Bellefonte, Pa., May 23, 1924.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-A marriage license was issued at Hollidaysburg, on Tuesday to Patrick F. Torsell and Miss Pearl Breon, both of Bellefonte.

-Philipsburg people are making arrangements to entertain the county convention of the Christian Endeavor Society on Tuesday, June 3rd.

-A sale of Memorial day flowers will open Tuesday, May 27th, at Miller's hardware store, Bellefonte, and number of years past the Bellefonte ence Emenhizer, of Orviston; Mrs. Lodge of Elks will entertain the old Clarence Flack, of Port Matilda; Mrs. soldiers at dinner at their home on Carrie Hockman, of Bellefonte; Ray-High street, next Friday afternoon following the Memorial exercises.

five second hand Ford cars were sold Mrs. Fannie Emenhizer, of Yarnell; at the public sale held by the Beatty Mrs. Elizabeth Long, of Snow Shoe; Motor company last Saturday. A few Harry, Thomas, Joseph and John of the latest models brought fair Peece, of Coleville. prices but the majority went at ridiculously low figures. All the cars had Methodist church and Rev. E. E. Mcbeen put in good running order prior Kelvey will have charge of the funto the sale.

The circus has come and gone but the Scenic can be found at its regular place of business, dispensing its usually big programs of entertainment and amusement to its many regular patrons. Only the biggest and best motion pictures filmed are shown at the Scenic and if you want to see them all you must be a regular.

A. Landsy will be interested in learn- Rossman. Five new cases were ad- ed sufficient to convict the men of the ing that she has so far recovered mitted to the hospital this week, charge against them. from an operation she recently under- namely: Robert Davis, John Rosswent at the University hospital, Phil- man, Margaret Rodavick, Thurman adelphia, that she was able to be Davis and Mrs. Margaret Young. moved to her mother's home in that This makes a total of twenty-two city last week; and will probably re- cases admitted up to Wednesday noon. turn to Bellefonte early in June.

Pennsylvania State College will hold pital at that time, but two other cases a reception dance in honor of the Penn have likely been taken to the hospital State baseball team in the Logan by this time which will make a total room of the Penn-Alto hotel, Altoona, of twenty there and twenty-four all Monday evening, May 26th. Gieg's told as the result of the epidemic. Rainbow orchestra will furnish the It is the worst siege of typhoid ever scription will be $2.00 per couple.

those who attend.

to his home on east High street. Heart affection was assigned as the cause for concern on the part of the members of his family and friends.

tor with offices in the Cohen building from the Bellefonte spring. on High street, has leased the apartments in the McClure building, on days since the source of the infection Bishop street, to get possession June has been destroyed it is likely that the 1st. The doctor has just returned epidemic has almost run its course from a trip to the eastern part of the and few new cases are likely to de-State and rumor has it that he is to velop. become a benedict in the near future, the young lady who will add to his happiness being Miss Esther Green, of Media.

---Miss Martha Haines has tendered her resignation as stenographer has been an established activity in in the office of the American Lime & Stone company, effective June 1st, in many years past, and as the very defithe home of the bride's mother, Mrs. cleanliness have been made apparent, tion in New York city.

The Woman's club will give a all walks of life. benefit card party at the Meek resi- Bellefonte will entertain many buyfive hundred and flinch will be played as the cleanest, livest and most prosand an admission of 35 cents charged. perous community in the entire State of room used for the State chest clin- believe will be overlooked. ic on Tuesday afternoons and, in adnity project.

