NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-A reception will be held in the Presbyterian chapel this (Friday) evening for the church's new pastor, Rev. William C. Thompson, and his family. All members are urged to attend.

-The degree team of the Bellefonte camp Knights of the Golden Eagle went over to Centre Hall, last Thursday evening, to confer the third degree upon a good sized class of novitiates.

-The Senior class of the Howard High school, consisting of eight members, was in Bellefonte Tuesday having their class picture and individual pictures taken, preparing for their commencement next month.

-Hugh Quigley has leased the house on east Linn street to be vacated the latter part of the month by Rev. T. W. Young and wife, in anticipation of his marriage next month to Miss Reynolds, of Lancaster.

-Pity the many daddies in Bellefonte who will be dragged down to the railroad on Sunday morning by their little boys just to see the circus unload. And likely some of the mammas will have to go along, too.

-The first testimony for the abandonment of the Millheim turnpike was taken before the viewers appointed on the case last Saturday, adjournment being made until June 4th and 5th to complete the work.

-Monday was the date set for the taking of further testimony in the condemnation proceedings brought by the Bellefonte school board against the old Bellefonte Gas and Steam Heating company, but owing to the fact that Hon. Ellis L. Orvis was ing was continued until a later date.

-The advance agent for the Sam Spencer shows was in Bellefonte this week making arrangements for a Monday. The shows will be held on the Witmer lot on east Bishop street, adjoining Hughes field. It is also reported that the Harry Copping shows will be in Bellefonte in the near future for a week's stand.

-A two days' session of the northern conference of the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the United Lutheran churches was held in Lock Haven last week, Rev. J. F. English, of Pine Grove Mills, being elected president of the conference and Rev. F. H. Daubenspeck, of Aaronsburg, treasurer. Among the speakers were Dr. C. T. Aikens, of Selinsgrove, and Dr. W. M. Rearick, of Mifflinburg.

-The Johnstown Ledger, established three years ago as a competitive morning paper to Warren Worth Bailey's Johnstown Democrat, was absorbed by the latter paper on Tuesday of last week. During the past year or more Edward L. Gates, a former Bellefonte newspaper man, had been telegraph editor on the Ledger and two days after that paper ceased to function he went to work in a similar capacity for the Democrat.

-A very pitiable case in Bellefonte is that of eleven year old Mary Bowersox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bowersox, who has been housed up the past two months with a most severe attack of rheumatism. At first her legs were so badly affected that she could hardly walk and now it is her hands that trouble her most. She suffers considerable pain and can Philip Ray, Mahlon Robb, Eleanor Sheffer, creek. hardly sleep at night, but her parents hope that when the weather becomes settled she will improve more rapidly.

-The arrival in Bellefonte early in the week of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shaughnessy Jr., of Philadelphia, was the first intimation most of his friends had that he had become a benedict, though he is now almost in the class of "an old married man," as his wedding dates back to the first of last December. His bride prior to her marriage was Miss Marion Wilt, of Mill Hall, but who for several years past has been teaching school in Philadelphia, and it was this fact that led the young couple to keep their marriage a secret until quite recently.

-On Monday evening Jerry Owens motored in Pine street and just as he turned the crest of the hill to make the turn down Spring street he discovered that he had lost his starter crank. Stopping the car he jumped out and ran back to hunt the crank. While thus engaged the car started down grade, and with nobody to steer it, ran onto the James I. McClure property, knocking down the fence, breaking off a small horse chestnut tree and wrecking a flower bed. Mr. Owens secured the Chemical Lime company bus to pull his car back onto the street.

