Democratic Watchman Bellefonte, Pa., February 15, 1924.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Chaplain Young preached to the Presbyterian congregations at day.

-Have you seen the new Gardner car which is being driven by Paul McKelvey about the town and county? It has a wonderful motor. 7-1t

The Rev. H. M. Battenhouse, of State College, will occupy the pulpit of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church both morning and evening of the coming Sunday, February 17th.

-This (Friday) afternoon the thimble bee of the Ladies' Aid society of the Reformed church, will be entertained by Mrs. George H. Hazel, at her home on Allegheny street.

-The Milesburg Methodist girl reserves will hold a cherry festival on February 22nd, in the firemen's hall. Go and visit the cherry tree wicket, ye pie shop, and ye candy and gift shop.

-The American Legion Auxiliary will hold a regular meeting in the Legion rooms on Tuesday evening, February 19th, at 7:15, to be followed with a card party at 8 o'clock, to which everybody is welcome.

-The Ladies Aid society of the United Evangelical church, Bellefonte, will hold a boneless chicken and about half a block away. We were waffle supper in the Sunday school room of the church on Thursday evening, February 28th. Price for adults, 65 cents; children, 35. Everybody is invited.

-The Central Pennsylvania Greeters' club, composed of hotel men in Altoona, Bellefonte, Bedford, Cumberland, Md., Hollidaysburg and Johnstown, were guests of landlord Lewis Daggett, at a banquet at the Bush house, last Friday night. On February 29th the Greeters will meet at the Park hotel, in Williamsport.

-Bids for ninety-two miles of state highway will be opened at the Highway Department offices, in Harrisburg, on March 6th and 7th, and included in the various projects is one for 3384 feet on route 307, through the borough of State College. So far as now known this will be the only new piece of road to be built in Centre county this year.

-Donald J. Howard, of Altoona, has been named chairman of District No. 7, third army corps area, which includes Centre county, to have charge of the enlistment of young men for the annual summer citizens' military training camp at Camp Meade, Md., maintained by the U.S. government. Centre county's quota the ocean. this year will be twenty-five young

Dr. Glenn Gives His Impressions of Havana, Cuba. West Palm Beach, Florida.

February 6th, 1924.

Glad to get your letter on our return from Cuba. We had a very nice trip-Howard Struble, his sister Mary, Nannie and I, as the others in our party did not go with us. Two hun-Port Matilda and Unionville last Sun- dred and twenty miles from here by train to Key West where we stayed over night; took the boat at 10 a. m., arrived in Havana 5 p. m.-ninety miles from Key West to Havana. Havana is a wonderful city in several ways. Has 400,000 inhabitants and we were told the entire city is fire-proof and it looks it; no one pays hotels. The president's house is a there until five years ago; now the hole to get through and no accidents.

ural born gamblers-bet on anything. Bet that you will win or that you won't. either way, just to get a bet We staved at the Santa Fe, a new hotel, everything nice and clean. They charge so much a room per day and Nannie and I had a pleasant room with every convenience which we occupied three days and were greatly surprised to be handed a bill for only $4.50. The four of us took our breakfasts in the dining-room of the National Hotel, across the street and each served with half a grape fruit, then a pitcher of coffee and a pitcher of hot milk, cup and saucer and could serve ourselves to as many cups of coffee as we wished, a generous lot of good bread and butter, two soft-boiled eggs and were then offered a very large glass of real beer. The bill for the four of us was one dollar. Where can you beat that for prices? We had a forty-mile drive around the city and parks-were through what they say is the largest cigar factory in the world, out to the second largest sugar mill on the island called Toledo mill and owned by Toledo, Ohio, people-they say Hershey, of Pennsylvania, has the largest mill; went to a large brewery. a beautiful place and all this in a seven-passenger Hudson for $2.50 each. Were through what is said to be the second costliest Catholic church in the world, then over to the races. Saw four good races. They had eight hundred horses there and have races the betting in all its fury! Street car are invited to attend. fares are five cents everywhere.

