SWABB .- Frank W. Swabb, for years a well known farmer of Ferguson township, died very suddenly and unexpectedly at his home on the heim last Saturday evening, from the Mitchell farm last Friday morning. He had been a sufferer with organic heart trouble for some time and on March 20th made sale of his farm stock and machinery with the intention of retiring from active work. Friends of the family in that community were planning to give them a big farewell party on Friday night prior to their leaving the Mitchell farm and ing as well as usual, was taken sick business with his father. Later he during the night and died on Friday morning.

Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Swabb and was born near Linden Hall sixty-five years ago. His father many years ago filled the office ly task becoming rather irksome he James Mitchell farm, late the property of Miss Olive Mitchell, of Bellefonte, where he lived ever since. He number of township offices, the last | tery at Millheim. one being that of road supervisor, being secretary of the board.

As a young man he married Miss missioner, and John Swabb, of Erie.

the funeral services which were held at 1:30 o'clock on Monday afternoon, burial being made in the new cemetery at Pine Grove Mills.

MEESE .- Mrs. Ellen Meese, widow of George Meese, passed away on Saturday at her home on north Thomas street following an illness of two Bois lived at Houtzdale. He has apyears as the result of a general breakdown in health.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown and was born in the Democratic candidate for Congress Bellefonte on April 1st, 1850, hence in this district but failed of election. was within three days of being sev-enty four years old. She married and a daughter. Burial was made at Mr. Meese when a young woman and DuBois on Wednesday morning. all her life had been spent in Bellefonte. Her husband died a few years ago but surviving her are six daugh-

MUSSER .- William Stine Musser, one of the best known men in lower Pennsvalley, died at his home at Milleffects of uraemic poisoning.

He was a son of William L. and Rebecca Stine Musser and was born in Bellefonte on December 3rd, 1850, while his father was sheriff of Centre county, hence was 73 years, 3 months and 26 days old. His parents returning to Millheim he was educated there and at the Aaronsburg academy. When twelve years old he ac-Mr. Swabb was looking forward to the event with considerable elation. through the west and when he grew He retired on Thursday evening feel- to manhood he went into the tannery entered the hotel business at Millheim where he remained for many years.

He was a member of the I. O. O. F. and the Knights of the Golden Eagle. Mr. Musser was twice married, his first wife having been Miss Annie C. of county commissioner. Frank spent | Harter by whom he had one daughter, his boyhood days in working on the Miss Loda S., who later married Temfarm and going to school but his dai- pleton G. Cruse, of Bellefonte, and who passed away at her home in Pittslearned the saddler's trade, an occu-pation he followed until 1897, when he wife was Margaret Kreamer who surdecided to get back to nature and vives with two daughters, Mrs. H. H. started farming on the James Kusta- Bowman and Mrs. Margaret White, border farm near Pine Grove Mills. both of New York city. He also leaves Three years later he moved to the one sister, Mrs. Alice Tonner, of Philadelphia. Funeral services were held at his late home on Wednesday morning by was a member of the Lutheran church Rev. John S. Hollenback, asssited by and in politics a dyed-in-the-wool Rev. C. B. Snyder, after which bur-Democrat. During his life he filled a ial was made in the Fairview ceme-

