Bellefonte, Pa., March 28, 1924.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

Next Tuesday will be All Foot's day, and general moving day as well. "Serve Centre's Sick" is a real slogan. Now let's back it and come across.

Give your best now to the hospital, if for no other reason than that the hospital is always willing, when called upon, to give its best to you.

Court 448 of the Catholic Daughters of America will have a home bake sale on Saturday, March 29th, at the Mott Drug Co. store. Sale opens at 10 o'clock.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Rose Dersine, of Bellefonte, and Thomas Miller, of Lock Haven, the wedding to take place in the early summer.

Wednesday, March 26th, at 4 p. m., the Centre County Medical Association will meet in the interest of the coming campaign to raise one hundred thousand dollars for the hospital.

Are you reading the column on "garden" published in this paper every week? If not, you are missing some things that might be valuable information to you when the time comes to go to work with the spade and hoe.

Tanner's cut rate drug store, on High street, was opened for business last Saturday and presents an attractive appearance. While no prescription department is attached they have many attractive offers for every family in this community. See advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

The regular meeting of the Woman's club will be held on Monday evening, March 31st, in the auditorium at the High school building, when Mr. A. E. Martin, professor of American history, State College, will give a lecture on the European situation. The public is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

The family of the late John L. Dunlap desire to express, in this way, their deep feeling of gratitude to their friends and neighbors for the many kindnesses shown them during their recent bereavement. To all who sent flowers, motors and rendered other service and expressions of sympathy they are very grateful.

It isn't very often that anything goes a beggin' during a Republican administration but such seems to be the case with the postoffice at Pleasant Gap, according to the "Watchman's" correspondent. Two dates for civil service examinations of applicants for the appointment as postmaster have been set and passed and nary an aspirant came to the front.

The home of Walter B. Cohen, on north Spring street, is too small to accommodate his family and a force of men went to work this week on the job of enlarging the same. The north side of the front portion of the building is being torn out and will be rebuilt flush with the rear portion, which will give considerably more room on the first floor and an extra bedroom or two on the second floor.

On Wednesday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Matern, of Warriorsmark, celebrated their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary, which was also the seventy-eighth birthday anniversary of Mr. Matern. Both Mr. and Mrs. Matern have spent their entire life at Warriorsmark. They have two sons, Lewis W. Matern, an instructor in a school at Washington, D. C., and Frank G. Matern, the leading merchant at Warriorsmark.

Some of the stores in Bellefonte will begin the Thursday afternoon closing next week, but the scenic will be open every evening in the week. Sunday is the only day in the week this popular place of amusement is closed, and the entertainment it offers is worth going to see. The biggest and best motion pictures obtainable are shown at the Scenic, and next week's program is one that should appeal to all lovers of the screen.

At the Henry F. Evey sale, at Lemont last Friday, a wheelbarrow brought more money than a sleigh, a buggy and a set of harness combined. The sleigh sold for 30 cents, the harness brought $1.50 and the buggy $2.00, while the wheelbarrow was bid in at something over four dollars. Stock and farming implements brought the average price being bid this spring which, of course, is considerably below the prices paid a few years ago.

Members of the Bellefonte Lodge of Moose have been busy this week moving their outfit from the McClain block to the rooms in the Garman opera house which they purchased some time ago. While their new home has not been entirely completed, no papering or painting having been done as yet, they will be able to get along in some way until the work is done and everything fixed cosy and comfortable as their permanent abiding place.

At the business meeting which followed the luncheon given by Mrs. John S. Walker, Friday, to Centre county's executive board of the Pennsylvania League of Women Voters, tentative plans were made for an intensive campaign for both the primaries and during the summer. The women are very much in earnest and interested in the prospective candidates but will weigh well the merits of each before giving them their endorsement and support.

ORGANIZATION FOR THE HOSPITAL DRIVE RAPIDLY BEING PERFECTED.

Within a Few Days the Stage Will be Set, the Actors Ready and the Play for $100,000 Begun.

Just a few touches more and Kiwanis will be ready to stage the biggest undertaking of its kind ever inaugurated in Centre county. Day and night meetings are being held in the various districts into which the county has been divided and if perfection of organization, enthusiastic determination of workers and favorable remarks dropped by the people generally mean anything the drive from April 4th to 14th seems certain of going over the top.

