Bellefonte, Pa., June 20, 1924.

P GRAY MEEK. - - Editor

To Correspondents .- No communications published unless accompanied by the real

Terms of Subscription .- Until further notice this paper will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates: Paid strictly in advance -

Paid before expiration of year - 1.75 Paid after expiration of year -Published weekly, every Friday morning. Entered at the postoffice, Bellefonte, Pa., as second class matter.

In ordering change of address always give the old as well as the new address. It is important that the publisher be notified when a subscriber wishes the paper discontinued. It all such cases the subscription must be paid up to date of cancellation.

A sample copy of the "Watchman" will be sent without cost to applicants.

BELLEFONTE TRUST COMPANY Letter Relating to the Public School Savings Department.

Following is a letter mailed to approximately 1500 school boys and girls living in this banking community, who deposit their money in the Public School Savings Department of the Bellefonte Trust Company:

"The good school days, for this school year, have closed never to rethe day when you will complete your High school course of study. A very good idea. Keep on looking ahead 16th, 1860. He graduated from Ohio golds, Col. and prepare to enter some good, re-liable college and fit yourself with a sistant professor in history at the The remarks. four-year course, college education. You will then be a very good citizen of these United States of America. It will take money to do all this. We want YOU to help yourself and WE want to help YOU. You can work during your school vacation and earn money. Please do not spend it fool. money. Please do not spend it foolishly, but save it. You can deposit as president of State College in 1908.

At that time the College had a stuings Department, every Wednesday just the same as you did at school. We shall be pleased to have you come to the bank or you can mail it to us. We would prefer to have you come to the bank so that we can get better acquainted with you.

"Kindly show this letter to your parents and talk to them about it. We know they are proud of you and shall be very glad to help you. We want to tell you what three little girls of can save money, too. Let's try.

going to EARN, SAVE and DEPOSIT cess and high standing. your money in the Bellefonte Trust Company? We are sending you a tural land extension stamped envelope so that you can write to us.

happiness and succes. Very courteously,

N. E. ROBB.

"I am going to save up every penny received. I thank you for your good advice, and will try and follow it. I in your bank. I thank you for writing me such a nice letter. I am just a little boy—8 years old; but some day I will get big, and if I am good and do as you advise I may also be officer in a bank, like you, Mr.

Another reads:

Safe and Sane Proclamation.

this business to one day only.

a very expensive character have been west in the interest of the Phi Kappa started by the reckless use of fire Phi honorary scholastic fraternity, of works; many accidents have happen- which he was regent general. ed; annually we hear of men, women and children being maimed for life; Sparks was the author of a number of many deaths occur from the use of these explosives.

Merchants! If you have a supply Fourth, and on that one day only.

Parents! Be on guard every moment of the day and see to it as far ciety. as possible that no damage is done to property, also caution those in your household to be careful, very careful, vives with one daughter, Mrs. Carvel so that no accident may occur nor a life be endangered.

Given under my hand at Bellefonte, Pa., this 16th day of June, A. D. 1924. W. HARRISON WALKER, Burgess.

-Many world war veterans are attending the fifth annual encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars now in session at Bradford, McKean

EDWIN ERLE SPARKS.

The very sudden and unexpected was naturally a shock to his many and she was born in lower Pennsfriends as well as the community at arge. While it had been generally known that he had not been a well man for weeks past as the result of neuralgia of the heart he had apparently been no worse than usual on Saturday. In fact he made no comstudy writing letters. At one o'clock to luncheon and members of his household on going to his room to investigate found him lying across the bed. The college physician, hastily summoned, stated that he had probably the State, delivering high school commencement addresses, and the fatal attack was probably the result of this extra exertion. His last public appearance at the College was on Friday morning when he talked to the county farm agents and extension staff in conference at that place.

turn. You have been a very good pupil and have done the very best you and Mrs. Sparks, being notified at one of the mission schools. She was sistant professor in history at the in the public schools of that State un- the Union cemetery for burial. til 1890 when he accepted a professorship at State College. In 1895 he went to the University of Chicago as professor of American history where Company, in the Public School Sav-dent enrollment of eleven hundred students but it had passed through its formative period and was entering upon a cycle of expansion which has developed rapidly during the past sixteen years until it has attained rank with the leading educational institutions in the country.