GLEASON .- James A, Gleason, one of the best known lawyers in Central Mary Black, who passed away ten Pennsylvania, died on Sunday evenyears ago but surviving him are the ing at his home in DuBois, under pefollowing children: Mrs. John Gear- culiar circumstances. Mr. Gleason hart, of Shelby, Ohio; Mrs. Harry Erb, was unusually tall, frequently being of Brunswick, Md.; Mrs. Carl Tillim, referred to as "The Tall Sycamore," of Baltimore; Mrs. Fred Williams, of and being of massive build, was con-Clearfield; Mary, Ruth and Clara, at siderably heavier than the ordinary home. He also leaves two brothers, man. Sitting in his office on Saturday James W. Swabb, present county com- afternoon his chair gave way beneath him and he was precipitated to the Rev. J. E. English had charge of floor. He attended church that evening and on his way home developed severe pains in his leg. The pain recurred at intervals until Sunday afternoon when he was compelled to take his bed and his death followed early in the evening. Mr. Gleason was only fifty-two time at the Thomas Wogan home in years old and prior to locating at Du- Juniata. peared in Centre county courts on White Hall. various occasions and was quite well known in Bellefonte. In 1910 he was George Burwell and lady friend, of Rock Springs, took in the play at Alexandria on Saturday evening. HOCKENBERRY. - Greenwood Hockenberry died at his home in Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Everhart, of ters and two sons, namely: Mrs. Snow Shoe last Friday morning as the Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Evenart, of the Branch, were among the "eaters" at the John Quinn moving on Friday. John Hockenberry, of Pleasant Gap; tained almost two years ago. He was Mrs. Zachariah Steele, of Tyrone; a native of Bellefonte, having been Mrs. James Grubb, of Flemington; born here on October 24th, 1825; hence tensive farming and lumbering busi-Mrs. Lewis Johnson, of Philadelphia; was 98 years, 5 months and 4 days ness. Mrs. Thomas Keenan, of Johnstown; oid. At the age of ten years he went Harry Meese, of Milton, and William B., whose whereabouts are unknown. home ever since with the exception of his barn at Bloomsdorf during the She also leaves one brother, Austin five years spent at Osceola Mills. He summer.

their first born the parents are nat-urally considerably elated and grand-pa Harpster is handing out "Cinco's." Church Services Next Sunday. METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH. (Other Pine Grove news on page 3.) The Lord's Supper will be served at Marriage Licenses.

The Lord's Supper will be served at 10:45 and the pastor will speak at 7:30 on "Some Unexpected Cross Bearing." A missionary program in the Sunday school at 9:30. The teen agers and the Epworth League 6:30. Monday night, official board; Tues-day night, class; Wednesday night, prayer and praise. All are welcome. Wendell W. Crane, Port Matilda, and Thelma M. Tate, Bellefonte. Harold A. Sampsel and Martha E. Hassinger, Bellefonte.

James Meek and Julia Vonada, Os-ceola Mills. E. E. McKelvey, Pastor.

Oscar Wert and Jennie Owens, Bellefonte.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

PUPIL NURSES WANTED.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH. Girls over 18, with high school education. Free board, lodging, Fifth Sunday in Lent. Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Morning worship 10:45, "Mary, the Mother with the Pierced Heart." Fifth in a series of laundry. Good salary while learning. 3-year course. Beautiful nurse's home. Apply in person, or by mail, to MISS PENA SCHNEIDER, Superin-Lenten sermons. Vesper service with sermon 7:30. Visitors, always weltendent, J. C. Blair Memorial Hos-69-13-4t pital, Huntingdon, Pa. Rev Wilson P. Ard, Minister

M OTOR INSPECTOR WANTED by the Atlantic Refining Co., for Wil-liamsport and vicinity; age from 30 to 40 years; must be thoroughly exper-ienced in repairing and adjusting White trucks; also be able to direct and super-vise the work of others. Permanent po-sition, with advancement. Apply Williamsport Repair Shop, Wil-liamsport, Pa., Wednesday morning, April 9th. 69-14-1t ST. JOHN'S REFORMED CHURCH. st. John's REFORMED CHURCH. Services next Sunday morning at 10:45, sermon, "Jesus Wept." Even-ing service at 7:30, sermon, "Judas Iscariot." Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. and union C. E. meeting at 6:45 p. m. Services every Wednesday and Friday evening during Lent, at 7:30. Ambrose M. Schmidt, D. D., Minister

 Imbrose M. Schmidt, D. D., Minister
ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH.
Services for the week of April 6:
Passion Sunday, 8 a. m. Holy Eucha ist; 9:45 a. m. church school; 11 a.
Mattins and sermon, "The Duties
f a Christian: IV Love for Others."
Substance of the services and Cat Elestrophysical and the services and Cat ELIZABETH B. MEEK. Passion Sunday, 8 a. m. Holy Eucha-rist; 9:45 a. m. church school; 11 a.