An enthusiastic meeting of representative citizens of Milesburg borough and Boggs township was held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the Methodist church, Milesburg. Colonel Henry C. Quigley outlined the needs of the hospital and the plan of the campaign. Captain Harry A. Rossman emphasized the need of each division of the organization securing its quota if the full amount of $100,000 is to be subscribed. After a very thorough discussion of the needs of the hospital Mr. Albert A. Bierly was selected as lieutenant.

Captain Rossman has appointed Dr. W. J. Kurtz to be in charge of Howard borough and O. J. Stover and Mrs. Milton Kunes to be in charge of Liberty township.

Captain Emerick, of Division E, has appointed the following Lieutenants: George Carpeneto, Oscar Gray, Geo. Hazel, Harry Yeager, Arthur Sloop and John Bullock for Bellefonte; Ray Noll for Pleasant Gap, and Mrs. Harry Garbrick for Coleville.

LEE LUTZ WINS THE SLOGAN PRIZE. Colonel Quigley is highly elated over the splendid co-operation on the part of the teachers in Centre county in bringing the slogan contest to the attention of the children.

The contest closed at 4 o'clock Saturday. 956 different slogans were received. These came from all parts of the county. Any one of scores of these would have made a good one for this campaign, but a choice having to be made it finally came down to the one suggested by Lee Lutz, of grade four of the North ward school, Bellefonte. His suggestion is "Serve Centre's Sick."

Colonel Quigley wishes he could reward every child who took part in this contest, but to do this would be too big a drain on the gold in the county banks. The award of $10.00 will be made to master Lutz at the opening dinner of the campaign on Friday evening, April 4th.

Stephen C. Pohe, president of the Kiwanis club, of Johnstown, and president of the Conemaugh Valley Memorial hospital of that city, has been invited to make the principal address at the opening dinner and his acceptance is expected within a day or two. Mr. Pohe is vice president of the Penn Public Service corporation and one of the most influential men in Johnstown. His leadership was the determining factor in the success of a campaign for $500,000 for the Memorial hospital and as a result of his work in that campaign he was unanimously elected president of the hospital.

EVERY COMMUNITY IN THE COUNTY IS SERVED.

Centre county will be surprised to know that its hospital serves patients all over the county. Its doors are always open to administer to those in need. No one who is curable is turned away and the stranger who is stricken while stopping in Centre county receives the same care as one of her own residents.

So great is the merciful ministrations of the good people of Centre county that during the past five year period they have provided Hospital service for the following number of patients from the localities named:

Some Spring Changes.

The Parrish drug store is being moved this week into its new room across Pike alley into the Parrish building. The Harter music store going from the Garman house on the corner of High and Spring streets into the room in the Hayes building, vacated by Mr. Parrish.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marks moved this week from the Shoemaker house on west High street to the apartment in the Furst building, directly over the law offices of James C. Furst. Mr. Marks has resumed his work at the penitentiary, as clerk of works, Mrs. Marks being in charge of the Colonial restaurant at present.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bottorf will go into the Tressler house on Howard street, vacated by the Millard Harts-wick family, moving there from Mrs. Payne's furnished house on east High street. The Payne house has been leased by Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, the former being one of the plant engineers of the American Lime & Stone Co. Mr. Harts-wick is going to his new home on Reynolds avenue, recently purchased from Mrs. Bertram, who will furnish a room in the homes of both her daughter and son, expecting to make her home with them.

William Garman has vacated his home this week, taking his furniture to the "Dim Lantern," at the foot of the Allegheny mountains, where the family will make their home in the future, while the home has been turned over to its new owner, the superintendent of the silk mill.

Miss Ella Gates' furnished apartments in Crider's Exchange have been taken by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ray, who with their new baby will go there as soon as Mrs. Ray is discharged from the hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Ray have been living at the Harry Eberhart home, on Howard street.

Thomas A. Mosier, the game warden, will move his family from Bush's Addition to the Lambert house on Logan street, to be vacated by Miss Jennie Morgan. Miss Morgan is going into the apartment in the Heverly block, now occupied by Mr. Heverly and his family, they having planned to take the corner apartment. The home Mr. Mosier leaves has been rented by the William Shotler family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Raymond and Mr. and Mrs. Pennell, occupants of the same double house on Reynolds avenue, will move into the double house on Willowbank street opposite the Phoenix mill.