-John W. McKelvey, of Belle-fonte, has been elected a member of the Student Senate at Dickinson Colthe Student Senate at Dickinson Col-merchants believe is in store for this while the other one is now home on a lege, where he is a member of the Sophomore class. McKelvey was chosen as the representative of the Sigma Chi fraternity on the student in governing body of the College by a popular student vote. This is one of the highest elective honors conferred by the student body at Dickinson and carries with it considerable responsibility. McKelvey has been active in a number of organizations.

son of sports and hikes the Hi-Y boys fectively, and the danger of unsani- Mr. Clevenstine's mother, of Hublersheld a closing banquet last night, the tary conditions returning is removed. burg; Mrs. Nitschman, a sister of only social event in which the mem- Civic cleanliness and paintliness bers have indulged. Their guests in- means a lowered fire risk, increased cluded their leaders and men from sanitation, and a better place in State College who have given them which to live and work. some very instructive talks during the season of their activity. The members are taking an interest in the were among the crowd in Bellefonte foreign Y. M. C. A. work for boys and on Monday for the afternoon performat their last meeting voted to contrib- ance of the Walter L. Main show, evute twenty dollars towards the cause. idence that the great majority of A refreshment booth was conducted them were too busy trying to get their on circus day to help raise money for spring crops in the ground to take

ANOTHER VICTIM OF TYPHOID EPIDEMIC.

Mrs. William Young, of Coleville, Passed Away Wednesday Morning.

The typhoid fever epidemic at Coleville and vicinity resulted in another death at 2:15 o'clock on Wednesday morning when Mrs. Margaret N. Young, wife of William Young, passed away at the Bellefonte hospital. She had been ill for almost three weeks but was not taken to the hospital until Tuesday, when her condition was regarded as extremely critical.

She was a daughter of Thomas and Mary Peece and was born in Milesburg forty-seven years ago. In addicontinue throughout the week. 21-1t tion to her husband she is survived by -As has been their custom for a the following children: Mrs. Flormond, James, George, Clarence, Clarice and Betty, all at home. She also -In the neighborhood of thirty- leaves two sisters and four brothers, > Mrs. Young was a member of the eral services which will be held at one o'clock this afternoon, burial to be made in the Meyers cemetery.

The death of Mrs. Young is the sec-With two deaths and two patients -The Blair county club of The discharged left eighteen in the hos-music for the dancing which will be known in Centre county and is entire- crowd was present during the even- with a son and daughter at large, all from nine until one o'clock. The sub- ly ascribable to the fact that so many people had used the water from the the standard, some of the acts being -Boy Scouts of Troop No. 1 will infected springs before the disease depresent a play entitled "The Boy Who veloped. But the promptness and Went," together with two short farces thoroughness with which the local Sunbury, reaching here about seven shows the boys have put on the past fected. In a recent issue the "Watchenjoyable sort of evening in store for namite of the concrete reservoir used state highway, near the show grounds. as a supply for Collins' Row, but the This was not only much more conven-The venerable Daniel Eberhart authorities were not content to stop lient for the show management but there. They secured the service of a kept all the noise and bustle off the became quite ill while attending servtraction engine and connecting a streets of Bellefonte. However, many ices at the Lutheran church on Sunday morning and had to be removed steam through the entire system for putting up of the various tents. a period of five hours. Great quantiwith the Coleville water line and since then the people living at that place ing spectacles of the show. -Dr. W. C. Shuster, chiroprac- have had the benefit of the water

Inasmuch as it is now about twenty

Let Us be One of Them.

The clean up and paint up campaign now being waged all over the country, more than 7,000 American cities for anticipation of her marriage a week nite advantages of improved sanitalater to L. F. Lindenmuth, of Allen- tion, lower fire risk, and increased town. The wedding will take place at beauty and pleasantness of civic M. H. Haines, on east Curtin street. the campaign has grown in scope and Mr. Lindenmuth is a graduate of State importance. It has done this because College and now holds a good posi- it enlists the active interest and cooperation of citizens of all classes in which the public is invited. Bridge, opportunity to establish a reputation dition to a pleasant evening, your clean up and paint up Bellefonte in- three girls and three boys. Two of presence will contribute to a commu- doors and out. To do away with filth, the young ladies are graduate nurses

----After a rather interesting sea- follow-up work can be carried on ef-

---Comparatively few farmers time off for a circus.

Flowers for Memorial Day.

Miss Jennie Morgan announces that today and tomorrow she will have on display at her store in the new Hevgardens.

