Democratic Watchman.

Bellefonte, Pa., April 25, 1924.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY. -John E. Dubbs, who has been housed up for a week, is greatly improved.

Musser company, after a serious illness of four weeks, is much improved, but has not yet taken up his work.

-Harry S. Gates, who has been in the huckstering business at Port Matilda the past ten or fifteen years, has located permanently in Philipsburg where he is now in the employ of Swift & Co.

-Tyrone is to be host of the first State-wide conference of Sunday school leaders, for men and women, to be held in Pennsylvania. The conference will convene on May 1st and adjourn May 3rd.

-----Rev. Wilson P. Ard, who some lieutenant in the officers' reserve corps of the United States army, was last week assigned as chaplain to the 433rd Field Artillery.

-The Bucknell college reserves and Bellefonte Academy baseball teams will meet on Hughes field tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at three o'clock, weather permitting. All lov- Centre countians who are living in ers of the national sport should be on distant States. hand to see this contest, as it will undoubtedly be a good game.

-Antonio Calendo, of Allegheny county, had a narrow escape from the meeting, by being chosen delegate to death chair on Monday morning. He the International convention of Kiwas brought to the Rockview penitentiary on Saturday for electrocution on Monday morning, but at 2:30 o'clock, less than five hours before the hour for him to go to the chair, he was granted a respite by Governor Pinchot.

-Frank B. Patton, who died at his home in Huntingdon, last week, was the last of the family of the late T. B. Patton, for thirty-two years superintendent of the Huntingdon Reformatory. Mr. Patton is survived only by his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Margaret Bell, the only daughter of Charles Bell, a former resident of Bellefonte.

-The recent appointment of Miss Rebecca N. Rhoads to a membership of the board of directors of the National Anti-Saloon League, comes to her as a great honor, inasmuch as she is the second woman ever to serve in that capacity, the first being the wife of one of the southern Governors, and also that the representation from each State is limited to five persons.

-Two of the biggest and best motion pictures ever filmed will be during the coming week, and popular known as "Halfmoon Terrace." prices will prevail. This fact, how-

KIWANIS DETERMINED TO PUT THE DRIVE OVER THE TOP. At the regular noon luncheon of one-fourth of the subscription, due

Kiwanis, on Tuesday, there was no lagging of interest, or lack of determination to finish the job of putting the drive for $100,000. for the hospital over the top. The facts that the campaign director, Mr. Roy, has departed and that -Forrest S. Ocker, of the G. F. the date for the formal ending of the drive has passed abate nothing. Kiwanis set out to do the work and is not going to stop until it is complete.

Reports from all of the county, except the State College district and Snow Shoe show that the fund has crossed the $80,000 mark.

State College, which includes College, Harris, Ferguson, Patton and Halfmoon townships, reported about $10,000 in sight and expects to give $15,000 when its final report is made at the luncheon next Tuesday.

Snow Shoe will not report for some time, because the mines in that section are not operating and it is the opinion of the lieutenants out there time ago was commissioned a first that the present is not propitious for their drive. Though they are confident that with normal business conditions they will have no trouble in raising their quota of $4000.00.

passed, for every day unexpected checks are coming in from former

REV. ARD HONORED.

Rev. Wilson P. Ard, president of Kiwanis, was honored at the Tuesday's wanians at Denver, Col., in June. The nominating committee named only one candidate and its selection was unanmously approved.

The Tuesday luncheon was dynamic in more ways than enthusisam for hospital success. It was electrified by Kiwanian Blair-not by song or speech-however. He had secreted an electric wire under all of the tables and so completed contacts that when the members picked up their knives and forks all of them got an electric shock. Everything they a while before the cause was disclos-

The attendance prize was won by Kiwanian John Knisely.

Big Sale of Lots on "Halfmoon Terrace."

Years ago Bellefonte had its "Bunker Hill," "Quaker Hill," "Halfmoon Hill," "Cheap Side," and various other cognomens for local districts but most of them have been thrown into the discard and now Haupt & Brown are going to do away with Halfmoon shown at the opera house and Scenic Hill, which in the future is to be

Several weeks ago the "Watchman" ever, will not detract from the regular published a brief item announcing

A Musical Treat.