Charles Morris' are contemplating leaving Bellefonte to make their home in Macon, Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Shook, of Milton, the former a die maker at the Titan Metal foundry, have secured the small house of T. C. Brown, adjoining his own house, and will take possession of it as soon as it is vacated by Mr. Griffith.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrody are moving here from Sunbury into the north side of the Parker home on the corner of Spring and Howard streets, which Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bashour are leaving. Mr. Conrody is conductor on the Lewisburg passenger train.

W. E. Clark, the Packard representative in Bellefonte, with Mrs. Clark and their three children have moved into the Hugh N. Crider home on east Linn street, with a view to buying it later on. Mr. and Mrs. Clark and their family have lived at the Brock-erhoff house since coming to Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weaver are leaving the Finkline house on Bishop street, recently occupied by Mrs. George Van Dyke, to go into the Davis house on the east end of Bishop street.

The Joseph Nolan family are going to the Schad property on Lamb street, from the E. F. Garman double house on east High street, Mr. and Mrs. Lambert coming in from Pleasant Gap to occupy the home the Nolans leave.

Bond Musser and family left yesterday for their new home at Red Lion, York county. Mr. Musser recently resigned as driver for the Emerick Motor Bus company, after a number of year's service to go into the garage business with his brother-in-law at Red Lion, and having sent his household goods off by moving van he and his family left yesterday.

The new Centre County Hospital needs your mite and needs it mighty bad. P. S. Mite means, in this campaign, dollars.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS DEALS.

The F. W. West Co. Buys Bittle Furniture Store. Other Important Real Estate Deals.

The deal was closed on Monday whereby Frank W. West, of Indiana, Pa., became the purchaser of the furniture store and undertaking establishment of O. A. Bittle, on Allegheny street, formerly the F. E. Naginey establishment, the new owner taking possession on Tuesday morning. The new firm will hereafter be known as the F. W. West Co., Mr. West having associated with him in the business his son-in-law, E. E. Widdowson, late of New York city.

The purchase of the Bittle store by Mr. West is probably the culmination of an impression formed when he and his wife stopped over night in Bellefonte some eight years ago while on a motor trip. They stopped at the Brockerhoff house and as they were eating breakfast in the morning they naturally took a survey of the town from the windows of the dining room. So impressed was Mr. West that he remarked to his wife that he believed he'd like to live here. Instantly she replied, "that's just what I was thinking."

Of course, at the time, neither of them had any idea that such a thing would come to pass. Mr. West had a good furniture business in Indiana and no reason to make a change, but they frequently spoke of their short visit in Bellefonte. Last July he got a very good offer for his business in Indiana and took it, intending to retire. But as the days passed he became restless for something to do and finally decided to go back into the harness if he could find a suitable location. A half dozen or more opportunities were open to him when he finally heard that the Bittle store in Bellefonte could be purchased. He lost little time in getting into communication with Mr. Bittle and several weeks ago came here to see him. An agreement upon the price to be paid could not be reached at that time and he returned to Indiana rather crestfallen. But the deal was finally consummated through a third party, Mr. West came here on Monday, closed the bargain and took charge on Tuesday morning. He is an experienced furniture man and will endeavor to cater to the tastes and desires of Bellefonte people.

Mr. Widdowson, son-in-law of Mr. West, will have charge of the undertaking establishment. He is an experienced undertaker and funeral director, having been associated with one or more large establishments in New York city. The new firm is now in charge and the two men will move their household goods here as soon as they can secure a place to put them, when Mrs. West and Mrs. Widdowson will join them.

SOURBECK'S CANDY STORE SOLD.

Several weeks ago the "Watchman" mentioned the fact that a deal was on for the purchase of the candy store of John Sourbeck by H. B. Wagner, of Hershey, Pa. The deal was closed last week and Mr. Wagner will take possession on April first. During the past twenty years the new owner has been employed with the Hershey Chocolate company, at Hershey, and knows the candy business from beginning to end. It is his intention to use the Sourbeck store as a retail department of a manufacturing establishment he hopes to put in operation here. He has been looking at several locations and is very favorably impressed with the S. D. Ray shirt factory building, which he claims is ideally located. In the meantime while he is looking about for a suitable building his sister, Miss Margaret Wagner, will have charge of the store. Mr. Wagner, of course, expects to move his family, of a wife and three small children, to Bellefonte as soon as he can get a house.