The Women's Auxiliary af the Y. M. C. A. will put on a sale of flowers for Memorial day. The first shipment will arrive and be on sale on Satur-Easter, and satisfaction and prices are guaranteed. The supply consists of the following: Ivy geranium, hydrangeas, heliotrope, fuchia, geraniums, small begonias, ferns, vinca vines, lantanas.

eral Court.

arrested in February on complaint of | Sheriff Taylor had traced his where--Bellefonte friends of Mrs. M. on Wednesday morning, and John court that his evidence was not deem- next week.

> special Friday and Saturday at $1.00 Edward, illegitimate sons of Anne, per pair. Sim, the Clothier.

Walter L. Main Show Well Attended.

has always been a favorite in Belle- munity it means $800 a year for keep- Mr. Bange and their two sons, Frank will go to Madisonburg tomorrw, as has fonte, proved its ability as a drawing ing two boys in Glens Mills, $800 for attraction last Monday, when the big keeping two women in Laurelton, the top was completely filled at the after- board of an inmate of the penitentiary noon performance and a fair-sized for three years, and the elder Parks ing. Both performances were up to serious menaces. Some notorious especially fine and daring.

The show came to Bellefonte from service pipes at that place forced live see the show unload and witness the cleaned a service pipe was connected cages and wagons were all spic and span and it proved one of the pleas-

A Happy Family Reunion.

A rather unique family reunion took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Clevenstine, over the City evening; unique because of the fact have never been blessed with any children of their own they played daddy and mamma to a number of boys and girls during their occupancy of the Pruner Orphanage and so well baseball team, one of the best in the did they live up to the adopted relationship that every one of the youngsters of those days are now young men and women widely esteemed in 1. On Saturday they played the return a year hence. their home localities. And that they continue to revere their foster "parents" is evidenced by the fact that overwhelming score of 18 to 1. every one of them made it a point to attend the reunion.

the afternoon which was chiefly de- urday and won the second place silver voted to an exchange of greetings, dence, west High street, tomorrow ers and visitors from out of town etc. At six o'clock dinner was served (Saturday) evening, May 24th, to within the next few months, and the and eighteen people sat down at one large table laden with every good thing imaginable. In the centre of while Gwinn broke the record in the the table, an immense cake bearing hammer throw. Welch was the high The Club is responsible for the rent is one that this newspaper does not the date "May 20th, 1924," in icing, formed the big decoration. And such The object of this campaign is to a happy time! Originally there were rubbish and unsightly, neglected prop- but one forsook her calling for a haperties. In short, to "dress up" the py matrimonial venture, while the furlough after a cruise in the West The clean up and paint up cam- Indies as a sailor on the U.S. ship paign not only puts the community Wyoming. Those who were present good sanitary condition, but at the gathering included Mr. and makes it possible to keep it clean. Mrs. H. E. Clevenstine, Miss Bertha Unless the work of cleaning up and Haverstine, of the Rahway (N. J.) ed. The election will be held on painting up is kept up by systematic hospital; Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Robbins, efforts the year around little perma- of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pornent good is accomplished. It is im- taris, with their baby Billie, of Coalportant that the initial intensive work port; Bruce Wilson and Stearl Gunbe general and thorough. Then the sallus, at home, and Harry Peters, of the U.S. navy. Other guests were Mrs. Clevenstine; William Weiler, wife and son, formerly of Hanover, and Rev. Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Schmidt.

> For Sale.—One solid oak—side icer, porcelain-lined refrigerator, in perchild's crib. Inquire at this office.

special Friday and Saturday at $1.00 per pair. Sim, the Clothier. 21-1t ize the tea room.

A Serious and Expensive Community Problem.

Edward Parks, fifteen years of age, who was committed to Glens Mills erly building a line of flowers, suita- about five weeks ago by Judge Quigble for Memorial day tributes. Also ley and who disappeared from his potted plants for window boxes and home at Mrs. Harry Turner's before 21-1t he could be taken there, was found by Sheriff Taylor, Tuesday night, hiding Y Women's Auxiliary to Sell Flowers. in the home of his grandfather, James Parks, in Brown Row, Bellefonte.