-Bulletin No. 20 of Kerlin's Grand View poultry farm at Centre Connelly, having come down out of Hall reached this office on Tuesday Nittany mountain to his home on fremorning, only a few hours after we stood at the Pennsylvania railroad exchanged for gold. Her grandfather thing that will save them the trouble depot and inspected a shipment of did not know until some time after of running all over the big field for apple and was munching the latter thousands of young chicks having their last trip to his home who his been shipped from that place on Mon- strange visitors had been. day morning, and we were constrained to look back to the days of our notorious highwaymen of that period childhood when chicken farms were he recalled that their actions had been an unknown quantity and the only more or less suspicious, since they kind of incubators in existence the always came and went through Mcold clucking hen. Of course the little Bride's Gap and along the foot of the perform which inventive genius has more traveled highway. not yet been able to take from her, but when it comes to poultry farms and their mission in furnishing eggs thank her many friends for the kindand young chicks the Kerlin farm is ness shown during her late bereavetre county.

NEWS.

Teachers Elected for Ensuing Year. Commencement Program.

At a recent meeting of the Bellefonte school board teachers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: High School.

Arthur H. Sloop, Supervising Principal. Earl K. Stock, Principal and Mathemat-

Ellis Keller, History and Social Science. John F. Gilston, Latin and Ancient His-

Harry C. Menold, Manual Training. Wallace M. Ward, Science. Mrs. Daisy B. Henderson, Commercial. Alice B. Lewis, English. Josephine Hollingsworth, French and

Biology. Helen Mackey, Home Economics. Verna Ardery, Home Economics and commercial. (Director of Athletics and Mathematics

not yet selected.) Henrietta Sebring, English and Secre

Bishop Street Building. Ethel Crider, First Grade. Annie McCaffrey, Second Grade. Helen Harper, Third Grade. Grace Johnson, Fourth Grade. Edith Ashe, Sarah McGarvey, Genevieve Ricker and Ella Levy, Departmental Grades V-VIII.

Allegheny Street Building. Esther Hafner, First Grade. Mrs. Hilda Leathers, Second Grade. Henrietta Quigley, Third Grade. Mary Underwood, Fourth Grade. Carrie Weaver, May Taylor and two Grades V-VIII.

Mrs. Alberta Krader, Supervisor of Mu

The annual commencement will be held June 1st to 4th inclusive, the baccalaureate sermon to be preached by Rev. M. DePui Maynard in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening, June 1st, at 7:30 o'clock.

The Junior oratorical contest for o'clock. An admission of 15 cents inferentially. will be charged and the following con-Shoemaker, Rose Carpeneto, Mary Elizabeth Sloop, Betty Zerby, Gale Washington. Mitchell. The High school orchestra Dear Sir: will furnish the music.

On Tuesday morning, June 3rd, the musical play in the Moose Temple theatre entitled "Daddy Long Legs."

On Wednesday morning, June 4th, the Allegheny street grade pupils will give a musical play in the High school including that of the right of the Adauditorium and the same evening the ministrator to continue this proceedannual commencement exercises will ing in bankruptcy. be held in the auditorium. The com-mencement address will be delivered by Rev. Frazer Metzger, chaplain at State College, and later the prizes the Bellefonte school board.

follows:

Brown, Mildred Brown, James Carpeneto, of the bridge, Nelma Clevenstine, May Crider, Mildred Martha Geiss, Thomas Gross, Edgar Grove, Sara Haag, Elizabeth Hazel, Virginia Healy, Elizabeth Hunter, Russell Jodon, Kathryn Johnston, Mary Katz, Marion Kline, Dorothy Knisely, Margaret Longwell, Jane Miller, William Nichols, Thurston Smith, Louise Taylor, Anna Wagner, William Waite, Margaret Way, Nellie Wolfe, Jack Yeager and Regina Yerger, all of Bellefonte.

Alice Bauder, Sarah Holt, Clair Parsons LeRoy Resides, of Fleming. Herman Bennett, Samuel Harshbarger, of Port Matilda. Samuel Furl, Ralph Poorman, of Run-Kelsey Harvey, of New Hope.

Vera Hile, Ray Ishler, Margaret Keller, Miles Margarel, Beatrice Noll, Leonard Peters, of Pleasant Gap. Alice Leathers, Benjamin Sheets, of Howard

Willis McClellan, Verna Peters, of Miles Edward Myers, Nell Williams, Orlando

Williams, Julian. Myra Solt, Zion. Gertrude Richards, Martha Furnace,

The Lewis and Connelly Stories Interested Her.