Without detracting from Dr. Sparks the Bellefonte schools did. They saved enough money to buy stock of the late Dr. George W. Atherton, and and Abraham J., at home. The body the late Dr. George W. Atherton, and was taken to Altoona where funeral the Bellefonte Trust Company. You succeeding him within a very short was taken to Altoona where funeral "Will you not, please, write us a the work already begun, contributing noon, burial being made in the Rose little letter and tell us that you are in a great measure to its present suc-tural land extension and the county agent work were started. The first "You have our best wishes for your farmers' week was held and specialization of courses in agriculture accomplished, the school of liberal arts was organized, a mining engineering and was seventy-seven years old. Treasurer." course established, experiment sta-Note-Many responses have been tions and extension work in both minreceived to this letter of which the ing and engineering were started, and following from school boys is a fair the college health service was organized.

New permanent buildings erected in I get, put it in the bank, and not the twelve-year period included four it for candy, peanuts, cracker- engineering, three agricultural, one jack, chewing gum, and all sorts of chemistry, one liberal arts and one things like that."

chemistry, one liberal arts and one mining structure. More than 900 mining structure. More than 900 acres were added to college farms and "Your kind and encouraging letter the faculty grew from 119 to over 500, including extension members. Of course all of this was made possible like the Trust Company. If I had a through more liberal appropriations thousand dollars I would put it right on the part of the State and federal on the part of the State and federal governments.

Dr. Sparks was an orator who had the faculty of pleasing his audience and was much in demand as a public speaker during the war period. In fact the demands upon his time and energies were so great that his health became somewhat impaired and as early as 1917 he asked the board of "Safety first" should be kept in trustees to accept his resignation. He mind when attempting to celebrate was prevailed upon to stay and given the Fourth of July. A "safe and a leave of absence instead, but in 1920 sane" observance is respectfully he suffered a general breakdown and requested. No fire works nor dis- it was at that time he was succeeded play of any description will be by Dr. John M. Thomas and was retolerated within the limits of the bor- tained in the position of president ough of Bellefonte except on Friday, emeritus. Since that time he has July 4th, and then only in the most been a special lecturer for Freshman careful and moderate way. Confine classes in American history, and during the past two years has traveled "Safety first." Numerous fires of extensively through the south and

In addition to his college work Dr. books and essays dealing principally with American history. He was also a frequent contributor to periodicals of these seemingly innocent crackers and magazines, and always in demand and other devices for use only on July on the lecture platform. He was a Fourth, you are now respectfully re- member of the American Historical quested not to sell them until July Association, the American Academy 3rd, 1924, and then only by caution- of Politcial Science, American Civics ing the purchasers that the use of Association, American Archives Comthem is strictly prohibited until July mission, director of the Illinois Historical Society and a corresponding member of the Chicago Historical So-

> In 1890 he married Miss Katharine Cotton, at Portsmouth, Ohio, who sur-

E. Sparks, of New Jersey. Funeral services will be held on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in the College auditorium. President John M. Thomas will conduct the services, assisted by the Rev. Samuel Martin, pastor of the State College Presbyterian church. Plans for the interment have not been made.

-Subscribe for the "Watchman."

CORMAN.-Chrissa Ann Corman, wife of John Corman, died at her home at Coburn on Thursday of last week leath of Dr. Edwin Erle Sparks, at following an illness of several months. his home at State College on Sunday, Her maiden name was Chrissa Roush, valley on July 1st, 1854, making her age 69 years, 11 months and 11 days. On November 24th, 1872, she married John Corman, who survives with the following children: W. C. Corman, of Pittsburgh; T. F., of Windber; J. R., of Coburn; Mrs. John Bowplaint on Sunday morning, during er, Mrs. William Grove, Mrs. Thomwhich he spent several hours in his as Hosterman, Mrs. I. A. Meyer and Mrs. John Vonada, of Coburn, and he failed to respond to the summons Mrs. Warren Boob, of Woodward. She also leaves three sisters and twenty-two grand-children. She was a member of the Reformed church for over half a century and Rev. John S. Hollenbach had charge of been dead two hours. A heart attack the funeral services which were held was the cause. During the past two weeks Dr. Sparks had taken a number the Reformed church at Cohumbia the Reformed church at Coburn, bur- camps, as well as the hundreds of cultural, social and educational conof motor trips to different sections of | ial being made in the Millheim cemetery.