We were most agreeably surprised American Legion Auxiliaries Pay with Havana and its surroundings; weather was fine-a very little warmer than here. It was 75 degrees here yesterday and many are bathing in

We are all well and enjoying this

The Bon Mot Enlarging.

Pressed for room to comfortably seat its patrons the Bon Mot is being enlarged.

The kitchen has been removed from the main restaurant floor, giving room for quite a few more tables and relieving greatly the congestion that has given manager Caldwell so much concern since he opened his popular resort.

Y. M. C. A. Board and Trustees Meet.

The adjourned annual meeting of the board of directors, with the trustees, was held at the Y. M. C. A. last Tuesday evening. The joint meeting was held for the purpose of going any fire insurance. Has many fine over the finances and plans for the year. A committee was appointed to beauty. There were no automobiles draft a policy and budget, which will go fully into the possibility of a city is full of them. No traffic rules; broader work for the community at every one runs wherever there is a large and prepare a budget for the same, which will be presented at the These Cubans or Spaniards are nat- next regular board meeting, Friday evening, February 29th, at 8 o'clock.

Food Sale.

The Woman's auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will hold another food sale you can put in as many as you wish. in the Variety shop on Saturday, February 16th, at 11 o'clock. Will the contributors kindly send their contributions as early as possible, any time after 10 o'clock.

> The home-made supply last Saturday did not meet the demand so homemade bread and home-made rolls will be the specialty at this sale.

Phone your order before Saturday to either Mrs. Brouse or Miss Overton to make sure that you will not be disappointed in not getting what every purchaser pronounced to be perfectly delicious.

Special Service for P. O. S. of A.

On Friday evening, February 22nd (Washington's birthday); members of the P. O. S. of A., the Ladies Auxiliary and the P. O. of A., of Aaronsburg, will attend a special patriotic service to be held in the Reformed church of that place at seven o'clock. "Washington, the Model Patriot," will be the subject of the sermon to be a community center. preached by the pastor, Rev. John S. Hollenback. The other ministers of that locality are invited to be present a proposal is problematical. To us it and take part in the service.

While this service is especially intended for the organizations above mentioned members of other patriotevery day. There is where one sees ic organizations and school children

Visit to Millheim.

A delegation of members of the American Legion Auxiliary of the Brooks-Doll post went to Millheim on Tuesday evening to officiate in the in-

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL. Bellefonte Shirt Factory Permanently Closed This Week. -A. G. Morris Jr., who has been housed

-Miss Anne Snyder, of Altoona, was her home on Logan street.

her daughter, Mrs. G. Fred Rees.

veek-end guest of Miss Agnes Shields, at

-Mrs. William Hurley went to Renovo

-Mrs. David Dale was a traveler east on Wednesday morning; having gone to Philadelphia to spend a day or so shopping.

business trip to Philadelphia this week

-Sheriff E. R. Taylor made his first

-Mr. and Mrs. James H. Potter went to

-Miss Anne Keichline, who had been in Philadelphia for a month with friends, and in the interest of her profession as an

-Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smeltzer, who motored to Florida for the winter, are enjoy ing greatly the southern sunshine and this week expected to take a side trip to Cuba.

join Thomas F. Kelley for a stay at the Hot Springs, Arkansas, neither of the men expecting to return before the first of -Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bottorf have been in Philadelphia during the week. Willis went down to attend the national convention of the retai' hardware dealers asso-

Mr. and Mrs. George Harpster, of Thomas street, was in Bellefonte over Sunday, for a short visit home with his parents and more ago, after occupying the Funk bun-

-Miss Louise McMullen went east on Tuesday to spend several weeks at Nar-

-Our old friend John Davis, of Cole-

-Mrs. S. Durbin Gray is spending a month in Florida, a guest of friends. Mrs.

