

Interesting Hexathalon Contests by Y. M. C. A. Boys.

Harry L. Kutz, a student at the Academy, and who has been assisting in the physical work of the Y. M. C. A. by conducting the junior and intermediate boys' classes, has found it necessary to discontinue his leadership on account of his participation in the Academy baseball and track work. During his four months' work he has gained the friendship and interest of the boys and the Hexathalon events on Saturday afternoon and Monday evening was the climax of his most efficient and appreciated services with the boys.

The Hexathalon is an international Y. M. C. A. annual event, running through a series of indoor athletics, with standardized rating for each class, thus making it possible for the younger boys to score on a level with the older and more experienced boys. It is a point contest and each boy making 400 points is presented with an international bronze button as an award, and a silver button for 500 points. Leslie Shultz came within nine points of making the 500 points necessary—going below his usual high jump record, which would have carried him away beyond that point.

Following are the events: Long distance potato race, short distance potato race, running high jump, standing broad jump, for all classes. For the 110 lb. class, the snap under bar and baseball throw, and for the 125 lb. and unlimited classes, the fence vault and 8 lb. shot put. The following classes were entered:

80 lb. Class—Ross Apin, Wilbur Badger, Harry Beck, Sheldon Evey, Charles Long, Hugh Miller, Richard Sager, Jackson Spangler, Reynolds Shope.

110 lb. Class—Arnold Kalin, Gilbert Shope.

Unlimited Class—Donald Best.

Following is the standing of the boys and points made: Shultz 491, Long 447, Shope 435, Miller 412, Kalin 411, Best 407, Apin 378, Clark 355, Ray 349, Coder 344, Sager 343, VanDusen 331, Badger 319, Spangler 301, Evey 286, Blecker 265, Heverly 258, Gingery 256, Kofman 249, Shope 220, Beck 183, Singhizer 158.

The boys who will receive bronze Hexathalon buttons, securing between 400 and 500 points out of a possible 600, are Shultz, Long, Shope, G. Miller, Kalin and Best.

Messrs. Kimball, Keller, Cutler, Cheyney, Wilson, Mauk and Martin rendered valuable assistance in acting as officials during the meet.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Bellefonte cemetery association, last Friday afternoon, James C. Furst Esq., was elected president to succeed the late Clement Dale Esq.

PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

Robert Harpster is quite ill with an attack of appendicitis.

J. Harry McCracken and sister spent Saturday at the county seat.

C. H. Meyers, wife and son Paul, of Meek's church, spent Tuesday in Bellefonte.

Some of our enterprising farmers did some ploughing, last week, but found the soil pretty wet.

Mrs. Mary Coombs and Mr. Wilson, of Johnstown, spent Sunday at the home of Hon. J. Will Kepler.

W. R. Port, of the State College Times staff, was off duty several days this week on a little vacation.

Keep in mind the I. O. O. F. banquet which will be held in their hall tomorrow (Saturday) evening.

H. N. Musser, of Struble, was in this locality on Monday, placing orders for wire among the farmers.

Mrs. A. P. Ward, of Bellefonte, is spending some time among friends in this section, the home of her youth.

James I. Reed, our enterprising contractor and auctioneer, transacted business at State College on Tuesday.

The personal effects of the late Frank W. Swabb will be offered at public sale on Saturday, April 26th.

J. M. Wieland and wife attended the sessions of the Huntingdon Presbytery held in Tyrone on Monday and Tuesday.

The minstrel show on Saturday evening was a success in every particular, the receipts amounting to fifty dollars.

Paul Sunday and wife and Harry Dearmit, of Fairbrook, spent Monday in Bellefonte looking after some Easter shopping.

Mrs. Margaret Benner, of Centre Hall, spent Wednesday in Bellefonte, visiting her nephew, H. K. Miles, who is a patient in the local hospital.

J. E. McWilliams and wife, Ida Sunday, E. C. Musser and wife, Miss Mabel Musser and J. A. Fortney and wife were in Bellefonte last Thursday visiting friends in the hospital.

In our list of movings last week we omitted to mention the fact that J. B. Zerby has moved onto the Snyder farm at White Hall and Harry Dearmit from Gatesburg to the Harpster farm at Tadpole.

Charles Goodman, a world war veteran who was wounded in action in France, was run down by a train on the Pennsylvania railroad, near Huntingdon, last Friday morning, and killed instantly. He was thirty-five years old and made his home at Pennsylvania Furnace where two brothers, George and William Goodman, his only survivors, reside. Burial was made in the Graysville cemetery on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Mary McWilliams has resigned her position as teller in the First National bank at Centre Hall to take effect the first of May when she will return to her home at Rock Springs to help care for her father, W. E. McWilliams, the veteran mail carrier.

Ex-sheriff W. Miles Walker, of Bellefonte, spent last Friday on his farm, looking after the progress being made on the erection of his new barn. Mr. Richards, of Julian, has the contract in charge and expects to get the building completed in time for housing the summer crops.

Rev. A. H. Thompson, pastor of the United Brethren churches at Lemont and Houserville, attended a council of administration in Bellefonte on Tuesday, called for the purpose of considering the drive now being made for a new seminary building at Dayton, Ohio. Rev. Thompson is a hustler. Spending every hour possible looking after his church work he still finds time to make daily visits with his wife, who is a patient in the Bellefonte hospital.