OTHER REAL ESTATE DEALS.

C. W. Heilhecker, manager of the local office of the Bell Telephone company, has purchased from G. Edward Haupt the cottage and all the contiguous ground between the cottage and state highway, and west and south of the cottage just a short distance north of Bellefonte, which he expects to convert into a handsome home for himself and family. The price paid was $7,000.

Several well known gentlemen have purchased from the McNitts the triangle out beyond the aviation field and rumor says that they intend erecting there in the near future a gas and oil service station, with a cold lunch room attached. If the venture proves a paying proposition they may eventually build at the same place a large recreation and dance pavilion.

A business deal of considerable magnitude is now in the making in Bellefonte, which, if it goes through, will mean much to the town, but the "Watchman" is pledged to secrecy and unable to divulge it at this time.

Mrs. E. S. Dorworth has purchased the J. E. LaBarre property on east Curtin street where she and her daughter, Miss Alice, as well as her two grand-children will make their future home.

D. M. Kline, of Axe Mann, has purchased the Schad property on east Linn street occupied by Robert S. Walker and family, but will not get possession until April 1st, 1925.

Letters are being mailed this week to eighty or more churches in the county, asking the ministers for their co-operation in the coming Hospital drive, April 4th to 14th.

The American Legion auxiliary will hold a bake sale at the Variety Shop, Saturday, April 5th.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

H. F. Whiting, of Beaver, Pa., was a Bellefonte visitor last week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rees are visiting with their son in Indiana, Pa.

Miss Mabel Allison, of Spring Mills, was in Bellefonte on a shopping expedition on Monday.

Miss Annie Pearl is in New York this week attending the Easter openings and looking up the latest spring styles.

Mrs. D. I. Willard is with her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Kirk, at Grindstone, having gone out the early part of the week.

Miss Edna Kilpatrick went east the early part of the week for a visit with relatives of Mrs. Kilpatrick and friends in Philadelphia.

Charles T. Noll came down from Altoona on Sunday morning to spend the day with his mother, Mrs. John Noll, who is not improved in health.

Judge Henry C. Quigley is in the eastern part of the State on a business trip but will return today to continue his activities in the big drive for the Bellefonte hospital.

Dr. Eloise Meek came here from Baltimore this week for a vacation of several days, expecting to return to Baltimore to resume her work at Goucher College by the 3rd of April.

After spending the winter at Atlantic City the Misses Parker returned to Bellefonte yesterday and have opened their home on the corner of Howard and Spring streets.

Mrs. J. C. McHugh, of Pittsburgh, has been in Bellefonte this week with her sister, Miss Emma Montgomery. Mrs. McHugh, before her marriage, was Miss Bessie Montgomery.

Miss Isabelle Ward, who had been home from Carlisle for a ten day's Easter vacation with her mother, Mrs. J. E. Ward, returned to Dickinson the early part of the week.

Miss Ella Wagner, of Milesburg, was in Bellefonte yesterday. We presume that she came up to spend some time here, it being her custom to divide it about equally between her home in Milesburg and her friends in Bellefonte.

Mrs. George Van Dyke has returned to her home in Wilkesburg following a visit here with her mother, Mrs. John Noll, who is again recovering from one of her serious attacks, in which time she was regarded as critically ill.

Arthur Rayfield, of Philadelphia, a friend of long standing of T. C. Brown, was a guest of Mr. Brown during his visit to Bellefonte Tuesday. Mr. Brown and Mr. Rayfield were together in Gimble's store a number of years ago.

Mrs. D. H. Hastings is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Frank McFarlane, at Bonairburg, having gone there from Harrisburg, yesterday. Following her visit there Mrs. Hastings expects to come to Bellefonte to be a guest of Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler.

Dr. B. Franklin Bowersox made one of his rare visits to Bellefonte yesterday and we want to say right here that in him Millheim has a citizen who can exude more genuine cordiality and hearty good will in a minute than many of us can radiate in a week.