ELIZABETH B. MEEK. Harry Keller, Executrix. Attorney. 69-14-6t rist; 9:45 a. m. church school; 11 a. m. Mattins and sermon, "The Duties of a Christian: IV Love for Others." 2:30 p. m. children's vespers and Cat-echism; 7:30 p. m. evensong and ser-mon, "Hell to Avoid." Tuesday, 10 a. m. Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Thursday, 7:30 p. m. Friday, 7:30 p. m. sermon by Rev. C. R. Barnes. Visitors al-ways welcome. A DMINISTRATRIX'S NOTICE.—Let-ters of administration having been granted to the undersigned upon the estate of Rachael W. Harris, late of Bellefonte borough, deceased, all persons knowing themselves indebted to same are requested to make prompt payment, and those having claims against said estate must present them, duly authenticated. for settlement to LANE H. VAN PELT. Rev. M. DeP. Maynard, Rector.

JANE H. VAN PELT, Administratrix, Care of John McCoy, Bellefonte Pa. James C. Furst, Atty. 69-10-6t

Elmer Sunday is quite ill at his home at Fairbrook. A DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Let-ters of administration upon the es-tate of Andy Onder, late of Snow Shoe township, Pa., having been granted to the undersigned, all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate are re-quested to make prompt payment, and those having claims against the same must present them, duly authenticated, for set-tlement. Farmer Joseph I. Fleming is steer-Miss Esther Corl is spending some tlement.

Mrs. Maude Fry and Brooks Corl spent Sunday with their mother at ANDY ONDER Jr., Box 31, Clarence, Pa. W. Harrison Walker, Attorney. 69-10-6t

Food Value.

66-24-tf

COOKING and BAKING

BAC-TE-LAC

SOLD IN ANY QUANTITY

Western Maryland Dairy

You Can Always Garman Prices

Quality the Highest, Prices, in Personal Service Counts These Times

most instances, Below Others.

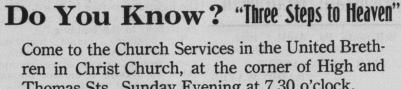

Highly recommended by

Bellefonte, Pa.

Garmans

physicians as a healthful beverage and general conditioner.

Thomas Sts., Sunday Evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Congregational Singing

Old Time Songs

A Hearty Welcome Awaits You!

Patent Medines Rubber Goods WHAT ARE YOU PAYING? Tanner's Cut-Rate Store Caller S Opposite the Scenic SAVE THE DIFFERENCE Toilet Articles Perfumes ..Scenic Theatre.. Two Weeks-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, APRIL 5: JOHN GILBERT in "JUST OFF BROADWAY," a story of romance and adventure of a detective taken for a counterfeiter. Also, 2 reel Federated comedy, "The Covered Schooner."

MONDAY AND TUESDAY, APRIL 7 AND 8:

All Star Cast in "HER TEMPORARY HUSBAND," with seven reels of wonderful laughs, a rip-roaring comedy with such stars as Sylvia Brenner, Sydney Chaplain, Tully Marshall, Owen Moore and others. The heroine to inherit must marry in twenty-four hours and the complications are immense. A huge farce comedy with absurd plots that are ludicrous. Also, Pathe News and a comedy. Will please lovers of the humorous.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY, APRIL 9 AND 10: RICHARD BARTHELMIS in "TWENTY ONE," a seven reel romantic drama that is lifelike and appealing and will hold interest all through. A boy grown up to be a mollycoddle without love at home finds it elsewhere and at last is happily mated. Should please everybody. Also, the ever good Sunshine Comedies. FRIDAY, APRIL 11: MADGE BELLAMY in "THE SOUL OF THE BEAST," with Cullen Landis, is a good trained animal picture, and is entertaining and appealing. Hero and heroine alone in world meet and experience mutual attraction, and marry after many obstacles. Also, fourth episode of "THE GHOST OPERA HOUSE. FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, APRIL 4 AND 5: BUCK JONES in "ELEVENTH HOUR," assisted by dainty Shirley Mason, in one of his western pictures that will please lovers of the western drama. Also, "The Leather Pushers," third series. FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, APRIL 11 AND 12: TOM MIX in "LADIES TO BOARD," a scream from start to finish, with Mix trying to run an old ladies home. Also, Vitagraph Comedy. The "Watchman" gives all the news, all the time. Read it. Four Pattern Century SPLENDID RESULTS IN