Gray went south by water and made a two day stop at Savannah, going directly from there to St. Petersburg, where she will be ed at Aaronsburg, in this county.

-Rev. J. A. Bright, of Topeka, for

-Mr. William Wallis, of Pittsburgh, is Wallis, who has been visiting her mother,

Mrs. J. Will Conley, for a week or more.

galow, on Curtin street, for the greater part of the past year.

during her visit.

April.

ciation.

architect, returned home Friday evening.

up with an attack of tonsilitis is again The Bellefonte shirt factory was able to be out.

closed this week for good, the last shipment of shirts being made on Wednesday. S. D. Ray, proprietor of the factory, which has been in operation more or less regularly the past twenty or more years, decided to quit the business when the wholesalers for whom he manufactured demanded changes that would have necessitated the installation of considerable new machinery at a cost of considerable in having gone down on Tuesday morning. excess of one thousand dollars. It was this fact that led Mr. Ray to decide to close the plant. A dozen or Atlantic City the latter part of last week, where they will be for a part of the month more girls and women have been of February. steadily employed there who will naturally have to look for something else to do.

Yesterday Mr. Ray put men to work dismantling the machinery in his plant. He has had one or more offers to lease the same but is more favorably considering the project of turning the entire plant into residential flats. The building is of ample size to make five or six flats of five rooms and bath, and as they will all be on one floor should make desirable places to live; especially with the surroundings cleaned up and put in nice condition.

Movement to Broaden the Scope of Service of the Local Y.

A movement is on foot to ally all the organizations in Bellefonte,-social, business and religious-in an effort to put greater financial and moral support behind the local Y and broaden its spheres of activity to the point where it will, in every sense, supply whatever need there may be for a great community center. Such plans are only tentative, of berth with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, who are now planning to spend the summer at Hecla. ville, dropped in for a little chat on Satthat the institution be abandoned as urday afternoon. John is still making a Y. M. C. A. and operated purely as lime for the Chemical company and standing up well under the gruelling work.

Just what the reaction of the present supporters of the Y will be to such seem that it has merit only if it can be shown that there is no need for such a christian organization in our midst, or that it is not supported sufficiently to finance it in giving the and Legislature, visited Bellefonte last kind of service such an institution Thursday. Rev. Mr. Bright is a Lutheran should give to our young men and pastor and during his early ministry servwomen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith to Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallis expect to leave for Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith, of North California next week for a stay of two Spring street, were married on the months on the coast.

-Charles M. McCurdy was in Pittsburgh Wednesday for a visit with his niece, Mrs. | Dennithorne

-Miss Mabel Allison, of Spring Mills, was in Bellefonte Wednesday, looking after some business.

-Mrs. Frank C. Williams. of Altoona. spent last Thursday in Bellefonte having been a guest of Mrs. A. C. Smith for the week ago, called there by the illness of day.

> -Joseph Toner came over from Altoona Sunday for a visit home with his mother and sister. Mrs. James and Miss May Toner.

In Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Dorworth entertained Saturday evening with one of the series of dinners they have been giving during the winter.

Benjamin Bradley was host Tuesday night, at a supper birthday party, given for him by Mrs. Bradley, at their home on east Curtin street.

Miss Agnes Shields entertained the card club, of which she is a member, Tuesday evening, two tables being in -Hardman P. Harris left yesterday to play.

The women of the Eastern Star entertained with a card party last night, in the main dining room of the Brockerhoff house. The fifty members each having the privilege of inviting a guest made the number present one hundred, twenty-five tables being in play. The party was one of the out--Arthur Harpster, of Renovo, a son of standing social events of the season.

Seventy-five invitations were issued by the American Lime and Stone Co., for the dinner and dance given by the officers of the company to their office employees and heads of departments at the Nittany Country club on Tuesfather, Capt. W. H. Fry, who is somewhat day evening. In the arrangements for the entertainment nothing was -Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Casebeer returned spared to make this the success such to the Brockerhoff house two weeks or occasions of the company always have been in promoting good fellowship among its employees.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hoffer entertained with bridge, Monday night, in celebration of their fifth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. James Clark was among the hostesses in Bellefonte during the week, entertaining with cards Monday night.