HOY .- Miss Justice C. Hoy, a native of Centre county, died last Friday night in the State hospital, at Warren, where she had been a patient a number of years. She was a daughter of John and Mary Ann Kline Hoy, The sad feature of his death was and was born on the homestead farm Mrs. Sparks' absence in California on the Jacksonville road, a short diswhere she was on a special tour of the tance east of Bellefonte, over seven-State Federation of Pennsylvania ty years ago. As a young woman she Women, while his only daughter, Mrs. studied music and for many years Carvel E. Sparks, was at her home in taught music in Bellefonte and later Pedricktown, N. J. The latter reach- in Altoona. She also spent a few ed the College on Monday morning years in the south, teaching music at could. Sometimes you thought your lessons were very hard, but your good teacher always helped you to understand your lessons. You have succeeded. You are looking forward to the day when you will complete your lessons with a sister of the late Dr. H. K. Hoy, at one time a well known practitioner in Bellefonte, and her survivors include two sisters and one brother: Mrs. Jane (Erle) Dodd Sparks and was Gibbs, of Irvona; Miss Ida, an inva-San Francisco of her husband's death, a sister of the late Dr. H. K. Hoy, at Jane (Erle) Dodd Sparks and was Gibbs, of Irvona; Miss Ida, an invaborn in Licking county, Ohio, on July lid who makes her home with Mrs.

> The remains were brought to Bellesame institution one year then taught fonte on Tuesday and taken direct to > > JACKSON .- George L. Jackson, a native of Bellefonte, died at his home in Buffalo, N. Y., last Friday night, as the result of an attack of appendicitis.

He was a son of Abraham V. and Mamie L. Jackson and was born in Bellefonte a little over thirty-four years ago. He is survived by his father and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Grace Scott, Mrs. Katharine Brown and Mrs. Marjorie Harding, all of Altoona; Mrs. Rebie Emory Miss Laurenia, of New York city; Miss Helen, of Raleigh, N. C.; it can be said in all candor that the Mrs. Florence Syphax, of Washingfoundation of what the College is to- ton, D. C.; J. A. Jackson, one of the day was laid during the presidency of editors of "The Billboard," New York, time Dr. Sparks very ably carried on services were held on Monday after-Hill cemetery.

> GOHEEN .- Mrs. Amanda B. Goheen, widow of the late Rev. J. Milliken Goheen, died on Sunday at her home in Woodville, near Pittsburgh, Blair County Auto Races Drew Big as the result of general infirmities. She was a native of Wooster, Ohio, Fleming officiating.

MECHTLEY.-Ephriam W. Mechtgering illness. He was born in Cenwill be brought to Bellefonte tomorrow afternoon for burial in the Union cemetery.

CROSS.—Simeon Cross, a brother of Thaddeus Cross, of Spring township, died at his home in Clearfield last Thursday morning following several month's illness. He was seventythree years old and for many years followed farming in Clearfield county. His only survivors are his brother Thaddeus and one sister, Mrs. James McBlain, of Clearfield. Burial was rush to Denver, Col., over half a cen- home. tury ago.

Kiwanis in Brotherhood Meeting.

P. O. S. of A. Had Big Time in Belle- Centre County Junior Farmers Meet. fonte Saturday Night.

Bellefonte had within its environs on Saturday night more Patriotic al meeting at State College on Thurs-Sons of America than were ever seen here at one time. Various estimates This group of live wire young farmers place the crowd at from 800 to 900, believe in modern methods of farming and it is just possible that the number as was shown by their ability in the was in excess of those figures. The occasion was the conferring of degrees on about six hundred new members, but as they came from various lodges throughout the county the exact number attached to each organization could not be ascertained.

gathering was a big parade at 7:30 county vocational supervisor or from o'clock. It was led by the Harry a vocational school. This year the Copping shows band and included the majority of young farmers are in the T. Watson and his officers, who are Bellefonte Camp drum corps and the poultry and potato business in part-I. O. O. F. band. The Bellefonte nership with business men and banks Camp was out in full, with represen- of the county. The trend of their tative delegations from other county meeting this year was for better agrinovitiates.

The meeting in the armory was presided over by the camp president, put on a program for better agricul-Charles A. Fromm. Past president Elmer C. Williams pronounced the invocation then the work of conferring the degrees was put on by the Hunt- also a potato tour with the regular ingdon degree team and orchestra, reputed to be one of the best in the State. Following the initiation the presiding officer introduced Col. H. S. Taylor, who made a very significant address of welcome, which was responded to by J. Laird Holmes, of State College.