Subscribers to this fund are requested to pay the first installment, A very interesting conference was evening in the Community room at May 1, 1924, by sending check to H. E. Fenlon, treasurer hospital campaign fund, Bellefonte, Pa., or by depositing the amount to the credit of many districts represented as anticisuch Treasurer's account at the subscriber's local bank. Subscribers who pated, partly due to the bad roads, but prefer to do so may now pay their en- all who attended were very much inspired by wonderful messages pretire subscriptions to this fund by remittance or depositing in bank in the sented by the speakers. same way.

Hospital Campaign Fund.

This general notice is given because, owing to great detail work, the committee in charge may not be able to send out notices to each subscriber o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. to the dele- Hurley. by May 1st. But this should not de-by subscribers in making prompt payments will be highly appreciated. JOHN BLANCHARD, Chairman, Committee in Charge.

Church Struck by Lightning.

During the thunder storm on Sun-Methodist church in Philipsburg while need of higher ideals in the homes and the congregation was worshipping at among young people.

the Easter services. Those on the At the close of the conference a outside who witnessed the incident vote of thanks was passed to the Y. and their mother, Mrs. E. D. Foye, of state that it looked as if a huge red- M. C. A. for the use of the building Bloomsburg, who have been in Bellefonte through the goal will be reached and hot ball of iron had fallen from the and entertainment during the confer- for the week.

sky and hit the tall steeple. The ence. Following is the program: church lights were extinguished and Afternoon falling plaster caused a cloud of dust 2:30 p. m.-Devotionals Rev. M. M. Drumm to settle over the new Easter hats and 3:00 p. m.-The Need of Religious Eddresses. Naturally members of the ucation in the Home Rev. E. E. McKelvey

3:30 p. m .- The Peril of Denominacongregation became frightened and tionalism some attempted a hasty flight from the 4:00 p. m.-Pointers for Music in church but they were quickly calmed Sunday School by the ushers and the pastor, Rev. R. S. Oyler, who started singing a hymn 4:30 p. m.-Question Box familiar to all. A hasty examination 4:45 p. m.-Finances showed the steeple pretty badly dam- 5:00 p. m. Address aged but no timbers displaced and 5:30 p. m.-Lunch most of the congregation remained in church until the end of the services.

Two Prisoners Escape in Style.

John Adriana, of Allegheny county, and Charles Henry Wasser, of Mercer county, escaped from the western penitentiary at Rockview, about 9:30 o'clock on Saturday night, and instead of heading direct to the mountains touched was charged and it was quite hot-footed it into Bellefonte, stole two raincoats from Oscar Zimmerman's garage and walking in south Water apparent unconcern they climbed in-

been discovered. Adriana was servsentence and Wasser a three to six pionship games. years' term. The men escaped by cutting the wires of the stockade.

A Musical Treat.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL. Centre County Sunday School Work-Miss Nell Gehret was a Lock Haven ers' Conference.

visitor over Easter Sunday. -Mrs. Eben Bower spent the after part of last week in Millheim, a guest of her conducted on Monday afternoon and sister, Mrs. Burd.

-Lawrence Jones, who spent the past the Y. M. C. A., Bellefonte, for the six weeks in Baltimore, returned home on promotion of the Sunday school work Sunday morning. in Centre county. There were not as -Miss Helen Otto, of Niagara Falls, is in Bellefonte for a ten day's visit among her friends and relatives.

-Mrs. Fred Craft and her two boys were in Johnstown the fore part of the week, with Mrs. Craft's sister, Mrs. Otto and the President I. L. Foster presided at family. the conference. Vocal selections were -Mrs. Paul R. Kerk and sons, Billy and Stanley, of Paoli, are visiting with Mrs. rendered by Miss Shuey and Mrs. Krader. Supper was served at 6 Kerk's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William E.

gates. The evening session closed at -Mr. and Mrs. William J. Emerick and lay payments then due. Co-operation 9:30. Much interest was shown in the son Paul motored to Harrisburg and drive to establish family altars in Reading, Friday, for a week-end visit with Centre county, similar to the camrelatives.