Mrs. H. C. Yeager gave two of a series of bridge parties this week, being hostess Wednesday night, and will be again tonight.

Goss-Alexander. - Frederick R. Goss, of Pine Grove Mills, and Miss Edith Ward Alexander, a daughter of many years chaplain of the Kansas Senate Mr. and Mrs. William C. Alexander, of Pittsburgh, were married at the Lutheran parsonage in Bellefonte, on January 19th, by the pastor, Rev. Wilson P. Ard. The bridegroom is a son of the late Cyrus Goss, one time expected here to spend Sunday with Mrs. treasurer of Centre county, and is well known in Ferguson and College townships. He now holds a good position in Pittsburgh and he and his wife will live in the South Hills district of that city Yarnell - Bickel. - Nevin Orwig Yarnell, of Hecla, and Miss Sarah Elizabeth Bickel, of Mill Hall, were married at the Reformed parsonage, Bellefonte, at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt. The bridegroom is a son of ex-sheriff and Mrs. George H. Yarnell, of Hecla, and at present is employed at Mill Hall, where they will make their future home.

the family. -Mrs. Thomas Mallory, of Altoona assed through Bellefonte on Tuesday on her way to Pine Grove Mills, to see her indisposed this week.

course, and contingent on their final working out to the mutual satisfaction of the directors of the Y and those offering their services in the movement. We understand that the American Legion and the Business Men's Association are the originators of the plan, their first thought being men.

where you are sure of finding splen- surrounding the house. We bought, were entertained with refreshments did entertainment every evening in the week, except Sunday, is at the fruit for thirty cents-clipped from cream, cake and coffee. Mrs. Odillie Scenic. Manager T. Clayton Brown the trees while we waited, fully ripe, Mott was in charge as installing offispares no expense in providing the and delicious. Have just heard of cer and others in the delegation were best programs of motion pictures ob- Abe Markle's death and am mighty Mrs. Frank Deitrick, Mrs. Joseph tainable, and the offerings every night sorry. He was a man among men and are varied enough to provide amuse- few like him! Will miss him very ment for the most exacting movie fan. much. If you are not a Scenic regular get the habit and see all the good pictures.

Gates, who was found unconscious in her apartment in Crider's Exchange two weeks ago yesterday, continues to baffle the skill of her physician. edge of the history of the case her disclosure that at the present time illness is believed to be concussion of students from the Academy are in has been in a state of coma, being unable to talk or recognize any one.

-Bellefonte borough council held another secret session, on Monday evening, presumably for the purpose of continued consideration of the proposition to purchase the Ulsh & Bashoar mill for the water power connected therewith. While the "Watchman" is neither discrediting nor abetting the purchase it would seem a reasonable argument that in any deal contemplating the expenditure of anywhere from fifty thousand dollars up of the taxpayer's money secretiveness should be the one thing most to be avoided.

James C. Waddle, better known to his legion of friends as "Jimmie," California; Michigan University, Michigan; Rollins College, Florida; celebrated his ninetieth birthday an- University of Virginia, Virginia, and niversary at his home in Lock Haven West Virginia University, West Vir- in another riot in the western peni- in that pastorate and then accepted a ly in Pottsville. on Monday. For thirty-eight years ginia. Mr. Waddle was conductor on the local freight running between Tyrone and Lock Haven, on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad, and in that capacity he formed many warm friendships in the Presbyterian church, Belleamong those with whom he came in fonte, on Sunday morning, presided contact, friends who continue to re- over by Rev. Samuel Martin, of State Horsemen," transferred to Pittsburgh member him through the many years since his retirement from active du- extend a call to the Rev. William C. ty, and all of whom will be glad to Thompson, of Danville, to become know that he still enjoys remarkably pastor of the church. Not a dissent- the penitentiary. There was a blind- more humble fields of service so that D. A. Boozer, of Centre Hall, was racing around the streets of Bellefonte, about the good health.