Brief but interesting addresses were made by Judge Henry C. Quiglev. Congressman William I. Swoope, of Clearfield; Hon. Gabriel H. Moyer, of Lebanon, national president: W. H. Long, of Hanover, State inspector; Clarence H. Silknitter, of Huntingdon, State master of forms, and Rev. Romig, of State College.

The P. O. S. of A., through their recording secretary, Harry A. Rossman, wish to thank the burgess, borough council and police force for their careful consideration and assistance in handling the crowd and taking care of the parking of automobiles on Saturday evening.

SCHOOL TEACHERS IN ORGANIZA-

TION WORK. Three Pennsvalley school teachers have accepted summer employment as organizers for the P. O. S. of A. They are J. L. Hackenberg, principal of the Millheim schools, who is a member of the Aaronsburg camp; W. O. Heckman and T. L. Moore, of Centre Hall. Last week Mr. Moore conducted a campaign at Spring Mills with big thirty cars, and a pavilion for the sale success and on Monday both he and of lunches and confections. Mr. Heckman went to Tioga county where they will conduct a campaign. Mr. Hackenberg went to Bedford county last Saturday where he will be engaged for some days.

passed the four hundred membership ing and selling used cars of all makes. mark, Centre Hall with two hundred and other Camps in the county going strong, the P. O. S. of A. will soon be one of the largest organizations in

Crowd.

Sixty thousand people, among them In 1873 she married Rev. Goheen, of many Centre countians, witnessed the Rock Springs, Centre county, and auto races in the big wooden bowl at very shortly thereafter they went to Tipton, last Saturday. The estimated India to do missionary work, spend- gate receipts were between $150,000 ing thirty-seven years in that coun- and $160,000 and prizes aggregation Rev. Goheen died in 1907 but $22,500 were paid to drivers. Jimmy surviving her are one daughter and Murphy drove the 250 miles in 2 four sons, Mrs. G. W. Avison, of Wil- hours, 11 minutes and 2 seconds, and liamsport; Robert and John Goheen, won first prize, $9,000. Fred Comer both engaged in missionary work in drew down second money, $4,500; An-India; Joseph, of New York city, and toine Mourre third, $2,500 and Robert Richard, of Iillinois. Her funeral was McDonough fourth, $1,750. Other held on Tuesday, burial being made prizes totalling $4,750 were paid to in the Graysville cemetery, Rev. H. D. drivers who stayed in the race until it was called off on account of rain.

Jerry Wonderlich, driving a Durant special, miraculously escaped death ley died at his home in Altoona on when his machine blew a tire on the Wednesday morning following a lin- 160th lap, turned turtle and finally landed upside down on the soft ground tre county and was 77 years old. He of the safety zone. Wonderlich was married Miss Margaret Lohr who sur- either thrown out or jumped and at vives with seven children, C. B. Mecht- first was reported killed but later ley, of Juniata; J. F., of Millheim; I. it developed that he had only sus-E., of Snow Shoe; C. C., J. L. and tained a slight concussion of the Louis E., of Altoona. The remains brain, sprained ankle and leg and a number of body bruises, but his injuries are not considered very serious and he will likely be out of the hospital within a week.

Lindenmuth-Haines.-The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Black, in Clearfield, was the scene of a pretty wedding, at eleven o'clock on Wednesday morning of last week when Mrs. Black's youngest sister, Miss Martha Louise Haines, was united in marriage to Luther M. Lindenmuth, of Allenmade at Clearfield on Saturday after- town. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Reeve, of the Presbyterian church, and there were no attendants. The house decorations of honeysuckle and lilac were beautiful and appro-From 9:45 to 10 o'clock on Monday priate. Following the ceremony a deevening being the brotherhood zero licious wedding breakfast was served hour for all Kiwanians in the United after which Mr. and Mrs. Linden-States and Canada the Bellefonte club muth left on a brief wedding trip. The held its weekly meeting at the Brock- bride is a daughter of Mrs. M. H. erhoff house so they could join hands Haines, formerly of Bellefonte, and at that time. Mr. T. R. Hamilton was spent most of her life here. She is a the special guest of the evening while graduate of the Bellefonte High others present were Rev. A. M. school and up until recently a stenog-Smith, of Philadelphia; George Geiss, rapher in the offices of the American of Johnstown, who entertained the Lime & Stone company. Mr. Lindengathering with song selections; John muth is a graduate of State College Mitchell, of Lemont; Earl S. Orr and and now holds a good position with Elmer Eby, of Bellefonte. Mr. Ham- the American Telephone and Teleilton regaled the Kiwanians with some graph company in New York city, of his experiences during the gold where they will make their future