Writing generally of her appreciation of the "Watchman," Mrs. J. B. Smith, of Grand Island, Nebraska, states that she was specially interested in the stories of "Lewis the Robber," which the "Watchman" recently published through the courtesy of grandfather, who lived between Pleas- his own expense, a batter's net and Cleveland at 9:20 o'clock in the morn- stating that the town is much improved ant Gap and Lauvertown, now called placed it on Hughes field for the use Peru, tell of Lewis, and sometimes of all ball players in Bellefonte. quent occasions to have paper money the amateur Babe Ruths have some-

After he learned that they were the brown hen still has certain duties to mountain to his place and not over the live than ever. With this permanent one of a number of good ones in Cen- ment, and for the service rendered in giving cars for the funeral.

Up in the Supreme Court.

Much to the disappointment of all concerned the Supreme Court of the United States failed to hand down an opinion or decree on Monday morning that would loosen a few of the tangles in the Centre County bank case.

As has been reported in the papers previously, aside from a decision on the main questions involved, there was injected into the case an applicathe purpose of carrying on the proceedings.

Also three creditors, W. J. Emerick, Howard Holzworth and Roy Wilkinson, petitioned the court for permission to intervene in the proceed-

The expectation was that the Court would act on these later petitions without argument, both sides to the controversy having expressed the decountry's highest tribunal looks upon the matter in such a way that opportunity for argument should be afforded. For, on Tuesday, without an opinoriginal petition could not be amended

While the attorneys on both sides are more or less in doubt as to why more to be elected in the Departmental there should be another argument it seems to be the consensus of opinion man Wolf and was born at Coleville that the opportunity of new argument on April 29th, 1904, hence was 20 is offered for the purpose of discussing the administrator's right to be admitted and what rights invest in him if he is admitted.

been set for next November 10th. After it has been made the Court will probably clear up the collateral questhe Col. W. F. Reynolds prizes will be tions involved and later render its the funeral services which will be held held in the High school auditorium opinion on the main questions carried called out of town that day the hear- Monday evening, June 2nd, at 8:15 to it and not yet touched upon, except

The following letter from the Protestants will participate: William thonotary of the Supreme Court may Harvey, Henry Stere, John Emel, give you a clearer idea of the status week's stand here beginning next Clyde Smith, William Heinle, Mary of the proceeding than we have been

Washington, D. C., May 13, 1924.

I beg to inform you that the Court tober Term, 1923, advancing the cases for argument on Monday, November 10th next after the cases heretofore assigned for that day, on the issues

Hung Up on the Milesburg Bridge. About midnight, Tuesday, a Chev-

will be awarded and diplomas confer- rolet coupe owned by B. L. Van Dine, red by Dr. M. J. Locke, president of of State College, was badly wrecked when it hit the girder on the north end On Tuesday and Wednesday exhib- of the iron bridge spanning Bald Eaits in industrial art, manual training | gle creek at Milesburg. The machine and home economics will be open to hit the superstructure of the bridge the public at the High school building. with such force as to bend the brace The graduating class this year to- irons considerable, totally demolish tals sixty young men and women, as the body of the car, and wreck the engine and it recoiled in such a way as Louise Barnhart, Herbert Bilger, Helen to throw it crosswise on the driveway

The driver ascribes the accident to Deitrick, Ruth Deitrick, Mauvis Furey, his effort to avoid hitting a woman pedestrian just as he was entering the bridge. None of the four occupants of the car were hurt, though it was a miracle that they were not all immersed in the swollen waters of the

The identity of the woman who was walking on the highway at midnight has not been revealed.

Get Your Seats for the Minstrels.

