the State, where the monster animals were in demand. After a time the sportsmen became antagonistic and Mrs. R. S. Melroy and Mrs. Jack Noll attended the party given at the Episcopal parish house, Bellefonte, on Tuesday night; five hundred, bridge and Mah Jong were in play. The evening was a most enjoyable one. Delicious refreshments were served aud duly appreciated by all participants.

Well Miss Tamozine has entered a new state, the state of wedlock. The lucky groom is a Mr. Crum, of State College, said to be a model young man. And now Tamozine I assure you it is a great pleasure to your loving friends to be able to feel so much esteem and affection for the gentleman to whom you have confided your life's happiness, and to hope every year will unite your hearts more closely. That heaven may bless you both is the earnest prayer of your numerous friends.

I notice an item in a number of newspapers announcing the fact that a man has been discovered who has reached the unusual age of 112 years. On being interviewed as to what the old gent attributed as the cause of his unusual longevity he replied, "for many years back I bathed my head effectually with pure cider vinegar every third day." It would probably be advisable to proceed at once to re-unerate our vinegar cuperate our vinegar supply before the anticipated advance of vinegar goes into effect.

Mrs. Passmore, of Harrisburg, and Jacob Felty, of Altoona, were guests of their sister, Mrs. E. W. Hess, over Miss Mary Bender, accompanied by a friend, of Lancaster, spent a few very enjoyable days at the home of Mrs. Janathan Bilger, grandmother of Miss Bender. Miss Bender is a talented High school teacher of Lancaster. She is self-assured as if she had a commission signed and sealed by the All Father to enlighten the universe of mankind. She is a shrewd, trained, and skilled manipulator of the young and rising generation. To the young and fising generation. To sum it up; she is exceptionally agree-able, proud-spirited, self-relying and independent, with unusual energy, Rev. John Harkins and son, of practical common sense, uncommon powers of observation and strong afpowers of observation and strong af-fection; in every way kind-hearted and the home of Rev. W. J. Miss Lydia Walter, of Coburn, spent several days with her niece, Mrs. J. no bounds. They furnished our up-to-date sportsman's organization some time ago with fifty-six rabbits and one wild turkey gobbler. Two weeks ago they supplied us with a fine spec-imen of a McKean county bear; last Saturday the second bear came, with a promise of two more. Sportsmen and others who are in-terested in preserving the things of the country, will refrain from taking snappers which they find wandering about the fields in order to protect them from destruction. At this sea-son the females wander far from the Dale, of Oak Hall, to Stormstown on Saturday to attend a meeting of the county Grange. Mrs. J. H. #### Wise Doctor.

There's a certain Hollywood doctor, who is not above prescribing for some patients, who only imagine they're sick, some remedy he imagines they'd like to take, hence, when a pretty meric widew owner to him with a movie widow came to him with a vague complaint he was right on the job.

"My dear," he murmured, "you are slightly morbid. You should look about you, and marry again." "Why, doctor," beamed the little woman, "is—is this a proposal?" "My dear woman," protested the doctor in alarm, "let me remind you that a doctor preserves medicine but that a doctor prescribes medicine, but he doesn't take it."—Los Angeles Ti ues.

The Mistrustful Husband.

E. H. Towner, the New York expert, who has worked out a new form of insurance-the insurance of the principal and interest of bond investments-told an insurance story at a banquet.

"An insurance agent," he said, "was trying to get G. Washington White to take out a life policy. "'Think of the future, Wash,' he said. 'You never know what may happen. And then there's your wife to consider, to.'

"'Dat's it!' said Wash, shaking his head. 'Dat's just it. Ah ain't none too safe at home as it is, boss.'"

England Alarmed as Skilled Workers Go.

Public opinion in London is alarmed at the number of skilled men emigrating to America and other countries.

According to information given in the House of Commons by Sidney Webb, president of the Board of Trade, 20509 skilled workers in the ouilding, metal and engineering trades left England for America in the first nine months last year. Of this number 12,807 took up permanent resi-dence in the United States, according to Webb.