the same as that paid Rev. David -A man who gave his name as month's yearly vacation. A commithis home Charleston, W. Va., was artee was appointed to convey the call rested at State College on Saturday, to Rev. Thompson. just as he had climbed into one of the transportation busses, on the charge of robbing the students at the Sigma Nu fraternity house at the college. State College, Saturday night, was a feet in diameter in the south wall. According to report he gained access decided success, both as to its artistry Guards rushed to the opening and eye" and forced to mar his wonderful to the house some time on Friday and and the financial returns. The Schwab held the prisoners at bay until city record of not having misses a session going from room to room took sixtytwo dollars from the trunks and cloth- brilliant baritone concluded his last a single prisoner escaped. When the years. ing of the various students. Police number "On the Road to Mandalay," smoke of battle had cleared away, records, it is claimed, show Cobb to the audience refused to move, hoping however, it was found that one guard be an escaped convict from the Flori- it could have more, notwithstanding and an overseer had been killed and da state penitentiary and his special- Werrenrath, alone, had entertained it four men wounded. Quite a number spare cash.

-The one place in Bellefonte we spend our time on the large porch post, No. 144, and after the ceremony

With best wishes to every one, W. S. GLENN.

-The condition of Miss Ella A. Bellefonte Academy Students in Many Colleges and Universities.

A most interesting and significant

Presbyterians Call New Pastor.

At a congregational meeting held

College, it was unanimously voted to ing vote was cast. The salary will be

Bankers in Convention.

Eckenroth and John Garis.

Abt, Mrs. Harry Rossman, Miss Nora

Stover, Mrs. C. Klinger, Mrs. E. Miller, Mrs. C. Miller, Mrs. Rhinesmith,

Mrs John Garis, Mrs. Tate, Mrs. E.

Eckenroth, Mrs. C. Eeckenroth, Mrs.

Claire Deitrick, George Tate, Charles

fact was brought out at the Academy Just 376 men and women, repre-While no one has any definite knowl- athletic banquet held last week in the senting 111 banks in Group 6, Pennsylvania Bankers' association, attended the annual convention held at the the brain as the result of a fall. She thirty-three colleges and universities Elks' club in Altoona, on Tuesday, was removed to the Bellefonte hos- in eleven different States. The list with luncheon at the Penn-Alto hotel. pital a week ago and since Monday includes such well known educational Nelson E. Robb, of the Bellefonte institutions as Carnegie Tech, Gettys- Trust company, presided and the prinburg College, Lafayette, Lehigh, Penn cipal addresses were made by W. W. State, Temple College and the Uni- Allen Jr., of Philadelphia, and Major versity of Pennsylvania, the Univer- Lynn G. Adams, head of the state sity of Pittsburgh and Washington constabulary. B. M. Marlin, of Duand Jefferson College, all in Pennsyl- Bois, was elected president of the asvania; Alfred University, Clarkson sociation, and John D. Meyer, of Ty-University, Colgate, Cornell, Hamil- rone, was re-elected secretary, while ton College, New York University, Nelson E. Robb was chosen a member Rensselear Polytechnic, Syracuse and of the council. The Bellefonte Trust Union College, all in New York; An- company was represented at the connapolis, Maryland; Brown University vention by Nelson E. Robb, Earl Orr, and Wesleyan University, Conn.; Cin- Fred C. Witmer, Warren Cobb and cinnati University and Ohio State Misses Robb, Witmer and Wagner, University, Ohio; Dartmouth, New while James K. Barnhart represented Hampshire; Georgetown, District of the First National bank of Bellefonte. Columbia; Amherst and Holy Cross,

Mass.; Leland Stanford University, Another Riot at Western Penitentiary in Pittsburgh.