-Mr. William R. Phillips, gener--Last week everybody was won- al manager of the local American dering if good, old summer time Lime and Stone enterprise, is quite ill would never come, but from all ap- at his apartments in the Bush house. pearances it's here now. In fact Har- His condition was quite alarming durrisburg reported one heat prostration ing the fore part of the week, but latest reports are more reassuring.

The Junior Farmers' Association of Centre county held their second annuvarious judging contests held that day, and also in their spirited meeting held in the afternoon. The Association has a membership of 125 boys from all parts of the county. To carry out an approved agricultural ditions for every boy and girl in the county. They have definite plans to ture during the coming year. This this fund. summer they will have a general farm tour of the farms of the county and county potato tour in August.

A special camp of young farmers will be held at the Grange fair. A program is now being prepared and the fair committee is as follows: Fred Markle, State College; Eugene Burkholder, Centre Hall; Charles Campbell, Pennsylvania Furnace: John Kline, Boalsburg, and Walter Johnston, State College. The association will close the year with a big poultry and produce show to be held in the Bellefonte armory during teachers' institute, week of October 20-24. the first of its kind ever held in this county.

Officers were elected for the coming year as follows: Fred Markle, president; Harold Albright, vice president; Eugene Burkholder, secretary; James Bohn, treasurer; Charles Campbell, chairman Executive committee.

---Click!

Another New Garage to be Built.

G. Edward Haupt has contracted with the Centre Oil and Gas Co., for the erection of a filling station on his property below town and in connection with it is building a concrete garage with room sufficient for an accessories sales room, repair shop, storage for

He expects to have the new place open within 30 days and it will be in charge of Mr. Neal Metcalf, of Fitchburg, Mass. Mr. Metcalf is an expert With the Bellefonte Camp having will conduct a regular exchange, buy-appointed Miss Carolyn Dale, of State College, a justice of the peace for that borough.

PLEASANT GAP.

Mrs. Potter Seafly, of Yeagertown, spent a few days with the William Hoover family the past week. Our new baseball club realized over $125.00 at their entertainment at Noll's grove on Saturday night. The Jack Noll family, accompanied by Mrs. Dunklebarger, took in the wholesale christening at Milesburg. M. M. Keller left for Philadelphia a few days ago to see his brother, who is reported seriously ill, hence he expects to be absent for an indefinite

Miss Dorothy Corl, of Chicago, is visiting among her friends and relatives at the Gap. She selected as her headquarters while here the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Henry Twitmire. The racing craze is on to a certainty. Our youthful bicycle kids are busily engaged in grading a bicycle track and on Saturday will see which club is boss in that particular sport at the Gap.

Mrs. George Gettig and son Carl left for Pittsburgh a few days ago, where they will spend a week or ten days, after which they expect to make a tour of a number of Ohio towns expecting to be absent for several weeks.

The Children's day services on Sunday last proved a decided success. The Methodist church was packed to over-flowing and several hundred were turned away, unable to even obtain standing room; the youngsters acquitted themselves admirably well, their recitations and dialogues were delivered in a most satisfactory way.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hoover have been highly favored with a group of congenial visitors. Mrs. E. B. Heick-man, of Philadelphia, who has been critically ill, is stopping with friends for a time with a view of recuperating; W. A. Bigelow, Mrs. Win Cummings and son and Mr. Henry and lady friend all of Altoona, were over Sunday visitors with the Hoov-

Pleasant Gap was well represented at the automobile races at Tipton, Saturday last. Among the number were Samuel Noll and wife and Sammy Jr., Ward Showers and wife, Miss Marion Gettig and friend of Oak Hall; Raymond Melroy and wife, Henry Noll and wife, Arthur Bohn, Farry Hockenberry, George Hile, Harry Meyers, Herbert Hockenberry and wife, Andrew Beahm, Ammon Baird, Ray Noll and friend, Ed. Sommers and wife, Reeder Jodon, Lloyd Sampsel and wife. Clair Hazel and wife, and Earl Weaver. All seemed to agree that they got value received for the time of their absence.

An Appeal for Help.