Two years ago when Edward's mother was committed to the home for incorrigible women at Muncy, her four children were taken in charge by day, May 24th. A splendid variety of the Children's Aid society and Edpotted plants has been ordered from ward was placed with Mrs. Turner, the firm which supplied the carload at where he had the best home he had ever known, was well clothed, sent regularly to school and Sunday school and was on a fair road to become a respectable young man. His grandparents, not contented with seeing the boy happy and well cared for, did everything possible to lure him back Stewart Brothers Acquitted by Fed- to them and finally connived to have him run away, which he did the night after his hearing before Judge Quig-In the federal court at Pittsburgh ley. In company with his uncle, he last week, a jury returned a verdict of walked to Beech Creek, arriving there not guilty in the case of Joseph and at three o'clock in the morning and Goldman Stewart, of Rush township, remained until last Sunday night charged with using the mails in a when he returned to Bellefonte and scheme to defraud. The men were was in hiding at his grandparents'.

Mike Patrick, who received several abouts to Beech Creek, thence to letters threatening him with violence Bellefonte and Tuesday evening went unless he deposited a sum of money out at ten o'clock to the Parks home at a designated place. George Stew- in Brown Row. The grandparents ond to occur since the outbreak of ty- art, step-son of Joseph Stewart, ad- stoutly denied that the boy was in the phoid fever three weeks ago, Miss mitted having written the letters but house but sheriff Taylor and chief of Helen Wolfe having died last week, alleged that he had been compelled to police Dukeman searched it and found and there are still three very serious do so by the two men. The lad is only Edward up stairs in bed with his uncases, Miss Pearl Leathers, Clarence fifteen years old and he proved such cle. He was arrested and taken to Young, a son of Mrs. Young, who died a poor witness before the federal jail and will be taken to Glens Mills Baney, during her stay, will visit with

> The happenings in the Parks family in the last two years have been-Sarah and Anne sent to Muncy, later Al shades of ladies' silk hose, transferred to Laurelton; William and 21-1t sent to Glens Mills; Jim, brother of Anne, sent to the penitentiary for three years for stealing, Hoag, another brother, recently before the The Walter L. Main show, which court for stealing. And to the comrecord for one family to attain.

Expensive as it may be to take care of these people in State institutions, it is yet cheaper than to leave them by comedians of the troop, on Monday representative of the State Board of o'clock on Sunday morning. Instead at liberty to corrupt the morals of a there for the summer. Mrs. Richards' evening, May 26th, at 8:15. Admis- Health acted when the source of in- of unloading near the passenger de- community by stealing, breeding more sion will be thirty-five cents. Those fection was discovered undoubtedly pot the cars were shifted to the Amer- of their kind and, probably, most serwho remember the successful minstrel saved many people from becoming in- ican Lime & Stone company track ious of all, spreading disease by their running into the Armor Gap quarries, notoriously immoral indulgences. The three years will be prepared for the man" told of the blowing up with dy- and the unloading took place on the proper solution of such problems is indeed food for serious reflection.

Bellefonte Academy News Notes.

Temple theatre last night, and while the "Watchman" went to press too The parade on Monday morning was early to give an extended notice of trouble. Mr. Eberhart only recently ties of slime and dirt were blown out the one free attraction witnessed by the performance, we have every reacelebrated his 91st birthday anniverties of slime and dirt were blown out the one free attraction withessed by the performance, we have every reasary and naturally any illness is just along the pipes were thoroughly a large crowd. The horses, trappings, son to believe the boys made good the reputation won in past years. They played to a full house and all those who were unable to reserve seats for the initial performance will have an opportunity to see the show so that you will run no risk of disapnight's performance the minstrel bakery, on Tuesday afternoon and dance will be held in the armory. The Challis Collegians orchestra will furthat while Mr. and Mrs. Clevenstine nish the music and there will be dancing from 11 to 3 o'clock.