A guard and an overseer were killed tentiary at Pittsburgh on Monday morning and as a consequence at least three prisoners may pay the forfeit for their devilishness in the death house at Rockview. According to warden John M. Egan the ringleaders were the group known as the "Four from Philadelphia in 1921.

in the morning in the south wing of saw the light and it was pointing to ing flash and rocking detonation that when he had recovered he accepted a shook the building. The tinkle of call to a small church with a mission Wayne Cobb, alias James Boyd, and R. Evans, with parsonage and a broken glass mingled with the shrieks in Reading and it was there he died. of the prisoners, then came the sharp cracking of revolvers, two of which were in the hands of prisoners. Then came a second explosion and a hurried -The Werrenrath concert at investigation showed a hole several voice for an hour and three-quarters. the riot.

fine temperature. When not driving, stallation of officers of the Keystone 19th day of February, 1874. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. house crew at the western penitentiary, is V. R. Hughes, a brother of the late off on a vacation of several weeks, owing Rev. James Potter Hughes, of the to an attack of neuritis. A part of Mr. Bellefonte Academy, who was then Bartley's time will be spent at Hot the pastor of the Presbyterian charges Springs, Arkansas, under treatment, havin Bald Eagle valley and located at ing left for there this week. Unionville, the home of the bride and groom.

The anniversary of the happy event from 7 to 10 and during those hours all of their friends will be welcomed.

Prior to the general reception the Clyde Smith, with their daughter, Miss Miriam; Mr. and Mrs. William Smith and two children; Mr. and Mrs. Morton Smith and six children, Mr. town; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Smith, J. W. White and four children, of heart failure.

Suddenly.

Rev. Bickel is well and most favorfor it was here he began his ministry. On June 1st, 1898, just graduated from the Seminary at Franklin and Marshall, he came to serve the congregation of St. John's Reformed church. For three years he remained call to a larger field in Philadelphia. From Philadelphia he went to Lebanon, all the while growing in brilliance in the ministry, and it was tions. As he told us on the occasion of a visit here last fall the cross was The riot began about 9:45 o'clock indeed heavy to bear, but finally he

> -When you know what it means you will sympathize a lot with Jacob W. M. Bottorf, of north Spring street, this place. He is laid up with "pink

> -During the absence of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bottorf, in Philadelphia this week, Miss Ella Bottorf, of Le-

-Frank Bartley, overseer of the merit

-Miss Margaret Horner, of Altoona, a niece of Mrs. W. Harvey Miller, was Mr. and Mrs. Miller's guest for the week-end, the visit having been made at this time is to be celebrated at the Smith home that she might be with her uncle and aunt next Monday evening with open house for several days, while they were convalescing from their recent illness.

-P. B. Meek, representing the First National bank, of State College, and David family will gather for a dinner. All G. Meek, representing the Farmers Nationof their eight children, with the al bank, of the same place, were in Bellegrand-children, are expected to be fonte Tuesday morning on their way to there. They are Mr. and Mrs. A. Altoona to attend the District Bankers convention, in session in that place Tues- fonte, on Monday afternoon of this day of this week.

-Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lafferty, of Altoona, are spending this week with their sonin-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. and Mrs. Clarence Smith, of Johns- Fitzpatrick, of Milesburg. Mr. Lafferty is one of the progressive citizens of Altoona

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Miller and four and for many years successfully conductchildren, of State College; Mr. and ed an extensive meat and produce busi-Mrs. Frank Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. ness, which he has now turned over to several of his sons. -Postmaster Jacob Meyer was a Bellefonte visitor last week, the first time we have seen him in town for a long while. Rev. Thomas Le Van Bickel Dies In the days of county conventions and other political gatherings always Mr. Meyer was conspicuous among the leaders Rev. Thomas Le Van Bickel died very from over the county, who gathered here Wednesday, the cause being given as we had in the days when politics was politics.

