PEOPLE ARE CARELESS WITH FIRE.

Secretary Wallace has stated that eight out of every ten forest fires result from carelessness and will not happen once the public is brought face to face with the serious losses these fires cause. These losses fall especially heavy on the American public since the United States uses more saw timber than all other nations combined.

Chief forester Greely says it is not difficult for every one to be careful with fire while in wooded areas. Here are simple rules which if observed will go far toward reducing the appalling number of man-caused forest fires reported every year. Be sure your match is out before throwing it away; don't throw cigars, cigarettes, and pipe ashes along the roadside; build small camp fires away from brush and small trees; never leave your camp fire unwatched; make sure your camp fire is dead—then bury it; keep in touch with forest rangers and fire wardens and report all fires you may see, no matter how small; be as careful with fire while you are in wooded areas as you would be in your own home.

Some simple rules suggested by C. R. Anderson, forestry extension specialist at State College, to help reduce the damage from forest fires, are:

- Be careful of brush burning.
- Make the woods more nearly fire proof by cleaning roads and fence rows.
- Don't smoke in passing through or working in timber land except on a wet day.
- Post signs in the woods warning against the danger of fire.
- Be careful of camp fires; don't leave them until they are extinguished.
- Be prepared to fight fire; know where your tools are. A hoe, rake, shovel and plow are farm tools that aid in fire fighting.

Electricity and Railroads.

It has been estimated that the electrification of our steam railroads would save the country more than one hundred million tons of coal annually. On the few hundred miles of track where electricity has taken the place of steam, the capacity of tracks and other equipment has increased fully one-half.

Electric engines speed up schedule as much as twenty-five per cent., and cold weather that paralyzes the steam line does not hurt the lines that are operated electrically. Of the one hundred and fifty millions tons of coal used in one year to operate the steam roads two-thirds could be saved under electric power, and thus ten per cent. of the ton-mileage of all the roads that now haul coal could be applied to other uses.

Besides the waste of coal, forty million barrels of oil, or nearly fifteen per cent. of the total output, goes to engines, and could be saved by using electricity. It is considered by some authorities appalling that twenty-five per cent. of the total amount of coal that we mine every year is used to operate our railroads under such inefficient conditions that it requires an average of at least six pounds of coal to the horse-power hour.—Ex.

Pennsylvania Railroad Issues an Attractive Seashore Folder.

With a view to familiarizing the public with the attractive features and the development of the many Seashore pleasure resorts located along the New Jersey coast, the Passenger Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad has just issued a profusely illustrated 192-page folder, describing in detail the varied facilities and advantages of all vacation Seashore resorts from Long Branch to Cape May.

The folder is a highly artistic specimen of printing and is illustrated with a number of large half-tones, made from original photographs. The text has been carefully written with fidelity to detail, and the folder will prove an illuminating presentation of the attractions of the New Jersey coast and its facilities for a week-end trip or a pleasurable vacation.

Those who have enjoyed a summer outing at Atlantic City, Asbury Park, Ocean City, Wildwood, Cape May, or any of the other New Jersey Seashore resorts, and those who read this folder will doubtless appreciate the fact that no vacation is wholly complete without a dip in the briny deep. A free copy of this attractive folder may be had upon request of D. N. Bell, Passenger Traffic Manager, Pennsylvania Railroad, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, Pa.

204 Auto Accidents Within Five Days.

Harrisburg.—Clippings received by State Highway Department for the period from May 10 to May 15 showed there were 204 automobile accidents in the territories in which the papers were published. Thirty-one persons were killed in the accidents and 129 injured.

The department receives through its clipping bureau only a few more than half of the total newspapers published in the State.

As a result of watching its clipping the Highway Department arrested 29 drivers of automobiles for operating vehicles while intoxicated and for transporting liquor.

Officials of the department say they depend on the newspaper clippings as one of the chief sources of information to bring action against careless and drunken drivers.

Two Weeks-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, JUNE 14:
BUCK JONES in "THE CIRCUS COWBOY." A good Buck Jones picture, better than most of his, the circus stuff making it interesting for both children and adults. An actor elephant and some thrills. Also, 2 reel Educational Comedy.

MONDAY, JUNE 16:
AGNES AYRES in "THE HEART RAIDER," a story of a speed mania girl who causes her father all sorts of expense and finally promises to marry the hero in thirty days. He runs away and she pursues and finally gets him. Also, Pathe News and Topics.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17 AND 18:
GLORIA SWANSON in "THE HUMMING BIRD," is an eight reel story, which begins before the world war and finishes after, is deeply appealing all through. The heroine does fine work. As a leader of the Apaches she persuades them to join the army, and is a re-enactment of the famous taxicab army which saved Paris. Directed by Sydney Alcott, who does fine work. Also, 2 reel Sunshine Comedy.

THURSDAY, JUNE 19:
ALICE BRADY in "SNOW BRIDE," a story of the North and deals with trappers and fur dealers. Father murders an Indian and the villain demands her hand as price of silence. She tries to commit suicide and her husband drinks the poison instead. Also, Pathe News and Review.

FRIDAY, JUNE 20:
HOOT GIBSON in "BROADWAY OR BUST," a romance that starts in Cactus Centre and ends in Times Square on Broadway. Broncho busting in New York's swill hotels. A side romance that also interests. Also, 14th episode of "THE GHOST CITY."

OPERA HOUSE.
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, JUNE 13 AND 14:
SPECIAL CAST in "RUGGLES OF RED GAP," is an eight reel live wire picture founded on the story of that name. Also, 2 reel Comedy.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, JUNE 20 AND 21:
Return of MARY PICKFORD in "LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEBOY." Enuf sed. Everybody likes Mary and won't mind seeing her again in this old favorite. Also, 2 reel Comedy.
