PLEASANT GAP.

Miss Beatrice Noll is now our assistant postmistress. She is unusually well fitted for the position. She is very attentive to her duties and is giving the public the best of service, hence all are delighted.

Don't forget the festival at Noll's grove, on Saturday evening, by the Loyal workers of the Lutheran church. The I. O. O. F band will enliven the occasion with choice selections. This band is quite a drawing card here.

Walter Dunkleberger, our ice cream manufacturer, is strictly in it, since the enormous traveling public motor to the top of Nittany mountain each Sunday, and naturally consume a large amount of ice cream served by the restaurant there. Walter supplies the restaurant with the delicious stuff.

John Larimer, late of Bellefonte, has become a citizen of Pleasant Gap, moving here a few weeks ago. John is a regular employee at the penitentiary so the change of residence is beneficial to him, being so much nearer to his work. Besides, he was always partial towards gaining a residence in the garden spot of the world.

Mrs. Minnie McGinley, of Cleveland, Ohio, was a caller at the home of Mrs. Jack Noll on Monday evening. Mrs. McGinley will be remembered by her friends as Minnie Martz, who spent her school days in this town where the family lived for eight years. Her father, Charles Martz, is now a resident of Pine Grove Mills.

The Gap's favorite, Rev. Ard, delivered one of his soul-thrilling orations here on Memorial day and as usual, his discourse was highly appreciated by all. He is so original, natural, attractive and direct; limpid in phrase and pure in fancy. His best eloquence flows in a stream, his intense suggestiveness is the cause of thought in others.

Mrs. O. C. Campbell, of Barnesboro, has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Potter Tate, the past ten days. Mrs. Campbell visits here twice a year and the community always admires her presence, as she always brings an abundance of sunshine with her. She is so cheerful, contented and happy, hence has become quite a desirable favorite here.

The M. E. young ladies' blow-out held at Noll's grove on Saturday evening was a decided success. They had a very liberal attendance. The proceeds exceeded one hundred dollars. The Odd Fellows band furnished the music for the occasion, their presence no doubt adding materially in getting out the record crowd. While we have an abundance of chin music at the Gap, unfortunately we have no band of our own, hence it is that it is money judiciously spent to have a band on such occasions, since it's presence always aids in swelling the financial end of the proposition.