-O. A. Bittle was in Bellefonte Wednesably remembered in this community day looking after some business which re- fracture his ribs. The pain and sorequired his attention and upon the return drive to Pottsville was accompanied by Mrs. Bittle, who will visit at their home there until tomorrow. Mrs. Bittle will remain in Bellefonte looking after the business here until it is disposed of, then join ing adepts at basket ball this year. Mr. Bittle, expecting to locate permanent- Last Friday the Philipsburg High company their daughter, Mrs. Epley, to the Bellefonte High girls by the score her home in Pittsburgh tomorrow, expect- of 18 to 7. On Saturday evening the ing to be away from Bellefonte until the Bellefonte High boys defeated the Tythere that an accident occurred that first of May. Mrs. Young has just recovpermanently deformed him physical- ered from a month's illness and the Pitts-19. ly and for a while blighted his ambi- burgh visit at this time is to allow her plenty of time to recuperate. During their absence Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Newcomb will occupy their home on east Linn street. -Bright and early yesterday morning busiest man we have seen in a long time. Inquiry as to what it was all about revealed that they are repairing the Reformed church over there and ran out of plaster, so that it remained for Mr. Boozer to beat it over the mountain for some and Bottorf, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. get back quick to prevent a hold-up of the work.

-A. G. Rupp, a native of Centre county, but now a resident of Altoona, was in Bellefonte Monday between trains, looking after some important business. Mr. Rupp left Harris township in the late nineties, going to Altoona at once to accept a po sition with the P. R. R. Co., and for twee ty-five years has been a pool-leader in th shops of the company at that place. M Rupp is anticipating being transferred t ty is robbing college students of their with his wonderfully rich and vibrant of the prisoners assisted in quelling mont, is taking care of the home and Philadelphia, where his only daughter no the three children, on Spring street. lives.

Yost-Baldwin.-Warren A. Yost, of Lock Haven, and Miss Josephine Baldwin, of Bellefonte, were married at the Methodist parsonage in Belleweek, by the pastor, Rev. E. E. Mc-Kelvey.

-Henry Kline, a guard at the western penitentiary at Rockview, was the victim of an accident, last Thursday, in which he suffered the fracture of one or more ribs. He was in charge of a gang of prisoners, two of whom engaged in a friendly boxing bout. After the affair progressed some minutes the contestants began to display signs of too much earnestnest and guard Kline stepped between the men to stop the bout. As he did suddenly at his home in Reading, on frequently to plan for the hot old fights so one of them slipped on some ice and fell knocking Mr. Kline's feet from under him and he fell with such force on the fallen man's knee as to ness has kept him off duty this week.

> -Both the girls and the boys in the Bellefonte High school are provschool girls came over to Bellefonte -Rev. and Mrs. T. W. Young will ac- and suffered defeat at the hands of rone quintette by the score of 20 to

> > For Sale .- One Show Case and Electric Light Fixtures .- Sim, the Clothier. 69-7-3t

> > ----Fire and Lightning insurance at a reduced rate-J. M. Keichline. 69-6-12t*

> > > Sale Register.

Friday, March 21.—At residence of Lee R. Markle, (old Colyer farm) one-half mile east of Old Fort, horses, cattle, farm im-plements—general clean-up sale. Also lot of household goods. Sale at 9 a. m. L. Frank Mayes, Auc.

Bellefonte Grain Market.

)-	Correct Wheat	ed	W	eki	ly	by	C.	Y.	Wa	gner -	$1	Co.
e	Shelled	Co	orn		-		-	-	-			.80
	Rye	-			-		-					.90
	Oats	-		-	-		-	-		•		.50
	Barley		-			-	-		-	-		.60
	Buckwh	iea	t	-		-			-			.90

auditorium was filled and when the police and detectives arrived, and not of school, for any cause, for four Philadelphia.