> Academy athletes have had a busy and successful week. Last Friday the history of the school, by the way, went to Bloomsburg where they defeated the Normal team by the score of 8 to Dickinson Seminary nine, at Williamsport, winning that contest by the

The Academy track and field team | prise to learn that he was a witness in a took a leading part in the interscho-The gathering took place during lastic sports at State College, on Sattrophy cup, scoring twenty-five points to Harrisburg Tech's twenty-six. Welch, of the Academy, broke two records, the javelin and discus throw, point scorer in the meet, making a total of twenty points and winning four first places.

> The Academy nine will play the Pitt Freshmen on Hughes field this (Friday) afternoon. Game will be caled at 2:30 o'clock and every fan

Nominations for Y. M. C. A. Directors

At a meeting of the Board of Directors, held on Tuesday evening, the report of the nominating committee for election of board members was receiv-Thursday, May 29th, at the Y. M. C. A. The following nominations were presented:

torff, R. B. Tinsley, R. L. Mallory, John P. Smith, Frank M. Crawford. To serve two years: John G. Love, James R. Hughes, Calvin Troupe, W. J. Emerick, John Payne.

-Miss Ruth Garman has returntomorrow will open her Dim Lantern tea room at the end of the state highfect condition, and one white enameled | way on the road to Snow Shoe. Since closing the tea room last fall exten-20-tf | sive repairs have been made and Miss Garman is now equipped to take care -All shades of ladies' silk hose, of all the hungry and thirsty travelers who find it convenient to patron-

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mr. and Mrs. George H. Seidel and Dr. Fred R. Seidel, of Hazleton, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Willard

-Mrs. R. D. Foreman, who spent the winter at the hotel in Millheim, has returned to Centre Hall and opened her comfortable home for the summer.

-Mrs. Joseph L. Montgomery is again occupying her apartments at the Bush house, having arrived home Monday night from Philadelphia, completely recovered from her recent nervous collapse.

-Mr and Mrs. Robert Walker are contemplating a motor trip to Philadelphia and will have with them as their guest, Mrs. Walker's sister, Mrs. Louis Schad. Their plans are for going down late this week or early next.

-Mrs. Emma Hughes Dunkle, of Pittsburgh, has been among the guests at the Academy this week, having come in for the minstrel show and for a short visit with her brothers, James and Charles Hughes and their families. -Mrs. Stanley B. Valentine, of Williamsport, and her young son Richard have been with the child's grandmother, Mrs. Harry C. Valentine and the family for a week or more, spending the time here while Mr. Valentine is on a business trip west. Their plans are for returning home this week. -Mr. and Mrs. M. Ward Fleming, their youngest child, Winifred Jr., and Mrs. Fleming's mother, Mrs. Donaldson, have Fleming's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fleming. Mr. Fleming drove over each day to attend court, the family accompanying him at different times. -Mr. and Mrs. Russel Blair, with Mrs.

Wilbur Baney as a motor guest, left Bellefonte Tuesday morning for Harrisburg, where they were joined by friends for the drive to Philadelphia for several days of business and pleasure in the city. Mrs. her sister, Mrs. Godshall, in Camden.

-Mrs. E. B. Callaway, who left in February on her second trip around the world, expects to land in New York today, called home by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Thompson, who is east under the care of specialists. Mrs. Callaway will spend some time with Mrs. Garber, at College Point, and with Mrs. Thompson, before returning to Bellefonte. -Mrs. Guy W. Bange, well known in this community as Mrs. Belle Shaner, with a convention of chemists. Mrs. Washburn Shaner and Philip Bange, left Hanover last week on a two month's trip to the Pacific coast. Their plans will include a stop at the Grand Canyon, from there to Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Yellowstone Park, then wherever their fancy may lead.

part of the past year, left last week to return to Norristown, to open her home two weeks at Mr. Seel's camp. niece, known to many in Bellefonte as her two children in June, to be at the Richard home for the summer, or while their new home is being built in Philadelphia.