Secure your seats next Monday at Mott's drug store for the Academy Minstrels. Their entertainment this year promises a rare treat. The dancing carnival in the second part will surely be worth the price of admission. Little Huberta Bernhardt, of Pittsburgh, will appear in three numbers. She is a wonder and will win the admiration of every one in the audience. Dances by young ladies and students will illustrate many types of to 3 o'clock. The Challis Collegians will furnish the music.

C. F. Tate Helps a Bit.

Possibly because he has raised a family of ball players and possibly the trip by airplane. because he is just a good fellow who their author, Mr. Frederic Godcharles. has always tried to do his part "Cor-Mrs. Smith recalls having heard her ny" Tate, the plumber, has built, at

A batter's net is a moveable backpassed balls there will probably be a lot more local players working into phia. the King of Swat class.

-The Last Resort tea room opened for patronage during the past week from San Francisco to Chicago, and in the old Garman dwelling house on High street. It is now more attractlocation, its unique decorations and furnishings and the excellent food al--Mrs. Nevin E. Cole wishes to ways served by Miss Valentine should make it the most popular tea room of townspeople themselves.

BELLEFONTE PUBLIC SCHOOL Centre County Bank Case Again Held ONE DEATH FROM TYPHOID FEVER EPIDEMIC.

Seven New Cases Under Treatment in the Bellefonte Hospital.

The first death to occur as the re- to return home today. sult of the typhoid fever epidemic at Coleville happened at one o'clock on of Pittsburgh, are in Bellefonte for a two Wednesday morning when Miss Helen Wolf, the twenty year old daughter of | Charles Lose, on east High street. Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Wolf, and who was the first to be stricken down with tion to have George H. Shugert, as the disease, passed away at the Bellehis administrator, substituted for his fonte hospital, where another sister father, the late John M. Shugert, for is also a patient. Two others are still in a very serious condition, Miss Pearl Leathers and Clarence Young.

Since the publication of the list of those ill in last week's paper seven additional cases have developed and ment. They are Clarence Young, son at their home on east Linn street. Thurman Davis, Charles Gettig, Miss Shaw arrived in Bellefonte Monday Cooper Davis, Mrs. Mary Evoch, Mrs. and will be here for several weeks. Anna Derstine and Nelson Grubb. Katherine Rote was taken to the hos- Mary Eberhart as a driving guest, motored sire that it should. Evidently the pital on Friday as a suspect but as to Millheim last Saturday evening, where the disease did not develop she was discharged on Sunday.

The additional cases developed during the week must not be taken as evion filed, the order was issued that idence that the source of the disease George H. Shugert should be permit- has not been overcome. They are ted to substitute on the record as ad- simply the result of the infection beministrator of his father, but that the fore the magnitude of the epidemic ed home the same day. developed, and it is possible there so as to permit creditors to intervene. may be more cases before the disease is overcome.

> Helen Wolf, the first victim, was a daughter of Fletcher and Eva Rossyears and 15 days old. All her life was spent at the place of her birth. In addition to her parents she is survived by two brothers and one sister, The date for this argument has Creighton and Leslie Wolf and Mrs. Anna Derstine. She also leaves one half-brother, Edward Green. Rev. Reed O. Steely will have charge of tomorrow morning at ten o'clock, burial to be made in the Bellefonte Union cemetery.

> Two Men Suffer Bad Injuries Last Friday.

William Keen, an employee of the On Tuesday morning, June 3rd, the Bishop street grade schools will give announced an order on yesterday en-tering the suggestion of death, and caught in one of the machines at the Friday, as the result of getting a play in the High school auditorium, and in the evening the pick of the Dramatic and Glee clubs will give a musical play in the Moose Temple of the cases of Meek, Dale and Breeze to the company's office to the cases of Meek, Dale and Breeze to the cases of Me contribution to the big hospital drive when he inadvertently got his hand caught in the machine and before it could be stopped the third and fourth fingers were so badly mutilated that they had to be amputated above the upper joint. In fact less than half an hour from the time he paid his hospital contribution he was taken to that institution to have his fingers amputated.

> SAMUEL BURROWS VICTIM OF GUN SHOT.