Brown, who made his home with her. was a soldier of the Civil war and had

Funeral services were held at her a splendid record. late home at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Reed O. Steely, of the United Evangelical church, after which burial was made in the Union cemetery.

widow of the late William B. Miles, of Milesburg, passed away on Thurs-day night of last week as the result of an attack of pneumonia.

Anne Peters Lucas and was born at following several year's illness. She Howard. Had she lived until next was a daughter of the late Mr. and month she would have been eighty- Mrs. John S. Gray and was born in four years old. Her girlhood days Philipsburg in 1875. She is survived were spent at the home of her birth by her husband and three children; but after her marriage to Mr. Miles also three sisters. The remains were she became a resident of Milesburg brought to Centre county and laid to and had lived there ever since. She rest in Gray's cemetery, in Halfmoon was a member of the Methodist church all her life and a splendid christian woman. Her husband died seven years ago but surviving her are one son, Oscar Miles, of Milesburg, singer Brooks, died on Sunday at the and one sister, Mrs. John Meese, of Bellefonte. She also leaves six grand- following a brief illness with bronchildren.

Rev. M. C. Piper had charge of the funeral services which were held at two o'clock on Sunday afternoon, burial being made in the Bellefonte Union cemetery.

GUMMO .- Andrew David Gummo, a well known farmer of Benner township, died at his home on Buffalo Run on Monday, following two year's illness with heart trouble. He was a son of Charles and Frederika Bart Gummo and was born in Patton township on July 20th, 1859, hence was 63 followed farming all his life and was failed to hear the approaching truck an industrious and highly esteemed citizen. He is survived by his wife and a number of children. Burial was made yesterday in Gray's cemetery.

McCurdy, of College township, died at abouts before moving to Philadelphia the Bellefonte hospital on Monday many years ago. Mr. Klepfer spent where she had been a patient for al- a number of weeks in Bellefonte last most five weeks as the result of a summer and upon leaving here went stroke of apoplexy suffered about the to Wildwood, N. J., to make his home middle of February. She was a He married Miss Ada Haupt, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Lyle daughter of the late Simeon Haupt, of and was 69 years, 10 months and 13 Bellefonte, who passed away a numdays old. Burial was made at Pine Hall yesterday.

home at Linden Hall last Thursday, and Fred, of Philadelphia. He also following an illness of some weeks, aged seventy-one years. Surviving him are his wife and two sons, John delphia, and Mrs. Herman Robb, of and Samuel, both at home. Burial Harrisburg. was made on Monday in the Boalsburg cemetery.

His wife died twenty-eight years ago but surviving him are four children, Mrs. Mary Hill, of Snow Shoe; Israel A. Hockenberry, of Philipsburg; Mrs. John Shreffler, of Snow Shoe, and John, of Moshannon. Bur-MILES .- Mrs. Emily Lucas Miles, ial was made in the Askey cemetery on Monday afternoon. WARNER.-Mrs. Edith Warner, wife of Bartley S. Warner, died at her

She was a daughter of Austin and home in Chicago, Ill., on March 22nd, township.

> BROOKS.-Ray Penrose Brooks, infant son of Elwood and May Knoffhome of his parents at Pleasant Gap cho-pneumonia. The child was aged 4 months and 30 days. Burial was made in the Pleasant Gap cemetery on Tuesday.

