Through Wasser's correspondence while in prison the penitentiary officials knew of a girl near Greenville with whom the convict was on very friendly terms and immediately after his escape Greenville police were notified to watch for him. And the girl proved to be the magnet which drew him into the police dragnet. He reached her home on Wednesday night and was arrested Thursday morning. He was brought to Bellefonte on Saturday and on Monday morning Judge Quigley sentenced him to serve his old term and an additional term of three to six years.

This Should be a Good Year for Fruit.

Last year at this time many fruit trees, especially the early varieties, were in full bloom but, unfortunately, the buds had been blighted by a heavy fall of snow on April 13th and the result was a small crop of early fruit home grown strawberries, etc., though the later varieties of apples, cherries, etc., provided a fair crop. This year all kinds of fruit trees are unusually late in blossoming, occasioned by the continued cold weather during March and the early part of April, and now that we have entered the month of May the probabilities are that we have passed the danger ---The legal practice of the late period for frosts or freezing weather, and likewise the possibility of danger snakes on 'the switch-back' to take in- taken over by ex-Judge Singleton to the fruit trees when they do come to Bellefonte. CONSTABLE GILLETTE DEAD. Passed Away at Lock Haven Hospital on Tuesday Morning.

Deputy constable Hugh H. Gillette, of Snow Shoe township, died at the Lock Haven hospital on Tuesday morning as the result of a fractured skull sustained by being hit on the head with a pick by Frank Auman, on the evening of April 3rd, while in the performance of his duties as a truant officer of that township, and the result will be a murder trial at the next term of Centre county court.

The fact will be recalled that on the evening in question Gillette went to the home of Stiney Shall for the purpose of serving a warrant for the Kline remained to continue her visit durarrest of that gentleman for failure to send his children to school.