Samuel Burrows, who lives in the tenant house on the Brockerhoff farm, along the Jacksonville road, was also admitted to the hospital on Friday as the result of having his left hand completely torn away as the effects of a shot gun. Mr. Burrows was using the gun to shoot blackbirds which are proving an almost intolerable nuisance about the barn on the farm. He was on the point of putting the gun end of the barn. Quietly crawling to ed to get a shot but the bird was up and away before he could fire. Returning he was in the act of hanging the gun up on a nail under the overshoot, out of the way of the children, when the gun was discharged. Mr. Burrows had his left hand over the muzzle of the gun and the load of shot literally tore his hand to shreds above the wrist. Mr. Burrows is small children, so that his unfortunate injury is a most deplorable circumstance.

Secretary of Labor Davis Visits Bellefonte by Airplane.

Secretary of Labor James J. Davis. of President Coolidge's cabinet, spent attractive and amusing features. a half hour in Bellefonte on Saturday Don't forget the dates, Thursday and while enroute from Chicago to Phila-Friday, May 22nd and 23rd. The delphia, traveling from Cleveland, minstrel dance will take place in the Ohio, to the Quaker city by airplane. armory Friday night, May 23rd, 11 Secretary Davis was the chief speaker at a meeting in Chicago on Friday evening and was booked for a speech in Philadelphia on Saturday evening. It was impossible to get through by train so he traveled by railroad to Cleveland and made the balance of

The ship carrying the secretary was piloted by Paul F. Collins, one of the regular airmail pilots. It left ing and reached the Bellefonte aviation field at 11:30. A stop of one-half of any he saw on his trip east. hour was made in Bellefonte during down town and shown the big trout in Spring creek, got a sandwich and an when his ship took flight for Philadel-

Of course this wasn't the secretary's first flight through the air, as on a preferred traveling in the air to on the ground. He further stated that of all the States he had flown across there are none to equal old Pennsylvania for beautiful, diversified scenhome is now in Pittsburgh.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mrs. S. D. Burris, of Centre Hall, was guest last week of Daniel Eberhart and daughter, Miss Mary.

-Judge Henry C. Quigley is holding court in Pittsburgh this week, but expects

-Mrs. Harry Hazel and son Clarence, week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

-Miss Mabel Detling, who for a number of years has been assistant to A. C. Smith, in his tailor shop, resigned her position with Mr. Smith two weeks ago, to go with Montgomery & Co. -William Chambers went to West Ches-niece, Mrs. Josiah Darlington, who before her marriage last July, was Miss Helen Staples Chambers. -Miss Jessie Shaw, of New York city, were taken to the hospital for treat- is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Widdowter Tuesday, to attend the funeral of his

-Harry Bowersox and family, with Miss Mr. Bowersox looked after some business matters while the ladies visited with

-Mrs. C. H. Young and her two children, Evalyn and Jean are making a two week's visit with Mrs. Young's parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk. Mr. Young drove over Saturday with his family but return-friends.

-Miss Martha Conner, former assistant librarian of the Penn State library and for several years past a member of the staff of Carnegie Tech library, Pittsburgh, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Shattuck, at State College.

-Mrs. John Slack was discharged from the Bellefonte hospital Friday, and taken to her home in Centre Hall. Mrs. Slack entered the hospital the day after Christmas, being under treatment there since for a broken hip, and although not having entirely recovered, Mrs. Slack's condition is considerably improved.

-Miss Vivian V. Lutz and her sister, Mrs. Marion Coll, with the latter's daughter Virginia, were guests for the week-end of friends in Williamsport, and during their absence Mrs. Richard Lutz entertained a party of relatives from Altoona, which included John Ferguson, his son Belvadean, and Mrs. Laura Holderman.

-Mrs. Edward Shields with her two children and Mr. Shield's sister, Miss Theressa Shields, arrived in Bellefonte yesterday from Jackson, Miss., where Miss Shields had been with her brother's fam-Pennsylvania Match company, lost ily since October. Mrs. Shields and the two fingers on his right hand, last children will be here with the Galbraith and Shields families for some time.