Former Coleville Man Killed at was almost instantly killed on the streets of Wildwood, N. J., last Satur-day morning, by being run down by a five ton motor truck. Mr. Klepfer was very hard of hearing and probably and described as follows: streets of Wildwood, N. J., last Saturvery hard of hearing and probably and was struck as he was alighting from a trolley car. He was sixty-eight years old and was born and grew to manhood at Coleville. He was a carpenter by oc-McCURDY .-- Mrs. Annie E. Mc- cupation and worked at his trade hereber of years ago, but surviving him are the following children: Walter Klepfer, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Russie ROSS .- James I. Ross died at his Thompson, of Wildwood, N. J.; Alfred leaves two brothers and one sister, David and Harry Klepfer, of Phila-

> The funeral was held yesterday, purial being made in Philadelphia. Ex. TAYLOR, Sheriff. Sheriff's Office, Bellefonte, Pa., April 2nd, 1924. 69-14-3 burial being made in Philadelphia.

W. K. Corl is perfecting plans for

PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

ing a new Overland car.

A little bit of delayed winter this

UNITED BRETHREN IN CHRIST.

Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. Morning service, 10:30, "The Balm of Gilead."

C. E. 6:30. Evening service 7:30, "Three Steps to Heaven."

"The Friendly Church."

come

ways welcom

week.

Frank B. Hackett, Pastor.

That prince of good fellows, William Musser, motored up the valley and spent Sunday at the Luther Peters home.

The Shoemaker Bros., with their large moving van, transported C. L. Irvin's household goods to Harrisburg on Tuesday. Farmers J. W. Peters and James McCool each had the misfortune to lose one of their best Guernsey cows the past week.

Mrs. H. D. Fleming attended the missionary convention in Bellefonte this week as a delegate from the I. W. . band at Baileyville.

Grandmother Susan Peters, who has been under the doctor's care most of the winter, spent a few days at the home of her son, J. W. Peters. Elwood Harpster, who holds a good ob with the Pennsylvania railroad in Altoona, with his wife and baby daughter, is spending a week at the Cyrus Powley home.

H. F. McGirk and wife and Miss Anna Dale, who spent the past year or more in Florida for the benefit of their health, arrived home this week, delighted to again set their feet on Centre county soil.

Florence Emeline is the name of the new baby girl who arrived recently at the Robert Harpster home. It being

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Wildwood, N. J. Emanuel Klepfer, a native and for many years a resident of Coleville, was almost instantly killed on the

MONDAY, APRIL 28th, 1924,

and described as follows: Purpart No. 1. Beginning at a small black oak; thence along Centre Furnace lands North 44½ degrees East 50.4 perches to stone; thence along lands now or late of Hyland Biddle North 33½ degrees West 171 perches to white oak; thence along lands now or late of James T. Hale South 45 degrees East 51 perches to a stone; thence along lands now or late of John Wasson South 35¼ degrees East 170.9 perches to place of beginning, containing 53 acres and 46 perches. Purpart No. 2. Beginning at a white 53 acres and 46 perches. Purpart No. 2. Beginning at a white oak corner adjoining lands now or late of Hyland Biddle, thence North 20½ degrees West 16 rods to a post; thence South 60½ degrees West 13.4 rods to a chestnut; thence South 32½ degrees East 20.3 rods to a corner; thence North 51 degrees East 12.6 rods to the place of beginning, con-taining 1 acre and 77 perches.

taining 1 acre and 77 perches. Purpart No. 3. On the North by land now or late of the heirs of James T. Hale, deceased, on the Northeast by lands now or late of the heirs of Miles Green, deceas-ed; on the East by lands now or late of Mosses Thompson; on the South by lands now or late of the said Thompson, and on the West by lands of the estate of John Biddle, deceased, containing 53 acres more or less.

Seized, taken in execution, and to be sold as the property of H. A. Ellis. No deed will be delivered until purchase mon-ey be paid.

"The Hostess Newport"

F. P. Blair & Son Jewelers and Optometrists 64-22-11 BELLEFONTE, PENN'A