Chicago, have been spending the week at her aunt, Miss Louise Hoffer, at Dr. M. A. the Nittany Country club and visiting Kirks. among their many Bellefonte friends, hav-The Bellefonte Academy minstrels ing motored down from Tyrone last Satur- his wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Pearce, drove were the big attraction at the Moose day where they were guests for several in from Conneaut, Ohio, arriving in Belledays of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Garman. | fonte Wednesday, for a visit of several This is Mr. and Mrs. Schrever's first visit to Bellefonte in eight years and natural- er, Mrs. L. A. Schaeffer and A. L. McGinly their old acquaintances were glad to see them. -Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Otto, of Johnstown, who had been guests of the latter's Schaeffer. sister, Mrs. Fred Krafts, of north Spring street, since the preceding Wednesday, returned home last Friday. As Bellefonte Frank M. Fisher, and though he had with was the home, not so long ago, of both of tonight. Get your tickets early today them their time while here is necessarily always too short, for they have so many pointment. Immediately following to- friends to see that there is never enough ing that the boy was not an excuse by any of it to permit getting around so wide a

> -Jerome Harriman is the name of the gentleman who looks after the interests of the press with the Walter L. Main show, and while he disclaims any lineal connection with the one-time renowned railroad magnate, E. H. Harriman, we feel sure that the latter was no more courteous in real delight to do business with him and now permanently located in Millersburg, the "Watchman" will look forward to his where he and Mrs. Ulsh are devoting much

-George D. Fortney, of Harris township, was a "Watchman" office visitor on Tuesday morning and it was rather a surcase in court, because Harris township people are so upright and law-abiding that we couldn't figure out how any of them would get into court, but it developed that the case he was a witness on was from Rush township and not Harris. Of course, like all farmers, he begrudged the time he had to be away from home, owing to the late planting season.

-Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Krebs, of State College, with their grand-daughter, Miss Mary Bell, of Spruce Creek, were among the Saturday throng in Bellefonte. Mr. Krebs is employed on the College farms and gave us the surprising information that notwithstanding the fact that they are putting out four hundred acres of spring crops up there they had all their oats sowed. Mrs. Krebs has not been in good health for a year or more and Miss Bell has made herself a great comfort to them by taking entire charge of the household affairs since her grandmother's breakdown.

-It is not often that we are honored with a visit by three generations of the same family at one time. That was our good fortune, on Saturday evening, when Samuel Corl, his son Clarence, and the latter's son Clarence Jr., dropped in for a To serve three years: H. M. Mur- little chat, while the wives of the two men were taking in the sights of the town on an unusually crowded Saturday evening. It makes us appear older than we feel when we admit that we knew grandpa Corl well when a young man about State College in the days when that place was so small that students knew all the folks in the country about nearly as well as ed from her sojourn in Brooklyn and they knew one another. Grandpa isn't a bit older than we are, but it sounds just a bit queer to find ourselves a contemporary of persons in the catagory of such venerability. Father, son and the darling Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co grand child are all together on their fa near Pine Hall, where generations of Co have lived before them and done their p in developing sturdy, upright citizens that has long characterized that section the county.

-G. Oscar Gray and Robert M. Foster were among those at Harrisburg Tuesday, attending the Democratic State convention. -Max Kofman, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Kofman, went to Harrisburg last week, where he expects to be employed during the summer. -Mr. and Mrs. R. J. P. Gray have returned from Florida, where they spent the winter in St. Petersburg, and re-opened

-Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Storch and Miss Hazel Hurley will leave this morning on a motor trip to Philadelphia where they will be week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kerk and family.

their home at Stormstown for the sum-

-Mrs. Robert Irwin was with her sonin-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. II. Gardner, at Mackeyville, last week, having gone down with the hope that the change might benefit her health.

-Mrs. George I. Denithorne, of Pittsburgh, has been among the visitors in Bellefonte within the week, here for one of her frequent visits home with her mother, Mrs. J. B. Scott, and the McCurdy family, -James A. Fox, who went to Philadel phia, two weeks ago for treatment by specialists, is reported as getting on so fine that he expects to be home again in a few days and back on his job as pharmacist at the Parrish drug store. -Miss Anna Miller will return to her home in Salona early in the week, expecting to spend the summer there with her mother and sister. Miss Miller has already made arrangements to go to Emporium in been here for a part of the week with Mr. the fall, to be there indefinitely with an -Mrs. Cyrus Goss, who with her two grand-children had spent the winter at 'The Inn," at State College, has returned to her home in Pine Grove Mills. With