-August Glinz, who spent the past year in Germany, returned to Bellefonte two weeks ago and this week is out in New Kensington looking after his property interests there. He will return to Bellefonte, however, as he is making an effort the shortest time that a new charter going to Los Angeles, Cal., for an indefinite sojourn.

-Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bible are preparing for a public sale of their household goods, to be held Saturday, May 31st. Immediately following the sale they will leave for Altoona, where they will make their home, their present plans being for occupying the apartment with Dr. and Mrs. and in order that the old Board might Bowes, the latter being Mr. and Mrs. Bi- not appear as having exclusively made younger son, Richard, went to Tyrone most active in the $100,000 drive Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. have been invited to offer such sug-Gray's cousin, Miss Judge. On Saturday gestions as they may have to present. morning Mr. and Mrs. Gray drove to Hazleton to spend several days helping Mrs. E. J. Harrington in her preparations for coming to Bellefonte the first of June, to make her home with the Gray family.

-A family home-coming to celebrate Mother's day with their mother was the happiest of events for the Shaughnessy family during the week. The party, in adaway when he saw a bird settle at one dition to those at home, was comprised of Miss Helen, of Wilkes-Barre; Mr. and Mrs. the corner of the building he attempt- Thomas Shaughnessy Jr., and Miss Anne, Hunter's Park. of Philadelphia, and John, of Boalsburg, Miss Helen remained home for a part of the week, while those from Philadelphia left Sunday evening, taking Mrs. Shaughnessy back east with them, where she will be their guest for several weeks.

-Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Miller, of Wil-Saturday afternoon, to spend the night ing, May 24th, starting at 10 o'clock. liamsport, motored up to Bellefonte on with relatives and friends here. They were and it was necessary to amputate it the guests, until their return on Sunday, ward wiping out the small debt still of Mr. and Mrs. Win Love. Before her married and has quite a family of marriage Mrs. Miller was Miss Pacini, a being a community project contribudaughter of the late John Pacini, so that tions toward the sale will be gratefulshe has three sisters living here, Mrs. ly received. Any one unable to take Love, Mrs. Edward Robb and Mrs. William Cunningham and her short stay was necessarily a very busy one seeing them all as well as some of her many other friends. Mr. Miller is in the employ of the Hermance Machine company in Williamsport and as real machinists are always busy finds little time to get away, except for week-ends.

-Harry Rine, who was born and spent the early years of his life in Bellefonte, was a visitor here over Monday night. He now lives at Gary, Ind., and last week motored east to Kane, Pa., where he left his wife and children while he took a run over to Bellefonte just to see how the old town is coming along. Harry left here in 1900 and the only time he has been back since then was fourteen years ago when he came here to attend the funeral of his brother, Samuel Rine, for many years superintendent of the town's water system. Naturally he sees many changes during the almost quarter of a century he has been away and he had no hesitation in and also one of the cleanest and best kept

-George H. Musser, a sturdy, life-long Democrat, who for many years has kept East Boggs practically in the Democratic column, was in Bellefonte on Saturday closing up his business affairs preliminary to his and Mrs. Musser's leaving early in the week for Lewisburg, West Virginia, where they will make their home with their son Ralph and wife. Mr. Musser has not been in good health for three years and conseformer occasion he was a passenger quently unable to look after his farm work. Three weeks ago he suffered what while in Bellefonte on Saturday he his physician diagnosed as a very slight told a "Watchman" reporter that he stroke and it was following that that he decided to acquiesce in his son's invitation to go and make his home with him. Consequently on Friday he made public sale of all his farm stock and machinery, as well as household goods and left for his son's home in the beginning of the this section of the country, both for ery. Mr. Davis lived for many years week. His farm in Boggs township is for visitors to the town and for the in Sharon, Mercer county, but his sale whenever the right purchaser can be Barley

-Mrs. H. Laird Curtin is visiting with her aunt, Miss Potter, at Ashbourne, Pa. -John P. Sebring is entertaining his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Woods Sebring, of Philadelphia.