Miss Josephine White and Mrs. Harriet Ray Smith are the stenographers in charge of the office work of the hospital drive. Mrs. Smith only recently returned from an eight weeks visit with Mr. Smith's relatives near Reading and with friends in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Joseph Sourbeck is anticipating leaving here next month, intending to take her daughter and join Mr. Sourbeck in Colorado. He has recovered his health to such an extent that he is now planning to open an office in Denver. Mr. Sourbeck has been studying surveying through the Scranton school and it is his work he hopes to make his profession.

Those from out of town here Tuesday for the funeral of the late Miss Mary Belle Struble included Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Struble, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Struble, Mrs. Calvin Struble, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Struble, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Struble and Mrs. Veri Struble, all of State College; the Misses Sara and Eliza Gilliland and their two brothers, David and James, of Oak Hill; Miss Maude Mitchell, Mrs. George Mitchell and Jack Mitchell, of Lemont, and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Nagle, of Milesburg.

Amateurs to Play at Snow Shoe Next Friday Night.

The people of Snow Shoe and vicinity are looking forward with anticipation of much entertainment to next Friday night, April 4th. On that evening what is known as the annual Senior play will be presented.

For the vehicle for their talent this year the High school actors have chosen Ben Hare's pleasing comedy "A Little Clodhopper." They have been rehearsing for weeks and something fine may be expected for Snow Shoe has developed a lot of clever histrionic talent.

In the cast will be James Edmondson, Thomas Stark, Kenneth Shank, Sadie Houser, Helen McCloskey, Margaret Devlin and Mary Edmondson.

The Sycoe Trio will furnish the music and when the curtain goes up in the Pastime theatre a crowded house will probably greet the young players.

From Tuesday's Pittsburgh Post was culled the fact that "Mrs. Nellie Brown, of Beaver Falls, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Leona Brown, and Gerald G. Whiting, son of Harry F. Whiting, of Beaver, Pa." The Whiting family formerly lived in Bellefonte and friends of the young man will be interested in the above announcement.

St. Clare's class of St. John's Episcopal church school will hold a food sale at Spigelmyer's store, tomorrow (Saturday), beginning at 10 a. m. This sale was arranged for and was to have been conducted by the late Miss Mary Struble, who was the teacher of the class.

The Kiwanians are broadcasting that the people of Centre county are going to put the Hospital drive over 100 per cent. What part are you going to play in this worthy project?

Two Young Men Arrested for Burglary.

Two well known young men of Bellefonte were arrested on Monday afternoon by chief of police Harry Dukeman and are being held in the county jail on the charge of being implicated in a number of robberies which have occurred in Bellefonte during the past month.

The fact will be recalled that on the night of March 2nd the shoe repair store of Angelo Genua, in the Bush Arcade, was broken into and robbed of $155.00 in cash and a quantity of candy, cigars and cigarettes. On the night of March 12th the penny-in-the-slot weighing machine at the P. R. R. passenger depot was smashed; the coal office of Nathan Kofman was broken into and the Jewett-Paige garage was robbed of a number of automobile accessories. On various occasions recently tools, tires and other articles have been pilfered from cars standing on the streets at night.

The fact that the two young men took an auto trip shortly after the robbery at Genua's shoe store, and that a number of cartons of cigarettes and some auto supplies were found in the possession of one of them, was taken as evidence of their complicity in the robberies and resulted in their arrest.

Crain-Tate.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Tate, at Coleville, was the scene of a pretty wedding, at 7:30 o'clock on Wednesday evening, when their daughter, Miss Thelma Mary Tate, was united in marriage to Wendell W. Crain, of Port Matilda. Forty guests were present to witness the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Wilson P. Ard, of the Lutheran church. Miss Tate was attended by Miss Marjorie Hill and Miss Eunice Crain, as bridesmaid, while the best man was Edward Miller. Following a wedding dinner and delightful reception Mr. and Mrs. Crain left for a motor drive to Altoona and Pittsburgh on a brief honeymoon trip.

The bride is a graduate of the Bellefonte High school and during the past two or three years has been stenographer in the offices of the Bellefonte Central Railroad company. The bridegroom is a representative of the Altoona supply station of Swift & Co. Until he can make definite arrangements for going to housekeeping Mrs. Crain will remain at her work with the railroad company.

Misses Helen and Roxanna Mingle were hostesses at a bridge dinner of twenty covers, Monday evening of this week.

Mrs. William H. Brown entertained last night in compliment to Miss Pearl Royer, who will leave Bellefonte next week to join the family in Niagara Falls
