

STATE DEMOCRATIC DELEGATES NAMED.
Four Women Receiving Highest Votes Win, Though Three Men Got More.

The complete vote for the seventeen candidates for delegates-at-large to the Democratic National convention, cast at the State primary April 22, was determined on Saturday with the computation at Harrisburg of official returns from the sixty-seven counties in Pennsylvania.

The four men who received the highest vote among the ten men candidates and the four high women of the seven women aspirants will be chosen, according to Austin E. McCollough, Democratic State chairman.

The high men and their vote were: Jacob H. Mays, Berks, 75,217; Lewis C. Cassidy, Philadelphia, 68,811; John A. McSparran, Lancaster, 63,546; Charles B. Lenahan, Luzerne, 57,650.

The four high women and their vote follows: Mary E. Herbert, Lehigh, 66,569; Anna M. Roesch, Northampton, 59,239; Maide B. Renshaw, Allegheny, 58,579; May R. Lenny, Delaware, 49,330.

The returns show three men received higher totals than the lowest cast for the four high women, but under the State chairman's ruling will not be delegates-at-large. They were: John A. Farwell, Chester, 56,187; John J. "Butch" McDevitt, Luzerne, 54,325; Joseph Howley, Allegheny, 53,870.

The vote for other candidates on the ticket follows: A Wright Bigler, Clearfield, 47,026; George R. McLean, Luzerne, 45,172; Andrew R. Brodbeck, York, 40,667; Gertrude S. Ely, Montgomery, 33,105; Marie A. O'Connell, Philadelphia, 46,954; Edith B. Allen, Lycoming, 43,206.

Pinafore by Radio at State College.
 Central Pennsylvania radio enthusiasts have some special musical treats in store for next week from the station at The Pennsylvania State College.

"Pinafore," the comic opera that was rendered so successfully at the College by student talent last week, will be reproduced especially for a radio audience on next Monday evening, May 19th, beginning about 8:30 or 8:45 p. m., eastern standard time. On the following Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, T. H. Barritt, of Washington, D. C., a well known baritone soloist will give a two hour musical entertainment featured by cathedral chimes, vocal selections and instrumental offerings on a "musical saw," oboe, saxophone and water glasses. He is a professional entertainer and has been heard from many of the larger stations in the country.

The comic opera "Pinafore," following its presentation at the college last Thursday, was characterized as the best musical entertainment ever given by student talent at the College. The coaching and staging effects showed up so well as to make the presentation interesting from start to finish. The work of its principals who will broadcast on Monday was especially commendable. These include Messrs. Bauder, Finley, Butler and Eschenbach, and the Misses Betty Croll, Dorothy Brandon and Adeline Buehn.

The War Department has notified State College authorities that Lieut. Col. Clenard McLaughlin, will be assigned to the College as commandant, effective the first of September, while Capt George L. Febiger, who has been in charge since 1920, will be transferred to the infantry school at Fort Benning, Ga.

Miss Rebecca Yerger last week resigned her position as secretary at the Bellefonte High school building and on Monday morning went to work in the First National bank, filling the vacancy caused by the death of the late Nevin E. Cole.

Just a week ago yesterday it started to rain and while there have been occasional glimpses of the sun since there has not been a twelve hour period in the entire seven days and nights without showers.

A little daughter, the fifth in the family, was born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. James Saylor, of this place.

When Senator Couzens recovers his health the Treasury investigation will be resumed and Pinchot will have an inning.

$223 were realized from the rummage sale, held Wednesday, in the Undine hose house.

Mrs. George A. Beezer is a surgical patient in the Bellefonte hospital.

CENTRE HALL.

Our Doctor, H. H. Longwell, was called to the funeral of his father, at Clarion, Pa.

Prof. N. L. Bartges and family, of Avis, visited among old friends for a few days last week.

J. H. Breen was taken to the Bellefonte hospital on Monday. His condition was so serious that all his children were called home. As he has improved somewhat, most of the children have returned to their respective homes.

Mrs. Ruth Thomas Reitz was called home by the serious condition of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Thomas, who fell from a step-ladder last week, injuring herself very severely. Mrs. Thomas, who is in the hospital at Bellefonte, is improving slowly.

..Scenic Theatre..
 Two Weeks-Ahead Program
 SATURDAY, MAY 17:
 NEAL HART in "BELOW THE RIO GRANDE," is a fine western melodrama, played along the Mexican border, that has its western thrilling stuff. Also, 2 reel Educational Comedy, always good.
 MONDAY, MAY 19:
 EDMUND LOVE in "THE SILENT COMMAND," is a ten reel first genuine American navy picture produced, and is a dandy all through. Interesting, appealing and thrilling. The hero awakens deep sympathy when he sacrifices his love for his family for good of nation. Don't miss this. Also, Pathe News and Topics.
 TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, MAY 20 AND 21:
 Special cast in "IF WINTER COMES," an eight reel drama from the book by that name, with Gladys Leslie, Percy Normont, Sydney Herbert and others. A story revolving around a hero who is accused of the death of a young woman and her fatherless baby. Suspected of being father he goes insane but later recovered and innocence is proven. Also, 2 reel Educational Comedy.
 THURSDAY, MAY 22:
 JOHN GILBERT in "CAMEO KIRBY," is an adaptation of the old play and unfolds in Old South. Deals with hero preventing a gambler from ruining an old Colonel, with a love romance running through. Fine old southern scenery. A good picture. Also, Pathe News and Review.
 FRIDAY, MAY 23:
 HERBERT RAWLINSON in "JACK OF CLUBS," an Irish comedy drama with many funny scenes and a fight or so. A young Irish policeman falls in love. Also, 10th episode of "THE GHOST CITY."

Opera House.
 FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, MAY 16 AND 17:
 GENEVIEVE TOBIN in "NO MOTHER TO GUIDE HER," a human drama of life's pitfalls. A story with a strong human appeal. Also, 2 reel Comedy.
 SATURDAY, MAY 24:
 BEBE DANIELS in "THE HERITAGE OF THE DESERT," a six reel good western melodrama that arouses and retains interest all through. Some thrills, Noah Beery as villain is fine. Also, to reel Comedy.