To the friends of the A. M. E. church in Bellefonte.

Dear Friends:

The pastor and officers of the A. M. E. church in this community have come to the ministers to take council about the financial affairs of their church.

After making a canvass of the congregation, they find that they can raise about $1200.00, which leaves them facing a deficit of $500.00. The be eligible to membership they must ministers feel in full sympathy with our friends in the A. M. E. church, The first impressive part of the project under the direction of the and desire to assist them as much as possible.

We, therefore, recommend Rev. W. making a personal canvass of the community. We trust that they will be able to discover the full amount in the liberal hands of the people of this place, who surely appreciate the good work done this year.

All money is to be paid to Mr. James H. Potter, the treasurer of

> E. E. McKELVEY, President. FRANK B. HACKETT, Secretary,

-Announcement has been made of the marriage on June 11th of Miss Eleanor V. Lucas, of Tyrone, and Thann E. Spicer, of Bellefonte, the wedding having taken place in the Washington Presbyterian church, New York city, Rev. B. Allen Reed officiat-

-The American Legion Auxiliary will hold a festival on the Brant house lawn, on Saturday evening, June 28th.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

G ARAGES FOR RENT.—Room for 1 car in each. Apply at this office.

OOMS FOR RENT.—Two finely fur-nished rooms for men, at Belle-fonte Y. M. C. A. 69-22-tf

PROTESTANT MEN—Wanted to assist organizer of Fraternal Order in Bellefonte and vicinity. Spare time. Liberal commission. Membership free to those who qualify. Write P. O. Box 583, Altoona. 69-25-2t *

Box 583, Altoona.

A MENDMENT OF CHARTER.—In the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, Pa. No. 48 September Term, 1924.

Notice is hereby given that an application will be made to the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, Pa., in the above stated matter, on the fourteenth day of July, 1924, at ten o'clock, A. M., or as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, for the approval and granting of certain amendments to the charter of THE BELLE-FONTE HOSPITAL, including the change of its corporate name to "CENTRE COUNTY HOSPITAL", as set forth in the petition therefor filed in the said Court to the above mentioned number and term, agreeably to the provisions of the "Corporation Act of 1874", and its supplements.

BLANCHARD & BLANCHARD, BLANCHARD & BLANCHARD, burg, Mass. Mr. Metcalf is an expert electrician and motor mechanic. He will conduct a regular exchange, buying and selling used cars of all makes.

—Click!

25-1t

—Following a week of liberal patronage the Harry Copping shows pulled out of Bellefonte at 8:20 o'clock on Sunday morning for Patton.

Governor Pinchot on Saturday appointed Miss Carolyn Dale, of State

Solictors.

OTICE IN DIVORCE.—Madaline A.

Bell, Libellant, vs. Edward V. Bell, Respondent. In the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County. No. 109 December Term, 1923. In Re Divorce.

To Edward V. Bell, Respondent:

Whereas your wife, Madaline A. Bell, sfiled a Libel in divorce in the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, Praying for a divorce against you. And now you the first Monday of July, 1924, to answer the complaint of your wife, Madaline A.

Bell, Libellant, vs. Edward V. Bell, Respondent:

Whereas your wife, Madaline A. Bell, and to show cause, if any, you have why the said Madaline A. Bell should not be divorced from the bonds of matrimony entered into with you, and in default of such appearance you will be liable to have a divorce granted in your absence.

E. R. TAYLOR, Sheriff. E. R. TAYLOR, Sheriff.

Sheriff's Office, Bellefonte, Pa., June 9th, 1924.

June 9th, 1924.

Divorce Notice.—Jennie McCracken, in the court of Common Pleas of Centre Courty. No. 47, December Term, 1923.
To George McCrecken, Respondent:
You are hereby notified that I, the undersigned, have been appointed Master by the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County to take the testimony in the above stated case, in which your wife, Jennie McCracken, has brought suit against you for an absolute divorce on the grounds desertion and report the same to Court together with my findings of facts, opinion and recommendation in said case; and for the purpose of performing the duties of my appointment I will meet all parties interested at my office in the Thompson Building on west High street in the borough of Bellefonte, Centre county, Pennsylvania, at 10 o'clock a. m., June 23rd, 1924, at which time and place you may appear with your witnesses and be heard if you so desire.

ARTHUR C. DALE, 69-23-3t

ARTHUR C. DALE, Master. 69-23-3t

