his expenses. He plans to make his return journey in the same fashion, starting Wednesday.