-Frank Stevenson, of Waddle, who is paign which has just closed in Lycomnow located in Johnstown, spent Sunday ing county, and the speakers emphaat home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. sized the great need of more inten-George Stevenson. sive religious teaching and training

-Mrs. Wayne D. Stitzinger, of New Casin the home than is at present evitle, and her family, have been in Belledent. John L. Holmes, of State Colfonte for an Easter visit with Mrs. Stitzday morning lightning struck the lege, was present and emphasized the inger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Johnston.

-Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Hunter have been entertaining their two grand-children

-Aaron C. Kepler and wife, of Pine Grove Mills, stopped off in Bellefonte a short time Tuesday afternoon on their way to Unionville to visit with the Harold Fisher family.

-Jay E. LaBarre, eastern representative of the Sall Mountain Products com pany, together with his son Louis, were Easter visitors with Mr. LaBarre's parents at Starucca, Pa.

--Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Morris, with their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, left yesterday morning for their new home in Macon, Georgia, where Mr. Morris will take charge of a large stone operation recently acquired.

-Col. J. Miles Kephart, who spent the winter at Bath, N. Y., has gone to Seaside Park, N. J., where he hopes the salt air Musser and their son Dick spent the weekwill be beneficial to his health during the spring months that he expects to spend at toona, going there fram State College. that resort.

ter visitors at the Cyrus W. Showers home on Beaver street.

-Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foster drove here from Philadelphia last week for an Easter visit with Mrs. Foster's sister, Mrs. Chaney Hicklen, who has been ill for a number of years, at the home of her daughter,

-Rev. William C. Thompson went down for the six games determine the win- to Washington, D. C., this week and met ing no further trace of the men has been held by the American Legion journ in Florida, and accompanied them team for the past two years. The to Bellefonte, reaching here on Wedness day in time to witness the pastor's official installation last evening.

> -Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Young, of Clearfield, and their two small daughters, Evalyn and Jean, made an over night visgame for warmer weather. The al- Harold Kirk, of Philipsburg, was also

-Mr. and Mrs. Edmund P. Hayes, of Pittsburgh, were Easter guests of Mr. Hayes' mother, Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes.

-Mrs. George T. Smith. of Detroit, is making one of her occasional visits home with her father, Jack Showers, of Bishop street.

-Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Wagner and family attended the funeral of Mrs. Wagner's mother, at Pine Glenn, Saturday, having driven out in their car.

-Miss Isabelle Grove, a Kindergarten instructor in the schools of Allentown, spent the Easter vacation here with her parents, Mr .and Mrs. D. A. Grove.

-Mrs. Helen Malin Shugert, her daughter, Mrs. Rufus Lochrie, and the latter's two children, were over from Central City, for an Easter visit at the Malin home on Howard street.

-Mrs. Morris Furey has returned to Bellefonte for the summer, after spending the winter with members of the family through the Central part of the State, in Pittsburgh, and New York.

-While visiting in Bellefonte for the past week, Mrs. E. C. Carpenter and her son, of Reading, have been guests of Mrs. Carpenter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Eckenroth, and her sister, Mrs. Harry Walkey.

-Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Saxe, of Ellsworth, Pa., with their three children and Mrs. Saxe's brother, Jerome Harper, drove to Bellefonte in their new Hudson car. to visit over Easter with Mrs. Harper, at Mrs. Charles Smiths, on Bishop street.

-Miss Helen Otto, of Niagara Falls. who has been a house guest of Mrs. Harriet Ray Smith, while making a visit back home, will go with Mrs. Smith to Washington this week, where they both will visit for a short time with Miss Margery Mc-Ginley.

-The Misses Anne and Caroline Valentine arrived home Wednesday afternoon, coming here from Philadelphia, where they had been since landing in this country from Venice. After two years traveling about, they have returned to open their home, "Burnham Place," intending to remain in Bellefonte.

-Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Musser, of Altoona, and their two sons, Harold and Francis. were Easter guests of Mr. Musser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Musser, of Lamb street, while Mr. and Mrs. Francis end with relatives of Mrs. Musser in Al-

-Among the house guests entertained at -Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Penny, with the John M. Keichline home during the their daughter, Ann Carolyn, and Earl week, were Mrs. E. L. Eggleston and Mrs. Deutsch, of Pittsburgh, and Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Wentworth, friends of Miss Daise J. Merrill Showers, of Altoona, were Eas- Keichline, from Battle Creek, Mich., who were in Bellefonte from Friday until Monday, having stopped off on their way home following a sight-seeing visit in Washington. D. C.

> Torrens-Hoag.-A beautiful home wedding took place at eleven o'clock on Tuesday morning at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Hoag, on north Thomas street, when their eldest daughter, Miss Millicent Louise Hoag, became the bride of Robert Gassin Torrens, of Perry, New York, The ceremony was performed by the bridegroom's father, Rev. D. G. Torrens, pastor of the First Congregational church, at East Bloomfield, N. Y. There were no attendants. Jonquils and pussywillows predominated n the house decorations, which were

- B. M. McGarvey Evening. 7:00 p. m .- Song Service 7:30 p. m.-The Sunday School as a

Feeder to the Church Rev. A. M. Schmidt 8:00 p. m.-The School of Religious Education - Prof. H. M. Battenhouse 8:30 p. m.—Address - B. M. McGarvey 9:00 p. m.—Discussion of Work 9:30 p. m.-Adjournment

For the Bowling Championship.

The finals of the bowling tournament will be played off next Tuesday street discovered a Ford car standing and Thursday evenings, April 29th in front of Decker Bros. garage. With and May 1st. The match will be between the Titan Metal Co., of the first to the machine, started it and disap- league, and the students, of the secpeared. On Sunday morning the car ond league. Six games will be rolled, Mrs. Ivan Walker. was found over near Reedsville where three each night. Total pins scored gas supply gave out. At this writ- ner of the bowling trophy, which has his family, who were returning from a soing a two and a half to five years' public is invited to witness the cham-

The bowling alleys still remain popular and as the warmer weather advances the devotees of the sport are it to Bellefonte early in the week with Mrs. swinging to duck pins as a lighter Young's parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk.

Rev. Fraser Metzger Miss Shuey Mrs. Alberta Krader

weekly programs at the Scenic, which will be kept up to their always high standard. No lover of the screen can chased some time ago by Howard be sold to the highest bidder. Thompson. The latter planned to will probably be stopped now as it is Mr. Cohen's plan to erect a large store location. There are absolutely no building there for his own use, though strings to this proposition, and no obhe will not start work on that for lucky winner of the lot. some time.

It is a well known fact that no -A wedding of interest to many in this locality is that of Charles E. available building lots are to be had of this organization by buying tickets Aull and Mrs. Ethel Johnston, which took place Wednesday, in Middletown, the town is to expand it can do so given to the hospital, as has always Ohio, in the presence of only the im- only by building outward, and no been the custom. more available space is offered than mediate members of the family, an accident of ten days ago in which Mr. Halfmoon Terrace. Because of this fact all persons contemplating having Aull had had his foot crushed, necessitating the cancelling of all social af- a home of their own some day should fairs connected with the event. Mr. attend this big sale of lots on Saturand Mrs. Aull will live in Middletown, day, May 3rd. where they are now building a home.

- A big ten pound chocolate Easter egg was disposed of at the Hugh B. Wagner candy store, on Saturday night, for the benefit of the April 27th, in St. John's Catholic Bellefonte hospital. The lucky man church, to enjoy sacred music of the was James K. Barnhart, cashier of the First National bank, who got it manner, by the famous male choir of for twelve cents. On Monday Mr. St. Columba's church of Johnstown. Wagner turned over to the treasurer of the hospital a check for $31.17, the proceeds from the egg, so that it was not only the biggest egg ever seen in Bellefonte but a most lucrative one for the hospital, as well. tinent of Europe are expression of -Some weeks ago the Brotherhood of St. John's Lutheran church, of Bellefonte, issued a card entitled "Some Suggestions to Ushers," which contained ten simple rules governing licity to be a treasure supernal in the work of the usher in a church. A grace and uplift. card was furnished to each usher, and to the credit of all of them, it has resulted as a magic wand in smoothing out and perfecting their work. Rev. Ard thought the card good enough to send a copy to one of the church papers, "The Expositor," and the editors grand opera singers were trained. evidently were of the same opinion as they published it complete as suggestions to ushers in all churches.