Mrs. Goss at present, are her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Goss, of Englewood, who are in Centre county for a two week's visit. -Mrs. T. B. Budinger returned to Snow

Shoe the early part of last week from St. Petersburg, Florida, where she had been with friends for the winter. Upon opening her home Mrs. Budinger was joined by her daughter, Miss Blanche, who had been in Brooklyn, but who will be for the present with her mother in Snow Shoe. -D. E. Washburn, chemist with the American Lime & Stone company, will return Saturday from a business trip to Washington and the Hot Springs, Va., having gone to the latter place to attend been her custom each week since the illness of her father, Mr. Keller.

-Dr. David Dale and W. C. Coxey will leave tomorrow in Dr. Dale's car on a two week's fishing trip in Canada. They expect to motor to a point ninety miles north of Toronto, where they will take a boat -Miss Hibbs, who had been with her for a water trip of seventy miles to Holcousin, Mrs. E. H. Richard for the greater low Lake where they will join W. E. Seel and a party of Harrisburg friends for the

-Mrs. C. U. Hoffer, her daughter, Miss Anne, and her grand-daughter, Susanne Miss Margaret Aull, will come here with Hoffer, drove over from Philipsburg Saturday, for an over night visit in Bellefonte. During their stay Mrs. Hoffer was a guest of her brother, Harry Gerberich, at the Conley home, while Miss Anne visited with -Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Schreyer, of Miss Janet Potter, and Susanne was with

-Mrs. Stewart Pearce, with her son and days with Mrs. Pearce's sister and brothley and their families, along with other relatives. During their stay they have been house guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. A.

-Among the Centre Hall people who were in town on Monday for the show was him his nephew, John Haney Keller, young son of Rev. and Mrs. John Keller, of South Carolina, he was candid in statmeans. He came over deliberately to see the show and just brought the boy along to give him a chance to enjoy it too.

-Mr. and Mrs. Alter K. Ulsh, with Mr. Ulsh's brother-in-law, Mark Hemminger, of Scranton, as a driving guest, drove to Bellefonte Saturday, from Ingleby, where Mr. and Mrs. Hemminger and their two children expect to spend the summer. Mr. his day than the Main show representative Ulsh, who was on a business trip relative is at the present time. In fact it was a to his recent sale of the mill property, is of their time to the planning of their new

> -Mr. and Mrs. John Sommerville were guests at the Bush house for several days the after part of last week, while here for a visit with friends and relatives of Mr. Sommerville. Mr. and Mrs. Sommerville, who are now making their home with Mrs. Sommerville's sister in Milton, had been to Winburne and through Clearfield county on a visit with the Sommerville family, making the trip back to Milton in their car. Following a winter in New York, they are now planning to sail on the 15th of July for an indefinite stay in Europe.

> -Mrs. Robert H. McDowell, of Mersene, Turkey, was an arrival here on Wednesday morning; expecting to spend the summer with her father and other relatives in Bellefonte. Mrs. McDowell, before her marriage, was Miss Eleanor Cook, daughter of Charles F. Cook. It will be recalled that she went to Turkey five years ago to do Near East Relief work and the "Watchman" published letters from her at the time, revealing in part the terrible sufferings of those she went over to minister to. While there she married Mr. McDowell who is the representative in Turkey of an American importing firm.

> All kinds of household goods will be sold at public sale at the home of W. W. Bible, east Bishop street, Saturday, May 31st, at one o'clock p. m.

-All shades of ladies' silk hose, special Friday and Saturday at $1.00 per pair. Sim, the Clothier.

-Fire and Lightning insurance at a reduced rate.—J. M. Keichline. 69-7-12t*

Bellefonte Grain Market.

rm	Wheat	-		-	-	-		•		$1.0
rls	Shelled	Cor	1		-		•	•	-	.9
art	Rye	-	-			-				.90
hip	Oats	-	-			-			-	.5
of	Barley	-		-	-	-				.6
-	Buckwl	eat		-		-				.9