PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

Ground has been broken here for the erection this summer of three new houses.

The Goheen sisters are now snugly fixed up for the summer in their new bungalow.

Mrs. Ralph Wolker and Col. D. W. Miller are both recovering from their recent illness.

Wray Reed and wife and C. L. Corl and wife spent Sunday evening with friends at Rock Springs.

Some of our push-ahead farmers are planting corn while others have not yet got their oats in.

Thomas Wagner and family and Fred Corl, of Juniata, are spending a few days with friends in the valley.

Madeline Harpster, of the Glades, is at the John Reed home assisting Mrs. Reed, who is not in the best of health.

The young Americans are now running at large following the close of very successful school terms in this vicinity.

Our road supervisors have engaged the services of Miller and Koch to put the township roads in good shape for the summer.

Members of the Reformed church here gave a farewell reception to Rev. Stover last Thursday evening.

The local play in the I. O. O. F. hall last Friday and Saturday evenings yielded net returns of $136.00.

Miss Maude Miller has gone to Chester to teach in the public schools. Having been a teacher in this township for a number of years she has proven her ability as an instructor.

Some fifty members of the family clan invaded the J. T. Reed home last Saturday evening to make merry with that estimable gentleman over the celebration of his 74th birthday.