-After having served as pastor of the Reformed charge at Boalsburg of Philipsburg, was killed in a cavethe past eighteen and a half years in of a coal mine at Fulton Run, In-Rev. S. C. Stover has resigned to ac- diana county, last Thursday. He was cept a call to the Zion charge at Ber- forty-seven years old, a son of Thomlin, Somerset county. The change as and Mary Elizabeth Askey, and did service it is rendering all emwill mean an increase of $300 a year was born in Bald Eagle valley. When ployees of labor, the only company in salary and a free parsonage equip- he was a boy the family moved to that covers the employer as well as ped with all modern conveniences. Philipsburg and there he grew to the employee. Rev. Stover will go to Somerset coun- manhood and married Miss Mary Cadty to enter upon the work of his new wallader. Twelve children were the pastorate on or about June first. result of their union, eleven of whom, ter offerings of the Sunday school and While his parishioners at Boalsburg with his widow, survive. He also congregation of St. John's Reformed the church social rooms Tuesday are naturally sorry to lose his valua- leaves his parents, one brother and a church, Bellefonte, amounted to $304. evening, April 29th, from 5 to 7:30. ble services they should rejoice in the sister. The remains were taken to Of this amount $131 was the Sunday Price per plate, 75 cents. fact that he has been called to a larg- Philipsburg where burial was made on school self-denial offering, in support Monday afternoon. er field of usefulness.

the fact that the above gentlemen, who own practically the entire Ter- give their annual concert in the Moose demand for the game continues. race, had recently sold a number of Temple theatre, Thursday evening, afford to miss an evening's entertain- building lots in their plan, but it is May 1st, at 8:15 o'clock. They will nothing to the big sale they are going be assisted by Miss Emma Keiss, a -On Tuesday Walter Cohen, of to put on on Saturday, May 3rd, when well known and very pleasing sopra-Cohen and Co., purchased the Thomp- a public sale of lots will be held on no, who has studied abroad and has son property on High street. This is the ground. An experienced auction- sung in grand opera. Mr. Finley, as the old Wilson home that was pur- eer has been engaged and all lots will tenor soloist, and a string trio from State College will also add pleasure To attract prospective purchasers to the program, together with a splenerect a garage on it, but that work the owners have decided to give away did orchestra accompanying the chorabsolutely free one lot in a desirable us.

The chorus consists of sixty voices, which have been in training all winter ligations will be entailed upon the under the direction of Mrs. Russell Blair, and it is hoped that the people of the town will appreciate the efforts in the main part of Bellefonte, and if when solicited. The proceeds will be ward public schools of Bellefonte in every way. The car load of flowmade a substantial and appreciated ers arrived late Tuesday evening and Easter offering to the hospital when they contributed the following list of commodities, all of which are ac-The people of Bellefonte will have knowledged with gratitude by the inan opportunity, on Sunday evening, stitution:

Easter Offering of the School Children

Fifty-one dozen and five eggs, 2 loaves loftiest tone, produced in a finished glasses jelly, 43 oranges, 5 dozen apples, 1 nias. grapefruit, 4 qt. chow chow, 3 lbs. sugar, 1 jar peanut butter, 1 jar mixed pickle, 1 pound baking powder, 6 cans corn, 11 cans Religion has always gone hand in hand with art. Religious emotion was peas, 5 cans soup, 2 cans cocoa, 5 cans the source from which sprang the beauty of Gothic architecture. "Those baked beans, 2 lbs. dried corn, 3 lbs. rice, 2 boxes tapioca, 2 bars wool soap, ½ lb. tea. 1 lb. coffee 3 lbs cornstant 1 of poems in stone" which adorn the con- plum butter, 8 qt. peaches, 2 jars apple sauce, 16 qts. cherries, 9 qts. peas, 13 qts. the same ennobling inspiration. As plums, 8 qts. tomatoes, 1 qt. huckleberries, religion deals with God and the things 3 qts. raspberries, 1 qt. beets, 1 qt. pineof God the music developed by it has apple, 1 qt. canned milk, 2 qts. crabapples, come through the centuries of Catho- 3 qts. string beans, 6 bu. potatoes.