-Mrs. R. Wyyn Davis, of Washington, Pa., arrived home Tuesday, called here to be with her mother, Mrs. L. H. Gettig, who is ill at her home on Thomas street.

-Mrs. David K. Hughes left for her home in Wilkes-Barre, Sunday, following a two week's visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Klinger, who took her as far as Williamsport in their car.

-Mrs. W. Miles Walker is east on a visit with her two daughters. Going directly to Trenton, N. J., the first part of her time will be spent with Mrs. Albert Numbers, expecting to stop in Philadelphia with her daughter, Miss Edrie on her way back

-Miss Helen Bartholomew, of Centre Hall, spent a good part of Monday in Bellefonte visiting the shops and calling on friends while waiting to have a new Chalmers car recently purchased by her and her brother, C. D. Bartholomey, properly adjusted and put in shape.

-Dr. R. M. Krebs, of Pine Grove Mills, made one of his rare visits to Bellefonte last Thursday afternoon. The Doctor has nothing against our town. He is merely so busy with his practice at home and so contended with life there that he is content and contentment, after all, is the real secret of a happy existence. -Mr. and Mrs. Frank Case and their two sons, who had been house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keichline since Saturday, left Wednesday for the return drive to their home in Kirkville, N. Y. Mrs. Keichline had anticipated motoring back with them, but was obliged to change her plans at the last minute and accompanied them only to Williamsport. Mr. and Mrs. Case have made a yearly visit to Bellefonte for several years.

Important Hospital Meeting Tonight.

While it will not be a public conference all those specially interested in the future of the hospital will be welcomed at the meeting of the Board that is scheduled for the arbitration room in the court house tonight at 8 o'clock.

The Board was in session three hours last Friday night planning, so far as it seemed advisable, for the application for a new charter, change of name and drafting a skeleton form of reorganization for submission to the conference tonight.

Kiwanis will be represented at this meeting and it has invited representatives from each division in which the drive was made to be present for counsel with the Board.

The form of government and aims of the corporation must be stated in the application for the charter and as to sell his property here in anticipation of can be legally granted will be approximately six weeks the present Board must function in order to properly open the way for its successor to come into being. The meeting tonight will be for discussion of such preliminary steps as plans that will bind any new one that -Mr. and Mrs. G. Oscar Gray and their might be chosen those who have been

Buffalo Run Road Under Improvement

Resurfacing and oiling of the high-way through the Buffalo Run valley has been under way for several weeks. It is completed from Centre Line to the Quaker church, and from Hunter's Park to Briarly. The next step will be the section from Bellefonte to

Don't use the Buffalo Run road for few days, if you can avoid it, for you will certainly have a lot of tar to clean off your car.

-A pure food sale will be held at the Variety shop on Saturday morn-The proceeds of this sale will go toagainst the community piano. This or send their contributions to the Variety shop can call Mrs. Charles E. Garbrick (Commercial phone) or Mrs. Benjamin Bradley (Bell phone), and arrangements will be made to call for their contributions.

-Main's show will be here next Monday but that will be entertainment for one day only while the Scenic offers amusement every evening in the week, that's one reason why you should patronize it regularly. Another reason is that no where in Bellefonte can you get the same quality of entertainment for the price. Be a regular and see all the good pictures.

For Sale.—One solid oak—side icer. porcelain-lined refrigerator, in perfect condition, and one white enameled child's crib. Inquire at this office.

-All kinds of household goods will be sold at public sale at the home of W. W. Bible, east Bishop street, Saturday, May 31st, at one o'clock 20-2t p. m.

For Sale.—Dockash stove, refrigerator and sewing machine.—Rev. T. W. Young.

-Fire and Lightning insurance

at a reduced rate.-J. M. Keichline. Bellefonte Grain Market.

Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co. Wheat $1.05 Shelled Corn Rye - -Oats Buckwheat