Threshermen's Meeting.

An idea of that wealth of beauty The Centre county Threshermen and may be obtained by hearing this choir Farmers' Protective association will Sunday evening. Its leader, Dr. Pe-ter McAneny, obtained his musical meet in the grand jury room in the court house, on Saturday, April 26th, education in Italy, studying under a at 10 o'clock a. m. Reports from the teacher by whom most of the present State convention will be heard and other important business considered, so that a full attendance is desired. William Askey Killed in Coal Mine. The present situation in regard to boiler inspection will be explained and William Askey, a former resident this work arranged for.

The Pennsylvania Threshermen and Farmers' Mutual Casualty Insurance company will also report on the splen-

-The special benevolent Eas-

OTHER ACTIVITIES AT THE Y.

A spring and summer program has a County Fair to be conducted the ing contest for the boys of Bellefonte. Rules of the game for the contest will be published shortly.

Gilbert Shope and Ross Aplin attended the older boys' conference at State College last week. They went as delegates from the Hi-Y club. Seventy-five boys attended the conference, which was declared the best of |ler.

sale, conducted at the Y. M. C. A., The children of the North and South | this year, was a tremendous success were on display on Wednesday. The flowers brought a ready sale and on third of the flowers were disposed of. bread, cake chocolate, 15 boxes cereal, 14 third consignments of lilies and bego-sition to meet the balance of their pledge, which they made to the Y. M. C. A. two years ago. This is causing them great rejoicing and they thank the public for their patronage and as-

WHAT THE GIRLS ARE DOING.

Roast Chicken Supper.

The ladies of the Lutheran church will serve a roast chicken supper in very appropriate. Immediately folthe Kirks on Sunday.

-See "Birth of a Nation." 17-1t spirit of this happy occasion.

lowing the ceremony a delicious wedding breakfast was served and later Mr. and Mrs. Torrens left by motor car for a wedding trip which will include Baltimore and Washington. They will locate at Perry, N. Y., where both are instructors in the High school. Among the few guests present, in addition to Rev. and Mrs. Torrens, was the bridegroom's sister, Mrs.

Elmer Wheeler, of Clifton Springs, New York. Witmer-Meyer.-Morrie E. Witmer, son of Clay Witmer, and Miss Nellie E. Meyer, a daughter of William Meyer, of College township, were married at the Reformed parsonage at Boalsburg at three o'clock on Tuesday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. S. C. Stover, the ring ceremony being used. There were no attendants. A reception was tendered the young people at the bride's home on Tuesday evening. They will begin their married life on the farm of the bridegroom's father, in Buffalo Run valley.

Three Creditors to Substitute in the Centre County Bank Case.

In pursuance with the Supreme caurts' decree published last week attorneys for the creditors of the Centhe County Banking Company will ask to have three creditors, W. J. Emerick and Roy Wilkinson, of this place and Howard Holzworth, of Unionville admitted as parties to the litigation. According to plans now prepared a petition will also be presented aiming to change the whole nature of the proceeding.

Baseball-Double Header.

Tomorrow afternoon on Hughes field two Academy teams will mee visiting opponents.

At 1:30 the Lemont High schoo team will face the Academy second string.

At 3:30 the Bucknell Reserves wil

An afternoon of good baseball i offered for one admission, 50 cents.

-Fire and Lightning insuranc at a reduced rate.-J. M. Keichline. 69-7-12t

"Birth of a Nation," April 25 17-1

Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co Wheat Shelled Corn - -Oats Barlev Buckwheat - the three conferences held. Charles Stine was appointed second vice president of the conference for next year. | was in Bellefonte Saturday looking after THE Y FLOWER SHOW AND SALE A SUCCESS. The second annual flower show and large variety and high quality of the | and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Crain, of Altoo-Wednesday, the opening day, one- Nolan, of Tyrone; John Shaughnessy, of It was necessary to order second and of South Charleston, W. Va.; Miss Mary

The Y. W. C. A. will now be in posistance.

The members of Mrs. Robert Walker's girls' gymnasium class will give a demonstration of their class work and recreative games to their friends on Monday evening, April 28th, at 8 tion will close the class for this sea-

The Bellefonte Choral Society will leys will be kept open as long as any member of the family party entertained by -Dr. Francis, of Altoona, and Rev. Downes, of Tyrone, were both house guests of Miss Mary and Henry Linn, while Dr. been outlined by the secretary and Daubenspeck, of Huntingdon, was enterapproved by the board, which includes tained by Mr. and Mrs. James L. Potter, during their visit to Bellefonte for the infirst week in May, and a marble shoot- stallation of Rev. W. C. Thompson, in the Presbyterian church, last night.

> and the latter's daughter, Miss Alice, stopped here for a few hours Monday, on the return drive to Johnstown, from Mifflinburg, where Alice had been spending her Easter vacation with members of Mrs Lambert's family. Mrs. Lambert is well known in Bellefonte as Mrs. Robert Sech-

-Mrs. L. L. Lambert, with Mr. Lambert

-Jack Kelley, among the well known older farmers in the vicinity of Curtin, some business relative to his leaving the farm. Mr. Kelley's plans at present are for going to Orviston this week to make his home with his youngest son. Ill health and inability to look after the farm himself, compels him to make this change.

-Those from out of town here for the funeral of the late Thomas Shaughnessy, Tuesday, were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crain, na; Mr. and Mrs. John Nolan and Gerald Fairmont, Indiana; Thomas Shaughnessy, Shaughnessy of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. William Shaughnessy, Mr. and Mrs. Kelley and Edward Flynn, of Lock Haven.

-Mrs. William Derstine has returned from a three week's stay with her son, Frank M. Derstine and his family, at Juniata, while Mrs. Derstine was in New Hampshire, called there by the death of her mother and the illness of her father, Samuel Donachy. Mr. Danachy was recently brought to Williamsport, to be under the care of Dr. George Klump, but owing to the doctor's critical illness he was taken to Altoona, where he is at present with his daughter, Mrs. Derstine.

-Miss Mary Staples Chambers, the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Chambers, has been spending the Easter vacation in the hospital, convalescing from a tonsil operation. Miss Chambers is a Sophomore at Penn State and was recently elected vice president of the student counson and will give the parents and cil of women, which represents three hunthe year, owing to the absence of the first team. president. The unsolicited election to the office is a great compliment to Miss Chambers, both as to her popularity and scholastic standing.

-Charles G. Haines, of Wilkinsburg, was back to his old home to spend Easter with his mother, Mrs. Mary Haines, of north Water street. His son Charles David, who is working in the Susquehanna silk mills at Sunbury, met him here and 26. Popular prices. with his daughter Miss Margaret, they had a lovely family reunion. The big feature was the Easter dinner, to which Mrs. Adam Waite was invited. Mrs. Waite is 83 and Mrs. Haines is 83 years old. They were girls together and both are so vigorous in mind and body now that neither Rye one had to take a back seat for the younger folks when it came to entering into the

of their mission station in Japan.

"Birth of a Nation."-Return at popular prices. Matinees 2:30 daily at Scenic, prices, 17-28c. Nights, opera house, 7 and 9 p. m., price, 17 and 33c. Friday, Saturday, April 25-26. 17-1t ative games. Admission 25 cents.

has been giving them in body building, corrective gymnastics and recre-

friends of the girls an opportunity to dred girls. She will, however, fill the office see the excellent training Mrs. Walker of the president during the remainder of take the field against the Academ:

o'clock. The girls have been doing excellent work under Mrs. Walker's leadership and have taken much interest in the class. This demonstra-